BALTIMORE, April 19 -- Pourteen thouand people saw Phile , via win the opening game from Balt. by a mag nificent batting streak in the last inning. Both sides played fast ball, but the Quak-ers battel in its effectivity, earning all their runs. Baltimers scored one run in the third inning on MeGraw's single. Reeler's force hit and a single by Kelley after Sullivan's error. Five runs were added in the fourth. Brodie singled and Boitz hit into the crowd for two bases, as did Jennings and Robinson. Boyle's error allowed Esper to reach first base, and Keeler's double. Kelley's single and

Mayor Tyler, escorted by resident Stucky, received an ovation as walked out to the home plate. Umpire MeDonald handed the mayor a new ball, and, walking to the pitcher's box, the mayor drove the sphere over the rubber and the season of '95 was on. "Fritz" Pfeffer played first base for Louisville, and will be kept there for the present at least. Inks pitched a good game for Louis-ville, and kept the Pittsburgers' seven hits well scattered. Shugart's home run drive in the fifth inning, with two men out, set the crowd wild. The sixth inning was a disastrous one for Pittsburg, and Killen give way to Hart, who did much better pitching. With three men onbases and no one out Sweeney, who had struck out the first time he was at the bat, rapped out a single to right, and two Louis-villians crossed the plate. Pfeffer repeated this later on, bringing two more in, and when the inning had ended the Colonels had made six scores. Score by innings:

ACCUSED BY A MOTHER.

Mrs. Darling's Sensational Charge Against Her Son's Widow.

LED TO HIS DEATH BY SLOW POISON

Mrs. Darling Declares That Her Son's Wife Systematically Dosed Him with Patal Drugs Prescribed by Young Dr. Spranger, Whom She Has Since Married,

NEW YORK, April 19 -- Mrs. Flora Adams Darling, a writer of war letters and one of the founders of the Daughters of the Revalution, is seeking the indictment of Dr. Francis Xavier Spranger and his wife, who was formerly her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Edward Irving Darling, by the grand jury of New York county. The case will probably he presented to the grand jury during the coming week. Mrs. Darling's son, Edward Irving Darl ing, died on Feb. 13, 1894, at Mount Clem ens, Mich., from what she claims to have been slow polson. Edward Irving Darling was a musical composer and a poet Prominent among his best productions was a book entitled "Echoes of the Lake." Among his operatic works was "The Vik-ing," which is to be produced in a short time. Others were "The Jolly Bachelors," and the "Gentlemen Savage." The son met Beatrice Gay Klingle while in Washington with his mother in 1885 He fell in love with the girl, and they were married on Sept. 15 of that year. At first they came to this city, residing on Park avenue, but later they removed to Detroit. where Darling became manager of the music house of Grinnell Brothers. A short time after his engagement there he met with an accident in falling out of a window and breaking several bones of his body. Dr. Spranger, then a recent graduate of a western college, was called in to attend him. For many weeks the young man lay in plaster of Paris casts, and it is alleged now that during this time the doc-tor fell in love with his patient's wife. On July 4, 1802, the younger Mrs. Darling received word of the death of her father in Washington. This left her estate val-ued at more than $1,000,000. Mr. and Mrs. Darling went to Washington to attend the funeral, and stopped at the Ebbitt House in that city. While there the young man became violently ill after drinking a glass of milk. Dr. Harrison, a physician of that oity, attributed his illness to impure milk. Mrs. Darling, the mother, now claims that the milk contained poison. After the funeral of Mr. Klingle Mr. and After the funeral of Mr. Kingle Mr. and Mrs. Darling returned to Detroit, and from that time on, it is said, the husband became an invalid. According to the story told by the mother, Dr. Spranger was in constant attendance upon her son. When Dr. Spranger was questioned as to the cause of the illness he said he was suf-feature from Balaktic disease. fering from Bright's disease. On Nov. 25, 1892, while in a bad condition physically, Darling came to this city and visited his aunt, Mrs. Duval Ney Everett. While stopping with her his health continued to improve and he gained twen-ty-five pounds. Young Mrs. Darling joined her husband in New York on Jan. 24, 1893, and, it is said, brought with her medicines prescribed by Dr. Spranger. After a short time the son began to grow iil again, according to the story told by his mother, and when his wife returned home on March 1 hs was again in a pro carious condition.

Darling returned to Michigan on June 20 of that year to live with his mother at Mt. Clemens. There he was attended by Dr. Richard Lochner, who said the young man had been under the influence of violent drugs, which had destroyed the tissue of the body, and that his death was only a question of a short time. The patient died on Feb. 13, 1894, but previous to his death he made a statement that his wife and Dr. Spranger had sys-tematically poisoned him and that he would die from the effects of the drugs given him.

The body was cremated without a post mortem examination, at the request of patient, who maintained that he did

Rusie pitched for New York and Kennedy for Brooklyn, and al-York and Kennedy for Brooklyn, and at-though both did well, Kennedy outshone his famous rival. The Brooklynites gave a grand exhibition of how the national game should be played. Stafford's inning in the seventh inning gave the visitors three runs, and incidentally the game. Again, with men on first and third bases, Farendi threa to Stafford to catch the Farrell threw to Stafford to catch the runner going to second. Stafford held on to the ball, never making a move to re-turn the ball to the plate. This forgetfulness gave the visitors another run. Score by innings:

Chicago Defeats St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, April 19.-In the presence of 10.000 enthusiasts the first game of the season was played here between the Chicago and the St. Louis Browns. The forme won easily through the poor pitching of Broitenstein, who sent ten Chicagoans to uses on balls, and off whose delivery three others made home runs. Numerous errors were made by the visitors, but they evened up by batting the Browns' southpaw all over the field. Brilliant plays were nu-merous, notable among them being several long running catches by Centerfielder two home runs and the fine fielding of Wilmot and the double play made by Miller at rightfield and Peitz at the Hogan, tome plate. Mrs. Darling, the mother, had realized. as she now claims, that her son had been murdered, and took the matter before District Attorney Frazier, of Detroit, who said that the suspicions, while perhaps well founded, were not strong enough to warrant the arrest of the doctor and her daughter-in-law. At that time Mrs. Darling the older had advanced the idea that her son had been poisoned because his wife had fallen in love with the doctor who had attended him. The district attorney is said to have announced at that time that should the wife ever marry the doctor the motive would become plain.

The motive, according to the dead man's mother, has now been established through the public marriage of Dr. Spranger to Mrs Darling at the Corpus Christi cathedral, at Baltimore, on March 6 of this year. Dr. Spranger and his wife are now in southern California, enjoying their honey-

As soon as the marriage was announces John Quiney Adams, a brother of the dead man's mother, residing in this city, took the case before District Attorney Follows. He submitted proof, as he claims, that the poison was administered to Darling by his wife while they were stopping in this city, in the early part of 1863. District Attorney Follows assigned the case to Assistant District Attorney George G. Battle, who is making a thorough examination of all the circumstances.

The Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON, April 19.-It is authoritatively stated at the treasury department hat the reports of collectors so far received show that the amount of income tax receipts no doubt will reach the estimate made after the decision of the supreme court was rendered. This is interpreted to mean about $15,000,000. Much to the surprise and annoyance of the officials, information reached the department from several cities that income tax returns were still being offered, and asking for instruc-tions. Several returns were offered to the collector for this city, and he was in-structed to receive them subject to whataver action might be decided upon later.
