No matter where the Democratic party goes for its Presidential candidate it is going to defeat with him.

It would spare this Government a supreme humiliation if we could somehow diffuse throughout all the world the impression that we never asked Spain to apologize.

SCARCELY a day rolls over Uncle Sam's head that does not offer its evidence that he needs a navy equally good as anybody's.

THE famous humorist who wished one hot day that he could take off his flesh and sit in his bones would retract if he were alive and could see what is left of the income tax law.

VICE PRESIDENT Adlai E. Stevenson fights shy of a direct question as to what he thinks of the white metal.

GRADUALLY the beauties of the new Democratic tariff are being unfolded.

THE journalists of Russia who petitioned the Czar for some modification of the rigors of the press censorship have not only had their petition denied but have been virtually informed that they have no right to petition for favors.

THE London Times says "the members of the Cleveland cabinet consider it advisable that the whole income tax law should be repealed, now that serious inroads have been made upon it by the Supreme Court."

A few days after this Logue and the woman went to New York for a short visit. Then Logue fell in with another burglar named George Mason.

A ROMANCE OF CRIME.

The Murder of Johanna Logue No Longer a Mystery.

JIMMY LOGUE NOT THE MURDERER.

The Real Murderer an Illegitimate Son of One of Logue's Former Wives—He Admits the Crime, but Declares It Was Involuntary Manslaughter.

PHILADELPHIA, April 29.—While a large portion of the Philadelphia population was attending church yesterday there lay on a desk in a dingy little room down town the skull of a murdered woman.

JAMES C. LOGUE.

and as completely as if the earth had opened and swallowed her. The newspapers at the time were full of it, rewards were offered, and no one was more indefatigable in his efforts to locate the woman than Logue himself.

When it became known that Logue and his wife had lived in the house suspicion at once pointed to him as the murderer, but all search for him proved unavailing.

On the evening of March 5 last Jimmy Logue went to Coroner Ashbridge's private residence here and gave himself up. From that time on Coroner Ashbridge and Detective Geyer worked together in secret until they had unraveled the complete story, which culminated a few days ago in the arrest of a man whose identity was not revealed until yesterday.

Promptly upon his release, in 1877, Logue and Johanna went to New York, where for a time he operated with the equally notorious Peter Burns, who died some years ago in a jail in Florence, Italy.

A few days after this Logue and the woman went to New York for a short visit. Then Logue fell in with another burglar named George Mason.

of the woman was dead. All the time she was about 35 years old. With the assistance of her brother, Peter Gahan, Logue searched the country far and wide for her, but to no avail.

The next event was when he was captured by John Irwin in the clear store of Portanda & Co. at Broad and Chestnut, in November, 1879, and was sent to prison for three years and nine months.

The warrant for Cutalar's arrest was sworn out by Logue on April 18 of this year, and six days later he was taken into custody. Then search was made for Eckert, the journeyman, and he was found at work in a New York barber shop.

Fricke was found in Philadelphia, and then came another startling feature. He is a nervous, excitable young German, and had always been a trifle glibly in mind, but when he found himself involved in the story his mind became unlimbered, and it became necessary to send him to the insane department of the Philadelphia hospital.

The original story told by Logue was borne out in every detail by the investigations of the coroner and the detective, but they further found that Cutalar had for years been pursuing a crooked career.

The official inquest in the case will be held on Wednesday.

Ten Men Reported Drowned. BALTIMORE, April 27.—Two white men and eight colored men are reported to have been drowned during the storm on the Rappahannock river last Monday.

Nervousness

Is only another name for impure blood, for no person is weak and nervous whose blood is perfectly pure.

When the blood is full of the germs of disease, and lacking in the red corpuscles which give it vitality, when it fails to properly nourish the organs and tissues of the body, what can you expect but that tired feeling and nervousness?

Of course Sarcifala, Salt Rheum, Catarrh and Rheumatism are universally recognized as blood diseases, for which Hood's Sarsaparilla, as the best blood purifier, is everywhere acknowledged the greatest remedy.

