

Merc Mention.

The new county scheme got a black eye yesterday. Quay wasn't in it after all.

The Pottsville hospital is a sure enough thing, and those who can afford it and feel so disposed, should help it along.

The base ball and circus seasons generally open about the same time in this county.

The bald headed statesman of Schuylkill Haven, Hon. S. A. Louch, is entitled to the biggest share of the credit in defeating the Quay county scheme.

What you say about your goods, if said in the local newspaper, will make more men come in to buy.—Printers' Ink.

Don't forget the souvenir silver edition of the HERALD, to be issued the latter part of this month. Time is short and those who wish to advertise in it will have to hustle.

Now listen to the fellows who did it all and will want to be rewarded by being sent to Congress, Legislature or somewhere else, for knocking out the new county scheme.

Those who fall to get in the souvenir edition will be sorry and will have themselves to blame.

How about turning on the water? Twenty thousand dollars a year to pay out for the satisfaction of having public water works that don't work is not a light burden for the taxpayers to shoulder.

It is like pulling teeth to collect taxes just now, when the workingmen work a few days a week, with ten per cent. off. But Council can afford to spend $100 a year for refreshments and—water; $300 for carriage hire to inspect the refreshments and—water, and $30,000 to run the plant with no income.

So the railroad companies took a hand in defeating the new county project! It is no use bucking against a stone wall like the three powerful corporations—Penny, Lehigh and Reading.

What is the matter with Hazleton attaching herself to Schuylkill county, now that she isn't satisfied to remain in the same county with Wilkes-Barre? "Barkis is willin'!"

The borough of Yorkville has a wide-awake, liberal Board of Trade. The consequences are that that town is having a healthy boom and a number of manufacturing are going to be located there. Will Shenandoah take a hint?

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup seems sent as a special providence to the little folks. Pleasant to take, perfectly harmless, and absolutely sure to give instant relief in all cases of cold or lung trouble.

Dick Complains Again.

The enterprising correspondent of the Mahanoy City Record from Shenandoah makes the following complaint concerning the Heat & Power Company: Considerable complaint was made yesterday against the action of some one connected with the steam plant. On Saturday evening the heat was shut off at the power house and not turned on again before the next morning, although the consumers are charged up to the first of June for the heat. Yesterday afternoon the heat was again turned off for about three hours. It is a fact, though, that there is not more than two who own stock in the concern who have the steam in their own house. This is just the right kind of weather for people to catch pneumonia with no heat in their houses. We know of one family that was obliged to carry a sick child that had been taken with the croup during Saturday night, down into their kitchen in order to keep it warm while doctoring it."

All those creeping, crawling, stinging sensations that combine to make up the tortures of any itching disease of the skin are instantly relieved and permanently cured by Doan's Ointment. Take no substitute. Doan's never fails.

Up to Date.

A "Milk Trust" has been organized in New York.

It will be news to many admirers of Dan Rice, in this county, to know that this greatest and best known circus clown is still alive and living in Chicago. Several years ago he was reported as being dead.

Down in Delaware county a new "Gloucester" has been opened and the county officials seem to be powerless to prevent the gambling now being carried on there. The place is called Essington.

Before the "Lexow" committee bill passes the Legislature we hope Representative Wyatt will have an amendment added so as to include Shenandoah. The public water works scheme needs looking into.

Italian Strike's Rioting. KINGSTON, N. Y., May 1.—All work is suspended in the brick yards of Washburn Brothers, Frank Van Dusen, Magnius Brothers and Robert Lent. The Italians are organizing in groups, raising poles with the Italian flag and marching to and fro to the blasts of a bugle. Constable Abel attempted to arrest the bugler, but was beaten off by a howling mob armed with clubs and revolvers. An attempt to load a large at the Van Dusen yard was frustrated by the strikers. It is stated by the latter that their wages are to be cut twenty-five cents a day. The employers, however, will not yet announce definitely what the wages are to be.

Tennessee's gubernatorial contest. NASHVILLE, May 1.—When the legislative joint convention adjourned last evening the clerk was still engaged in reading the voluminous reports of the minority of the investigating committee. The Republicans claim that they will defeat the adoption of the majority report, while Democrats contend the report will be adopted and Governor Turney declared to have been elected governor. It is believed a decisive vote will be taken tomorrow.

