Evening Herald

TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1895.

Not content with drawing on our gold supply, Europe is also making arrangements to draw on our Gould supply. But we can stand it.

HAVING tried a fat man for Postmaster General with indifferent success, Mr. Cleveland will now try a lean one, and in a likelihood with no better result. The physical attributes of a Cabinet officer are not everything.

It is already conceded that Mr. Cleveland is the logical Candidate for the Democratic nomination for President in 1896. In other words, having wrecked his party, he is the man who should be compelled to sit up and watch the ruins.

If the "institution" slavery still existed on American soil the Democracy would doubtless be a unit in favor of annexing Hawaii. The Democratic policy of territorial expansion seems to have been abandoned about the time that human bondage disappeared in the fires of war.

SOME of the Democratic newspapers are advising their readers not to get discouraged and jump out of the Democratic frying pan into the McKinley fire. But the people never suffered from the McKinley fire. It warmed them as they sat by it; it glowed brightly and shone on peace and plenty. They were prosperous then, and many of them now have neither a fire nor anything to put into a frying pan.

CONGRESS adjourned at noon yesterday and, to quote a familiar phrase, it was "Good riddance to bad rubbish." Its death will not be regretted, and by none less than the President of the United States. As for the country at large, there will be universal rejoicing, for it cannot be said that even the Democratic party, that brought it into being, is satisfied with its work. The misery it has entailed upon the country is incalculable. It has truly been an object lesson that can be avoided in the future, if the people will not fail to remember the doings of the majority that now rules in the Capital at Washington. There is little, very little, to the credit of the present Congress—hardly anything good that is worth remembering.

As explosions and avalanches lay bare the underlying rock, so great commercial disasters teach things which in ordinary times may not be discovered. The financial history of the last two years will therefore remain of deep interest to those who wish not merely to theorize about, but really to understand, economic problems. One of these is that the injury resulting from a prostration of manufactures is shared to the full by the farmers. It ought not to surprise them to learn that, after a tariff revolution brought about largely by votes of farmers, on the ground that Protection robbed them of the benefit of the manufacturers, and after the enactment of a new tariff by the representatives whom they elected with the express purpose of giving the farmers an advantage, their own products have declined in value more than the products of manufacture. Next, it may be learned that the workingmen who vote for a change in a time of general prosperity inflict greater injury upon themselves than upon anybody else. It has been seen that the fall in prices from October, 1893, has been about 7 per cent. for manufactured and 9 per cent. for farm products. The daily average of prices through the two months shows a fall from December, 1893, to December, 1894, of 8.4 per cent. But the decline in wages received per hand from November, 1892, to November, 1894, a recent investigation by Dun's Mercantile Agency has shown, was 1.63 per cent, and besides there was a decrease of 12.02 per cent. in number of hands employed. With nearly an eighth of the whole number of workers idle, and with those at work getting at least an eighth less wages, they have seen farm and manufactured products together decline only a twelfth, and even this not wholly a gain to them, because retail prices and rents have not declined.

ADJOURNED SENATE

A Quiet Ending of the Fifty-third Congress.

A LOVE FEAST IN THE HOUSE.

Mr. Cannon Offers the Usual Resolution of Thanks to the Speaker—Culberson, Hill and Crisp Will Represent the House at the International Monetary Conference.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—At noon yesterday the United States senate closed its final session of the Fifty-third congress amid crowded galleries, congratulatory resolutions, a parting word from President Cleveland, and a brief valedictory from the vice president. The wonted dignity of the senate was preserved to the end, except for the rush of business incident to the last hour of the session. The senators went at work by 9 o'clock, after having remained in the chamber until 4 a. m. They clearly showed the fatigue of the long session, lasting from Saturday noon, and their ranks were thin up to 11 o'clock for the transaction of anything beyond formal business. By that time there were few vacant seats upon the floor of the senate, and the galleries were literally packed, the crowds filling the senate, pushing into the aisles and overflowing in long lines down the corridors and stairways. Many members of the diplomatic corps occupied the gallery reserved for them.

