Evening Herald

MONDAY, APRIL 8, 1895.

The Republican victories in St. Louis and Chicago last week demonstrated that the Cleveland Administration and the Democratic policy are condemned by the people with as much alacrity as they were last November. In Ohio the same story is reported—the Democratic party has met again with a rebuke—the only city where it had any kind of decent support being Columbus, which has been for years a stronghold of that party.

There is an old saying that "prevention is better than cure," and experience proves it to be true. If the very fussy ladies of both sexes of the "genus" prude, who have lately been hounding the "unfortunates" from public places of amusement—although these have paid for their seats and behaved as well as others—if these, we say, wish to prove their sincerity in their work, let them practise prevention and avoid persecution.

Let them cease harrrying the immoral women who are irremediable, and whose vices are to a great degree the faults of society and of immoral men, and let them strike at the root of our great social evil. This cannot be done by adding to the hardships of adults, but by improving our laws and ameliorating the lives of the children. It is too late when social pests have been manufactured by unjust laws and cruel conditions, to blame them for the misfortune of their existence.
Rather let us place the sin where it deservedly stands—upon our own shoulders.
We, a Christian people, rejoicing in wealth and freedom, permit tens of thousands of our very poor to herd like beasts and to grow up like brutes. Our slums are crowded with those who live, one, two, three or more families, in one room, where every function of life is performed by all. These frequently comprise many grown or growing-up youths of both sexes. Brothers and sisters, fathers and daughters, mothers and sons, huddled together in the same miserable bed, every shred of modesty stripped from each from their very infancy, every decency of civilized life daily violated. And the owners of such places of ten pocket the profitable proceeds of these incestuous tenements, and then persecute the prostitutes who have been born and bred there. As well blame mushrooms for growing on a dung-hill.

The proper ventilation of churches is very properly beginning to attract a reasonable share of public attention. That some of our churches are badly ventilated no one who has ever attended during service when they are crowded will dispute.
Most persons are afraid of draughts, and very properly, but it does not appear to have entered into the minds of the masses of church goers that there is as much danger in churches that have little or no ventilation as in those that are affected with draughts. The air in an airtight church becomes vitiated, and is therefore pernicious and poisonous. Pure air has life-giving qualities, of which it is devoid in such edifices by being breathed and rebreathed many times over. It needs not the saying that the breath of many persons, men and women, is in the highest degree offensive, the offensiveness always proceeding from some disease.
Each respiration from such mouths and throats carries with it into the atmosphere poisonous air, which, of course, mingles with the atmosphere, and is taken in divided quantities into other lungs where it may impart disease. A great many persons never think of this danger, not to speak of the disgust naturally inspired by the contemplation of the subject.
Individual cups are beginning to take the place of the chalice at communion sessions in quite a number of churches, and gurely on hygienic grounds. The change is to be commended, though it makes the administration of the Sacrament less impressive; but those familiar with the ill effects of breathing such vitiated air as that sure to abound in badly ventilated churches will agree that between the two evils the danger from it is very much greater than from the use of the old-fashioned chalice.

Big Fight Expected in Chitral.

SIMLA, April 8.—The first brigade of the British force moving to the relief of Mr.
Robertson, the British agent at Chitral, has had an engagement with 5,000 Swatis, who were trying to block the Melakand Pass. The enemy were put to flight after losing thirty killed by a charge of cavalry.
The brigade is now at Khar, in Swat, where it is awaiting the organization of a transport service. A considerable number of fanatics from Upper Swat have joined Umra, khan of Jandol, who is leading the forces against the British, and a big fight is expected.

Japan's Peace Terms.

PARIS, April 8.—It is stated on reliable authority that Japan has proposed the following conditions for the conclusion of peace: The independence of Korea, the cession of southern Manchuria, including Port Arthur, the cession of the Island of Formosa, the opening of Chinese ports and rivers to commerce, the payment of an indemnity of 400,000,000 yen and the occupation of a number of strategic points until the indemnity shall have been paid.

Clergymen Investigate Milwaukee Vice.

