

Fall to Help Mrs. N. Whitney.

HILLSBORO BRIDGE, N. H.—There is no more highly respected resident of this village than Mrs. N. E. Whitney. Her long and serious illness and her remarkable recovery through the aid of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, has made that medicine a necessity in many New Hampshire households.

Mrs. Whitney in speaking about her sickness said: "I had been gradually falling in health for a number of years, and was told by my physicians that I was in the last stages of Bright's Disease. I had been under the treatment at various times of six physicians, two clairvoyants, and a Christian scientist, but received no benefit from any of them. It seemed to me that every means of ever being cured had been tried except to use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, which had been recommended. I purchased a bottle, and by the time I had used the second bottle I was greatly improved, and from that on I gained daily, and it was not long before I was doing my regular household work. No tongue can tell how I suffered for the three years before I used Favorite Remedy. My age is 56, and I now weigh 25 pounds more than I ever did. Favorite Remedy restored me to health and strength."

As a prominent physician recently said:

"Any one suffering from kidney or urinary troubles, rheumatism or dyspepsia, should use Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. It will cure them if their disease is within the reach of medicine."

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York come from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edison. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. It all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edison does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectorants, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says. "And have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Grubler Bros.

THIS AND THAT.

"Index" Gives His Views Upon Subjects of a Varied Nature.

It is announced that the Metzinger heirs, of which there are a goodly number residing in this region and more throughout the state, are to be cheated out of $51,000,000, that is supposed to belong to them, by the government of Holland. They need not worry about the loss of the money. There is probably not 51 cents, let alone $51,000,000, to their credit in that little Dutch country.

Early last spring the Moser heirs were stirred up once more by the periodical newspaper sensationalists concerning the valuable property, now in the hands of the Lehigh Navigation Company, which they were defrauded out of. This story is trumped up every three years. The heirs will never see the day when they can call the property their own.

Then there are the Slattery millions in Ireland and, in the language of the sale bills, "many others too numerous to mention." The people are getting on to these million dollar fakes, and the newspapers will have to conceive of something new.

Most of these stories are the invention of some lawyers out of a job, who succeeded, in most cases, in securing money enough from some of the dupes to pay for a pleasure trip to Europe, where they have a good time.

Numerous green goods circulars have been received in town of late, but I have not learned of any suckers being caught. By the way, I see the king of the green goods tribe has a lawsuit on his hands, and he will probably have to pay $15 per week for the support of a child of which he is the father, he being a married man, but the child's mother is a woman who is not his legal wife. This man claims to have been buncoed out of $200,000 by patent right sharps. It is a clear case of diamond cut diamond.

A saloon-keeper or a liquor dealer is an angel compared to an adulterer, yet I know of instances where church people accepted money for church purposes from the latter class and refused it from the former. Simply because a man makes a business of selling wines and liquors—which is legalized by the state and national governments—does not in itself make him a dishonest man nor an infidel. Some of our best citizens are engaged in the liquor traffic, and it will continue so long as the government legalizes the traffic by exacting a license.

Tesla, Edison's rival, met with a terrible misfortune, last week, by the destruction of his workshop and all that it contained. He had been experimenting for years on his plan by which electricity was to play a most wonderful part in the commercial world. All his past labors are for naught, and he will have to commence over again. Speaking of Tesla, reminds me of a local Edison or a Tesla, in the person of Raymond Ehrhart, the bright son of Prof. W. N. Ehrhart. When not engaged in his school studies this young genius devotes considerable time in experimenting in electricity. He has already worked out a number of important problems in connection with this great factor as a motor and illuminator. So far his experiments, although crude, have proved successful. He is on the right track, and I predict that some day he will come to the front and prove a great benefactor to his countrymen.

If I am not mistaken, Rev. John Grubler, of the German Lutheran church, will celebrate his silver anniversary as pastor of the above church during the present year. Twenty-five years is a long time to serve as a minister, and the reverend gentleman has made a record during that period of which he and his many friends have much reason for congratulation.

To Down Spooks.

A wealthy bachelor declared that a horrid hag had glared at him through the night. His friends laughed at him, but he insisted that the house was haunted. He grew ill, complaining of extreme heaviness in the stomach, his appetite failed, he grew sallow, emaciated and despondent, believing he was going to die, the spook being a warning, and declared he could hear funeral bells ringing in his ears, and even hinted at suicide. A friend induced him to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and he rapidly grew well, spooks and all his distressing symptoms disappearing. A torpid liver and dyspepsia caused his suffering and the medicine cured both. A pamphlet free or a large Book on Liver and Stomach diseases and how to cure them (100 pages) for 5 cents in stamps. Address World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.

A GOOD COMPANY.

A Crowded House Greeted a Worthy Organization at Ferguson's Theatre.

The Clair Patee Company appeared before a Shenandoah audience for the first time last night, presenting the beautiful drama, "The Arabian Nights." The excellent reputation preceding this organization was more than sustained by the capable, conscientious and artistic work of the entire company. It has been the rule rather than the exception that most companies playing here at popular prices, bring possibly one or two good actors and the balance made up of novices, amateurs and musicians, but in the case of the Clair Patee Company every member is an artist, experienced in their profession, and especially fitted for the roles assigned. Miss Virginia Bray, the leading lady, who assayed the role of Countess Chandoce, won immediate favor, and is an actress of more than ordinary ability. In the strong emotional scenes she was especially gratifying, winning well deserved and hearty commendation of her audience. Mr. William Nichols, as Rudolph Chandoce, was all that could be desired in the neglected husband and in the scene where he awakes to the perfidy of his trusted friend, he was more than successful in establishing himself as an actor of exceptional ability. Between the good-natured cousin, Hector, well taken by Mr. Albert Livingston, and the Countess Chandoce, the eratic mother-in-law of Miss Julia Hanchett, the comedy element of the play was ably sustained. Mr. Livingston's songs were heartily enjoyed, and Miss Hanchett's improvised and impetuous dignity won many hearty laughs. Miss Eva Taylor, as the designing adventuress, regardless of the unthankful role, was very pleasing and handsome, entering into the spirit of the character so thoroughly as to cause admiration for her work. One of the distinct features of the evening was the singing of Miss Florence Hadley, and her superior rendition of the new song, "Mary," won numerous encores. This little lady also proved herself a clever actress, and in the character of Mathilde was bright and winsome. Of the other members of the company who deserve special mention for their excellent performance are Mr. George Gordon, Mr. J. W. Davenport, Mr. G. W. Murray, and Mr. W. J. Clark, all first-class artists, fully capable and finished. To see such magnificent and appropriate costumes as are worn by every member of this company is indeed a relief, and to the ladies present it must have been an especial treat. The universal verdict of all who witnessed the performance last night, is that it is the best we have had at popular prices in Shenandoah, and we do not recall a high priced attraction which has in any way excelled the Clair Patee Company. To-night the charming comedy, "The Arabian Nights," will be presented, and all admirers of really excellent performances should not fail to grasp this opportunity to gratify their most fastidious tastes.