Base Hits. Patrick Smith, of Philadelphia, arrived here last night and will be given a trial as pitcher. He made a reputation last year with one of the Catholic League clubs of the Quaker City.

The following batting orders were announced for today's games: Pottsville—Hughes, p.; Eustace, s.; Fox, c.; Hill, c.; Miller, 1b.; Ellis, 3b.; Tighe, 2b.; Smith, 2b.; Davis, r.f.; Shenandoah—Severs, p.; Merriman, 3b.; Sweltzer, s.; McCosh, r.f.; Kennedy, c.; McGarvey, 2b.; Gill, l.f.; Little, 1b.; Clark, c.f.

H. B. Tappin, a representative of the Philadelphia Times' base ball department, was in town today. He distributed score cards issued by the paper and witnessed the game at the Trotting park.

W. J. Watkins has been appointed official scorer for the home team.

A large crowd went to the Trotting park to witness the game this afternoon, not confident of a home team victory, but hoping the team would hold the visitors down. Lack of practice prevented enthusiastic hopes.

The Pottsville club will be presented with the 1894 championship pennant, awarded by the Philadelphia Inquirer, at Doan's park, Pottsville, on Friday. The Third Brigade Band will furnish the music.

Who Owns the Coat?

About two weeks ago a young man named Frank Parry took to the house of his brother, James, who resides at 431 West Lins street, an overcoat which he said he procured at Mt. Carmel. Parry has since disappeared, leaving the coat at the house. The brother suspects that the garment was stolen and is anxious that anybody who has suffered the loss of that kind of an article should call at the address above given.

Another Wreck at Tomonahita.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 1.—Another wreck on the Inter-oceanic railroad is reported to have occurred at Tomonahita, the scene of the disaster by which nearly a hundred persons lost their lives. Details have not yet been received from the wreck, but it is known that a freight train jumped the track, and it is said the number killed is fourteen, with several more injured. The scene of the disaster is the same curve which not only caused the Tomonahita disaster, but a number of small wrecks attended with loss of life.

On Strike for Small Wages. BALTIMORE, May 1.—The strike of the 3,300 garment workers of this city, which was inaugurated yesterday, has been brewing for months, and was finally decided on Monday night. The decision to quit work met with little opposition. The scale of wages demanded by the men and women are: Operators, $12; basters, $11; pressers, $10; assistant operators, $7; assistant basters, $7; bushelmen, $9; finishers, $9; folding hands, $4.

The Bluefield Coal Strike On. BLUEFIELD, W. Va., May 1.—The strike in the coal fields is practically on. There is no excitement, but the men are determined to resist their being supplanted by non-union men. Only five of the coal mines will be run after today out of thirty-nine. The coal traffic is practically at an end. The present movement is understood to be backed by the operators to compel the Norfolk and Western railroad to come to terms.

The R. and O. Tunnel Opened for Travel. BALTIMORE, May 1.—The Baltimore and Ohio belt tunnel was opened for business today. The tunnel, 7,300 feet long, has been five years building and cost $6,000,000. The first train was sent through the tunnel to New York a half hour after midnight. The Baltimore and Ohio tunnel, much of it an open cut, will materially lessen the time of travel and traffic between New York and Washington.

SIGNS OF SPRING.

How One of the Town Star Boarders Knows Winter is Gone. "The haddock at my boarding house is beginning to have a sort of twang these mornings," said the star boarder in a West Shenandoah boarding house, "and that is why I know that spring is here."

"Other people know the change of the seasons by the pulsations of their rich hearts," he went on, "but I am of a more practical nature and I watch the table. They have been giving us ice water drawn from the spigot all winter and constructed without the aid of any ice. Now they let the tap run extra long and try and fathom the coolest recesses of the main pipe but the result is a dismal lukewarm failure."

"I observe a simper upon the faces of the young women boarders, and they are beginning to darn up the holes in their mosquito net frocks of last year, and to come down in things that smell of camphor. Other folks may know what time of year it is by the musical twitter of sparrows and things that browse upon the green sward, but that isn't me."

"When a man has worked along for nineteen years in a $5 a week boarding house he has most of the romance starved out of him, and his sentiments get brow-beaten. His thermometer is the fodder trough, and eatables count more with him than glamour or glitter, or any old things like that."
