FAREWELL PARTY.

A Pleasant Gathering at Rev. William Powick's Residence Last Evening.

A very pleasant affair took place last evening at the residence of Rev. William Powick, late pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. It was a farewell party tendered to the pastor and his wife by members of the congregation and friends. Several hours were spent most pleasantly. Refreshments were served and many games suitable for the occasion were indulged in. Among the people in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Beddall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooks, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Bird, Mr. and Mrs. Elias Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Asbury Wilde, Mr. and Mrs. Connick, Mr. and Mrs. John Senior, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Davenport, Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Price, Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Girvin, Mr. and Mrs. Horace E. Dengler, Mrs. James Hutton, Mrs. J. S. Kissler, Mrs. A. B. Lamb, Mrs. James Hough, Mrs. M. L. Shoemaker, Mrs. W. J. Morgap, Mrs. E. W. Wilde, Mrs. W. L. Shoemaker, Mrs. J. Daddow, Mrs. James Thomas, Mrs. Yost, Mrs. Edward Beddall, Mrs. O. E. Titman, Mrs. W. Beacham, Mrs. G. Day, Mrs. James Champion, Mrs. Nathan Beddall, Misses Chrisman, Hough, Davis, Holloper, Beacham, Shollenberger, Gilpin, Beddall, Brown, Parry, Sallie Wasley, Minnie Champion, Carrie Powick, Helen Price, Messrs. Henry Shaffer, J. Hough, T. R. Edwards, C. Crobaugh, G. Hough, Bert Hooks, Harry Wasley, Edward Shoemaker, Master Frank Beddall and Drs. J. S. Callen and G. F. Matter.

Ben. Haskey Seriously Ill.

Benjamin Haskey, the East Centre street hotelkeeper, is confined to his bed on account of brain trouble. Dr. J. P. Mann, of Philadelphia, Mr. Haskey's brother-in-law, was in town last evening in consultation with the family physician on the case.

THE SHOW TONIGHT.

Return for One Night of the Clair Patec Company.

There should be a large audience at Ferguson's theatre this evening to witness the beautiful drama, "Infatuation," by the favorite Clair Patec Company. So great an impression did this drama, and the excellent acting of Miss Bray, Miss Taylor, Mr. Nichols, and other members of this organization, that a general demand for its repetition was made, and the management have changed the bill to that play. There has never been a more absorbing drama presented in this city; it is replete with novel and thrilling situations from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The costumes used are exceptionally handsome and attractive. Owing to the fact that the entertainment for the children today after school could not be thoroughly rehearsed, the company has concluded to defer giving the after school matinee. All children anticipating attending the matinee will be admitted tonight to the lower floor of the theatre, at the same price, 10 cents. This is for the convenience of the little girls who can not go into the gallery.

Mr. Trezise's Advancement.

Arthur R. Trezise has resigned his position as electrician at the Shenandoah Heat & Power Company's station. The resignation will take effect next Monday, when Mr. Trezise will leave for New York city, where he has secured a position as first assistant electrician in a large electrical and mechanical institution. Mr. Trezise's advancement is a source of much gratification to his townsmen. It is an other instance of a reward of true merit. He became electrician at the place he now leaves when it was established eight years ago. During that period he was a most faithful and industrious employe, but found time to give studious attention to the intricate electric and other problems with such success that he was enabled to successfully stand a three-hour examination before receiving his new appointment.

Necrology.

The remains of the late Mrs. Mary A. Conry, the estimable wife of Michael P. Conry, the South Main street hotelkeeper, arrived here from Philadelphia last night, accompanied by the bereaved husband, Hon. Patrick Conry, J. J. Franey and Postmaster Michael Mellet. Mrs. Conry was 31 years of age and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Thornton, of Ringtown. She died in a private medical institution at Philadelphia on Monday last, from heart failure. The funeral will take place at ten o'clock tomorrow morning.

Removals.

John W. Hesser has moved into one of the Franey houses on West Coal street.

Kelly, the tailor, will move into the store on West Centre street to be vacated by John Slattery.

Borough Treasurer T. J. Davies has moved into his new residence on West Oak street.

