"Rock Me to Sleep, Mother."
The poem, "Rock Me to Sleep, Mother," was written by Elizabeth Akers Allen, known otherwise as Florence Percy. It is a general favorite for it is a sweet little touch of home life. But there is another side to the picture. Many a mother rocks her child to sleep who can neither rest nor sleep herself. She is always tired, has an everlasting headache, is low spirited, nervous and all that. Thanks be, she can be cured. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do the work. There is nothing on earth like it, for the "complaints" to which the sex are liable. Once used, it is always in favor.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets are specific for biliousness, headaches, constipation, piles, and kindred ailments.

Notice to Subscribers.
Subscribers to the EVENING HERALD who are not receiving their paper regularly and people who wish to receive the paper as new subscribers, are requested to leave their addresses at Hooks & Brown's stationery store, on North Main street.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York come from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. New York is one of the healthiest places on the Atlantic Coast and yet there are a great many cases of asthma and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have an get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Dr. Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretion and soon effect a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros.

At last the pain was so severe that he could not lift anything. "With all he could do he could get rid of it until he applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm. "I only made three applications of it," he says. "And have since been free from all pain." He now recommends it to persons similarly afflicted. It is for sale by Grubler Bros.

RIOTOUS GIRL CONVICTS.

Three Wagon Loads of Police Called to Subdue Thirty of Them.
CHICAGO, March 19.—Three members of the board of trustees of the State Home for Juvenile Female Offenders were given a practical illustration last evening of the insubordination which has reigned among the inmates for several weeks past. Mrs. Charles Henrotin, Mrs. J. D. Harvey and Mrs. G. M. Holt spent the afternoon at the home and took supper with the inmates. The thirty girls confined in the home took advantage of the presence of the representatives of the board of management to show what they could do in the way of rioting.

They succeeded so well that they smashed nearly all the crockery in the house, dismantled the dining room furniture, broke windows, threw the contents of the pantry about the premises, filled the air with shouts, and then refused to go to their rooms at the command of the police. It required three wagon loads of policemen to quell the riot, and it was found necessary to carry the majority of the girls to their rooms by main strength and to leave a policeman on guard through the night at the door of each room.

The outbreak was the result of a meeting held by the girls in the afternoon, when it was decided to show by breaking the furniture resentment for the partiality shown by the management, as claimed by the girls, for Mamie Davis, who was allowed to go home. Maggie Davis, the girls claim, was the ringleader among them. At the supper table the girls were models of propriety, and listened to the remarks of Mrs. Henrotin and the other members of the board of managers with attention. These were calculated to show them the wrongfulness of insubordination.

During the riot Mrs. Henrotin and the other ladies were forced to remain in the room and witness the scene, the girls having locked the doors.

Miss Dickinson's Suit for Damages.
SCLANTON, Pa., March 19.—In the trial of Anna Dickinson's suit for alleged illegal incarceration in the Duvalle insane asylum John Baldwin, conductor on the train which took Anna to Duvalle, swore that she said to him: "Conductor, I want you to send a telegram to ex-Governor Pattison and Jay Gould. Tell Pattison we must have universal suffrage, and ask Gould for a million dollars." Martha Brown, a servant at the Dickinson residence in West Pittston, said she saw Anna often seize her sister by the throat. Susan Glenn swore that Anna told her Susan B. Anthony, Frances Willard and Madame Eliza were in a conspiracy against her. C. W. St. John testified that he had sold whisky, brandy and raw alcohol to Anna in large quantities on various occasions.

Murderer Bigelow Was Insane.
NEW YORK, March 19.—That the murderer Amy Thill and the suicide of her slayer, John Bigelow, were the work of a madman is made more certain by the statement of John Holden, an intimate friend of Bigelow's. Holden says that Bigelow has been in retreats for the insane at least five times within the last ten years. The last time Bigelow was in a lunatic asylum was in the fall of 1892, when he spent some time in a retreat at Hartford. He has also been several times in Bloomingdale.

