

THE WILD WEST.

A Great Object Lesson in the History of the United States.

Buffalo Bill's Wild West, which is soon to appear at Pottsville, is admitted to be the most wonderful and interesting exhibition ever given to the open air...

A Skeleton in the Closet.

How often do we hear of this in domestic life at this day. But what is more appalling than the living body made repulsive with skin and scalp diseases...

Dr. R. V. PIERCE: Dear Sir—When about three years of age I was taken with rumps, also had fever, finally I had that dreaded disease—Scrofula.

Saturday's rain brought out the buds and gave the town a good cleaning.

The air was full of music on Friday, hand organs, brass bands, drum corps, &c., helped to make the town lively.

Cattle and swine continue to roam at large and add greatly to the picturesque of the town.

The Grand Army of town has selected Rev. Meredith, pastor of the M. E. church of town, as orator on Decoration Day.

The Shamokin Daily News is rather severe upon our peasant Councilmen. Some of them are mean enough to skin a horse, but they are few in number and hard to find outside of Shenandoah.

The Journal is wailing bitterly against the new county. There is danger in the air, else why all these lamentations? Too bad, too bad.

Want to Know. What has become of the Schuylkill Press Association? What the Pottsville newspapers will do after the Judges' Retiring and Quay county bills pass the Legislature? What will be the result of the libel suits instituted by Steward Hartman? The verdict against the Philadelphia Times is not a very encouraging outlook.

Will Pottsville have a boulevard? Whether Judge Pershing will ever sit in court again? Why Council did not ask for bids from Pottsville papers for publishing the notice "Proposals for Coal Hauling?" Sympathy for a Man Slayer.

MILWAUKEE, April 29.—City Treasurer Luscombe was formally placed under arrest yesterday afternoon, charged with murder in the first degree for shooting his brother-in-law, Emil A. Sanger, brother of the slayer, Saturday night.

The prisoner was released on a $10,000 bail. Public sympathy seems to be with Luscombe. Even some of the members of the Sanger family do not bear him any great resentment, knowing, as they did, that the murdered man had cruelly beaten his wife and threatened to kill Luscombe.

Sanger went to the Luscombe home on Grand avenue and Fifteenth street, where his wife had taken refuge with her brother and father after he had beaten her, and when he tried to force an entrance Luscombe shot him through a heavy plate glass. His head was filled with the pieces, instantly killing him.

I will never live to get out."

Brakeman Megalun Ground to Death. ALBION, Pa., April 29.—The body of William Megalun was found ground to pieces on the Pennsylvania railroad at Tipton, a few miles east of this city. It is supposed the extra train, of which Megalun was a brakeman, stopped at the point where he was killed and that he got off and in doing so slipped in front of the fast line west.

Reward for Mrs. Parnell's Assaultant. BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 29.—A reward of $250 has at last been offered for information that will lead to the capture of the cruel assaultant of Mrs. Parnell. House Wrecked by Natural Gas. PITTSBURG, April 29.—At Edgewood, a suburb, the residence of Attorney A. L. Spindler was blown apart by an explosion of natural gas, which leaked into the cellar through a drain. Rebecca Spindler was probably fatally injured by falling from the second floor to the cellar. Two other explosions wrecked the adjoining dwelling houses of A. L. Swift, Professor D. W. Downing and T. A. Johnston. The loss is $20,000.

Crushed by a Fall of Coal. TAMAUCA, Pa., April 29.—David Liddle, an employee of Bell colliery, at Tuscarora, was killed by a fall of coal. Liddle and his bottle were waiting for a shot to go off, when a prep in the mines gave way, letting down a fall of coal, which buried him. When the men inside commenced to dig the coal an additional fall took place, preventing the recovery of the body for several hours.

Did you ever see one of the famous waterproof interlined Collars or Cuffs?

It's very easy to tell, for they are all marked this way

They are the only interlined Collars and Cuffs, and are made of linen, covered with waterproof "CELLULOID."

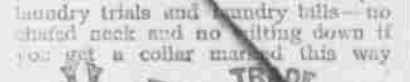

They'll stand right by you day in and day out, and they are all marked this way

The first cost is the only cost, for they keep clean a long time, and when soiled you can clean them in a minute by simply wiping off with a wet cloth—that is the kind marked this way

These collars and cuffs will outlast the linen ones. The wearer escapes laundry trials and laundry bills—no stained neck and no linting down if you get a collar marked this way

Ask your dealer first, and take nothing that has not above trade mark, if you desire perfect satisfaction. Others are limitations absolutely.

If you can't find collars or cuffs marked this way, we will send you a sample postpaid on receipt of price. Collars, 25 cts. each. Cuffs 50 cts. pair. Give your size and say whether stand-up or turned-down collar is wanted.
