BOLD EXPRESS ROBBERY

Two Men Make a Good Haul Near Cripple Creek, Colo.

THE DRIVER BRUTALLY BEATEN.

One Express Package Containing $1,600 and Another Containing $850 Secured. The Treasure Was in Charge of Only One Man—Hundreds Pursue the Robbers.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., April 12.—The mail and express wagon which connects with the Midland railroad at Grassy was boarded just after about two miles from the driver by two men, who overpowered the driver, Robert Smith, secured an express package containing $1,600, and escaped on horseback.

The holdup took place on the summit of Tenderloin hill, on the highway between Cripple Creek and Grassy, a station on the Midland Terminal railroad. The wagon was en route from Grassy to Cripple Creek with the mail and express matter received at Grassy on the morning train from Denver and Colorado Springs. Two men sitting beside the road accosted Smith, asking for a ride. He drew up his team and one of the men climbed up to the seat beside him, while the other mounted the baggage behind.

As soon as Smith started to drive on the main highway he was struck on the head several times with a revolver. The blow staggered, but did not stun him. The man on the seat with him also drew a revolver, and leveling it at him commanded him to get down, walk to the heads of the horses and hold their bridles. He complied, and while he was covered with their guns they ripped open and rifled the mail and express pouches. After securing a $10,000 package and several other valuable packages they unbraced the two leading horses and mounted them and rode off rapidly into the mountains.

Smith, who was very weak and bleeding profusely, drove into the city as quickly as possible. When he drove up in front of the Fargo Express office he fainted and fell from his seat. He was revived in a few minutes and related what had befallen him.

Within twenty minutes from the time the robbery was committed Deputy Sheriff Stirling and Jackson and 300 men started in search of the robbers. A message had been sent to Canyon City for a bloodhound, which will be put on the trail of the robbers, if they are not captured before they arrive.

The robbers were tracked to the Divide road north of the town, near Rhyolite mountain. After robbing the express company they crossed over Cow mountain, and at Gillett they discarded the horses which they had taken and took a light buggy and horse, which they had secreted in the timber, and drove away, after turning the stolen horses loose and starting them on the road toward Cripple Creek.

The men left the regular Cripple Creek and Divide road about six miles north of Lowmes and went toward Alhambra. As soon as their course was determined word was sent to this place, and a posse of fifty heavily armed men cut across the country on horseback toward High Park, where they hoped to intercept the robbers, as it was believed they were headed for Alhambra or the Arkansas valley. Over 500 men from this place were soon securing the country, among the volunteers being men who know every inch of ground for miles around.

This was pay day at the mines and the stolen $16,000 money package was a contingent to the Bimetallic bank of this city to be used in paying miners. Another package containing $850 was also stolen. It is believed the robbers came from Denver, and knew that the large amount was on the wagon.

A Druggist Charged with Murder.

MUSKOGEE, Mich., April 12.—George W. King, proprietor of a drug store on Ottawa street, was arrested yesterday. Eunice Williams charges him with killing her father, Nathan Douglas, three years ago. For many years Douglas lived on a farm in Fruitland township with his daughter Eunice, to whom he had deeded all his property. Four years ago an aunt of King's went to live with Douglas, and about a year later they were married. Immediately afterwards he transferred his property from his daughter to his wife. Immediately following this change King visited Douglas for several days, returning to Muskogee before the old man died. Douglas' body was exhumed and poison found in large quantities. Mrs. H. H. Houston, King's aunt, has been arrested as an accomplice.

Alone on the Deep Without Food.

BALTIMORE, April 12.—The tug Peerless and Thomas A. Bain have gone to sea in search of two barges adrift with a starving man on board. The Bain left Delaware Breakwater on Sunday morning with two Atlantic and Danville railroad barges in tow, which she lost twenty-five miles east of Cape Charles Lightship. R. C. Boyd, of Virginia, was aboard one of the barges, and has been without food since Sunday. The Bain searched for the barges until her supplies giving out, she had to put into Norfolk.

CLEVELAND, April 12.—The police here have arrested a man who is believed to have been a member of the gang which tortured and robbed Mr. and Mrs. Merritt E. Childs, an aged couple living near Bradford, Pa., on the night of March 29. The man is believed to be Bert Blanchard, and he answers the description sent out by the sheriff of McKean county.