Much Timber Destroyed in New Jersey.
BRIDGEVILLE, N. J., March 19.—A fierce forest fire is burning in this section. It was discovered early yesterday morning by employes of the Atlantic City Railroad company. The district between Pleasantville, N. J., and this place has been burned. Many buildings and a large quantity of timber were consumed by the flames, and the loss will aggregate thousands of dollars. The origin of the fire is unknown. The high winds rapidly spread the flames and increased the difficulty of fighting the fire.

A Suicide's Crimson Warning.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., March 19.—Mrs. John Guite committed suicide by cutting her throat with a large case-knife. The woman was mentally deranged through constant reading of the Bible. With blood from the gash in her throat she painted those disconnected words in huge letters on the walls of her bed chamber: "You are in danger. Your city is going to burn. False people children your children. Chop up." Apparently the woman had died while painting the words.

Charged with Bobbing a County.
CRYSTAL FALLS, Mich., March 19.—Seven members of the board of supervisors of Iron county have been arrested at the instigation of the Tax Reform association, charged with defrauding the county in the matter of compensation for services and in other directions. Their names are M. Winckler, Iron River; S. G. Bennett, Mastodon; Frank Erickson, Holmes; E. H. Hooper, Mansfield; D. B. Hawley, Atkinson; William Danielt, Crystal Falls.

Robbed a Pennsylvania Postoffice.
ALTOONA, Pa., March 19.—Five burglars broke into the Bellwood postoffice during the night, blew open the safe and secured $100 worth of postage stamps, some pennies and two registered letters. A citizen named Homer, who was aroused by the explosion, fired at the burglars and the fire was returned. None of the shots was effective, and the burglars escaped without leaving a clue as to their identity.

Discharged for Frequenting Saloons.
FORT HOWARD, Wis., March 19.—The St. Paul Railway company has summarily dismissed eleven engineers and thirty-five firemen from its division running into this city. The cause of this wholesale dismissal is said to be due to the men frequenting saloons when off duty.

New York's Polluted Election Officers.
NEW YORK, March 19.—The highest men under indictment for violations of the election law were arraigned for pleading before Justice Ingraham, in the case of one and terminating yesterday. In the cases of Thomas Green and John P. Grasser, charged with keeping the polls open twenty-two minutes after the time allowed by the law, in order to permit a number of voters to cast their ballots, counsel was given until next Wednesday to file a demurrer, the understanding being that a test will be made of these cases. Portell, King, Whitman, Andrew, Ryan and Leaman were given until next Friday to file briefs.

The Vengeance of Moonshiners.
WINDSOR, N. C., March 19.—In the racing river neighborhood of Wilkes county a crowd of whisky blockaders went to the home of a farmer, called him to his front door and shot him through the thigh. The wound is dangerous. The crowd then went to the home of the farmer's son and tore it down completely. They also visited and burned an unoccupied house belonging to another son. The father and two sons were witnesses in a case tried recently against a moonshiner named Willis.

Alisa Again Defeated.
NICE, March 19.—The match for big yachts which was declared void on Saturday last by the racing committee on the ground that both the Alisa and the Britannia crossed the line before the starting gun was fired, the Valkyrie also being disqualified for not carrying side lights after dark, was resumed yesterday by the three yachts mentioned. The Alisa was thirty miles, and was won by the Britannia in 3 h. 45 m., ten minutes ahead of the Alisa.

Boilermakers Refuse to Strike.
BUFFALO, March 19.—Despite the efforts of the walking delegates from Cleveland to induce the boilermakers of the Erie-Rioer works of this city, to refuse to work on the boilers shipped here by the Cleveland Shipbuilding company until that company had adjusted the grievances of its striking employes, the Buffalo boilermakers decided not to strike. They are at work on the Cleveland boilers today.

Confessed to a Detective.

Detective Simpson testified that he had followed Hendricks to his home in Hoboken, where he passed as James Johnson. In time the two men became intimate, and Hendricks confessed that he had struck the fatal blow. On the strength of this testimony the prisoner was sent back to jail.
