WE ARE TAIL ENDERS.

The Shenandoahs Played at Hazleton Yesterday and They Lost Again.

DO THEY WANT A RELEASE?

MANAGER BRENNAN IS BEING URGED TO CONSENT TO A TRANSFER OF THE FRANCHISE.

A Home Syndicate Can Raise One Thousand Dollars to Start the Club on a New Basis. Some Predictions.

The Shenandoah team of the State League of base ball clubs is unable to get off the toboggan slide and yesterday dropped its fifth successive game, leaving it the tail ender in the race with a score of five games lost and none won. The record of the Carbondale club is but little better, but the circumstances are different and the result in the Carbondale case is not looked upon with the hopelessness with which the work of the Shenandoah players is viewed. It is claimed that the latter can play ball, but won't do so under the present management and that threats of release have no effect. The situation is fully realized by people interested in the club other than Manager Brennan and pressure is being brought to bear from several quarters to get Brennan to consent to transfer the franchise to a syndicate of home people who say they can raise $1,000 for a start within twenty-four hours.

If Manager Brennan is wise he will consent to such a step. It is almost a certainty that if he does not do so the club will go to pieces. This prediction is made upon confidential information and if Manager Brennan does not take some steps towards the direction indicated by those who are urging the club will be in a very peculiar position. The report that the club is about to be transferred to Philadelphia is not confirmed by the management. One of the gentlemen interested stated today that there are such overtures and that if a transfer is made it will be to a home syndicate. It would certainly be folly to send the club from town. The game can be made a paying investment here with a club that can play ball, but at its present rate it can only result in a loss of public confidence that must necessarily bring financial disaster to the management.

Yesterday the home team played at Hazleton, instead of Carbondale. The change was made upon request of the Pottsville management as the Carbondale club was looked upon as a better circus day attraction at the former place than Hazleton would be. The Shenandoahs made a miserable showing in yesterday's game and were defeated with hands down. They had seven errors, while the Hazletons played without one. Up to the seventh inning of the game it looked like a shut out, but a home run by Little broke the spell. In its report of the game today's Hazleton Standard says significantly: "The visitors are decidedly lacking in team work, and unless Manager Brennan makes a radical change in the make-up, his club will be a victim for every club during the balance of the season. There is, however, some good material in the club, but there is something lacking."

The score of the game yesterday was as follows:

Today's Schedule.
Allentown at Harrisburg, Carbondale at Pottsville, Reading at Lancaster, Shenandoah at Hazleton.

NOTES.
Gill had a disagreement with Manager Brennan and was released. He signed with Petersburg, Va., today.
Hazleton plays here next Friday and Saturday.

If the schedule games are carried out next week there will be a game here every day.

Freelancers assembled in large numbers at Hazleton yesterday, but their townsman, McGarvey, failed to show up well in the game.

Moran, Hazleton's right fielder, is said to be the trickiest player in the league. It is very discouraging to have a club of released players.

Pottsville, Allentown and Carbondale are picked out as the pennant fighters this year.

The poor showing of the S. M., aggregation is due to the team never having played together before last Wednesday. It is a costly experiment, but the poor players will be weeded out, and new men substituted, while the team will practice faithfully to acquire that highly essential element, team work. Some of the men are elegant fielders and can hit like hounds, while on the bases they are very active. By the time the team gets into good running order the statement that the team will be a winner will be verified. Manager Brennan has cast lines for several good men to fill the weak spots and is confident of landing them. Do not be discouraged with the poor showing made thus far, but wait. Mark our prediction, if the games are patronized S. and M. will be a winner—Mahanoy Tri-bune.

"The base ball rank is filled with pain, and sweat from games to the away. He'll never see such dubs again! And keeps his word—until next day."—Ex.