MILWAUKEE, April 8.—The Rev. Walter J. Patton, of Asbury Methodist Episcopal church, and another preacher, whose name is not positively known, spent nearly the whole of Saturday night in a tour of the Milwaukee tenement district. They were accompanied by a well known man about town, and they saw things, Mr. Patton says, that eclipse for moral depravity anything he has ever seen, and he has made investigations of the same kind in Chicago and New York. They also visited the gambling houses. Mr. Patton intimates that the evidence he secured will be used in a campaign against vice that has been mapped out by well known people.

Exciting Scene in a Belgian Court.

BRUSSELS, April 5.—There was an exciting scene in a law court here following the trial of two anarchists who were convicted of writing pamphlets, etc., denouncing the military and upholding anarchy. The prisoners were quiet enough during the progress of the trial, but when the jury returned a verdict of guilty they rose and in the most violent language insulted the judge and jurymen. Many friends and sympathizers of the anarchists were in the court room, and they joined in shouting imprecations against the court officials.
The attempts of the judge to restore order were without avail, and the uproar continued until gendarmes cleared the court room.

Li Hung Chang's Wound Healed.

SHIMOKESKI, Japan, April 8.—The wound in the face of Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy, who was shot March 24 by a patriotic fanatic, has now completely healed. The bandages were removed yesterday. Prince Komatsu, commander-in-chief of the Japanese army and navy, will leave Hiroshima on Wednesday next to establish his headquarters in China.

Pensioners Will Revolt.

NASHUA, N. H., April 8.—The pensioned soldiers at the State Soldiers' Home, whose pension money, except $2 a month, under the rules of the home, is kept by the management, have rebelled, stating that they will refuse to turn over the money when it comes this week, and that they will leave the home in a body if the point is forced.
The directors say that the rules will be enforced.

Disastrous Hall Storms in Georgia.

ATHENS, Ga., April 8.—This section of Georgia was visited by two destructive hall storms yesterday. Hall storms as large as hen's eggs descended and wrought great damage to fruit and garden plants. The rain fell heavily, and was accompanied by a strong wind. It is thought the storm will prove to be one of the worst that has occurred in years.

Governor Marvill Falling Rapidly.

LAUREL, Del., April 8.—Governor Mar-vill is falling rapidly. His faculties have been closed down to avoid the noise, and the streets have also been roped off at each end of the block to prevent teams passing.
Good authority states that in all probability the end cannot be far off.

May be Killed by a Jackstone.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 8.—A 5-year-old child of George Manjunas, a Shenandoah saloon keeper, has swallowed a cast iron jackstone, such as children play with, and is not expected to live.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Praise services were held throughout Nebraska yesterday to give thanks for recent rain storms.

the peace negotiations.
It is feared that John Raekum was burned to death by a fire in the Kirkland block at Northampton, Mass.
The men who robbed the postoffice at Springfield, Ill., are known to the authorities, and their capture is considered certain. They are all expert thieves.
The mill operatives of Providence, R.
I., have decided to go on strike on Wednesday for a return to the old rate of wages. Employers declare they cannot pay the price asked.

PAINT cracks.—It often costs more to prepare a house for repainting that has been painted in the first place with cheap ready-mixed paints, than it would to have painted it twice with strictly pure white lead, ground in pure linseed oil.

Strictly Pure White Lead forms a permanent base for repainting and never has to be burned or scraped off on account of scaling or cracking. It is always smooth and clean. To be sure of getting strictly pure white lead, purchase this brand:

paints. Saves time and annoyance in mixing shades, and insures the best paint that is possible to put in wood.
Send in a postal card and get our book on

THE CHICKAUB COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY

FEARING A LABOR RIOT.

Governor Werts, of New Jersey, Called Upon for State Troops.

PETER AMBOY, N. J., April 6.—The Staten Island Terra Cotta company at Spa Springs, near here, of which J. Edward Addicks is president, went into the hands of receivers a week ago. Lawyer George V. Bacon, of Jersey City, and Mr. Addicks were appointed temporary receivers by the chancellor.

The employees of the company on Monday, to the number of 600, went on a strike. The wages due the strikers amounts to nearly $28,000. It was rumored among the strikers that they were to receive their wages yesterday, and they were very much surprised to find the works in possession of the deputy sheriffs.

