

CALL HIM DOWN.

Wholesale Slandering of the Members of the G. A. R.

Street Cleaning Commissioner Waring, of New York city, has seen fit to make, over his own signature, the assertion that the members of the Grand Army of the Republic are "a lot of pension bummers;" that their organization has "sold itself for cash to claim agents at Washington;" and that "because of its nefarious action the workmen of this country are now paying annually $100,000,000 more in pensions than they ought to be paying."

The charge that the Grand Army is a collection of mercenaries and that this country is paying a hundred millions too much in pensions every year is absurdly false. In the vast membership of this great organization there are without doubt some men who are not worthy to wear the badge. But an immense majority of the Union veterans are upright and industrious citizens who deserve respect for their personal character as well as for the priceless services they rendered when the life of the nation was in peril. In New York and in every Northern community, from Boston Harbor to the Golden Gate, Union soldiers are prominent among business leaders and hold positions of the highest trust and responsibility.

The flower of American manhood was in the armies of the North. The men who stood like a granite wall at Gettysburg, who stubbornly confronted the fierce assaults of the Confederates in the West, who followed Grant through the awful carnage of the wilderness, and swept with Sherman from Atlanta to the sea, represented the highest type of American citizenship. They were not mercenaries when in answer to Lincoln's call they left homes, families and business interests to face the bayonets and cannon of the Confederacy that this Republic might live.

There is no ground whatever for Colonel Waring's assumption that two thirds of the pension payments made by the Federal Government are either fraudulent or unjustified. It is inevitable that sporadic cases of fraud should occur; but in view of the stringent safeguards with which the system of granting pensions has been surrounded, it is safe to say that the disbursement of pension money is characterized, on the whole, by marked efficiency and honesty. This nation has already pronounced its verdict on the question of keeping in good faith the contract which it made with the Union soldier when it asked him to imperil his life in its defense. The American people uphold, by an overwhelming majority, the policy consistently followed by the Republican party in dealing with the loyal veterans of the civil war. Pretences that the amount paid in pensions is excessive are unfounded in fact. The services which were rendered by the men who faced death under the Stars and Stripes can never adequately be remunerated. The wealth, progress and power of the American Republic is directly due to their achievements, for without their courage and devotion the nation would have ceased to exist.

BASE BAWLS.

What the Players and Managers of the Diamond Are Doing.

Manager Witman was in Philadelphia endeavoring to secure Mark Baldwin, who was released by the Philadelphia club, but Baldwin wants the earth. His modest demand was $300 a month, the captaincy of the Reading club, and in case one of the State League clubs should fail he wants the franchise of the club.

"Big Vin" Dalley, formerly with Corning, covers first bag for the Harrisburgs. He is playing great ball and hitting the sphere out of sight.

His friends may not be aware of the fact—but 'tis true, nevertheless—that John J. Haulon, the popular president of the State League, is an inventor. A patent has just been issued to him, for a device for increasing the stroke of steam or other engines. It accomplishes this by means of a revolving crank pin, causing a gain of 25 per cent. in leverage. This is the third patent that has been granted Mr. Haulon, the others being a rotary engine and the use of a rotary engine as a compound engine.

One of the Pottsville players is in an ecstasy of delight because he was in the game yesterday and it was the first in twenty games he played against the Cuban Giants that they did not win. According to that a stone crusher won't break that player's heart and when Shenandoah downs Pottsville this season it will yell with glee that it won the pennant last year.

The Miners' Journal base ball editor won't be able to tell a home run from a base hit when Shenandoah gets through with his club this season.

A half mile track is being constructed at the Carbondale Park. The Carbondaleites will need a mile track when the Shenandoahs get the stick in play.

Can any one tell Manager Smith where he can buy, beg, or borrow a flag pole about 50 or 60 feet long?—Miners' Journal. Even a pole of that length will not reach some of the out-shoots our pitchers have in stock as puzzlers for the ball birds.

The Pottsville defeated the Cuban Giants yesterday by scoring them to death the day before. Tighe started the reign of terror by punching A. Jackson on the diamond Wednesday afternoon and the darkies took the hint. They were afraid that if they did not let the ball birds win yesterday they would be mobbed before leaving the town.

W. W. Clark, of Circleville, O., has been signed as an infielder by Manager Brennan and is said to be a good one.

Olinville Weavers Strike.
PROVIDENCE, April 25.—The textile situation in Olinville reached a crisis yesterday afternoon when 699 weavers employed by the Providence and National worsted mills struck, and more than 2,000 other operatives were obliged to cease work, as both mills at once shut down. The cause of the strike is the alleged introduction of non-union men into the weaving rooms of both mills, with the request that the union weavers teach them to weave. The weavers refused to do this, and the management informed them that they could leave the mills at once.

