MANITOBA'S ANSWER.
NO RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS.

It Is Contained in an Article in the Government's Organ.
The Catholic Proposition Declared to be a Violation of One of the Foundation Principles of State Organization—"The State Shall Not Support Religion."

WINNIPEG, Man., March 28.—The renewal order on separate schools does not come up in the legislature until tonight, but it is nevertheless the one topic of the day here. Both the government and opposition are holding frequent caucus meetings, and what the outcome will be is difficult to predict. One thing is certain, that the Manitoba government will resist interference by Ottawa on educational matters. There is every indication that the policy of the opposition in the legislature will be to propose some modifications of the present law—in other words, some sort of compromise. The opposition of Premier Greenway and the government is almost unanimous. The newspaper organ of the opposition has in its official statement, under the heading "Manitoba's Answer," the following declaration:

"The renewal order has been read in the legislature. We are asked to restore the school system that was in operation previous to 1893. Let Quebec and Ottawa rest assured that the restoration will never be made. Manitoba has too long a sense of justice, too much regard for truth and equity, to recognize as a religious aristocracy an element in the population who mean the most worthy. As a civilized people, attempting to realize in a measure the ideals of the nineteenth century, Manitobans will not submit to the proposition that the wheels of progress be turned back the wheels of progress 33 years. We will stubbornly refuse to support modern civilization by medievalism."

"This whole question is not a quarrel between Manitoba and the Dominion. It is not even a quarrel between east and west; it is a struggle as to whether the ideas of the nineteenth century or the ideas of the dark ages shall prevail. The act of 1893 was designed to give every child in the land the benefits of common school education. It recognized neither class nor creed, but placed all on the same level of common citizenship. It aimed at development in this noble country a unity of sentiment, a strong feeling of brotherhood, and it sought to strike all prejudices and distinctions through making all equal in the sight of the law."

"Could anything be more wise? Could anything be more just? Yet what was the attitude of the Roman Catholic church? Standing aside, wrapped up in its black mantle of arrogance, it demanded that it should be considered a religious aristocracy. It refused to have the children of its members receive instructions side by side with the children of those who are their superiors in intelligence and wisdom. And on what grounds? It said Catholics were promised different treatment from others by the act that called the province into existence."

"Then when shown that even if this were true, which it is not, no just citizen would claim a fulfillment of the provincial since it would violate one of the foundation principles of state organization—equal rights to all—it gave a second reason that the public schools are Protestant. If the refusal of a Roman Catholic to act as a member of the department of education, and of the prohibition to act as a member of the advisory board, could make the schools Protestant, then they are so; otherwise, not a shadow of proof has been advanced in support of this claim."

"Medievalism cannot or will not coalesce with modern thought. In place of the act of 1893 what a substitute is offered? We are asked to add creed against creed and race against race, to break up the unity that should exist, to mutually support each other in wrong doing; to make the state the teacher of religious truth. Any one who has the least sense of justice, any one who is patriotic in the slightest degree, any one who believes that all citizens are equal in the sight of the law, and what is good enough for one is good enough for all, must stand by the act of 1893."

"And this is our answer to Quebec. We shall not allow the state to support religion. We shall not allow the church to control the state. We shall not return to the civilization of the dark ages. We shall not recognize Rome as better, or in any way different from others. We shall hold to the principle of equal rights for all, and that principle shall be dearer to us than confederation itself."

DISCONTENT AT OTTAWA.
Sir Charles Tupper Resigns from the Dominion Cabinet.
 OTTAWA, March 28.—There is more excitement in political circles today than at any time since the news was received here of the sudden death of William R. Castle, Sir John Thompson. That there are serious dissensions in the cabinet goes without saying. There are two causes for this want of harmony. One is the recent passage of the order in council recommending the Manitoba government to grant remedial legislation to the Catholic minority. This order has pleased nobody. The Catholics of Quebec think that the order ought to be quashed, while the Protestants of Ontario assert that the federal government ought not, even by suggestion, to interfere with the question of provincial education. The other cause of trouble was the decision of the cabinet to hold a session of parliament before going home to the country. This decision was bitterly opposed by Hon. George Foster, minister of finance.

It is known that Sir Charles Tupper has tendered his resignation. His resignation was brought about by two causes. In the first place, his advice that an immediate appeal should be made to the country was disregarded, and his claim to lead the house of commons was denied. It is customary for the minister of justice, who portfolio Sir Charles Tupper holds, to lead; but owing to his youth and the jealousy of older cabinet members the leadership was given to Mr. Foster.

There is a very pronounced rumor to the effect that Finance Minister Foster and Mr. N. Clark Wallace, the controller of customs, will also resign. Should this prove true, it means that the French Catholics will have a preponderance of power in the cabinet, a thing that Ontario will not agree to.

 W. T. Loffer, a well known resident of Kent, Ohio, says that Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure undoubtedly saved his life, by relieving his experience he said: "For a long time I have been afflicted with dyspepsia. I could eat scarcely anything and was in constant pain. The gas on my stomach affected it greatly and my head became dizzy. I was troubled with short breathing, fluttering and irregular beating of the heart, and often the pain was so great that I thought I was going to die. My friends wanted me to try Munyon's Dyspepsia Cure, but I had tried so many different medicines without benefit that I thought this would be only one more fruitless effort. Finally I began using it and the result was wonderful. After the first bottle I could eat without discomfort, and an hour thoroughly cured me."
