

NEWBOLD'S DISGRACE.

The Reverend Robber of the Church Missionary Society.

HAD BEEN STEALING FOR YEARS.

A Statement from Chairman White, of the Finance Committee of the Society, Declares That the Defalcations Will Aggregate Nineteen Thousand Dollars.

NEW YORK, March 8.—In response to an invitation from George C. White, chairman of the finance committee of the American Church Missionary Society, a reporter called at the rooms of that organization and was given the following statement:

"At the January meeting I was made chairman of the finance committee. Immediately upon looking into the duties of my new office I found that the books called for a large cash balance on hand in a trust company, but was informed that the treasurer, H.A. Oakley, claimed that there was no such money on hand. I was afterwards informed that the general secretary knew there was a discrepancy in the accounts, but he did not so inform the executive board until the January meeting.

"The treasurer was at once called upon by me to produce the books of account and his own accounts, and to show where the differences existed. A month ago I put an expert to work on the books. There are reported to be several items in regard to General Secretary Newbold's account which required explanation. At the end of a few days Mr. Newbold, finding the temperature of the office getting too hot for him, sent his keys to the finance committee, and announced that he had severed his connection with the society. It was afterwards found that Mr. Newbold had retained a duplicate of the keys, which I took from him.

"The result of the expert accountant's examination showed that Mr. Newbold has overdrawn from the society the sum of about $12,000 over and above all that was due him for salary. Furthermore, the examination shows that moneys received from interest and other sources, to the amount of $7,000, has failed to credit on the books, and the checks for the same were not deposited in the society's bank account.

"Mr. Newbold has confessed these defalcations to four different members of the society, and we also have a letter, written by him, confessing his crime and pleading, on the score of past faithfulness, for leniency, and claiming that he was obliged to use this money to support a large and expensive family.

"He lives in a fine place at Mont Clair, N. J., the value of which, he says, he estimates at $20,000. He also keeps horses, carriages, cows, etc.

"Mr. Newbold's statement that he was allowed $1,000 per annum for expenses is incorrect, as all his traveling expenses were properly charged against the expense account of the society. His house is mortgaged for about $11,000, and he has expressed his willingness to deed whatever equity he has in it to the society.

"Mr. Newbold was general secretary of the society for twenty-six years, and was always implicitly trusted by the members. The expert accountant has ascertained that certainly for the past ten years, and for how much more we do not know, Newbold has been robbing the sacred treasury of the society.

Mr. White said his statement was provoked by Newbold's attempt to pose as a martyr. He would not say what steps would be taken by the society against Newbold, nor would he show the latter's written confession.

A Woman Sandbagged by a Robber.
CLEVELAND, March 8.—Miss Tillie Hangel lies in a dying condition in the house of C. A. Dean, on the Mayfield road, in east Cleveland, as a result of a murderous assault committed on her by a robber. While Miss Hangel was alone in the house a man came to the door and demanded all the money she had. The girl declared there was nothing of value in the house. This seemed to anger the robber, and he attacked Miss Hangel with a sandbag, fracturing her skull, after which he escaped.

Alisa Defeats the Britannie.
CANNEB, France, March 8.—The yacht Britannie, Corsair and Alisa sailed a thirty mile race over a triangular course yesterday. The Alisa won, defeating the Prince of Wales' Britannie by 2 mins. 36 secs. actual time, and by 1 min. 24 secs. corrected time. There was a very light wind. The race was of special interest from the fact that the Alisa will contest with Lord Dunsraven's new yacht, Valkyrie III, for the honor of representing Great Britain in the struggle for the America's Cup.

Murderer Bowman's Sentence Postponed.
WILKESBARRE, Pa., March 8.—William Bowman, the murderer, was brought into court for sentence yesterday, but Judge Lynch told the prisoner's counsel that he would defer sentence until April 2. By that time it is hoped to capture Bowman's accomplice, Metzger, who, according to Bowman's story, was the one who did the shooting.

Three Bodies in a Reservoir.
SEATTLE, Wash., March 8.—Seattle is agog with excitement over the finding of the dead bodies of two infants and a Chinaman in the main water reservoir, in the most aristocratic portion of the city. The bodies were flushed and had evidently been in the reservoir for some time.

Idaho's Senatorial Contest Ended.
BOISE CITY, Idaho, March 8.—The Idaho senatorial contest was brought to a close yesterday by the re-election of George L. Shoup to succeed himself. The finish was close and exciting, the final vote being: Shoup, 27; Sweet, 19; Crook, 14; absent, 1. Necessary to a choice, 27.

Blew Off His Head with a Shotgun.
READING, Pa., March 8.—Henry Burkley, a farmer who lived near Priceton, this county, committed suicide by lying on the ground and blowing his head completely off with a double barreled shotgun. The motive for the deed is unknown.

Da Gama Still Belligerent.
MONTREAL, March 8.—It is reported here that Admiral da Gama, leader of the recent rebellion in Brazil, has re-entered Brazil and taken up arms against the government in the province of Rio Grande, with a force of 3,200 men.

Japan's New War Minister.
YOKOHAMA, March 8.—Field Marshal Count Yamagata, who was commander of the first Japanese army, but who was installed home from Manchuria, has been appointed minister of war.

Voted by Governor Werts.

