The Way we Look at It.

There are two values to a purchase—what it costs and what it is worth. It matters little what you pay, within reasonable bounds; it matters a great deal what you receive in return for the expenditure. Reckoning on this basis, our line of wall paper, window shades, curtain poles and room mouldings stands pre-eminently at the head of anything in this section of the county. We are sure we can please you in quality and price if you will but take the time to see and ascertain prices on these goods. Contracts taken and Satisfaction Guaranteed.

KILLED ON THE RAIL

A Lithuanian Struck by a Lehigh Valley Railroad Train at Noon Today.

HIS COMPANION ESCAPED!

THE MEN WERE WALKING ON THE RAILROAD AND FAILED TO HEAR THE TRAIN.

The Body is at the Lehigh Valley Depot in Mahanoy City and the Fortunate Companion is Held as Witness.

A Lithuanian named Stale Mallick, aged about 30 years and unmarried, was instantly killed on the Lehigh Valley railroad near Barry's Junction this afternoon. Mallick and a companion named Joseph Patuski were walking on the track when passenger train No. 12 that left here for Mahanoy City at 12:43 approached. The men were going eastward and did not hear the train until it was close to them. Patuski promptly escaped by jumping from the track. Mallick did not act quick enough and was struck. His head was badly crushed and death was instantaneous. The body was placed on the train and taken to Mahanoy City. Patuski accompanied it. The latter said he and the victim were walking to Barry's Junction, where they would take the train for Jeanesville, and that they walked from Shenandoah to escape the tax collector. The Mahanoy City authorities have Patuski in the lockup to await the coroner's inquest, which will be held this evening. The remains of the deceased are held at the Lehigh Valley depot in Mahanoy City, pending the arrival of an answer from a brother of the dead man, Steve Mallick, of Jeanesville, who has been telegraphed for instructions as to the disposition of the remains.

Farewell Party.

The members of the "Y," with their friends, gathered at their rooms on Thursday evening to tender a farewell party to one or two of the active workers who are about to leave town. Miss Hattie Foxby, who has been secretary of the "Y" for a number of years and an active member, will remove with her parents to Livonia, N. Y. Another active co-laborer and superintendent of the Flower Mission, Miss Priscilla Smith, will in the future reside in Philadelphia. The large number of poor families that she has assisted during the past year will regret her departure. The present county superintendent, Mrs. S. G. M. Holloper, and who has held the office for five consecutive years, will also change her residence from this town to Philadelphia, and Mrs. Oscar Yost, a former secretary of the W. C. T. U., will shortly remove to Bloomsburg. During the evening each of the departing members were presented with a valuable present, and the presentation speech was made by Miss Bella Brown. Each of the recipients, with the exception of Mrs. Holloper, who was unable to be present, responded feelingly. The evening proved a very enjoyable one to all who were present.

The Flower Mission.

The following is the report of Miss Smith, superintendent of the Flower Mission of the Y. W. C. T. U., for the past seven months: Eighty-four baskets of fruit distributed, 50 bouquets, 15 glasses of jelly, 3 quarts of ice cream, 4 loaves of bread, 19 quarts of soup, 98 baskets of provisions, 375 pounds of flour, 22 pairs of shoes, 129 garments, 2 tons of coal, $500 to Mt. Carbon fever sufferers, 2 bibles, 44 poor families helped, 98 visits to the sick, 37 visits to the poor; money received, $96.78; expended $88.21, leaving a balance on hand of $8.57. Miss Mattie Price has been elected to succeed Miss Smith, resigned, as superintendent.

NO CONTAGIOUS DISEASES

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN A YEAR THE BOARD IS WITHOUT CASES OF THAT KIND.

John J. Jones' Mule in Hard Luck.

Left to Starve While Its Master is Languishing in the County Jail.

A meeting of the Board of Health was held last evening with Messrs. McHale, Miles, Bronghal and President Spalding in attendance.

The epidemic committee reported fourteen deaths during the past two weeks and for the first time in a year no contagious disease was reported.

The nuisance committee, through Mr. McHale, reported that they had, in conjunction with some of the Council's sanitary committee, inspected the West Coal street sewer complained of, but had not determined what was best to recommend in the matter.

President Spalding reported that he had brought the question of the dog nuisance before Council and that the latter body had instructed the Chief Burgess and High Constable to abate it. The Health Officer stated that his attention had been called to a mule owned by one John K. Jones. The mule is in jail and the mule has been left to die in its stable without attendance.

The board is to meet again on Wednesday next.
