BRILLIANT WEDDING.

Miss Bertha Wasley and Abner Powell Married To-day.

IT WAS A PRETTY AFFAIR.
The Parlor of the Wasley Homestead on South White Street Turned into a Bower of Beauty.

A pretty wedding took place at one o'clock this afternoon at the Wasley homestead, on South White street. The bride was Miss Bertha Wasley, daughter of Mrs. Jonathan Wasley, and the bridegroom Charles Abner Powell, a former resident of this place now located at New Orleans, La., and a brother of Joseph C. Powell, one of the editors of the Wilkes Barre Record. The wedding took place in the front parlor of the residence, which was profusely dressed with ferns, palms, smilax, hyacinths and cut flowers. The bride was attired in a dress of white faille and a well held up by orange blossoms. Miss Emma A. Wasley, of Swarthmore College, and sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Miss Edith Acker the flower girl. The bridesmaid wore chiffon over a pearl silk and Miss Acker was attired in white silk trimmed with ribbon and plaited chiffon. The bride's cousin, Harry M. Wasley, was the groomsmen. The ushers were George H. Krick and George H. Ketter, Jr. Rev. J. Richard Boyle, D. D., who was an intimate friend of the late Jonathan Wasley, father of the bride, and was formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, of this town, but now pastor of the Franklin street Methodist Episcopal church at Wilkes Barre, officiated at the ceremony. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played by Mrs. W. N. Ehrhart, and during and subsequent to the reception music was furnished in an apartment adjoining the parlors by the Schoppe orchestra of ten pieces. The marriage ceremony was followed by an elaborate dinner served by Schofer, of Reading. Five colored waiters were in attendance. The presents were numerous and very handsome and costly. Among them were an olive dish, two sets of salts, pepper cruets, vinegar cruets, three vases, two berry dishes, water bottle, dozen tumblers, water pitcher and butter plate, all in cut glass; a princess lamp, ice cream service, dozen after dinner cups and saucers, chopp plate, vase, dollies, silver nut basket, two celery dishes, silver fruit bowl, china fruit basket, silver bon bon spoon, silver tea service, silver ice-pitcher, silver tray, silver syrup pitcher, silver butter dish, silver soap box, silver butter knife, two silver sugar shells, silver almond spoon, sugar tongs, pearl handled fruit knives, two dozen solid silver spoons, one dozen solid silver after dinner coffee spoons, ten dollars, mustard spoon, salad fork, hand-painted china clock, hand-painted celery dish, half dozen hand-painted fruit dishes, blankets, table linen, tea-table cover, drawn work tidy, pictures, pillow shams, Bohemian glass vase, bon-bon, china bread plate, gravy bowl, carving sets, set of china dishes, silver button hook, silver nail file, silver bread tray, three sets of cut glass cruets, one and a half dozen silver spoons.

Among the guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Blaklee, Mr. A. Mitchell Blaklee, Mr. J. Irwin Blaklee, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund B. Hunter and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. H. Butler, Delano; Miss Carrie E. Beamish, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Shaw, West Pittston; Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Williams, New York; Miss Millie Giering, Easton; Mr. W. H. Lewis and Miss Maud Lewis, Wm. Penn; Miss Carrie W. Faust, Scranton; Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Daddow and Mr. S. H. Daddow, St. Clair; Miss Kate E. Sterner, Pottsville; Mrs. Emily Hoffman and Miss Hoffman, Reading; Miss Kluge and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kunkel and daughter, Easton; Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Biddle, Fountain Springs; Miss May Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. John R. Lamb and Miss May Brown, Wilkes-Barre; George Glover, Dudley, N. J.; Misses Sallie and Louise Brenz, Lansdowne, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ketter and Miss Hattie Wasley, Bloomsburg; Misses Addie F. Berry and Misses Steelman and Davis, Philadelphia; George Goodman, Mahanoy City; and the following residents of Shenandoah: Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Kelm, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Price, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Wasley, Mr. and Mrs. George Folmer, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Davenport, Rev. and Mrs. William Powick, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Acker, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Ehrhart, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baird and daughter, Nellie, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Doherty, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Swalm, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. M. Hoppeter and Miss Hoppeter, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. Kistler, Mrs. Annie Wasley and family, Mrs. John R. Jones, and Miss Hattie Jones, Mrs. William Grant and Miss Grant, Mrs. T. B. Fielders, Mrs. Jane Cather, Misses Hattie L. Hess, Laura and May Folmer, Maggie and Mattie Powell, Ruby Yost, Kathryn Glover, Ida C. Lewis and Anna and Margaret Dengler, and Messrs. H. H. Zullek, L. A. Bamberger, George H. Krick and Harry M. Wasley; Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Boyer.

The wedding was one of the most fashionable events seen at this place for many a day. Mr. and Mrs. Powell left town on the 4:10 Pennsylvania railroad train for the honeymoon trip, which will include visits to Philadelphia and Washington. From the latter place they will go to New Orleans and make their home in that city.

HELPING THE POOR OF TOWN

Charitable Steps Being Taken in Many Quarters.

A CONCERT TO BE GIVEN
Prominent Citizens Form a Committee to Help the Project Along—Good Work of the Five Cent Club.

