

Fire Alarm Boxes.

The following list shows the location of the alarm boxes of the Shenandoah fire department:

LOCATION.

- 16—Coal and Bowers streets. 16—Bowers and Centre streets. 24—Bridge and Centre streets. 25—Main and Centre streets. 32—Jardin and Oak streets. 34—Main and Poplar streets. 35—Main and Coal streets. 43—Gilbert and Centre streets. 43—Gilbert and Cherry streets. 45—Oak and Gilbert streets. 48—West and Poplar streets. 52—Chestnut and Coal streets. 54—West and Lloyd streets.

To send an alarm open the box, pull down the hook once and let go. When an alarm is sent in the fire bell will sound the number of the box and repeat the alarm four times.

HOW TO LOCATE ALARMS.

If the alarm is sounded from box 15 the fire bell will strike one, then pause and strike five, which will indicate that the fire is in the vicinity of No. 15 box. Every alarm is repeated four times.

"Rock Me to Sleep, Mother."

The poem, "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," was written by Elizabeth Akers Allen, known otherwise as "Florence Percy." It is a general favorite for it is a sweet little touch of home life. But there is another side to the picture. Many a mother rocks her child to sleep who can neither rest nor sleep herself. She is always tired, has an everlasting headache, is low spirited, weary, nervous and all that. Thanks be, she can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do the work. There is nothing on earth like it for the "complaints" to which the sex are liable. Once used, it is always in favor.

Dr. Pierce's Pills are specific for biliousness, headaches, constipation, piles, and kindred ailments.

Notice to Subscribers.

Subscribers to the EVENING HERALD who are not receiving their paper regularly and people who wish to receive the paper as new subscribers, are requested to leave their addresses at Hooks & Brown's stationery store, on North Main street.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. E. W. Brown. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are so many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. E. W. Brown tells you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

Coming Events.

- March 29.—Entertainment by the Jr. C. E. Society in the Presbyterian church. Apr. 3.—Lecture in the Welsh Baptist church by Rev. John T. Griffiths. April 23, 24.—Entertainment in the All Saints' P. E. church to raise library funds.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Loper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Grubler Bros.

Rupture.

Cure guaranteed. No operation. Inquire at the Shenandoah drug store, No 8 South Main street. 9-13-14

OUR FIRE DEPARTMENT.

The Fire Laddies Are Deserving of a Generous Support.

Does it ever occur to you, dear reader, to what extent we are indebted to a body of men in this town for the great protection they afford us? I refer to the fire department. It is a difficult matter to find a braver set of men anywhere, including the fire departments of other towns and cities. Especially is this so in reference to the volunteer firemen, who have nothing to gain except the plaudits of an appreciative public, and everything to lose—life, limb and health, not counting loss of time from work and injury to their clothing.

Shenandoah has three companies, the majority of whose members are working people, mostly miners and laborers, and they serve without pay. The annual appropriations allowed them by Council hardly pays the expense in keeping their apparatus in repair, etc.

To our fire laddies much credit is due for the prompt quenching of fires. No other town in the county can show a better record in regard to the number of conflagrations and the trifling loss sustained. Promptness in responding to alarms and the systematic work of the firemen had much to do with it.

Last fall the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company held a fair to replenish their treasury, but our citizens failed to patronize the boys as well as they should. It is true the times were against the project, yet our people found sufficient of the "filthy lucre" to patronize traveling shows and other amusements. The Columbia Hose and Steam Fire Engine Company, the oldest company in the town, are now holding a fair in Robbins' opera house, and so far the patronage has not been what it should. If you appreciate the firemen when they are risking their lives to save property, they should be remembered now that they need your assistance.

In looking over Burgess Burns' police appointments, I notice that my old friend, Michael Curley, of the First ward, is again on the list. Mr. Curley has been a policeman longer, consecutively, than any citizen in the town, never refusing to serve and always ready to respond to duty when called upon.

I have been among those who have been kicking at the bald-headed statesman of Schuylkill Haven as much as anybody, and have come to the conclusion, after reading the evidence before Commissioner Smith in the Hartman case, that he is not as black as he is painted. Sam is a politician of the old school, a straight-tongued, consistent one, and his refusal to vote for the Republican candidate for Congress over two years ago is explained by the fact that the candidate was no Republican.

MAHANAY CITY.

E. Foster, of Rochester, N. Y., is visiting S. G. Seager. Miss R. McKelvey, of Shamokin, is visiting friends in town. Miss Emily Lightenburger visited friends at Girardville yesterday. Arthur Anstock, of Lewisburg, is visiting friends and relatives in town. Mrs. C. Drumm and Miss Sarah Reidington are visiting friends at Philadelphia. Miss Maggie Jones, of Frackville, is the guest of the Edwards family, of East Pine street. John Minchoff is visiting friends at Atlantic City. He is looking for a hotel at that place. Tony Farrell will appear with his new play, "Garry Owen," at Kaiser's opera house this evening. Michael Courtney, aged 50 years, died at his home on West Pine street yesterday morning. He is survived by a wife and twelve children. The funeral will take place on Wednesday morning. Interment will be made at the cemetery on the hill. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Breisch, who had been visiting friends in town, have left for their home in Kansas City. The fair store will be removed to Gorman's old stand, in the Mansion House square, the latter part of this week. The Kaiser bore hole is now 1,305 feet deep and they have not yet reached pure water. They have cut several seams of coal. "Hot Tamales," with Conroy and Fox at the head, which made a great hit here in the early part of the season, will return on April 26th. Thomas E. Edwards, who was in the employ of Morgans, the plumber and gas fitter, for several years, has opened a store on East Centre street. A company of amateurs will produce an excellent temperance drama entitled "The Last Leaf," in the Welsh Baptist church, on Thursday evening, 28th inst.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CLAIR PATHE COMPANY. Tomorrow night the favorite Clair Pathe Company will present another one of their excellent plays at Ferguson's theatre. Those who intend going should secure seats early as they will undoubtedly have a big house. A Ladies' Solo orchestra is a new feature added to this company since they played here last week. Prices as before 10, 20 and 30 cents. LILLIAN LEWIS. Lillian Lewis is a fitting representative of the world's enchantress—the serpent of Old Nile. Miss Lewis could do nothing without betraying the undoubted fact that she is possessed of great intelligence and wonderful power and ability. More rich, substantial, and impressive scenery was never seen, nor was the costume ever more effective, while being at the same time correct. The play is interesting and a beautiful sight.—Dispatch, Richmond, Oct. 12, 1894. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, March 29th.

Families supplied with fine oysters at one dollar per hundred, at the Scheffly House.
