Ex-Priest Slattery Karrowly Es capes the Fury of a Mob.

MILITIAMEN PREVENT BLOODSHED

Mobs Surround the Lecture Hall and Break in the Windows-Dispersed at the Point of the Bayonet-Savannah's Determined Mayor Acted Fromptly.

SAVANNAH, Feb. 27.-Last night was the most exciting night in the history of Sa-vannah. For five hours the city trembled on the verge of religious riots. The entire white military force of the city except the artillery has been on duty. There are ten infantry companies and the Georgia Hussars, the latter being dismounted. A mob of from 3,000 to 5,000, the greater part being Catholics, challenged their forbearance to the extreme. But for the coolness of Mayor Herman Myers and the officers commanding the troops bloed might have been the result. Bayonet charges were several times to clear the streets made but the mob which had gathered about Masonic Temple, one of the principal buildings of the city and situated in the heart of Savannah, stubbornly refused to retire. For three days it had been apparent that grave trouble was brewing. The city had been liberally placarded with notices that ex-Priest Slattery and his wife, de scribed as an ex-nun, would lecture here on Catholicism. Members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians at once took steps to prevent their appearance here. Petitions were circulated asking Mayor Myers to refuse to permit the ex-priest to hold his lecture. The petition said that if Slattery was allowed to speak there would be disorder and riot. About 500 signed the pe tition. When the petition was presented to the mayor by a committee of twelve Catholles, including the presidents of two di-visions of the A. O. H., he handed them a written opinion from the corporation at-corney to the effect that he, as mayor, had no power to abridge the right of free ch guaranteed by the constitution o the United States and Georgia. In his opinion the city attorney said that there could be no disorder or trouble if those who would be offended by Slattery's remarks would stay away from his lecture. He urged all to do so. Mayor Myers also asked the committee to advise all Catholics to keep away from the lecture. "I cannot stop this man from lecturing." said the mayor, who is a Hebrew, "but can prevent disorder, and I will do so. If the police are not sufficient force to do so the military will be appealed to Riot will not be tolerated."

The committee stated that it was their desire to avoid trouble, and that they would use their influence in that direction. They did so, but their efforts utterly failed. All day yesterday it had been rumored that mobs would come from different sec-tions of the city, and that Slattery would be killed. The fact that he was to put on the garb of a priest in the course of his lecture spread like wildfire, and raised an intense feeling among Catholics. Mayor Myers issued instructions to Chief McDermott to have the entire available police force on hand at Masonic Temple. Fifteen ollcemen were stationed inside the hall, ad thirty others were massed in front. By 7 o'clock several hundred had collected. When Slattery arrived the mob-had not assumed large enough propertions to cope with the police. By 8 o'clock a howling mob of over fifteen hundred surrounded Masonic Temple. In the hall were an audience of about four hundred, including a number of ladies. The lec-turer had hardly begun before bricks and obblestones began to rain on the win lows. The police had closed all the heavy inside shutters, thus saving the audience from injury, only two or three heing in-jured by flying glass. The rest of the poice force was called out and fifty officers were soon in front of the hall.

The mob made rushes to secure an en trance, but were driven back time after time by the police. Before 9 o'clock the oh had grown to probably between thre and four thousand people. Window after window in the Masonic Temple was crashed, Cries of "Kill him," "Down with Slattery," "Death to the renegade," were heard. Chief McDermott summoned the ""Death to the renegade," were mayor. The lecture closed at 9:30 o'clock, and it was apparent that it meant the loss of many lives for the lecturer and the autience to leave the hall. Upstairs a number of members of secret organizations who had cheered Slattery's leclaration that he belonged to them had gathered around the ex-priest to defend him as they left the hall. A number, it was evident, had come armed in antici-pation of such trouble. As the ex-priest was about to leave the hall with his friends, the chief of police stopped them and refused to allow any one to go down stairs. Outside Mayor Myers and Colonel William Garrard were in consultation The mob hissed at the police and hooted at The mob hissed at the points and nooced at their orders to disperse. The military alarm was sent in, but when it sounded the mob deried it. "Bring on your mili-tary," some of the leaders should. "To h_____i with them, they cannot save Slattery. Very soon there were cloven companies in front of the hall, with fixed bayonets and rifles loaded with ball and cartridges. By order of the mayor the guards formed in two single lines and charged the mob with fixed bayonets in hope of breaking it The mob was showed back slowly, but re used to break, and occasional rocks were brown at the hall. The mob was suffer ad defant, and apparently determined. The military were then deployed so as to drive the mob back and form a hollow square about the hall. Then Captain J H. Dillon, one of the most prominent Catholies of the city, brought Vicar Gen-eral Cafferty to the scene of the trouble. H. The vicar general addressed a portion of the mob, saying they were bringing disgrace upon their religion and pleading with them to disperse and go home and not render it necessary to shed blood. few of those he addressed shook the vicar general by the hand and left, but the majority of them stood still. Major Mildrim and others urged the mob to disporse, but to no purpose. With a double line of sol-diers a block was formed, and while the rest of the military kept the crowd back. nearly all of the audience passed out of the hall amid hisses. Four companies of soldiers were then banked about the door of the hall with the police, and Slattery was brought down. As he came out with eight policemen and the mayor there was a howl from the mob, but the other military charged bayonets and pushed it back in all directions. Slattery was placed in the center of the milltary and, headed by a detachment of mounted police and with foot police on the tides, the course operators of infant/s course how a good peers matched to the Pu Instit House, followed by hundreds. Shit ory was so buried in the midet of the not key that the mole could not see him Word had gone among them that any re-sanit would be promotly not with bullets At the hotel a nieb of five or six hundred had gathered. The military made a solid mass in front of the entrance, presented cyonets, and Stattery walked in unin-

