When Japan makes terms with China and gives attention to the arts of peace It is more than likely that she will distinguish herself in various branches of manufacture, for the people are naturally industrious and ingenious. The great meed of China is leadership, and perhaps at will be the mission of Japan to open new fields for cheap Chinese labor at

INFORMATION of a semi-official character is given that it has been decided to create a new office of the highest rank in the Protestant Episcopal church in this country. It is to have the title of primus, but, further than this, no information is given, as the proceedings of the commission to revise the constitution of the church are kept rigidly secret. The primus would, of course, be elected by the House of Bishops, and the suggestion is made that Washington, as the capital of the country, should be the see of the primus.

THE fact that a man like Senator Sherman has deemed it his duty to denounce Mr. Cleveland's secret bond deal is significant. Mr. Sherman is not in the habit of indulging in severe language, and in addition he would be the last person to throw any obstacle in the way of preserving and fortifying the nation's credit. Moreover, the Ohio Senator has shown on more than one occasion a disposition to defend the Administration against misrepresentation on the part of extreme silver men. His denunciation of the claudestine bond sale, therefore, will carry great weight.

EX GOVERNOR ROBERT E. PATTISON WAS until Tuesday the most likely Democratic candidate for the Presidency. His campaign for Mayor of Philadelphia was surewdly managed by Mr. Harrity, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, and the campaign took on nazional coloring. But the prestige of the ex Governor and the national chairman availed but little against the hard sense of the people, and Mr. Pattison finds bimself overwhelmed by a tremendous Republican majority. If there was anything left of the Democratic party of Grover Cleveland, Free Trade and other iff alse preten es, this crushing blow would finish it. But the Democratic party is done for and the ceremony in Philadelphia yesterday was but a part of the last urad rites.

STUBBORN AFRICAN QUESTIONS.

The British Ambassadar Sees No Reason for Becoming Morbidly Excited Over a Country That Promises So Little for Humanity and Progress

LONDON, Feb. 23 .- A dispatch to The Times from Paris says that at a banque given by the British chamber of commerce of that city Lord Dufferin, the British am bassador, made a long speech, in the cours of which he said:

"In spite of certain current criticisms in a portion of the French press, never since my arrival here three years ago have the relations of France and Great Britain been more friendly and obviously conciliatory on both sides than now.

With reference to the stubborn African questions waiting solution Lord Dufferin said he falled to see why France and Great Britain should become merbidly excited over them. Africa, he added, is certainly not the home of the pagoda tree, nor are Jason's golden fleeces to be found on every bush. Had it been otherwise the continent would not have lain in darkness so many centuries, with human beings its only export. He wished the explorers of Africa every success, but doubted whether the country would prove such an El Do rado as the imagination of Europe seems disposed to picture it. Africa undoubt edly possesses sheep walks in the south and gold reefs. The latter were often the cause of more shipwrecks than those be low water. He trusted, however, that they might help to rehabilitate the rupee.

The main patent fact to remember i that the great mass of the inhabitants live under the primitive conditions of a tropical climate. Ladies there do not require petticoats or even "knickers," if they have no money to buy them. Trading with such communities was not likely t return a hundred per cent. These consid erations should induce all nations to dis-cuss African territorial questions when ever they come in collision in a temperate philosophical spirit.

"A sore broke out on the sukle bone, and for 10 months the aged writer suffered day and night beyond the power of words to express. A friend advised me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. I had no faith that nay medicine would help me, but suffering as I did I thought I would try it, and purchased some, also a box of Dr. David Kennedy's Salt Rheum Cream. I used these medicines but a short time, when my limb began to heal. I will further add, among the many medicines I have tried for a diseased liver and kidneys, none has ever proved so helpful to me as Favorite Remedy. By atimulating and strengthening the enfeebled organs, even the encroachments of advanced age seem to be checked by its invigorating power.

"I have thoroughly tested its true worth, and I know whereof I affirm, hoping all who read will profit thereby, as the aged writer has, by using Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, been given very comfortable health for a person 70 years of age.
