BAD ULCERS ON LIMBS

Five years' Suffering. Could not Sleep or Work from Itching and Burning. Six Doctors could do Nothing. Relief in the First Application. Perfect Cure by CUTICURA.

I had on both my legs, for five years, three very bad ulcers, two on one, and one on the other just into the bone above the ankle, as large as a five cent piece when I had to get out in the day, that I could not sleep for the itching and burning. I had to get out in the day, that I could not sleep for the itching and burning. I had to get out in the day, that I could not sleep for the itching and burning.

RESOLVENT CURES BABY
I wish to let everyone know what good the CUTICURA RESOLVENT has done for my little girl. From one year old till three, she was one mass of sores and scabs all over her face, hands, and body. Tried several doctors without relief. At last I heard of the CUTICURA, bought seven bottles of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and she was cured. She is now seven years old and a healthy child. Thanks to the CUTICURA RESOLVENT. FRANK T. LICHTCAP, 655 Ferry Ave., Ward 8, South Camden, N. J.

AMUSEMENTS.

"THE POLICE PATROL."
A. Y. Pearson's wonderful success, which was seen at Ferguson's theatre last season, and which is the offering of the management of the above playhouse for this evening. In their search after realistic effects, writers of melodramas have given us tanks without number, real fire engines, buzz saws, pile drivers, etc., etc., until the field would seem to be well nigh exhausted, but in "The Police Patrol" we are promised we shall see the genuine patrol wagon, horses, etc., direct from the service. The horses were originally employed by the Chicago Police Department and drew the patrol wagon for the Desplaines street station during the period of the anarchist troubles in that city.

THE CLAIR-PATEE COMPANY.

The Clair-Patee Company will commence an engagement in this city next Monday evening, presenting one of their excellent dramas with all the magnificent wardrobe, stage settings and precise attention to details. This company comprises some of the leading people of the theatrical profession and is reputed to be exceptionally deserving. Their plays are of the highest order, costumed artistically and rendered with ability. Unlike many companies playing a repertoire of dramas, having only one or two fairly good actors, and the balance novices, this company embraces only first-class artists who have made a reputation in leading companies in their respective lines. Among those most prominent are Miss Virginia Bray, late leading lady, for four years, of Sol Smith Russell; Miss Eva Taylor, reputed to be one of the most handsome ladies on the American stage and an artiste of exceptional prominence as leading lady with "Hands Across the Sea" and Milton Nobles; Miss Julia Hanchett, a lady who has held the highest position with Lotta and Jeffreys Lewis, and for a number of years was prominent as a star, has the line of character lady of this company in hand. Then there is little Miss Florence Hadley, a bright singing and dancing soubrette, who has earned high honors in the profession and will render many new songs during the engagement. Of the gentlemen, Mr. William Nichols, recently leading man with "Men and Women," and for some time leading man of the Forepaugh Stock Company in Philadelphia; Mr. George Gordon, of the Augustus Pitou forces; Albert Livingston, the pleasing comedian; J. W. Davenport, the eccentric comedian; W. J. Clark, the character comedian; George W. Murray, that sterling actor who, for a number of years, was a prominent member of Hooley's Stock Company, Chicago, staging and directing all the plays presented by that excellent organization. While not so prominent, possibly, the other members are especially fitted for the characters assumed, and there is an assurance that the plays presented by the Clair-Patee Company will be of a superior order, and deserving of liberal patronage, which they will undoubtedly receive, as theatrical patrons of our city are exceptionally numerous when an assured and worthy attraction solicits their attendance. The first night, Monday, the great emotional comedy-drama, "Lead Astray," will be presented. This is ladies night, when each lady accompanied by a gentleman or lady holding a regular reserved seat ticket, will be admitted free. The play is especially adapted for their edification and entertainment. The costumes are also a feature in this play, and some of the finest worn by the profession will be seen.

Important Notice.