When the company first learned that the strikers meant to fight for their money Secretary Lyle notified Sheriff Sorviss, of Middlesex county. One hundred special deputies were then sworn in. Sheriff Sor-viss himself appeared on the scene later.
When he saw the large number of strikers, and learned that they had thrown out pickets and that men were in hiding in trenches nearby, waiting for the signal to attack the works, he became alarmed. He said his men were not prepared to face so large a body of strikers unless they had dreams. He telegraphed at once to the authorities at Trenton for fifty Winchester rifles and to New York for fifty pistols and ammunition.

Shortly after 4 o'clock Robert W. Lyle, secretary and manager of the company, drove up to the works. The men grew greatly excited, and Deputies Houssell and Flaherty marched out the reserves they had held within the works. For hours the strikers and the deputies faced each other thus on either side of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks.

Ten minutes after he arrived Mr. Lyle received a committee of the strikers. Mr.
Lyle told the men that the money due them was in the bank, but it could not be paid until certain legal matters were adjusted. "If you go to work tomorrow," said Mr. Lyle, "you'll be paid for one day's work tomorrow night. If you don't go to work you must not prevent others from working. We must open the works at once."

Call for State Troops in New Jersey.

JERSEY CITY, April 6.—Governor Werts, of New Jersey, who is in this city, says that he has received a request for troops to suppress the labor troubles at the Staten Island Terra Cotta factory at Spa Springs.
He says he will take no action until he can investigate.

To Abolish Spring Elections.

HARRISBURG, April 6.—The house was in a good humor yesterday and cheerfully granted all the special orders asked for by members anxious to advance their pet measures. The requests for this courtesy were so numerous as to cause Speaker Walton to remark that senatorial courtesy was undoubtedly predominating in the house. Mr. Nickell secured a special order for his proposition to amend the constitution to abolish spring elections. The constitution was cleared of the bills on first reading, and the house adjourned until Monday evening.

Charged with Larceny.

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.—John C. Hauts, for many years employed as a pay clerk in the office of the paymaster of the Pennsylvania railroad's Philadelphia division, is under arrest on the charge of larceny of a sum not yet definitely ascertained, but estimated at from $3,000 to $10,000. It is believed that the money was taken in small amounts deducted from the salaries of employees on the pretense that it was to be used to purchase uniforms for them.
Hauts has hitherto borne an unblemished reputation.

Oklahoma Terrors Subdued.

PERRY, O. T., April 6.—From a mail carrier between here and Stillwater news was received of a fight at Cushing, O. T., on Thursday. Charlie Wilson, Charlie Moore and Jack Sims, three desperad men, rode into Cushing heavily armed and proceeded to terrorize the citizens, and raided several stores. The town officers organized a posse to resist the outlaws. In the fight Sims was shot in the head and killed. The other two men were arrested and lodged in jail.

The Motorman Acquitted.

BROOKLYN, April 6.—Orlando Worthington, the Syracuse (N. Y.) motorman charged with manslaughter in the second degree, the claim being that the car operated by him knocked down, ran over and killed Samuel Brashley, a 7-year-old school boy, was yesterday afternoon acquitted and discharged. Worthington came here at the time of the strike to take the place of a striking union motorman.

SALLIE DEAN'S MURDER.

Starting Developments in Maryland's Latest Tragedy.

HER SCHOOL TEACHER ARRESTED.

It is Charged That He Was the Principal in the Murder of His Pupil, Who Was Killed to Prevent Her Testifying Against Him.

BALTIMORE, April 8.—Grant Cochran, the school teacher of Sallie Dean, the 14-year-old girl who was outraged and murdered, was arrested by Baltimore detectives near Harmony, Caroline county, and brought to Baltimore. It is understood that Cochran's arrest was brought about through a statement in the nature of a partial confession made by Marshall E. Price, Chief of Police Frey. Cochran, so far as known, has made no statement. The police seem to think they have a case against both men, but surround it with an air of mystery.

Cochran is about 30 years old and popular in the county. He is said to have been on very friendly terms with the Dean family.

It is charged that Price and Cochran met the girl on her way to school and attempted to assault her in a lonely spot.
She called the men by name and said she would expose them as soon as she reached home. Then it was decided to kill the girl. Price says that Cochran was the instigator of the crime. Both of the accused are well connected.