S. L. Brown will change the location of his shoe store to the place now occupied by Champion.

Dr. S. C. Spalding is moving into his South White street property.

AN ITEM FROM THE SOUTH

MAJOR JOHN F. FINNEY SUCCESSFULLY
NEGOTIATES A STREET RAILWAY
DEAL IN VIRGINIA.

A Wholesale Transfer of Franchises
Secured for Sixty-five Thousand
Dollars—It Includes Fifteen
Miles of Track.

Special to the HERALD.

NORFOLK, Va., March 27.—Major John F. Finney, of Pottsville, who has been negotiating for some time past for the purchase of the Portsmouth Railway, closed the deal yesterday for $65,000. The purchase includes every street railway franchise in the city. There are about fifteen miles of railway, extending to West Norfolk, Gosport navy yard, the base ball grounds and other points of interest.

The road will at once be changed so as to supplant the horse power with electric motor power, and in this direction about $150,000 will be expended. This will necessitate the erection of a power station and the purchase of new cars, etc.

[Two years ago Mr. Finney and a number of other gentlemen of this town had an option on the franchises referred to in the above dispatch, but owing to a disagreement among the projectors the deal was dropped. Recently the Barritts, of Pottsville, purchased the narrow gauge railroad in Norfolk and soon after, through the instrumentality of Major Finney, opened negotiations for the purchase of the franchises just secured. Portsmouth is a city of from 15,000 to 20,000 inhabitants, with very wide and well regulated streets, and is connected with Norfolk by ferry. With the introduction of northern blood and capital Portsmouth can be made a busy commercial centre.—ED.]

The Burgess to be Sued.

At about eight o'clock last night two men in the employ of George F. Leitzel started to clean out the cess pools on the East Centre street property upon which C. E. Titman is making improvements. Chief Burgess Burns arrested the men for creating a nuisance, the claim being made that the work was not done within proper hours of the night. Mr. Leitzel showed a permit received from the Board of Health to do the work and no time was specified. The men arrested were discharged, and now Mr. Leitzel says a suit for false imprisonment will be instituted. Chief Burgess Burns says the arrests were made on complaint of business people having stores near the place where the work was going on. The stench was unbearable and Mr. Leitzel refused to allow the men to stop work until ten o'clock at night, or until such time as the business places could be closed.

IMPORTANT LAW SUIT.

The Widow of John H. Zerbe Sues the Lytle Coal Company.

A most important law suit is now on trial before Judge Albright at Pottsville. The defendant is the Lytle Coal Company. Mrs. Kate Zerbe, of Llewellyn, is the plaintiff. Her husband, John H. Zerbe, was one of the unfortunates who lost his life in the ill-fated Lytle colliery with nine of his fellow employes when the mine was suddenly flooded by the impounded waters of an old drift which burst through breast No. 4. The accident occurred April 20, 1892, and created the greatest excitement throughout the country. The suit brought by Mrs. Zerbe is to recover $10,000 for the loss of her husband. It is a test case and in the event of a verdict in her favor, the relatives of the others who lost their lives in the Lytle colliery flood will press their claims, thus making the company liable to the payment of $100,000 in damages. The owners of the mine number such wealthy capitalists as J. Stickney, of New York, and John H. and James Hosie, of Scranton. The most important testimony given yesterday was that of Matthew Below, of Minersville, who was a mine foreman under the Lytle Company, and who swore that the mine ventilation law requiring the drilling of holes was not complied with.

Quay county, O. K., and the Schuyl-kill county delegation fought nobly.

We won't mind the little slice taken from our county.

Of course, Senator Quay will get all the blame, if there is any.

It might have been worse—by taking in Shenandoah and Mahanoy City.

Hazleton people made a good fight and won.

George H. Troutman Esq., and Editor McCarthy, both ex-Schuylkill county men, are "in the swim" of the new county. There will be little weeping over the change.

The new county had more friends in Schuylkill than people were led to believe. Nobody disappointed, except some leading Democratic politicians at the county seat.

On the whole, it is a pretty good thing—for Hazleton.
