THE WARFARE IN CUBA.

Plot to Cause a Great Explosion Frustrated.

SPAIN'S WRETCHED SOLDIERY.

Many of Them Mere Boys, Scarcely Able to Carry a Gun-A Rebet Victory That Was Not Reported-Eight Thousand Insurgents Under Arms.

TAMPA, Fla., April 8.-A large number of passengers arrived by the steamer Mas-cotte last evening from Havana. From them the details of the late events in connection with the revolution were obtained. A Cuban makes the statement that an efort was made last Wednesday night to plunge Havana into darkness by cutting he electric light wires at the central light ng station, in the next building to which was stored a quantity of powder. The men were surprised by the soldiers and po-dee during their preparations, and were obliged to flee. Kerosene cans, well filled, and other incendiary material were found where the men had been working near the powder storage. The supposition is that when the city became dark the powder was to be exploded and other insurrectionary acts accomplished.

During the two hours' stoppage of the steamer at Key West the Havana passengers learned of the belief among Key West sympathizers that a plan was afoot to as-sasinate Martinez Campos on his arrival at Hayana. This plan was being matured on the assumption that Campos will land at Havana on his arrival, about the 15th inst. He will not do so, however, as he will first touch Puerto Rico. A full statement of the affairs on the Island of Cuba will be sent to Poerto Rico by government officials, who will await Campos, and from this he will determine at what point in Cuba he will land. He will probably disembark at Santiago de Cuba, where he will establish headquarters and begin his ampalgn,

Among the arrived passengers is a merchant of Hayti, who disembarked at San-tingo de Cuba, where he remained two He saw much of the Spanish troops camped and arriving at Santiago. He states that they are mostly wretched appearing. many being boys, some scarcely able to carry guns. This merchant says that while he was there it was reported that the rebels were about to attack the outskirts of the town, and a thousand newly arrived Span-ish troops were led out to meet the rebels. The encounter occurred near the city, and only 680 of the 1,000 troops returned there-from, 320 being killed, wounded or captured by the rebels.

No news of this engagement had been given out by the Havana authorities up to Saturday last, nor was it referred to by ar-riving insurrectionists. A Cuban from the eastern end of the Island who is in close touch with occurrences in the disturbed districts and who is advised of the plans of the rebel leaders, in whose behalf he journeys, states that Macco and his party is much larger than is believed. He says the schooner Honora, which landed the party, was filled with arms and amnunitions. Cubans make the statement that Maceo and his party landed on March 27, instead of March 31, as given out by the government officials at Havana. Cap-tain Periquito Perez has joined the Cuban cause. He is a nephew of the Spanish general known so the tiger.

It is further stated by the informant that Maceo, who sailed in a steamer from Colon to Fortune Island, had been there two or three weeks before landing in Cuba, awaiting the schooner Honora, which had received $4,000, prepaid, for the undertaking. The informant therefore denounces the government announcement that the captain of the Honora was killed by the rebels to escape the payment as an effort to deter other captains from undertaking a like service. Three hundred Spanish troops endeavored to prevent Maceo's landing, but his comrades were numerous enough to withstand the troops.

From a rebel emissary who has arrived here the plan of apportionment of most of the notable rebel leaders is stated thus: Chief Antonio Maceo with proce province of Santiago, Bafael Roderiguez to Camaguey, of which Puerto Principe is the capital, and Maximo Gomez, when he arrives from Santo Domingo, if he has not already done so, will rally the rebels at Las Villas. It is expected that various sections will rise on the arrival of these leaders.

A general centralization and contest will follow. The fight will not occur until the rains and fever come to aid the rebel arms. This authority states that between 7,000 and 8,000 rebels are with arms now. George W. Aguirre, a nephew of the Cuban general Aguirre, who is confined at Havana, arrived by last night's steamer. He goes to New York and Washington to urge action for the release of his uncle. against whom, he claims, there is no evi-dence of any character.