Therefore, as Hood's Sarsaparilla cures all blood diseases, it is the best remedy for that condition of the blood which causes Nervousness.

It is a false idea to think you are curing your nervousness when you are taking a preparation which only "quids" your nerves! It is like trying to "drown" your sorrows in the flowing bowl. They are sure to return.

We wish to make most impressive, then, this truism:

You cannot purify your blood by DEADENING or QUIETING your nerves with opiate, narcotic or nerve compounds. If you take such articles you are only TRILING with your troubles. There is sure to be a REACTION which will leave you worse than you were before.

Why not then, take the true course, follow the bee-line to the state of health, purify your blood and cure your Nervousness by taking

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The Penrose Resolutions Will Doubtless be Favorably Reported.

HARRISBURG, April 29.—There is nothing but the best kind of work for the state lawmakers, especially the members of the house, from now until the close of the session. The committees are working day and night to get rid of the bills not yet acted upon, so that the members may be free to give all their attention to the general calendar of bills. The house committees have about cleared their calendars of house bills, and are disposing of senate bills as fast as they come over.

The congressional apportionment bill will be brought out this week by the house committee. Chairman Lawrence has prepared a bill which he will submit to the committee tomorrow morning. It gives Philadelphia and Allegheny each an additional congressman and makes no material change in the other districts in the state outside these two counties.

The proceedings of the senate will be watched with keen interest this week. Everybody is waiting to hear of the action of the judiciary general committee on the Penrose resolution to investigate the operation of the Bullitt bill. The committee will meet tomorrow, and an attempt will be made to bring out the resolution without delay. There is no doubt as to the action of the committee. Three-fourths of its members are friendly to Senator Penrose, and will vote to report the memorial favorably. Senator Quay will be here this week, and it is thought he will be consulted by President Pro Tem. Thomas and Senator Penrose before the committee is announced. Senator Kennedy, of Allegheny, seems to be the general favorite for chairman. He is a personal and political friend of Senator Quay.

He found the doors and windows tightly barred. Breaking in he discovered Mrs. Duffy on the bed asleep, as he supposed, but in carrying her out he found she was dead, with her throat cut and her clothing saturated with kerosene, which had also been used freely about the house. Mrs. Duffy had recently drawn a sum of money from the Ulster County Savings bank here, and it is believed that she was robbed and murdered, as no trace of the money can be found.

Brutal Murder by Whitescaps.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 29.—A special from Sevierville, the county seat of Sevier county, where a notorious gang of whitescaps have held forth for two years past, says: Thomas Gibson, a well to do farmer, was shot down in cold blood Saturday midnight. He and his 19-year-old daughter were alone in the house, when three men came and tried to get her father to come out. When he refused they knocked the door down, and when the father showed fight by raising a chair one of the whitescaps fired a load of shot from a double barreled shotgun into Gibson's body and he fell dead.

Coal Strikers Rioting.

MCDONALD, Pa., April 29.—The coal strike outlook here is decidedly threatening in the event of the Robbins Coal company's insisting on its policy of importing non-union men into its mines. As a result of the importation of twenty colored men there was a small riot. It began by the attempted rescue of a colored man from the hands of deputy sheriffs, who would be rescuer being a colored man. The plan of rescue was defeated, but women sympathizers engaged in the fray, and made things very lively for the deputies by hurling volleys of stones at them.

To Crush the Cuban Rebels.

MATRID, April 29.—Marshal de Campos, captain general of Cuba, has drawn up a plan of campaign against the rebels. He will go to Santiago de Cuba in three or four days from Havana. They were pursued by government troops, and in a skirmish that ensued the insurgents lost one killed and three wounded.

He was found some time afterward at the foot of the shaft, which is forty feet deep, horribly crushed, not a whole bone remaining.

PORT NORRIS, N. J., April 29.—During a street row at Long Beach, a short distance from this place, A. Wilkes Booth (colored) was stabbed to death. The police have arrested Alexander Hayes and three other negroes, whom they charge with being implicated in the murder. Booth was one of the men imported from Baltimore to take the places of oystermen on the boats in the Delaware.
