AGAIN THE INCOME TAX.

Another Suit Against It Brought in New York.

A RAILROAD COMPANY DEFENDANT.

A Stockholder of the Illinois Central Asks That the Company be Restrained from Paying Tax on Its Income, Because It is a Direct Tax.

NEW YORK, April 11.—Another suit to test the constitutionality of the income tax has been instituted in the circuit court of the United States here.

It is further averred that if the income tax be held not to be a direct tax then its provisions are nevertheless unconstitutional in that they are not uniform throughout the United States.

The complainant, after setting forth the organization of the railroad company, the amount of personal property held by it, and other matters in relation thereto, declares that he is informed that the company intends to pay, under the provisions of the income tax law, a tax of 2 per cent. on all its net profits and income for the year 1894.

The bill then avers that the income tax law is unconstitutional, in that it said tax is levied upon the company's income and profits in a direct tax in respect of the railway property, fixtures and appurtenances operated and owned by the defendant company.
