Exciting Scenes at the Might Session of the Senate.

CHANDLER AREAIGNS DEMOCRATS

And In Turn the New Hampshire Senator Is Vigorously Scored by Scuators Hill and Martin-Described as a "Hyens" and

WASHINGTON, March 1.-The senate passed the sundry civil appropriation bill yestorday, including the Item appropriat-ing over $5,000,000 for sugar bountles and the provision for a commission to repre sent the United States at an international nonetary conference. The latter feature brought out a wide difference of opinion among the silver men of the senate as to the advisability of participating in an in-ternational conference. Mr. Stewart, of Nevada, sought to have the United States delegates instructed not to make any agreement short of a recognition of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. This was opposed by Mr. Wolcott, who has always hereto fore co-operated with Mr. Stewart on the silver question, and was defeated.

The senate chamber was the scene of an extraordinary demonstration at the night session, beginning with very sensational speeches and culminating with an exchange of personal epithets almost with out parallel in the history of the senate.

Mr. Chandler personally arraigned many Democratic senators. Mr. Hill responded, characterizing Mr. Chandler as a hyena for having dug up the private records of Senator Roach.

Mr. Martin, who had been arraigned by Mr. Chander, replied with intense bitterness, characterizing Mr. Chandler as a "buzzard," and declaring that if half was true that was charged against him he should be in the penitentiary instead of the United States senate. At times there was great confusion and excitement in the galleries, and the vice president threatened to clear the galleries. The mingled con-fusion, debate and excitement on the floor of the senate and in the galleries lasted until after midnight.

At 18:25 this morning the legislative. executive and judicial appropriation bill was passed, and the senate then adjourned. The rush of the closing hours of con-gress showed itself yesterday in the miscellaneous character of the business trans acted. An attempt to pass a bill to pen-sion Hiram Rhea, an alleged member of the Tenth regiment, South Carolina mounted infantry, over the veto of the president failed by 96 to 153, both the veto and the report of the secretary of the in-terior showing that Rhea was alleged to have been at the time he was wounded a member of an armed band of Confederate guerrilas. The house by a vote of 115 to 150 decided to further insist on its disagreement to the senate amendment to the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill providing for the Hawalian cable. The house also again refused to take up the Williams-Settle contested election case.

Turkish Atrocities Further Confirmed.

LONDON, March 1 .- The correspondent at Tiflis, Russian Transcaucasia, of The Daily Graphic has gathered and sent to that paper full details of the recent massacre of Armenians by Turks and Kurds. His story, which was obtained from Armenian refugees, confirms the worst de-tails of the outrages, including the statement concerning the pit in the village of Djellegoozan. The correspondent declares were bayoneted by the Turks and theh bodies thrown into the pit. Many of the victims were still alive when they were east in, but they were buried with the

Farmer Jones Gets a Nap

ELWOOD, Ind., March 1.-David Jones a prominent farmer near here, has broken the record for sleeplessness. He has had no sleep now for 152 days and nights until within the past few days. He lost a few pounds of flesh, but continued to work every day. Last Friday he began to feel drowsy, and during the night he slept half an hour. This has increased a little more every night since. His last full night's rest occurred Sept. 23 last.

A Haven for Prize Fighters.

GUTHRIE, O. T., March 1.—The house esterday passed Representative Little's bill for the promotion of athletic sports which allows sparring matches and prize fights. The council today passed the bill as unanimously as the house, where only two votes were against it. This will open the territory to Corbett and Fitzsimmons and any other national champions with out fear of interference.

To say that the state of Virginia rematter mildly. The prosecuting attorney Mr. W. Seymour White, received in twenty minutes after the verdict was known the following telegram from Gov ernor Charles T. O'Ferrall: "Congratule tions on your splendid prosecution. Train robbers will seek some other state for their nefarious work. Virginia jurios will uphold the law."

The jury was out only ten minutes. The judge asked Morgan if he had anything to say why sentence should not be pro-nounced. Half-raising himself he said: "! was not ready for trial. I had no idea would be tried at this term of the court. I was not physically or mentally in condition to be tried, and did not want to be tried in this condition.

Mesers. Shay and Little, his counsel, at once moved for a new trial The commonwealth then announced that it was ready to try Charles J. Searcey. Searcey was brought into court and asked for a continuance, which was granted.

Morgan has now been convicted of the crime of robbery on one indictment. There are four others pending against him.

Chicago's Matrimonial Sensation.

Chicago, March 1.—A romantic story which is agitating ultra-fashionable circles in Chicago is developed by the hurried marriage at Milwaukee Wednesday night of Miss May Belle Benson and Allen L. Howard. Miss Benson, who lived with her mother on Michigan boulevard, Thirtieth street, and is a member of one of the exclusive society sets in the city had for some time been engaged to Seth A. Crane, a prominent New York society man and well known official of the New York Central railroad. The marriage was to have occurred last Monday night, the invitations were out. Upon Mr. Crane's arrival Miss Benson confessed to him that ber affections had been given to young Howard, at the same time professing he willingness to marry Crane if he insisted. Crane released her from the engagement.

Killed White Resisting Arrest.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 28.-About 4 o'clock restorday afternoon the wife of Louis Stolzensberger, a saloonkeeper at 429 Cen tral avenue, got a police court warrant for her husband for abusing his family. Court Officer Dick Morris went to make the ar-rest. Stolzensberger ran into the street, and drawing a revolver he shot Morris in the right breast, probably fatally. He then took refuge in a house. An hour later Patrolman Fred W. Shafer went to arrest him. Stolzensberger came out and fired twice at Shafer, missing him. Shafer fired once, sending a bullet through the madman's neck, and killing him in his

ANTI-CATHOLICS ARE ORGANIZING

The Ex-Priest Declares His Intention to Remain in Savannah Until He Can Walk the Streets Without a Police Escort -A

SAVANNAIL March L-There has been another day and night of intense excit ment in Savannah. Feeling seems to run high, though there were no hostilities yesterday. In the afternoon Mrs. Slattery ectured to 600 women in Odd Fellow hall. She and her husband were escorted to the hall by officers. Many of the ladies at the lecture were escorted to the hall by their husbands. Police were stationed in the square on which the hall fronts, and on the streets. No one was allowed to loiter about the building. Toward the clos of the lecture crowds collected in the vicin ity, and Slattery and his wife were followed to their hotel by hundreds.

Last night Odd Fellows' hall was crowded to its limit, and many were turned away. Fully a thousand men were in the hall, and it is understood that a large proportion were armed. On all sides were heard saying that they were ready for a mob. Outside the hall the en tire police force, with the exception of a few men scattered through the audience, were distributed so as to command the en tire vicinity of the hall. The police kept continually on the move, and no crows was allowed to congregate near the build

Inside the hall there was a scene of en thuslasm. Slattery received an ovation and throughout his lecture he was applauded and cheered when he declared that the riot Tuesday night had shown the no essity of Protestant organization. The wild cheering lasted several minutes and was vigorously resumed when he said:
"Get the A. P. A. or the Junior Order of United American Mechanics, and you will have no more such demonstrations against free speech. We must meet the Ancient Order of Hibernians with the American Protective association, and show them that it is not necessary to get their permis sion to have a lecture in Savannah

Slattery then declared that he was not here in the interest of the A. P. A., but that after the riot he had wired the na tional president and an organizer would be here in twenty-four hours.

This was received with more cheers. At the close of the lecture there were three cheers given for Slattery, and many went forward and signed a paper promising to unite with either of the orders he had mentioned. Slattery was escorted back to the hotel by a large body of police. Several hundred of those who had heard him followed to assist in protecting him. While there were many people on the streets to the hotel there was no demonstration made against the ex-priest, exept hisses.

Slattery announced last night that he intended to remain in Savannah until he could walk its streets without police protection. His presence here will keep up the excitement, which has been intensified by the announcement that the A. P. A organization would be perfected at once Conservative men on both sides deplore the existing situation.

Fifteen of the men said to have been prominent in the troubles of Tuesday night were arrested yesterday. Four of them were tried, of whom three were sent to jail for thirty days. Other arrests are

Death from Starvation.

Philadelphia, March 1. — Lambert Deakons, aged 50 years, literally died from starvation at his bare and coupty home, 2401 North Twenty-fourth street, yesterday. When discovered by neighbors he was speechless from hunger, and by the time a doctor arrived he was dead. In an adjoining room lay the almost lifeless body of his wife, who is now in a critical condition. She was barely able to say that they had eaten nothing for several days. A few weeks ago Deakons fell ill, lost his work, and was finally forced to his bed. They were penniless, but he strenuously forbade his wife from seeking charity Eventually the neighbors missed them, and when the discovery was made pro visions and medicines came in plenty, too late for the old man and possibly his wife. The rooms were entirely bare of furniture.