Hetty Green Exempt from Taxation.
NEW YORK, April 25.—President Barker, of the tax department, received an opinion from the corporation counsel yesterday that the fact that Hetty Green, the richest woman in America, is a non-resident of the city of New York is established. He therefore advises that no assessment for personal property can lawfully be made against her. The tax commissioners had assessed Mrs. Green for $1,500,000 personally. She claims a residence in Bellows Falls, Vt.

Shot by His Wife.
SAVANNAH, April 25.—Milton J. Swoigart, a well known printer, was shot and killed while in his bed by his wife early in the morning. She was a woman of notorious character, with some property, when Swoigart married her two years ago on what was believed to be her deathbed. The woman is believed to be insane. Swoigart is a son of Jacob Swoigart, of Oxford, Chester county, Pa.

C. F. Huntington's Case Adjourned.
NEW YORK, April 25.—Argument on the application for a writ for the removal of Collis P. Huntington, president of the Southern Pacific railroad to California, on the charge of having violated the interstate commerce law, which was to have been heard before Judge Brown in the United States district court yesterday, has been adjourned.

Ex-Auditor General Temple Dead.
PITTSBURG, April 25.—Justice F. Temple of Waynesburg, ex-auditor general of the state, died in this city yesterday, aged 71 years. He leaves a wife and four children, a son and three daughters. One of the daughters is Mrs. Mary Temple Bayard, a well known newspaper correspondent under the nom de plume of "Meg."

Married.
Henry Entwistle, of Mahanoy City, and Miss Carrie Mader, of town, were married last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, on East Coal street, by Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church. The couple have taken up a residence at Mahanoy City.

DURANT AND GIBSON.

The Suspicious Against Them for the Two Church Murders.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 25.—Rev. John George Gibson, pastor of the Emanuel church, was again on the witness stand yesterday in the preliminary examination of Theodore Durant, charged with the murder of Minnie Williams. The defense believes it has a case against the clergyman, and will try to show that he and Durant killed both Miss Williams and Mrs. Lamont.

On the day preceding the finding of Blanche Lamont's body, her aunt, Mrs. Noble, received a paper containing the rings worn by the missing girl. On the paper was written the name of George B. King and Professor Schernstein, the apparent object being to connect these men with the girl's disappearance. Experts declare the writing to be the disguised hand of Durant. In court yesterday counsel for the defense requested Rev. Dr. Gibson to write the names of King and Schernstein. The minister did so, but asked twice how to spell Schernstein's name. Nothing tangible against him was brought out by cross-examination and his testimony was concluded.

Alfred O. McElroy, aged 18, testified that on Saturday evening, the 12th, he observed a man resembling Durant waiting on the corner near the church. Soon a young woman came along. The man approached her and shielded her with his shoulder from witness' observation. Soon afterwards witness, who had passed on, noticed a light moving in the church. This testimony was corroborated by Bert Miner, McElroy's companion. The other evidence adduced was the same as that given at the inquest.

Durant has secured a desk and an easy chair in his cell, and spends his time in studying his notes for his medical examination.

A Desperate Gang of Tramps.
HUNTINGDON, Pa., April 25.—A gang of about thirty desperate tramps, many of whom were armed, boarded a westbound freight train on the Pennsylvania railroad, at a point near Hyde station. When the trainmen tried to put them off the train they resisted, firing a number of shots from their revolvers, some of which took effect. When the train reached here the police, aided by a large posse of citizens, made an attack on the desperadoes, and after a fierce fight, succeeded in capturing five of the ringleaders, who were put in jail. The others escaped to the woods. Some members of the gang are suspected of having taken part in the $40,000 burglary at Millintown.

The Boom in the South.
BALTIMORE, April 25.—Special reports to The Manufacturers' Record show a very decided increase in the southward tendency of population, illustrated by large purchases of lands in Georgia, Arkansas and other southern states for western and northern colonists. Reports from the northwest show a very widespread disposition on the part of farmers to move south. In industrial matters the chief activity is still given to cotton mill enterprises, and reports for the week show that a 3,000 spindle mill will be built at Concord, N. C., and a large addition made to another mill at the same place. At Edgewood, S. C., La Grange and Rome, Ga., mills will also be erected.

PAIDSON, Tenn., April 25.—News reached here of the lynching of a negro rapist just the home of Thomas Gray, six miles west of here, on the Tennessee. The negro assaulted Mrs. Gray while the lady was alone at home. He was hunted down by a posse and riddled with bullets and left lying in the woods.

To Operate Collieries on Full Time.

WIKESBARE, Pa., April 25.—In consequence of the coal war orders were issued to operate all the collieries of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal company on full time. Six thousand men are affected by the order. In coal circles it is believed that the boom will be followed by a corresponding depression.

A Brakeman's Terrible Injury.

EASTON, Pa., April 25.—Clarence Schelling, a brakeman on the Belvidere division of the Pennsylvania railroad, a resident of Phillipsburg, N. J., was fatally injured by the breaking of a bumping stick, the jagged ends of which struck his side, while shunting cars at Carpentersville.
