

Extradited on a Murder Charge.
ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—Officers from Emporium, Pa., yesterday arrested Robert E. Wright, Jr., at the home of his father in Fair Haven, this county, on the charge of murdering Christian Deum in the fall of 1888. The alleged object of the crime was robbery. Shortly after the murder Albert Miller, of Harrisburg, Pa., was arrested for his commission, but on trial was acquitted. Young Wright comes from respectable parents and is now only 22 years of age, and at the time of the crime was committed was less than 16. He has been under suspicion for several months. He was taken to Pennsylvania today.

To Sell Out the Whisky Trust.
CHICAGO, April 12.—The properties of the whisky trust will be sold to the highest bidder. Judge Shaw, of the United States district court, in an order issued yesterday admitted that the trust no longer had a legal existence. Its board of directors was charged with having deserted its trusteeship, that it had no quorum, and one election of new members of the board would not enable them to reacquire the property from the receiver. The court directed Receiver McNulta to sell the property, "and that the proceeds be distributed among those entitled thereto."

Borne to Death by a Blazing Dam.
ANSON'S CAMP, Cal., April 13.—The dam of the Utica Mining company, three miles from here, broke. Fifty feet of the north wing gave way, and the volume of water it had contained rushed toward the Mokelumne, a roaring torrent, bore with it the body of Otto Lundt and the fragments of buildings that were in the path of danger. Lundt, who was nearly 80 years old, might have escaped, but he rushed back to his house to secure $700 and some jewelry.

A Dying Man Immersed.
OAKLAND, Md., April 13.—Jacob Mosser, a young man lying at the point of death, was persuaded by the Dunkards to submit to being immersed. He was carried to a stream on a cold day and ducked three times in the icy water. Three days later he died, and the state's attorney proposes to institute proceedings against the perpetrators of the outrage.

HEART DISEASE!

Fluttering, No Appetite, Could Not Sleep, Wind on Stomach.
"For a long time I had a terrible pain at my heart, which fluttered almost incessantly. I had no appetite and could not sleep. I would be compelled to sit up in bed and belch gas from my stomach until I thought that every minute would be my last. There was a feeling of oppression about my heart, and I was afraid to draw a full breath. I could not sweep a room without resting. My husband induced me to try

PEACE NOW IN SIGHT.

The Peace Commissioners Have Reached an Agreement.

AS VIEWED BY MINISTER KURINO.

Japan's Representative at Washington Believes That the Final Declaration of Peace Will be Reached Within the Next Week.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Official advice received at the Japanese legation from Japan indicate that an understanding has been reached between the Japanese and Chinese plenipotentiaries, and that the news of the definite conclusion of peace may be expected at any time.

The exact terms of peace cannot as yet be ascertained, but it is understood that in response to the urgent and repeated requests of the Chinese plenipotentiary for an abatement of the demands originally made by them, the Japanese plenipotentiaries have granted some concessions. Brief as the official message is it marks the close of the China-Japan war, barring the possibility, of course, of some unexpected hitch at the last moment.

Minister Kurino, of Japan, said concerning the official cable from Tokio: "The cablegram is quite brief and does not recite the terms, nor does it say that peace as yet has actually been reached between the envoys by which peace-soums assured. I have no doubt from this that we will have a treaty of peace within a few days. It undoubtedly will be concluded within the next seven days, as the armistice expires at the end of that time. Should it not be arranged by that time there probably would be no difficulty in continuing a truce now that a peace understanding has been definitely reached."

"There may be some delay in arranging the details of the new Japan-China treaty, as it will cover all of the commercial interests of the two countries. One of the most essential items will be that of the tariff. Heretofore the Japanese duty has been 5 per cent. on Chinese goods, and under the favored nation clause all other countries were entitled to the same rate. But with Japan's new treaties with the United States, Great Britain and other countries, all of which contain the favored nation clause, it will no longer be possible to give China the 5 per cent. rate."

Mr. Kurino said that in the absence of definite word from his government as to the terms of the peace understanding he did not wish to speculate on terms. He regarded it as settled, however, that the Island of Formosa would be permanently ceded to Japan. He also considered the independence of Corea as settled. This would leave the question of indemnity, of Port Arthur's occupation and of future treaty arrangements as the subjects on which the Japanese plenipotentiaries may have granted some concessions. These concessions may apply to one or the other of the three terms, or to all of them.

The minister is hardly prepared to believe that there will be no occupation of Port Arthur.

It is possible that a term of permanent occupation, or else that the extent of the surrounding territory may be more restricted than was first contemplated.

Mr. Kurino takes a conservative view of the conclusion of peace. He shares the feeling of his countrymen that Japan had the right to expect much as the price of peace. The minister communicated the information from Japan to the state department during the day. It was after the cabinet meeting, however, and Secretary Gresham did not communicate the news to his cabinet colleagues. Later in the day President Cleveland was informed.

Russia Objects to Japanese Extension.

St. Petersburg, April 13.—It is stated on excellent authority that Russia has determined to make diplomatic opposition to the annexation by Japan of any portion of the Asiatic continent. The Russian army and navy in the far east are being reinforced with the view of supporting this decision. The Russian government has also resolved not to interfere in Armenia, in order to have a free hand in the far east.

"Am I Married or Not?"