A VIOLENT GOVERNOR

Arkansas' Chief Magistrate in a Disgraceful Row.

SPAT IN A LEGISLATOR'S FACE.

The Insuit Was Returned and the Governor Then Drew His Revolver and Was Prevented from Becoming a Murderer by the Interference of Friends.

LITTLE ROCK, April 8.—The spectacle of an honorable member of the Arkansas legislature, livid with rage, spitting in the face of the governor of this commonwealth, quickly returned by a violent emission of executive saliva upon the angered features of the lawmaker, and a flourish of fire-arms in the hands of the governor, was witnessed in the lobby of Glason's hotel here yesterday afternoon and was the re-sult of sensational charges of bribery in onnection with the railroad commissi bill aprung in the house of representatives on Saturday by Mr. Yancey, of Phillips county. Mr. Jones, of Marion county, on Saturday arose to a point of personal privilege and denounced Governor Clarke as being at the bottom of the charges. He said that Governor Clarke was a dema-gogue, and was going around like an asassin in the night with a knife, stabbing in the back men who were his peers.

For Haltimore, Washington and the West Yesterday afternoon Clarke met Jones in the lobby at Gleason's and requested a private interview withhim. Jones replied that he would accompany the governor nowhere, and that if the chief executive had anything to say to him he must make it known. Hot words followed, and in a fit of anger Jones spat in the governor's face. Governor Clarke, trembling with anger, returned the insult, and as quick as a flash had drawn his revolver, and the difficulty might have resulted in bloodshed but for the quick action of bystanders, who disarmed the governor. Governor Clarke was later arrested by a constable and re-leased on his own recognizance. When arraigned in court this morning he pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and paid his fine. Further trouble may ensue.

In a statement of the occurrence Representative Jones said: "I had just left the dining room at the Gleason hotel and taken a seat in the office on the east side, quietly smoking a cigar, and not expect ing any trouble whatever. Suddenly I heard the front door open very abruptly, and on looking around I saw Governor TRAINS FOR SHENANDOAH:

The governor, in a very ab-rupt manner, said: 'Come back here with me,' at the same time motioning toward the rear. I was totally unarmed, and felt that he intended to kill me. I said: 'No, I will not do it. If you have anything to

I then stopped and again declined his invithen stopped and again declined his invi-tation. He then deliberately spat in my face. I returned the insult by spitting in his face. When I did this, he loosed my arm and made for his pistol. I then saw that my only chance was to knock him down, and I struck with all my might at his face with my left hand. He sprang back rower the down and my bless folled. back toward the door, and my blow failed to reach him. He was still reaching for his postol. I sprang forward, grappled him and caught him around the waist, pressing both arms to his side, but leaving his arms free to act from the elbow down. "Just then Representative Pope also got hold of the pistol. He struggled to free the gun, while the governor said: 'Turn that pistol loose.' Roberts declined, when the governor said: 'D—n you, Roberts, turn that pistol loose.' About this time burness our bodder requested that the pistol be taken from Clarke, and then release him. Governor Clarke said he did not care to discuss the trouble through the public press, further than to say that he did not go to the hotel with the view of making trouble, but only to tell Mr. Jones that he must desist from lugging his name into controversies. The trouble which followed was not of his making.

A Desperate Negro Murderer.

Jacksonville, April 8. — Alexander Simms, alias Kid Charlie, a negro, added another victim to his list of killed yesterday, besides wounding three others. Simms shot and killed a young colored boy named Napoleon Stucks on Saturday night. The officers got on his trail yes-terday, and chased him about two miles to a barn in the western part of the city.
When Simms saw he was discovered he opened fire with a pistol at the officers.
They returned the fire, but as the negro could shoot without exposing his body they were unable to hit him. During the firing Policeman Minor was shot in the breast and killed almost instantly. Two negroes who had joined in the chase after Simms were shot in the hip, one perhaps fatally. Simms finally surrendered, and last night, to prevent a lynching, was se cretly taken to St Augustine
