"Rock Me to Sleep, Mother."

The poem, "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," was written by Elizabeth Akers Allen, known otherwise as "Florence Percy. It is a general favorite for it is a sweet little touch of home life. But there is another side to the picture. Many a mother rocks her child to sleep who can neither rest nor sleep herself. She is always tired, has an everlasting headache, is low spirited, weary, nervous and all that. Thanks be, she can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do the work. There is nothing on earth like it, for the "complaints" to which she is liable. Once used, it is always in favor.

Dr. Pierce's Pills are specific for biliousness, headaches, constipation, piles, and kindred ailments.

Notice to Subscribers.

Subscribers to the EVENING HERALD who are not receiving their paper regularly and people who wish to receive the paper as new subscribers, are requested to leave their addresses at Hooks & Brown's stationery store, on North Main street.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, all expectorations, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

Coming Events.

- March 29—Entertainment by the Jr. C. E. Society in the Presbyterian church. Apr. 2—Lecture in the Welsh Baptist church by Rev. John T. Griffiths. E. church to raise library funds.

A severe rheumatic pain in the left shoulder had troubled Mr. J. H. Leper, a well known druggist of Des Moines, Iowa, for over six months. At times the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. With all he could do he could not get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says, "and have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Grubler Bros.

THE SUPERVISOR'S WORK.

That Official Has a Large Contract on His Hands.

The Supervisor has a big contract on his hands. The streets and alleys are greatly lined of his attention, and he cannot postpone active operations much longer, a week or ten days at the furthest. I cannot recall a time when the streets were in as filthy a condition as they are today. This state of affairs can be attributed, to some extent, to the long and severe winter we have passed through.

It might not be deemed presumptuous on my part to suggest that the Supervisor put on an extra large force of men so as to cover the whole town in as limited a time as possible. It will cost the borough no more in the end. The practice of doing a certain amount of work each month is hardly to be commended. Such a course might be adopted after the first general cleaning up. There is too much danger in delay at the close of winter, as the deadly fumes arising from filthy streets breed disease and pestilence.

The present Supervisor has a most excellent chance to make a record during his present term that may be the means of continuing him in the position for three more years. It is generally believed that the bill now before the Legislature giving the people the power to elect the Supervisor and one or two other borough officials, instead of Council, and extending the term to three years, will pass that body. So you can see the advisability of the present Supervisor exerting himself.

During the past few days I noticed a number of new hands employed in keeping the crossings clean and gutters open, and I understand that the Supervisor intends giving others than the "regulars" a chance to earn a part of their living on the borough, as long as they are tax payers. He is right, and deserves commendation.

There is so much barnyard off in the alleys and on some of the principal streets that a stranger in town is led to believe that he is in some agricultural village instead of a big coal town. Much of this is due to carelessness, but a great deal to the penuriousness of owners of stables who fail to provide suitable depositories and have the manure hauled away when it becomes foul. Every rain washes considerable of this off into the gutters, thence upon the main thoroughfares. This state of affairs needs a remedy, and the sooner it is applied the better. The Board of Health and the Sanitary Committee of Council might, with much profit to the health of the borough, form themselves into a committee of the whole and make a tour of inspection of the town as early as possible.

They would find things greatly to their dislike, and would then adopt vigorous measures demanding a general cleaning up by the people, which the town is at present sadly in need of.

There are properties in town that are not connected with any of the numerous sewers, and everything in the shape of slops, wash water, etc., is run into gutters on the surface, and there to breed disease and eventually cause the death of innocent people. There ought to be, and perhaps is, an ordinance or law compelling property owners to drain their habitations properly.

Council should pass an ordinance compelling owners of stables, especially where there are private residences in close proximity, to keep their places scrupulously clean. Failure to do so should subject them to fine.

Sensible people, who have regard for the health of their tenants, do not need to be compelled to keep their places clean. How would they like to have a foul-smelling stable close enough to spoil their meals?