By 10 o'clock the last formalities on the two remaining appropriation bills—naval and deficiency—were concluded and the measures started to the executive mansion. There was no disposition to take up new business, and two efforts to consider questions affecting the Behring sea were out of by objections. A feature of the last moments of the session was the tumultuous laughter which greeted the announcement of Mr. Vreeland, of the committee to wait on the president, that the latter tendered his congratulations to congress on the close of their labors. Vice President Stevenson closed the session with a few well chosen words, and, as he stated, the work of the Fifty-third congress passed into history.

In the house the end was not marked or marred by any unpleasant incidents. All the appropriation bills were out of the way when the house reconvened at 8 o'clock yesterday morning, and the time was dawdled away until 11 o'clock, the only feature being a rather brisk but brief debate on the results to flow from the projected monetary conference.

The concluding minutes were in the nature of a love feast. The best feeling prevailed. The resolution of thanks to the speaker, which usually came from a member of the majority, was offered by Mr. Cannon, of Illinois, in a very graceful speech bearing testimony to the high appreciation in which the presiding officer was held by the Republican minority. Mr. Wilson, of West Virginia, responded in behalf of the majority, and Mr. Simpson, of Kansas, representing the Populists, joined in the expression of thanks for the courtesies and kindness extended by the speaker.

All the kindly sentiments were applauded, and when Mr. Crisp himself ascended the rostrum to return his thanks and deliver his parting words the demonstration was terrific. At the conclusion of his speech, just before declaring the house adjourned without day, he appointed Mr. Culberson of Texas, Mr. Hill of Illinois and himself as members of the monetary commission. His own appointment was by resolution. As the Fifty-third congress came to its end the doxology was sung by the correspondents in the press gallery.

The last measure signed by the president yesterday, and one in which a great deal of interest has been taken, is the anti-lottery bill. The measure is a brief one of but four sections, the most important of which is the first. This provides that any person engaging in the sale of lottery tickets, or advertising the same in circulars or otherwise, shall be liable to punishment for the first offense by imprisonment for not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than $1,000, or both, and for the second and after offenses by such imprisonment only.

Minister Ransom Sworn In.
WASHINGTON, March 5.—Within two hours after Mr. Ransom, of North Carolina, ceased to represent that state as a senator he had qualified as United States minister to Mexico. The ceremony took place in the room of Assistant Secretary Uhl at 2 o'clock. Mr. Ransom left for home today to put his personal affairs in shape, and will return to Washington in the course of three weeks to receive his instructions before going to his post. William Crichton, of West Virginia, appointed secretary of legation at Rio Janeiro, also took the oath of office yesterday.

The Hayward Case Continued.
MINNEAPOLIS, March 5.—County Attorney Frank Nye was ready to begin his presentation of the Hayward case to the jury yesterday, but Judge Smith was not ready to have him. The judge declared that he was not willing to jeopard the life or the health of Mr. Nye or Juror Dyer, and he believed it better to give both another day's rest. Accordingly the case was continued.

Rich Gold Find in California.
LOS ANGELES, Cal., March 5.—The richest gold strike yet made in southern California is reported in the plain district, in the mountains sixty miles east of Banning. The discovery was made six weeks ago, but has been kept quiet by the prospectors, two cattlemen. Three tons of the ore ran through the stamps yield 915 gold. All of the gold in sight was equally as rich.

Bold Robbery in Wisconsin.
CHIPPEWA FALLS, Wis., March 5.—Two well dressed men entered the store of A. Moses, and after buying a revolver had it loaded and one of them shot him when he went to make the change. The ball entered the fleshy part of his leg. They then kicked him in the stomach until insensible and made good their escape with $100. Moses is badly hurt.

Desperate Fight Between Students.
BALTIMORE, March 5.—An attempt by the juniors of John Hopkins university to hold a "pot social" (hazing) was resisted by the freshmen and a free fight ensued, resulting in many swollen heads and black eyes. Thomas Williams, a freshman, was knocked senseless.

Lord Churchill's Personal Estate.
LONDON, March 5.—The personal estate of the late Lord Randolph Churchill has been proved at $75,971. The executors of his will are his widow, formerly Miss Jennie Jerome, of New York, and Viscount Jursen.

SPRING NEEDS.

What Everybody Requires at This Season.

Some Things Are of the Utmost Importance to You.

This Will Tell You Just What You Most Need Now and How to Get It.

