The Blair Lynching Trouble.

MT. STERLING, Ky., April 23. - The Blair lynching trouble is liable to break out any ment. After Forman and Roach were acquitted James and Jesse Biair, brothers of Tom Blair, who was lynched, went to their home in Morgan county. Yesterday they returned, and with them was a large rowd of their mountain friends. All day long they have paraded the streets in a body, but what their object is nobody knows. The police are on the alert, and if the Blairs make the slightest demonstration there will be a bloody fight. The Morgan county people do not believe that Roach and Forman were guilty of the murder of Blair, but they are determined to find out who did, and until that is found out and the murderers punished there will be enmity between the counties.