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores.—The Captain's Wife Tells the Story.—It Will Interest Many People.

(From the Buffalo Evening News.)

If you were to call at 27 Front Avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Heney by name. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in the bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would blot up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I commenced their use I found immediate relief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and bowels disappeared and all distress in my bowels was gone. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had resorted to in seeking relief and cure. I hope always to be able to procure them."

SENATOR GOEBEL TO KILL

Fatal Encounter Between Leading Citizens of Covington, Ky.

END OF A LONG EXISTING FEUD.

The Cashier of a Leading Bank Fires at State Senator Goebel and Is Himself Shot and Almost Instantly Killed.—The Senator Out on Bail.

CINCINNATI, April 12.—In the business center of Covington, Ky., John L. Sandford, cashier of the Farmers and Traders' bank, was killed yesterday by State Senator William Goebel. Both fired at each other on the crowded streets. An hour later one of the wealthiest citizens was dead and a leading politician was in custody at the station house, while the streets were thronged with excited crowds. The factional agitation over the bloody affair continues to run high on this side of the river, as well as in Covington and other Kentucky towns.

Goebel and Sandford were the leaders of two bitterly contending Democratic factions. The feud is an old one politically, but it became intensely personal last Saturday when the Covington Ledger published a very bitter attack upon Sandford, which the latter attributed to Senator Goebel. The latter acknowledged its authorship. The friends of both have been talking this week in such a manner that trouble was expected the first time Goebel and Sandford met. The meeting yesterday showed both were well armed.

Senator Goebel and Attorney General Hendricks were walking up Madison street. As they approached the First National bank, Sandford, who was leaning against the railing, turned quickly. Senator Goebel turned to one side just as Sandford fired. The bullet from Sandford's revolver passed through Senator Goebel's coat and his trousers in two places over the hips. Senator Goebel then drew his revolver and fired, his shot taking effect on the left side of Sandford's forehead. The first word was spoken and the first shot was fired by Sandford, who died an hour later.

Senator Goebel declares that Sandford was lying in wait for him, but this the friends of Sandford deny.

After the shooting Senator Goebel returned to the court house, stopping only a moment, and then went to police headquarters and gave himself up.

The trouble between the men dates back for years. In the last legislature Senator Goebel had a bill giving the city treasurer of Covington power to make the city depository of any bank he desired. Previous to this time the Farmers and Traders' bank, of which Sandford was cashier, had been the city depository. The city treasurer withdrew the funds from the Farmers and Traders', which at times amounts to $100,000, and made the Citizens' National the city depository.

Senator Goebel had another bill passed reducing the toll on the Lexington turnpike, of which Sandford was president. This bill made the senator popular with the people, but was bad for the turnpike stock, and Sandford is reported to have used severe terms in talking about Senator Goebel and his turnpike law.

Mr. Sandford was 57 years of age. His wife was a Marshall, and is a sister of the celebrated Thomas Marshall, of Kentucky. Mr. Sandford's grandfather was distinguished in the state, being at one time a senator and a member of the constitutional convention. Senator Goebel is a successful man in business as well as a lawyer. He is 40 years of age, unmarried and a native of Pennsylvania. He located in Covington when quite young. He is out on bail.

Floods Increasing in Hungary.

VIENNA, April 12.—Floods in Hungary are increasing. Two more villages, near Semlin, in Slavonia, have disappeared beneath the waters of the Danube. Many of the inhabitants of the villages were drowned. The others were rescued in boats. At Semlin, which is on the right bank of the Danube, three miles northwest of Belgrade, Serbia, a number of Serbians tried to cut the dike protecting the Hungarian shore in order to save Belgrade from being inundated. Happily a Hungarian guard frustrated the attempt.

Their Bodies Probably Cremated.

WHEELING, W. Va., April 12.—It is now supposed that the bodies of young Wincher and Horan, which have not been recovered from the ruins of Tuesday's wreck, may have been consumed by the fire which has raged since Tuesday morning and is not yet entirely extinguished. Work on the ruins is kept up without cessation day and night.