A large detachment of pollee was left at the hotel to gnard him over night. At the hall the other seven companies re-mained as a guard to Mrs. Slattery and to prevent further damage to property. Finding that Slattery had gone the mob largely dwindled away. Mrs. Slattery was placed in a carriage later in the night and, with a strong force of police, taken to the hotel. During the excitement several policemen were injured so hadly that they had to be sent home. Several of the military were wounded by being struck by rocks. Slattery's manager was knocked senseless with a sendle-sendless with a sandbag.

Mrs. Slattery is booked for a lecture to women this afternoon and Slattery for a lecture to men tonight. Threats are made that they will be driven from the city.

Congressmen Working Up a Plan to Unite the Silver Forces

AGAINST THE SINGLE STANDARD.

They May Issue an Address to Democrats Warning Them Against the Election of Gold Mon as Delegates to the Next Natioual Convention of the Party.

WASHINGTON, Fob. 27 .- Routine matters on the floor of the house are overshadowed in interest by the initiation of a brisk movement to secure a majority of the Democratic membership in favor of a financial policy having the free coinage o silver for its keynote. For some time there has been a discussion carried on by the free silver leaders of the party over the practicability of a plan to unite their forces and to erystallize their ideas into some sort of a platform or declaration The net result of these deliberations has been the draft of a declaration addressed "To the Democrats of the United States," and outlining a financial policy for the Democratic party. This paper has been circulated on the Democratic side of the house, and is being vigorously dis-cussed, with the object of obtaining the consensus of opinion of silver Democrats upon its expressions.

The chief instigators of the movement are Messrs, Bland of Missouri, Bryan of Nebraska, Sibley of Pennsylvania and Coffeen of Wyoming. Their paper is at present but a tentative expression, they say, and not yet in form for publication, since none of its details has been definitely agreed upon. In substance it states the financial policy of the party to be for the free coinage of gold and silver on terms of equality, at the ratio of 16 to 1, for the issue of all paper money by the government without the intervention of banks, and opposition to any issue of interest bearing bonds without the author-ity of a special act of congress.

Attention is called to a movement said to be under way through the efforts of the opponents of free silver in the party to se ure the election of gold men as delegate to party conventions, and particularly to the next national convention for the nom ination of a single gold standard man for the presidency. Democrats are urged to oppose the movement and to see to it that none but free silver men are elected to po-sitions of influence in the party and to epresent them in all conventions

If the support of a majority of the party in congress can be pledged to a financial platform it is intended to issue the manifesto to the Democrats of the United States within a few days. At present the decla ration is in but a formative stage, Mr Bryan says, and it is intended to secure the views of members and make such changes in it as the majority of them may dictate. There is a possibility that they may not be able to agree upon any form of address, because considerable diversity of opinion has developed apon the details of

But few eastern members have been ap proached, and the Populists are entirely ignored, with the expectation that they will come into the Democratic party if it declares for free silver. How far this canvass has been inspired by the meeting of the executive committee of the bimetallic league it is impossible to say, for, while the prime movers say that their plan is entirely independent of the league, it is noticed that they are men who have been dmitted to the councils of that body dur