In the spring changes always take place in our systems which require attention. There is a tired, languid feeling, a depression, the digestive organs become de-ranked, the blood is bad, causing the complexion to become affected and the person feels an inability to work.

At such a time a spring medicine is absolutely necessary. It will overcome all these conditions. It will invigorate the blood, regulate the digestive organs, clear the complexion, and make you feel strong and well.

Read what Mrs. W. H. Smith, of 74 Sutton street, Providence, R. I., has to say:

"I was taken sick five years ago with the grippe. It left my whole system and especially my nerves in a terribly weak condition. I was dreadfully nervous, and lost almost complete control of myself. I was all discouraged and did not know what I should do.

"My limbs were swollen, my feet ached and I had pains all over my body. I got scarcely any sleep, and what little I did get did me no good. I took many remedies but without benefit. Finally hearing Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy highly recommended, I determined to use it.

"After taking one bottle I was almost entirely cured of all my troubles. My nerves were strong, and the pains left me, the swelling disappeared, and I could sleep well. Thanks to this wonderful medicine I am cured. I wish every sufferer might use it."

The reason why you should take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy is, because it is the sweetest and quickest medicine in its action known. It positively and permanently cures all forms of nervous weakness and exhaustion, invigorates the blood and gives health and strength. Take it now, for Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy will do more for you than any other remedy. It is the best spring medicine known.

It is not a patent medicine, but the prescription of the most successful living specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. He has the largest practice in the world, and this grand medical discovery is the result of his vast experience. The great reputation of Dr. Greene is a guarantee that his medicine will cure, and the fact that he can be consulted by anyone, at any time, free of charge, personally or by letter, gives absolute assurance of the beneficial action of this wonderful medicine.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

A Committee to Investigate the Insane Hospital at Warren.

HARRISBURG, March 5.—A resolution was introduced in the house last evening by Mr. Cochran, of Armstrong, and adopted, for a committee of five members of the house and three of the senate to investigate the charges of W. L. Peart, a member of the Armstrong county bar, against the management of the State Insane hospital at Warren.

Resolutions were also adopted limiting debate to five minutes and placing upon the calendar the bill prohibiting any but American citizens from being employed upon public works. Another resolution adopted invites "all patriotic citizens in all parts of the country to celebrate our delivery" by the adjournment of the Fifty-third congress. A resolution was also adopted placing upon the calendar the bill directed against company stores.

A bill was introduced by Mr. Mackrell, of Allegheny, making trespassing on railroads a misdemeanor, punishable by fine or imprisonment. By the bill it is also a misdemeanor to lead or ride a horse on a railroad at any point other than the regular crossings. It also requires railroad companies to fence in their tracks in cities and towns, and provide gates at every crossing.

Among other bills introduced was one providing for the prevention of fraud upon users of commercial fertilizers by using the word "bone" with intent to deceive; and another appropriating $750,000 for the support of the National Guard for the next ten years.

In the senate, among other bills introduced, was one to ascertain and adopt the best methods of utilizing convict labor in the institutions of Pennsylvania so as not to interfere with legitimate institutions. The senate also passed a resolution congratulating the people upon the adjournment of congress.

A House Blown Up with Dynamite.

VINCENNES, Ind., March 5.—The town of Decker, ten miles south of here, is terribly excited over the fact that the residence of Charles A. Bonnett was blown up with dynamite. A daughter was blinded in both eyes by the force of the explosion. The Seymour bloodhounds were telegraphed for and have been put on the trail.

Killed by a Flood of Water.

SHAMOKEN, Pa., March 5.—George Drumheller was instantly killed at Buck Ridge mine. A quantity of water in an abandoned chamber broke through the face of the breast in which he was at work and buried him down the manway.

IMPORTANT PATENT DECISION.

It Affects Adversely Many Patents Representing Millions of Capital.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The supreme court of the United States yesterday decided that an American patent for an invention expires at the same time as a patent issued in a foreign country for the same invention. The opinion was read by Mr. Justice Harlan in the case of the Bate Refrigerating company vs. Ferdinand Sulzberger et al., which came to the supreme court of the United States on a certification from the court of appeals for the Second circuit.

Dec. 1, 1878, John J. Bate made application to the United States for letters patent for an improvement in processes for preserving meats during storage and transportation.