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring, much to the disgust of the tidy housekeepers. When showers, then May flowers, will soon be here; so be patient.

INDEX.

Relief for Rheumatism.

"This information," said a well-known physician to a correspondent of the Telegram, "may save many lives; at any rate it will prove an invaluable boon to people suffering from rheumatism in any form." "Rheumatism is caused by acidity of the blood. It should never be neglected. This remedy, as I know by long practice, is very efficacious and it is as simple as it is powerful." "Here it is," he added, "When a rheumatic twinge is experienced, the patient should buy a bottle of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy and take one teaspoonful in milk or water to suit the action of the bowels, three times a day, and continue daily until the last vestige of the malady has disappeared. That's all, but if taken as I have prescribed, it will save many doctors' bills, to say nothing of pain, aches and swellings. I've never known it to fail."—Albany, N. Y., Telegram.

Another Judge.

Three and one makes four. Schuylkill county will now have an Orphan's Court Judge.

The bill passed the House, finally, yesterday. The friends of the measure are feeling jubilant.

Who will the Governor appoint? T. H. B. Lyon, Esq., of Mahanoy City, has the inside track; will he be turned down by a later day patriot? Now let the band play.

Feigenspan's Book. Now on tap at all the principal hotels and saloons. It is a genuine book beer. No counterfeit, but excellent beer direct from the celebrated Christian Feigenspan Brewery, Newark, N. J. 3-14-2w

"I had a bad cold which developed into bronchitis. Physicians gave me no relief, and I finally tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. One bottle cured me completely. It is a wonderful medicine." Jacob Hammies, Lyon Station, Pa.

A Novel Idea.

It is free, and deeply interests everybody who has aches or pains, or who is weak and sickly. Anyone can learn the surest and quickest means to get strong and well by accepting that splendid free offer of the great specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th St., New York City. He has established a system of letter correspondence through which all sick and suffering people can learn exactly what ails them, and how to get well, without expense and without leaving their homes. All they have to do is to write to the doctor, stating each symptom from which they are suffering, and he will answer their letter, explaining their case thoroughly, telling just what the trouble is and what to do to be cured. He gives the greatest care and attention to every letter, and tells the cause of each symptom so plainly that patients understand instantly just what ails them. And all this, costing nothing. It is a splendid opportunity for those who cannot afford the time or expense to go to the city. Dr. Greene makes a specialty of curing patients through letter correspondence. He is the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases, and is the discoverer of that wonderful medicine, Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. Those who write to him get cured.

AMUSEMENTS.

THE CLAIR PATHE COMPANY TONIGHT. An extra and special feature will be presented tonight, in the celebrated lady violinist, Miss Lillian Eugenia Matchless, who will render some difficult violin solos between acts. This lady is a graduate of the Cologne Musical College, Cologne, Germany, and has toured Europe and the United States in concert, being recognized as the only successful rival of the great Camilla Urso. She will play upon one of the oldest and most valuable instruments manufactured by Nicholas Amati in 1611, and it came into possession of Miss Matchless as an heirloom, descending from a long line of ancestors. Fabulous sums have been offered for the instrument by wealthy musicians, but the lady would not part with it. The selections tonight will be varied in order to please all musical tastes. Prices 10, 20 and 30 cents.

LILLIAN LEWIS.

Plays Cleopatra with such artistic grace, that it is not too much to say that the part has never been more skillfully rendered. She is both sweet and winsome in her rendition, and at the same time reaches the grandness of the part in its truest light. In her rendition of Cleopatra, Lillian Lewis has outstripped her predecessors. At Ferguson's theatre on Friday evening, March 29th.

For earache, put a couple of drops of Thomas' Electric Oil on a bit of cotton and place it in the ear. The pain will stop in a few moments. Simple enough, isn't it?

With the passage of these bills there will be no more wrangling, or deadlocks, in council. No one will regret the change when once made. Hallelujah!
