

The Largest in the World.

From the Chicago Inter-Ocean

How many people in Chicago know that with all her other great industries there is also found here the largest soap and washing powder business in the world...

Many brands of soap are made in these factories, but Chicago is best acquainted with Santa Claus which long ago found favor with those who care for our homes...

Announcement is now made that The N. K. Fairbank Company are about to take another step forward to turn another page in their history of progress by introducing another new soap...

For twenty-five years this company was likewise the leading lard producer of the world, and abandoned lard merely because a new world was to be conquered...

The N. K. Fairbank Company attribute their success to the merit of the articles they produce; to the fact that their products are staple necessities of life, not luxuries, and to careful, thoughtful, persistent newspaper advertising...

In the advertising branch of the business they are represented by the well known firm of N. W. Ayer & Son, of Philadelphia, who purchase all their advertising space.

Another fact that may not be generally known is that The N. K. Fairbank Company is conducted as one of the departments of The American Cotton Oil Company...

Surely no Chicago industry has achieved greater success than The N. K. Fairbank Company.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Syrus Edson.

THE CLAIR PATHE COMPANY.

Tonight that favorite organization, the Clair Pathe Company, will present the great society drama, "Infatuation," by the author of "Jim, the Penman." It is said to be equal to the later production in every way and will undoubtedly prove a very interesting and pleasing bill.

"Garry Owen," the new play written for Tony Farrell, was produced for the first time in St. Louis, at Hagan's theatre last night. It is a clean, healthy Irish drama, full of incident and character work, well executed by a clever company.

Manager Ferguson has made no mistake in securing the Lillian Lewis Company in "Anthony and Cleopatra," which is entirely different from the production made here by Miss Prescott a few seasons ago, although the Prescott production was a dramatic success and very well appreciated by a large audience.

The production by the Lillian Lewis Company is not only a superb dramatic effort, but is also a scenic success, so much so that it requires an entire car for the transportation of scenery alone. Manager Ferguson has been obliged to guarantee a large sum in order to secure this company and give the patrons of the theatre a chance to see a production in which Fanny Davenport has amassed a fortune and which is equally as well presented by her successor, Miss Lillian Lewis, who is ably supported by her handsome young Shakespearean actor, Mr. Charles B. Hanford, and a first-class company, giving the original New York production. It is to be hoped that our theatre-goers will turn out en masse to see this performance on Friday, March 29th, and by so doing give the management confidence in bringing first-class attractions to town.

To Force a Choice in Delaware. DOVER, Del., March 22.—The action of the Higgins supporters in again leaving him yesterday and voting for Benjamin Fields is regarded as confirmation of their purpose to do all in their power to elect a senator, and to force the Addicks and Massey followers to yield. Mr. Massey himself writes a letter urging this. In accordance with the plan of action they have started upon the Higgins people will probably vote for a new man each day. This disposition on the part of the Higgins people will, it is believed, subject the Massey and Addicks supporters to tremendous pressure to come in and unite on a senator.

Fears for Missing Gloucester Schooners. GLOUCESTER, Mass., March 22.—Grave fears are entertained for the safety of the schooner May S. Hontvet, of this port. She sailed on a trip to George's, Jan. 23, since which time nothing had been heard of her. She was commanded by Captain Augustus Benson, with a crew of twelve men. The Hontvet is the third vessel now overdue at this port, the others being the schooners Samuel V. Colby, carrying a crew of seven men, and the schooner Mildred V. Lee.

Terrible Slaughter in Peru. WASHINGTON, March 22.—A dispatch was received last night by Secretary Gresham from Minister McKenzie in Peru, stating that there was bitter and sustained fighting in and around Lima for three days. At the end of this time there were over two thousand dead bodies lying unburied in the streets, and an armistice was agreed upon to permit the dead to be buried and the wounded cared for. Finally an agreement was reached by the leaders, and a provisional government is now in control.

British Demands on Nicaragua.

LONDON, March 22.—The following semi-official statement was obtained by the Associated Press last night in regard to the trouble between Great Britain and Nicaragua: General Barrios, the Nicaraguan envoy, left London with the British demands for compensation in the sum of $15,000 for the expulsion from Bluefields of Mr. Hatch, the British consular agent there, and also for the appointment of a commission to adjudicate the damages sustained by the persons and property of British subjects expelled from the Mosquito reservation. The statement that Great Britain stipulated that no citizen of the United States should be a member of the commission mentioned is inaccurate.

A Clean Collar

One that you can keep clean all the time—a collar that does not wilt when you get over-heated; that does not fray on the edge, or tear out at the buttonholes, and can be cleaned by simply wiping off with a wet sponge or cloth. These collars and cuffs are made by covering linen collars or cuffs on both sides with waterproof "celluloid," thus giving strength and durability. They are the only waterproof goods so made, and every piece is stamped as follows:

Ask for this, and refuse to take any imitation if you expect satisfaction. If your dealer does not keep them, send direct to us, enclosing amount, and we will mail you sample. Collars 25 cts. each.
