MRS. CLEMMENS' FATE

Pressure of Trouble and Continued Want Drives Her Out of Her Mind.

VERY DISTRESSING CASE.

AFTER BATTLING AGAINST POVERTY THE UNFORTUNATE WOMAN BECOMES VIOLENTLY INSANE.

The Charity Concert Held in Ferguson's Theatre Last Night Was a Success—What the Committee Expects to Realize.

One of the most distressing cases that have been brought to the attention of the people of this town for some time is that of Mrs. Thomas Clemmens, who was yesterday taken by the authorities to the insane department of the county almshouse. The woman at present appears to be completely broken down in mind, although her friends hope that after proper treatment for a while she may be restored to sound mind and good health. Mrs. Clemmens' case was first brought to the attention of the public about two weeks ago, when her four-month old child died from congestion of the lungs. The HERALD gave publicity to the case and Health Officer Miles, Chief Burgess Burns and Poor Director Derr did what they could to relieve the wants of the family temporarily. At the same time they notified friends of the family of the condition of affairs.

The family consisted of the husband, wife and three small boys, not counting the child that died. The husband had been out of work for two weeks and the last pay he received amounted to $6.50, of which $4.50 had to be paid to the landlord. The only food found in the house when the officials visited it was a crust of bread. Poor Director Derr furnished some food and Undertaker O'Hara prepared the remains for burial. It was then hoped that the friends of the family would take some steps towards relief, but they evidently did not do so. The corpse of the child remained in the house for two days, when Mrs. Clemmens called at the Council chamber and pleaded for the Chief Burgess' aid. She said she feared the body would be taken to the county burial ground at Schuylkill Haven. The Burgess consulted with Poor Director Derr and arrangements were made by which the child was buried in a plot in the Odd Fellows' cemetery owned by the family. This was a source of great relief to the unfortunate woman, but her trials had ravished her mind and it continued to give way. Continued want, and apparent indifference to her condition, finally broke the woman down completely and yesterday her mind was in such a condition that she became violent. Chief Burgess Burns was called in and he made arrangements with Poor Director Derr by which the unfortunate victim was taken to the almshouse yesterday afternoon. The husband is now trying to provide for the children.

There is a problem presented with this case, which, for the sake of the general welfare of humanity, should be solved at once. People expected to take a charitable stand in connection with the case said, when appealed to, that they did not feel inclined to act. They said the woman was evidently respectable and deserving, but the husband was a drinker and evidently without ambition. This woman was driven to insanity by want and failed to receive relief, because her husband was unworthy. It certainly cannot be expected that the charitably inclined people shall help those who will not help themselves, but in this case charity seems to have forgotten her name to some extent.

"I had a bad cold which developed into grip. Physicians gave me no relief, and I finally tried Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. One bottle cured me completely. It is a wonderful medicine." Jacob Hannies, Lyon Station, Pa.

Mr. Hughes' New Position.
Edward Hughes, who was appointed keeper of the hospital at the almshouse, Schuylkill Haven, by the new board of Poor Directors, will leave town tomorrow with his family for the above place. He enters upon his duties on Monday. Mr. Hughes has been a resident of this place for the past twenty eight years, and at times has held the positions of fire marshal and assistant fire marshal. In 1890 he was appointed Borough Supervisor. Of late years his health has been failing.

Mr. Haskey Improved.
Benjamin Haskey, the East Centre street hotelkeeper, who is suffering from inflammation of the brain, is slightly improved. Yesterday Drs. Harn and Mann, of Philadelphia, were in consultation with the family physician, Dr. J. S. Callen, and gave the family little hope. Last night Mr. Haskey's chances for recovery were very few, but towards morning his condition improved and today his condition is quite favorable. He is under the care of a trained nurse.

"Antony and Cleopatra."

The Lillian Lewis Company with an entire car load of scenery, calcium lights and all effects which go to make up a most superb production of that greatest of all Shakespearian plays, "Antony and Cleopatra," arrived in town this morning and this evening our theatre-goers, as well as large parties from nearby towns, will be given an opportunity of seeing the greatest theatrical event of the season in the coal region. The chart now open at Kirilin's drug store would go to show that there will be a large attendance, as crowds have been keeping Mr. Kirilin busy all day checking seats for this performance. The national reputation of Miss Lewis should be all the guarantee necessary, even if she had not the support of that brilliant young Shakespearian actor, Mr. Charles B. Hanford, who is now booked for a production of "Caesar," on September 30th. The company is made up of first-class artists, and each is specially adapted for the parts assigned to them, and the play is put on in such a manner that it pleases all, from the smallest gallery god to the most enlightened Shakespearian scholar. This is done by the use of special scenery particularly gotten out for Miss Lewis' performance. That the largest house of the season will greet this company is certain, for nearly every person spoken to says they would not miss it for anything. Those desiring good seats should call early at Kirilin's drug store as there will not be many vacant seats.