Active steps for the relief of the deserving poor are being taken in many quarters of the town. Among the latest is a movement to hold a grand concert in Ferguson's theatre on Thursday, March 14th. It has been started upon the suggestion of Prof. F. Zeltz, and a committee of prominent and responsible citizens have been placed in charge. They are John J. Bradigan, Thomas Baird, William M. Brewer, P. J. Ferguson, J. S. Callen, M. D., Charles Radzewicz, Daniel Lauderman, C. M. Bordner, D. D. S., D. W. Straub, M. D., A. T. Jones, Philip Biermann, P. J. Gaughan, Charles E. Titman, W. N. Stein, M. D., and H. A. Swalm. The officers of the committee are P. J. Ferguson, president; J. Spencer Callen, vice president; C. M. Bordner, secretary; William M. Brewer, treasurer. Prof. F. Zeltz, Philip Bierman, John J. Bradigan and Charles Radzewicz have been appointed a committee on music. The price of admission to the concert will be placed at the low price of 25 cents and reserved seats will be sold at 10 cents extra. The chart will be opened at Kirlin's drug store.

The movement of the Five Cent Club, instituted by the "Ys," has met with most gratifying success and Miss Priscilla Smith, who has charge of the work, finds trouble in keeping up with it. The Five Cent Club solicits weekly contributions of 5 cents a week for the relief of the poor. It has been in active operation about ten days. During that time twelve dollars have been collected, although but four of the twelve collectors have thus far reported. The result has exceeded the most sanguine expectations of the projectors.

During the past ten days sixteen families have been reported in distress to Miss Smith and she has made seventeen visits. In some instances there have been mistakes in giving addresses and the visitor has not been able to locate the reported families, and three or four cases have been found in which aid was not deserving. Miss Smith says that while many of the families were in need of food, the most of them suffer most from want of clothing. Anyone wishing to make contributions can send them to Miss Smith, in care of Mrs. S. G. M. Hoppeter, 24 South White street. Two families were found in great distress. One consisted of a woman and eight children and another of a widow of two months and two children.

The Five Cent Club exercises every precaution before disposing of its funds to applicants and none are relieved until their cases are investigated. This rule is made imperative by past experience. Not long ago a resident of East Oak street gave a woman who applied for relief a barrel of flour and a quantity of clothing for herself and husband. A few days after the woman was seen drunk on the streets. In distributing relief the club takes the greatest pains to avoid being imposed upon by such people.

Adrich Buried.
Felix Adrich, one of the victims of the explosion at the Wm. Penn colliery, was buried to-day. The funeral was attended by the Guards of Warsaw and Citizens Polish Society and was a very large one. The Wm. Penn band furnished the marching music for the societies. Services were held in the Polish Roman Catholic church, on North Jardin street, and the remains were interred in the Polish cemetery.

Will Lecture.
Dr. John Szlupas, formerly of this town, and now of Scranton, has been called by the local Society of Science to deliver lectures in Robbins' opera house to-morrow, Saturday and Sunday evenings, in the Lithuanian language. He will arrive here to-morrow. His first lecture will be on "The Origin, Present State and Future of Nations."

Important Notice.
Notice is hereby given to all parties who have left watches at my place for repairs that if they are not called for on or before March 30, 1895, they will be considered forfeited and sold at auction to the highest bidder. All work ordered of me will be executed at once. Yost, Jeweler, 102 North Main street. 2-26-ap11

New Firm.
Ambrose and Lawson Cherrington have formed a co-partnership and will purchase the business of C. W. Newhouse. They will open their place of business about March first. Ambrose Cherrington is now employed at Ketter's store and his brother, Lawson, is at Broughall's.

Good Opening Offered.
The stock and good will of an established hat and cap and gents' furnishing store. Best location in Shenandoah. Good reason for selling. Address letters to "H," HERALD office.

Candidate for Supervisor.
As an old resident of Shenandoah I am applicant for appointment as Supervisor, giving assurance of faithful service.
2-25-95 THOMAS MANSELL.

No Caucus Required.
One of the Citizens members of the Borough Council said to-day: "There will be no trouble in effecting an organization of Council next Monday night. Everything will pass off harmoniously. No caucus will be required, for that matter."

At Short Notice.
Anything in the eating line in market at the Scheffly House.

Special Council Meeting.
A special meeting of the Borough Council will be held to-night to hear and take action on the engineer's report concerning the extent and effect of the break in the breastwork of the reservoir at Davis' Run. This will be the last meeting of the old Council previous to Monday night, when it will again convene to adjourn sine die and make room for the new Council to organize.

POLITICAL POINTS.

What the Local Politicians of Both Parties Are Doing.

Senator Landis' American flag bill is the proper thing.
There won't be so many rebel brigadiers in the next Congress.
Governor Hastings shows a disposition to wield a ready veto pen.
Hon. Seth Orme, of St. Clair, cuts quite a figure in Harrisburg.
Lawyer Lyon, of Mahanoy City, would have made a good Ophanus' Court Judge.
It is said Major Losen smiled loudly when he heard of the fate of the Orphan's Court bill.
County Chairman Durd Payne is going into the newspaper business. We wish him luck; there's millions in it.
Representative Wyant cannot be blamed that his company store bill was given a quietus. He says he will resurrect it.
Governor Hastings seems to know where he is at. Lobbyists are not making much headway at Harrisburg this year.
Tom Reed is heading up again as the coming Bear. He will not need to beat about the bush to count a quorum in the next House.
The Democrats would like to see an extra session of Congress called in order that the Republicans might help shoulder the hard times.
It does not look as if Loch, Whitehouse, Gressang, et al., had been retired to oblivion. They seem to be at the top of the heap just now.
The Democrats expect that the trouble between Lawyers Seltzer and Brumma will furnish them plenty of campaign thunder for the next election.
Look for a great revival in business after the adjournment of the present Congress. Manufacturers will breathe more freely and have confidence for the future. The Republican party is their safeguard.
The Crawford county system of making nominations was very successful in Shenandoah and Mahanoy City, and some of the other towns in the county are anxious to try it. The county organization should also adopt the plan.