Notice is hereby given to all parties who have left watches at my place for repairs that if they are not called for on or before March 30, 1895, they will be considered forfeited and sold at auction to the highest bidder. All work ordered of me will be executed at once. Yost, Jeweler, 102 North Main street. 3-26-april

Wanted.—A desirable simple murder or murder by Mettenger, a small place seventy miles from Danub, in Allegheny county. The settlement is inhabited mostly by Italians, and two families got into a quarrel over the cutting of some timber which each claimed as his own. A Cristello and his brother Nick took rifles and deliberately shot Ben Jeannette and his wife. Both were killed instantly, the top of the woman's head being blown off. The murderers surrendered to the authorities to escape being lynched. The murdered couple leave four children, the oldest 12 years old and the youngest a nursing babe.

JUDGE'S FAMOUS CARTOONIST.

Bernard Gillam Recommends Paine's Celery Compound for Exhaustion.

The Buffalo News, in a recent article, remarks upon the fact that "Bernard Gillam, the cartoonist of Judge, is one of the few living men whose cartoons have ever changed a vote in the U. S. Senate." Bernard Gillam is a young man, but 35 He received his art education in England. He is today the foremost cartoonist of America.

In 1880 he came to Harper's Weekly as the colleague of the immortal Nast. His work afterward for Frank Leslie's and Puck well fitted him for bringing Judge to its present success. In 1889 Mr. Gillam went into partnership with W. J. Arkell, and bought Judge. The full-page colored cartoons, Mr. Gillam's special province on Judge, equal the remarkable efforts of the great Keppler, in Judge's older rival.

There is probably no form of brain work that is so exhausting, so exacting and so intense as the work of the great artist on the large comic papers. To turn out brilliant ideas with the regularity of machinery and yet keep their work up to the high standard set by their splendid reputation, makes fearful demands upon their nervous vitality. Mr. Gillam knows what severe work means.

The nervous strain of his responsible position has at times brought him near to prostration and the giving up of his work.

He says in a letter dated New York, Nov. 13, 1894:

"No tonic that I have taken has done me so much good as Paine's celery compound. When I am run down or exhausted after particularly exacting work on cartoons and in other artistic occupations, I have found a dose of the compound exceedingly beneficial as a restorative for the nerves."

The racing speed of the marvelous new processes for swiftly carrying out men's ideas is taxing to their utmost the nervous systems of countless men and women.

A cry of protest is going up all over the country from medical men against the suicidal waste of nerve force. Preachers, editors, lawyers, even doctors themselves, from their daily round of hard, anxious work—every brain worker, in fact, who labors draws heavily upon his nervous vitality, must take alarm at the first sign of brain-tire, pressure, faintness or tension in the head, or nervous fatigue.

In every city in the United States physicians every day are not only prescribing, but themselves using, Paine's celery compound for weakness and nervous debility, for curing the effect of poor and unhealthy blood, disorders of liver, kidneys, stomach, heart and the nervous system.

An effective remedy must first enter the blood to cure rheumatism. Local treatment for a constitutional disorder will do no good. Rheumatism, gout, blood-poisoning, scrofula, etc., are diseases lodged in the blood.

Just why Paine's celery compound cures, while other remedies fail, is because all its ingredients effectually aid the system to rid itself of any poisonous humors in the blood.

Hundreds of cases have within this year been reported directly from persons, between the ages of 45 and 65, suffering from acute Bright's disease, who have been permanently cured by Paine's celery compound. It stops the gradual structural changes in the kidneys, restores their vigor and removes such alarming symptoms as the gradual loss of strength, pallor of the face, shortness of breath, pain in the back and sides, dropsy and a puffy condition of the skin. As a spring medicine it is absolutely without a rival.

Every overworked man and woman, reduced in strength, flesh and nervous vigor, will find a powerful restorative in Paine's celery compound. It is food for the brain and nerves. It sends new, healthy blood through the arteries. It makes people well.