Scally, the Dudc.

The appearance of Joe Scally, the boot-black and newboy, in an entire new outfit, and looking as fresh and prim as a daisy, has caused no little comment on the streets. Joe owes his good luck to Mr. P. J. Ferguson, who gave the boy a new suit of clothes, new hat and shoes and shirt, collar and necktie on condition that he attend school. Joe has made the bargain, and it is hoped he will stick to it. With some education the boy will make his mark.

Operatives Fight.

Hattie Womer and Mary Fallon, two operatives in the Schuylkill cap factory on East Coal street, quarrelled in the factory yesterday and last night Hattie had Mary before Justice Cardin on a charge of assault and battery. The accused girl was put under $100 bail for trial at court. The complainant says the trouble was caused by the other girls in the factory teasing her because she joined the Salvation Army.

THE NEWS GLEANINGS

A Tunnel Contractor Meets With a Very Serious Accident at Rappahannock.

FELL UNDER A LOCOMOTIVE

THE VICTIM'S LEFT LEG AMPUTATED BELOW THE KNEE AND TOES OF THE RIGHT FOOT TAKEN OFF.

Editor Doyle Presses His Claim Against the Borough For Services Rendered as Secretary of the Joint Water Committee.

William Roberts, a tunnel contractor formerly of Shamokin and now of Girardville, met with a serious accident while on his way home from work yesterday. Roberts and a clerk at Packer No. 5 colliery joined the engineer in the cab of a mine locomotive for a ride on the surface from the slope to the shaft of the colliery. En route it was necessary to cross a trestle and as they approached this point they saw a cow on the track. Roberts and the clerk alighted from the locomotive and the former ran ahead to drive the cow from the track. The engineer kept the locomotive on a slow run and Roberts walked immediately ahead of it. The latter got the track clear and was about to step aside when he slipped and fell. The locomotive passed over his left leg and right foot, crushing them badly.

Roberts was removed to the Miners' Hospital, where his left leg was amputated just below the knee and the toes of the right foot were taken off.

Boyle Sues.

Editor M. E. Doyle, of the Sunday News, has brought suit against the borough to recover $300 for services rendered and expenses incurred as secretary of the joint committee on public water works. The Council disallowed the claim on the ground that the service was made voluntarily and there was no agreement made by which any member of the committee should receive pay.

THE CHARITY CONCERT.

A Large Audience Attended It in Ferguson's Theatre Last Night.

It is estimated that about twelve hundred people attended the concert in Ferguson's theatre last night, which was given to raise funds for the worthy poor of the town. The program was a very pleasing one and many of the members were cordially encored. It was as follows:

Salute march, F. Zeltz, dedicated to Dr. and Mrs. Bordner, St. George's Cornet Band; "The Glory of God in Nature," L. Beethoven, St. George's Cornet Band; duet, "I Would That My Love," Meudessohn, Misses Yost and Wasley; duets for violins, Plegel, Miss Eva Brewer and Prof. Zeltz; "The Swallow," Leslie; "Jack Frost," Hatton, Ladies Singing Club; piano solo, "Danse de Concert," Fr. Bendel, Mrs. G. W. Wasley; concert polka, souvenir, "The Skating Ring," dedicated to Mr. and Mrs. H. Welderhold, F. Zeltz, St. George's Cornet Band; selection from "Laurelia Borgia," Donzaetti, St. George's Cornet Band; polka mazurka, "Heart's Wishes," F. Zeltz, St. George's Cornet Band; selection from "Martha," Flotow, violin, Miss Eva Brewer, piano, Miss Millie Schmidt; trombone solo, Prof. F. Zeltz; piano solo, "Titania," Laforture-Wely, Miss Helen Price; soprano solo, "Waiting," H. Millard, Miss Ruby Yost; "Rise Again, Glad Summer Sun," Leslie, alto, Miss S. Wasley, The Bird at Sea, Smart, soprano, Miss Yost, alto, Miss S. Wasley, Ladies Singing Club; march, "Luck Up," C. Faust, St. George's Cornet Band.

As a number of people who had charge of the advance sale of tickets have not made their reports it is impossible to say at this time what the concert netted, but the committee expects to have at least $250 at its disposal.

The piano used at the concert was one kindly loaned by J. R. Smith & Co., of Milton, who had the instrument sent direct from the factory in New York. It is a very fine instrument and, considering that it is toned to an international pitch, and not intended for concerts, was very satisfactory to the ladies upon whom made use of it.

The committee will proceed to make arrangements for distributions at the earliest possible date, and to that end the general committee will meet at Dr. Bordner's residence, on East Oak street, at 8 o'clock, next Tuesday evening, to receive returns from people who sold tickets and arrange dates for the relief committee to meet and make the distributions.
