Before the Justices.

THIRD EDITION

Saturday was pay day and the event brought forth a little less than its usual quota of law suits. Andrew Malentokonis, a Pole, appeared before Justice Toomey on Saturday night, and caused the arrest of Joe Melakopki, Peter Zeletski and Peter Burniski for assault and battery. The party were in a saloon drinking quite freely and got into a dispute. During the difficulty the prosecutor was thrown out and struck with an empty beer keg. His head was badly cut. Zeletski and Burniski were discharged, but Melakopki was placed under $500 bail. The arrest was made by Officers Tosh and Lee and Constable Giblin.

Constable Giblin on Saturday arrested Pierce Poinskewicz for assaulting Authory Dubel. While justice Toomey was in the act of writing out a commitment the prisoner made his escape, and has not yet been found.

A Piece of Her Mind.

A lady correspondent has this to say:
"I want to give a piece of my mind to when it costs them anything—this won't cost them a cent.

"I suffered a living death for nearly two years with headaches, backache, in pain atanding or walking, was being literally dragged out of existence, my misery increased by drugging.

"At last, in despair, I committed the sin of trying an advertised medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and it restored me to the blessedness of sound health. I honor the physician who, when he knows he can cure, has the moral courage to advertise the fact."

The medicine mentioned cures all the delicate diseases peculiar to females, as "Female Weakness," periodical pains, irregularities, nervous prostration, spasms, cholers or St. Vitua's dance, sleeplessness threatened insanity.

Our Silver Souvenir.

This silver anniversary souvenir edition of the HERALD, which will appear on the 28th inst., will contain a history of Shenandoah and biographies of its leading business men and citizens. The principal streets of all the large towns in Schuylkill county will be profusely illustrated, and the HERALD is the first newspaper in | next fail. Schuylkill county that has ever published I edition, and also the first paper in this town that ever attempted to publish an issue of twenty pages or of similar at the P. & R. C. & I. Co.'s collieries, is magnitude and character. Another getting to be quite a chestnut. feature of this mammoth edition will be a general write-up of all the leading towns of the county taking in the historical facts and growth to its past achieve ments. It will consist of 10,000 copies of twenty pages each, weighing 3,600 pounds, or one and four-fifths of a ton. This edition will equal 50,000 copies of the regular size of the EVENING HERALD. If stretched out in a continuous sheet twelve inches wide it would be three million eight hundred and fifty thousand inches long and would reach a distance of sixty miles or from Shenandoah to Allentown. Stretched out in a single sheet it would make a carpet completely covering all the streets in Shenandoah from earb to curb. If reduced to an inch in width it would make a band 720 miles long-equal to the circumference of the state of Pennsylvania.