Pending this application two foreign patents were granted for the Bate invention, one for the term of fourteen years, the other for the term of five years, by the government of the dominion of Canada.

After these foreign patents were issued Bate received a patent from the United States, expressed to be for the term of seventeen years, and assigned it to the Bate Refrigerating company, the plaintiff in this suit.

The present suit was brought by that company July 25, 1892, for an injunction against the infringement of the American patent. It was set down for hearing in the circuit court on pleas to the bill, and a decree was passed dismissing the suit. From that decree an appeal was taken to the circuit court of appeals, and from there to the supreme court.

The decision affects adversely many patents, notably in connection with the use of the telephone, the electric light and many other valuable inventions, all told, it is estimated, representing $60,000,000 of capital, which are by the decision held to have expired.

INDIANS RESIST TAXATION.

One of Their Number Threatened with Death for Violating an Agreement.

FERRIS, O. T., March 5.—The Iowa Indians in this country are in a state of great excitement, and are talking of taking summary and violent means to do away with one of their number, John Amble, who lives five miles southeast of this place. Some time ago the authorities decided to assess the property of all the Indians for the purpose of taxation. The Indians at once proposed to resist this plan, and an agreement was made among the members of the tribe not to allow any valuation to be made. Last Saturday John Amble broke the agreement, and the Indians, it is reported, are going to deal with him as a traitor, after the Indian fashion—torture.

This is the first attempt made by the authorities in Oklahoma to tax the Indians. The authorities claim that the Indians enjoy all the privileges of citizenship and should be subject to taxation. The Indians, however, replied that they are nothing more than slaves of Uncle Sam, and in substantiation of this point out that an Indian cannot make a visit to a member of another tribe without securing a passport from the Indian agent. An Indian off his reservation is subject to arrest. Head Chief Big Head and Second Head Chief Tohee have appealed to the United States attorney at Guthrie, and his advice, it is said, is for the Indians to get out injunctions against being taxed.

The New Silver Party.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—The meeting of members of the American Bimetallist league, which has been in progress here during the last two weeks, will very soon issue an address to the American people, asking their support for a new party having for the principal planks of its platform the free and unlimited coinage of silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, and demand that the money of the country shall be issued by the government itself. The address will inaugurate a new feature in American politics, by doing away with the old system of nominating conventions.

The Union Pacific Check Swindle.

OMAHA, March 5.—Startling developments have been made in the Union Pacific check raising swindle which are calculated to alarm all corporations paying in checks. The gang which operated on the Union Pacific have a method of erasing ink with acid which defies the best chemically prepared paper. The amount secured by the gang is not yet known, but it is not as large as at first supposed. The fact is not regarded as of much importance as compared with the new process which is puzzling the company's chemists and detectives.

Bismarck's Birthday Celebration.

BERLIN, March 5.—Prince Bismarck will receive deputations visiting Friedrichsruhe for the purpose of congratulating him on the occasion of the anniversary of his birth until the latter part of May. The anniversary falls on April 1. The agrarian leagues will present to the prince a costly solid silver shield, decorated with agricultural emblems and the arms of the Prussian province and the German states in colored enamels. The shield will, in addition, be inscribed with utterances of Prince Bismarck.

Old Glory.

General Miles at a dinner party in this city surprised the guests by reminding them—a fact little popularly known, by the way—that the flag of the Union is older than that of any other now used by any other nation. The French tricolor is antedated by the stars and stripes a few years, and the British union jack as now flown came a little later. All other national flags have been modified to their present unifying even after that period. Then what bird is older of creation and fuller of longevity than the eagle? If there be any, let him scream.—New York Mercury.

And That Settled It.

"But, great heavens!" said the man, "you are already an editor, postmaster, justice of the peace and undertaker. Why in thunder should you have the county clerkship?"

"Sir," said the other man, proudly drawing himself up to his full height, "I was born in Ohio."—New York Recorder.

During the reign of Trajan a Roman laborer paid 6 cents for two pieces of woolen cloth to serve as socks.

Seizing Contraband Whisky.

CHARLESTON, March 5.—An unknown sloop put in here with ten barrels of contraband whisky, which was seized by constables shortly after it was landed. The sloop ran out to sea and escaped.

The Weather.

For western Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, District of Columbia and Virginia, generally fair and much colder; northwest winds.