Worse Than Brutes.
Shenandoah, like many other towns has owners of horses who should have their placed in their own mouths and give a taste of the brutality they practice upon the innocent beasts. They know no more how to handle a horse than fly. Here is a representative of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in Allentown. He would find plenty to do in keeping him busy. The law gives any Justice of the Peace power to act on any complaint brought before them by citizens, members of the society. One or two arrests would probably serve as a warning to all men who fail to appreciate the nobility of all animals—the horse.

Free to Everybody.
Boston baked beans tomorrow night at the Scheiff House.

Assist the Firemen.
The fire companies are complaining the want of proper support on the part of the business men in their efforts to accommodate the public in sprinkling streets during the summer season. The companies have gone to considerable expense in this respect, and the service they render the public gratuitously, and sufficient to warrant them in expecting liberal patronage, especially when the companies give an equivalent. Give the sprinkler boys your dime.

Buy your wall paper and room hangings at John L. Haasler's.

He Now Wishes He Hadn't.
A Polish miner, working at Hick Ridge colliery, was given a stick of dynamite and playfully told that it was a new style of pipe. He was in the act of boring out the dynamite with a pocket knife when it exploded, severing two fingers of his right and left hands. The Pole had entered suit against the parties who gave him the new style of pipe.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Dead Body of an Unknown Man Found Near Morea Yesterday.

NO INDICATION OF VIOLENCE

THE BODY IS IN CUSTODY OF THE AUTHORITIES AT MAHANAOY CITY.

A Prominent Townsman Accused of Quarrelling With a Woman and Beating Her in a Brutal Manner—Held for Trial.

A ghastly discovery was made yesterday on the mountain about a mile from Morea. While walking through the bush Peter Heiser, of Jacksons, found the dead body of a man, who had evidently died several weeks ago. There were no marks of violence upon the body, and nothing else to indicate foul play.

The man who made the discovery notified the Mahanoy City authorities and they caused the body to be removed to the cemetery above the town, where it now lies awaiting identification. Although twenty-four hours have elapsed since the discovery and many people have viewed the body, no one has identified it. The body is evidently that of a Pole, or Lithuanian. A search of the body has revealed nothing to help the identification and the face is so badly mangled by decomposition as to afford no clue.

In the pockets of the dead man's clothing were found two red handkerchiefs. One of them was spotted with blood. The body was clothed with overalls, black coat and vest and a black soft hat.

At the Theatre.

"In Old Louisiana," the play which the Clair Patee Company will present at Ferguson's theatre next Thursday evening, May 9th, will be one of the best performances of the season. It is a story of Southern home life, and is filled with excellent specialties, medleys, songs and dances. Besides the two leading characters by Miss Virginia Bray and William Nichols, Miss Florence Hadley will attract a great deal of attention as the Pickaninny with songs and Miss Eva Taylor and Mr. Livingston will also introduce a new and attractive specialty entitled, "Past and Future." No one should fail to see this new production of the Clair Patee Company. The prices will be the same as during a week's engagement, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Strouse, the reliable jeweler.

Pastimes.

Camp No. 112, P. O. S. of A., will celebrate its 36th anniversary this evening by holding a smoker in the camp room. There will be a musical and literary program and refreshments will be served. Tomorrow evening the Borough Councilmen, the members who retired this spring and a number of invited officials, will dine at McElhinney's. The affair will be the Council's annual gathering as guests of the new borough officials.

Strouse for watch repairing.

Watson House Free Lunch.

Mr. McGinnis has a treat in store for his patrons of free lunch in the shape of mock turtle soup and tomorrow morning he will serve an elegant clam chowder. Mr. Joseph A. Blukert has also entered his employ and will assume the management of this ever popular cafe.

Strouse's watch charms are elegant and reasonable in price.

Out of Sight Yet.

The entire Council "officially" viewed the Brandonville reservoir on Sunday last. Evidently that body is determined to have a larger carriage hire bill this year than last, when it reached the enormous sum of $350. Water, by the way, is as far off as ever.—Sunday News.