At the request of the county authorities Detectives Gault and Seibold were sent down to help solve the mystery. They soon spotted Marshall E. Price, a 21-year-old blacksmith of Harmony, who had served on the coroner's jury and had shown remarkable openness in every way to help find the murderer. The detectives encouraged him to talk, and took him about with them.

He told them that he had been so engrossed on the subject of the crime that he had dreamed of it more than once. The last time he dreamed of it was Tuesday night. Then, in his sleep, a vision of the scene came over him, and very deeply impressed him. It was very vivid. He told how he, following the mysterious imagination of his sleep, in company with one of the searchers, had walked directly to the spot and dug up the knife—a long, keen and dangerous weapon, with blood still upon it—with which the child's throat was cut.

He spoke also of other articles which had been buried by the murderer, including a little piece of ribbon which Sallie Dean wore that fatal day. He had found these, he said dramatically, after 3,000 persons had searched the ground over and obtained no clue. In his statement further on he became excited, made an apparent blunder, and, turning deathly pale, would have fallen, but one of the officers present in the magistrate's room caught him. He had been seized with a slight fainting spell, and Dr. Enoch George was hastily called in. Price then resumed his statement, which bore little relevancy, occasionaly protesting his innocence.

The detectives then formally made the affidavit, charging "Marshall E. Price with having murdered Sarah E. Dean on the 25th day of March," and Sheriff George H. Berry took him to jail. When the news of the arrest was circulated public feeling ran high, and the detectives determined to hurry their prisoner to Denton. The talk came to the ears of Mrs. Price, the prisoner's young wife, but in no way has her faith in him faltered. She insists on going to Denton with her husband and the officers indulged her.

When finally she became convinced that he was actually arrested for the crime, the young wife, who is but 19 years old, broke down, but maintained her faith in her husband's innocence.

New York's Indicted Officials.

NEW YORK, April 8.—The park commissioners and police officials indicted by the grand jury were arrested and taken to police headquarters. George C. Claussen, the brewer; Nathan Straus, the millionaire dry goods man, and A. B. Tappan, a lawyer and a rich man, were admitted to bail in $1,500. As park commissioners they are accused of permitting the city to be cheated on contracts for asphalt paving.
Police Captain Killilea was admitted to bail at $10,000 under a charge of bribery.
Patrolmen Cassidy, Miller and Thrall were bailed out at $3,000 each. They were accused of bribery, extortion and intimidation. Ex-Superintendent Brady, of the building department, had to furnish a bondman at $10,000. He also is indicted for bribery and also for accepting unlawful gratuity.

A Boy Shot from Ambush.

ASHVILLE, N. C., April 8.—Ernest Summer, a boy, was shot from ambush eight miles from here and instantly killed.
Charles West, another boy, was filled with shot from the same charge that killed Summer. The boys were riding double on a horse within 175 yards of the house of Jesse Summer. West, it is feared, is fatally injured. Jesse Summer is under arrest, suspected of the crime. All the parties are well known, and of good and well to do families.

Chicago's Police Chief Resigns.

CHICAGO, April 8.—Superintendent of Police Brennan tendered his resignation to Mayor Hopkins, and the latter has appointed Assistant Superintendent Kipley to the vacant position. Disagreement with the police commissioners over the discharge of eighty-five extra men, whom Superintendent Brennan wished to retain on the force, is supposed to have caused the resignation.

A Probable Sunday Murder at Bayonne.

BAYONNE, N. J., April 8.—Diedrich Garbe, a saloonkeeper at East Twenty-second street and Vanbuskirk road, on Constable Hook, this city, was stabbed so severely yesterday by Patrick Sheehan, who resides in the adjoining house, that it is thought he will die. It is said the assault was unprovoked.

Christians Not Endangered in Syria.

PARIS, April 8.—Officials of the Turkish embassy here say with reference to the dispatch of American warships to Alexandretta and Jeddah, Syria, that there is no truth whatever in the report that a insurrection of Christians is impending. They declare, on the contrary, that perfect order prevails in Syria.

A New York Postoffice Robbed.

TROY, N. Y., April 8.—The postoffice at Waterford, Saratoga county, was visited by thieves Saturday night. The safe was blown open and $300 worth of stamps and a small amount of money was taken.