Asked Mr. A., despondently, "I declare, my wife is so nervous and irritable that I don't stay in the house a moment longer than I can help. My home isn't what it used to be." "Mrs. A. is suffering from some functional derangement, I presume," said B. "Yes, she has been an invalid for years." "Exactly. Her experience is that of my wife, but she was cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and the happiness of your home will soon be restored." "Mr. B. was right. For years, painful periods, irregularities—in short, all 'complaints' peculiar to the female sex—the 'Favorite Prescription' is a sovereign specific.

LAVISH EXTRAVAGANCES

Unearthed by New Jersey's Investigating Committee.

MONSTER BILLS FOR PRINTING.

Twenty Thousand Dollars a Year Paid for Translating and Printing of Certain Reports, Not a Single Copy of Which Have Been Distributed.

BRENTON, April 13.—The senate investigating committee resumed its sitting yesterday, Counsel Corbin opening the session by exhibiting the minute book of the state board of arbitration in which no entries had been made since March, 1893. The minutes exhibited showed in one case the authorization of the president of the board to put in a long distance telephone in his private residence at the expense of the state. Lewis Robertson, one of the members of the old board, and ex-Senator Martin, of Hunterdon county, were put on the stand. Mr. Robertson admitted that he had secured his position through Martin, but he denied that he had ever given Martin any commission. Martin also denied that he had received any money from either. Both Robertson and Martin were examined closely as to interchanging and cashing of checks, but no profits of Robertson having paid Martin any money was adduced.

Mr. Corbin next took up the case of county clerks who have not returned to the state treasury certain judges' fees which belong to the state. He went over a list of the counties showing a list of delinquents. They included County Clerk Barber and ex-Clerk Hollingshead, of Camden; ex-Clerks W. A. Smith, J. Edward Vandever, Samuel Smith and James T. Wrighton, of Essex; Joseph Arrow-smith, James H. Patterson and Charles S. Patterson, of Monmouth; A. B. C. Haven, of Ocean, and Dennis McLaughlin, of Hudson, had paid within the year over $5,000, and only owed for the present term of court.

A number of county clerks were put on the stand. James T. Wrighton, who owes fees for six terms of court, said that there was litigation with respect to the fees due to county clerks of Essex, and he did not feel that he should pay the money out of his own pocket while much larger sums due him were tied up so that he could not get them. Clerk Barber, of Camden, squarred up yesterday, and said he had to pay out of his own pocket $250 which he has not yet collected from the lawyers. He suggests a law forbidding county clerks to file papers until the lawyers had paid their state fees.

Ex-Clerk Hollingshead testified that the $948 owed by him represented the amount of fees he had been unable to collect, and he did not think he should be made pay it.

Samuel Armstrong, chief clerk to Quartermaster General Donnelly, was questioned as to military transportation furnished to state officials and employees not connected with the militia. Mr. Armstrong said that this transportation was issued by orders of Governor Abbott, commander-in-chief of the militia. Mr. Corbin then read a detailed list of the persons thus furnished with transportation at the state's expense.

Mr. Corbin, after Mr. Armstrong left the stand, brought up the matter of state printing. The state treasurer's report for last year shows an expenditure of $49,000 under the head of printing, and $83,000 under the head of advertising. This by no means included the total amount paid, as items which properly belonged under these heads were distributed through twenty-six different accounts. The total expenditure for the past four years, as shown by computing all the items, ranged from $177,000 in 1891 to $191,000 in 1894. Even this sum, Mr. Corbin said, was not the full amount paid out, as some of the state boards receive their appropriations in lump sums from the state treasurer, and incur their own printing bills.

Mr. Corbin also showed by figures from the state comptroller's office that for the past four years it cost the state $20,000 to have certain reports translated and printed in the German and Italian languages, and proved by witnesses that in the case of several of these reports not a single copy had been distributed.

Otto Heinz, of the Heinz Lithographing and Printing company, of Newark, which drew large sums of money from the state treasury, was put on the stand. Mr. Heinz said that all work done by his firm had been obtained by bidding in open competition or by authority of legislative resolutions designating the firm to do certain work. The books of the firm were submitted to the committee, and will be examined by Mr. Corbin before the next meeting.

Mr. Corbin questioned Mr. Heinz closely as to what disposition had been made by him of the cash proceeds of certain state checks he had cashed in Trenton, and no corresponding record could be traced appearing to the firm's bank books. Mr. Heinz said he had paid bills with some of it, and presumed the rest had been deposited. The firm's cash book not being at hand, the statement could not be verified. The cash book will be presented at the next meeting of the committee, when the investigation into printing extravagance will be continued.

Determined to Die Together.
ST. LOUIS, April 13.—The dead bodies of a man and woman were found lying side by side on Jacob Duffy's farm, a few miles west of this city, on the Alton road. Their throats were cut and their faces stained with blood. By the side of the man was a revolver, and at his feet was a box labeled "rat poison." The dead couple were Louis Frank and Kate Kohn, who had long been lovers, and they left a note saying they wished to die together. Each had been shot just above the heart, after swallowing poison and gashing their throats with a sharp knife.

Damages for His Daughter's Life.
BROOKLYN, April 13.—The jury in the suit of Charles W. McKeever to recover damages for the loss of his daughter's life, from the Atlantic Avenue Railroad company, brought in a verdict for $4,000 before Judge Clement in the city court. On Jan. 13, 1894, the child Ellen, was knocked down and killed by a trolley car belonging to the company, on Park avenue. This is the second trial of the suit, the jury having disagreed on the first.