THRENTON, March 8.—Governor Werts has vetoed the Voorhees objective judiciary bills. He says that such radical legislation is unwise and unwisely experimental. He says the opportunity for the whimsical, arbitrary, or oppressive exercise of power is provided by giving the granting of licenses and all civil and criminal business into the hands of one judge. The bill making it a misdemeanor for school teachers while on duty to wear any religious emblem, insignia or mark was defeated in the senate.

Death Rather Than Marriage.
CHICAGO, March 8.—Charles Teigs, a well-to-do house mover, was found dead in bed, having killed himself with poison because of a $3,000 judgment in a breach of promise suit against him. Several months ago Teigs, who was a widower, advertised for a wife. Mrs. Matilda Stewart answered, and they became engaged, but later Teigs changed his mind and refused to marry. Mrs. Stewart sued for damages, and Teigs decided to die because the verdict was against him.

PAINT cracks.—It often costs more to prepare a house for repainting that has been painted in the first place with cheap ready-mixed paints, than it would to have painted it twice with strictly pure white lead, ground in pure linseed oil.

Strictly Pure White Lead forms a permanent base for repainting and never has to be burned or scraped off on account of scaling or cracking. It is always smooth and clean. To be sure of getting strictly pure white lead, purchase this brand:

"John T. Lewis & Bros."

FOR COLORS.—National Lead Co.'s Pure White Lead Tinting Colors, a one-pound can, contains 25 pounds of lead and mix your own paint. Saves time and material in matching shades, and insures the best paint that is possible to put on wood.

Send in a postal card and get our book on paints and color-card, free. It will probably save you a good many dollars.

GARCIA STILL ALIVE.

The Cuban Bandit Was Not Killed, as Reported.

EFFORT TO FOOL THE AUTHORITIES.

Owing to the High Price Set on Garcia's Head the Body of a Member of His Band Was Turned Over as That of the Leader.

TAMPA, Fla., March 8.—The killing of Manuel Garcia is denied. Garcia's band, on the day he was reported to have been killed, raided a store at Zebra Mocha. After obtaining what they desired and were about to mount their horses a volunteer, who was an acolyte in the church, and a regular soldier, both in civilian's dress, came upon the party. In the encounter Manuel Garcia was killed by the acolyte, who in turn was killed, being literally cut to pieces.

This occurred on the evening of Feb. 24. As there was a price on Garcia's head of $10,000 from the government and about $20,000 from the sugar planters in the vicinity, there was quite an incentive in claiming that the dead bandit was Garcia. Parties who have seen the pictures of the bandit taken and published after his death assert that it is not the likeness of Garcia. When Garcia's wife was asked by the soldiers to go and identify the body of her husband she attired herself in black and went with them. When the party alighted at the station she put her handkerchief to her face and pretended to be sobbing. She then told them that she knew the body was not her husband, and there was no use to go and look at it. She did this to deceive the soldiers.

It is stated that Garcia still lives in the vicinity of the place where he was reported to have been killed. This report comes direct from Zebra Mocha by a gentleman who was there on Thursday of last week. Garcia is a much smaller man than Manuel Garcia was. The Cuban papers represent the deceased man as being large and broad shouldered.

Cuban Insurgents Defeated.
KEY WEST, Fla., March 8.—A report has reached here of an engagement on Tuesday near Santa Clara, Cuba, between a band of insurgents and a battalion of Spanish soldiers. The government force says the rebels were defeated, with the loss of several men. A corporal was wounded. The Cuban loss is not stated.

Insurgents Surrendering.
MADRID, March 8.—An official dispatch just received from Cuba states that General Garrido has captured the town of Balra. Two of the rebel chiefs were wounded. Forty-three of the insurgents surrendered to the Spanish troops. The remainder fled and are pursued by the government forces.

Our Cordial Relations with Spain.
MADRID, March 8.—In the chamber of deputies Senor Lema questioned the government as to the attitude of the United States towards Spain in regard to Cuba. The minister of the colonies, Senor Abarzuza, said that he had only spoken to the United States minister, Mr. Harris Taylor, respecting the penalties enforced upon American citizens in Cuba. He added, however, that the relations between the United States and Spain were cordial, as the rejection of the Spanish cruiser Nouva Espana at Tampa, Fla., demonstrated. The commander of the cruiser had spoken warmly of the friendly demonstration in favor of the Spanish flag which had been made by the authorities at Tampa.

Terrible Domestic Tragedy in England.
LONDON, March 8.—A plasterer named Taylor, living at Lower Tooting, near London, cut the throats of his wife and six children and then took his own life. All of his family are dead, with the exception of one child, who is lying at the point of death. The crime was the outcome of the extreme destitution that prevails among many of the working classes. Not being able to provide for his family Taylor's mind became unhinged, and it is evident that he determined to kill them and then himself in order to save all from slowly starving to death.

Killed by an Exploding Boiler.
AKRON, O., March 8.—A large boiler at the works of the B. F. Goodrich Rubber company blew up yesterday. John Vance, a machinist, was instantly killed. John Summerville was terribly scalded and otherwise seriously injured. Several other men received slight injuries. A number of surrounding buildings were damaged.

STOCK AND PRODUCE MARKETS.
Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

NEW YORK, March 7.—Sugar saved the stock market today from extreme stagnation. The market opened at 93 1/2, after many fluctuations, closed at 94 1/2, the highest price of the day. In the last hour speculation was irregular, but the market closed fairly steady. Closing bids:
