

Our Silver Souvenir.

This silver anniversary souvenir edition of the HERALD, which will appear on the 28th inst., will contain a history of Shenandoah and biographies of its leading business men and citizens.

A Piece of Her Mind.

A lady correspondent has this to say: "I want to give a piece of my mind to a certain class who object to advertising when it costs them anything—this won't cost them a cent."

It Will be a Great Day.

One of the events of the year will be the dedication of the mammoth and magnificent temple of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, just completed, at Philadelphia.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liveryman and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it."

Reduced Rates

To Denver, Col., via Pennsylvania Railroad. For the accommodation of persons who desire to visit Colorado on the occasion of the meeting of the National Educational Association, at Denver, Col., July 5 to 12, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets on July 3, 4, and 5, to Denver, Colorado Springs, Manitou and Pueblo, at the extremely low rate of $6.75 from New York.

Columbia's Great Sales.

The Columbia Brewing Company finished its first year on April 14th, last, with sales of a little over 25,000 barrels, which speaks well for the company's product.

E. B. FOLEY,

Fine Groceries, 201 West Centre Street.

Dealer in groceries, flour, provisions, tea, coffee, sugar, etc. Best quality, lowest prices.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Brady, of Lost Creek, was a town visitor this morning. Joseph H. Kehler, of Allentown, is a guest of town friends. Miss Mattie Linton, of Mahanoy City, spent last evening in town.

John E. Housenick has returned from a business trip to New York and a social visit to Berwick.

James Goodman, of the firm of Goodman & Bro., of Philadelphia, Pottsville, Mahanoy City and Shenandoah wholesale produce dealers, spent yesterday in town on business connected with the firm.

Mere Mention.

We have one of the best health officers in the county, but he is handicapped by some of our best citizens. He cannot be blamed if he uses severe measures.

In looking over the array of names of the anti-county boomers it makes one smile. Were it not for future political favors two-thirds of them would show their preference for the new county.

Messrs. Reed and Lovett, of Weatherly, contemplate locating another silk mill. We would advise our people to try and secure this industry, but it is no use, as the Borough Council has refused to live up to its promises, and no reputable citizen will undertake to invite people to come here.

Whatever course the HERALD has taken on the new county bill has been gratuitous, not expecting any return. The people living at the lower end of Luzerne county deserve to win as they have always been put to great costs and inconveniences on account of the long distance from the county seat.

How to Treat a Wife.

First get a wife; second, be patient. You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear.

Clean Up Your Premises.

The condition of some parts of the town is fearful, and the stench arising from open sewers is enough to almost knock a person down. If an epidemic were to break out in the town, the people would have themselves to blame.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use as one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with.

Not Through Yet.

What did it cost Schuylkill, anyway, to have the new county bill defeated? Will Commissioners Martin and Allen answer, or will we have to await the next report of the Auditors for information on the subject?—Sunday News.

Removal.

H. Bury, the jeweler, changed his place of business to the Owens' building, on South Main street, recently vacated by Daniel and Dodson, and is prepared to receive orders for all kinds of repairing in the jewelry line, which he will do promptly and on reasonable terms.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The House Snubs a Protest Against British Occupation of Nicaragua.

HARRISBURG, May 7.—The house held a busy session last night, the order of business being and special bills on first reading and second and third readings.

A resolution was introduced by Mr. Focht, of Union, that the house maintain that "no foreign power should be permitted to raise its flag or land its troops upon this hemisphere, and therefore expresses its disapproval and disgust with the un-American and unpatriotic course of the national administration in permitting the hoisting and floating of the British flag in and the occupation by British troops of the republic of Nicaragua."

In the senate Mr. Landis, of Lancaster, offered a resolution, which was adopted, condemning the Cleveland administration for its course with regard to the British interference in the republic of Nicaragua.

Among bills passed finally were: Repealing the restriction in the law prohibiting bank stockholders from being notaries public; to provide for the filling of vacancies in the office of burgess and constable; house bill to repeal the act to erect the village of Darby, Delaware county, into a borough so far as relates to the number of councilmen and their terms of office; house bill authorizing trolley companies to gather and distribute United States mails.

THE "PENNSY" REACHING OUT.

Officials of the Company Make a Significant Visit to Mt. Carmel.

There appears to be no question but what the Pennsylvania railroad people have determined upon coming into Mt. Carmel by way of another route than that now used, and which in that event will give them exceptional facilities and advantages.

The presence of officials of the company in Mt. Carmel last week revives the probability of the Pennsy's completing the connection between Mt. Carmel and Frackville, as projected several years ago. The company owns and operates its own lines from Philadelphia to Pottsville and thence to a short distance below Frackville, from Frackville, along the Broad Mountain to Fountain Springs, across the hills to Germantown, and thence to Mt. Carmel, a line was surveyed and still stands on the maps of the company as an available through line from the west to Philadelphia.

The construction of this short connection would prove very expensive, but not more so than a similar distance on many parts of the Pennsy from Pottsville to Philadelphia. It would necessitate the construction of a very high bridge from Fountain Springs hill to the top of Asa-haud, and a tunnel from Germantown to the north side of Locust Mountain east of Mt. Carmel, but these would be considered trifling hindrances to the furtherance of the project.

The Schuylkill Valley route from Pottsville to Philadelphia, which runs parallel to the Reading, does not prove as remunerative as it might, and by making the connection said to be in contemplation it would provide another through and direct route for a large portion of the immense traffic the Pennsylvania has cultivated. Its lines from Harrisburg to Philadelphia are crowded at certain seasons, and the newly acquired through line would permit of a relief of any emergencies by bringing western freight over the P. & E. from Erie and thence over the Schuylkill Valley to Philadelphia, thus converting it into an exceedingly remunerative roadway.

The completion of this through route would establish a line that would enter largely into competition with the Reading and provide an additional outlet from the coal regions for such collieries as are not controlled by the latter corporation. The recent decision of the Reading, in which it refused to handle coal forwarded over other lines, hampered those in particular that were situated on the lines of the Lehigh Valley. By the establishment of this new route they would be independent of the Reading, for the Pennsylvania would then drain the anthracite region almost as effectively as the first named.

Waste Paper.

Time and again we have called attention to that worst of nuisances, throwing paper on the streets, and there does not seem to be any abatement. Nine-tenths of the runaways are caused by this senseless practice, and any person caught throwing paper or other refuse on the streets, alleys and pavements should be arrested and fined. One or two arrests will have a tendency to put a stop to the practice.

Why Not Gold?

Shenandoah seems to have made a grand mistake in reservoir building. It would have been cheaper to have used silver instead of earth in their construction.—Sunday News.

POLITICAL POINTS.

Schuylkill county will not be disturbed under the apportionment bills.

Early conventions will be the rule this year, but not until after the Legislature adjourns.

Squire Dengler is already getting his fences fixed for the Republican nomination of Treasurer next year.

Poor Director Derr, whose time expires with this year, we are informed will be a candidate for a re-nomination.

Wm. D. Seltzer, Esq., of Pottsville, will be a candidate before the next Republican convention for Judge of the Orphans' Court.

It is getting almost too warm to talk politics, but not warm enough to deter candidates from announcing themselves for office.

This year there will be an Orphans' Court Judge, District Attorney, Poor Director and Coroner to be elected, and in the event of Judge Pershing retiring, a successor to him.

In the event of Judge Pershing resigning or being retired, George M. Roads, Esq., of Pottsville, will be a prominent candidate before the next Republican convention. Mr. Roads stands high in the estimation of the people of this county and has never been identified with any of the factional fights of the party.

Over 20,000 Barrels Sold.

The Columbia Brewing Company put out its first product on April 14th, 1894, and sold the first year, just finished, a little over 20,000 barrels, which speaks well for the product they furnish.

Coming Events.

May 30.—Monster picnic at Columbia park by the Gymnasium Club.

May 30.—Ice cream festival in Robbins' hall, under the auspices of the Young People's Working Society of the United Evangelical church.

June 6.—Lecture by Rev. T. Bateman, entitled, "That's the Man," in the P. M. church.

WHY do people complain of hard times, when any woman or man can make money today easily? All have heard of the wonderful success of the CUMAX Dish Washer. Yet many are apt to think they can't make money selling it, but anyone can make money, because every family wants one. One agent has made $475.00 in the last three months, after paying all expenses and attending to regular business besides. You don't have to canvass, as soon as people know you have it for sale they send for a Dish Washer. Address the Cumax Mfg. Co., 45 Starr Ave., Columbus, Ohio, for particulars.

CHARTER NOTICE—Notice is hereby given that an application will be made to the Governor of Pennsylvania on the 10th day of May, 1896, by W. M. Brewer, B. J. Monaghan, G. M. Hamilton, F. J. Brennan and J. R. Coyle, under the Act of Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, entitled "AN Act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations," approved April 28, 1874, and the supplements thereto, for the charter of an intended corporation, to be called Pennsylvania State Building and Loan Association, of Shenandoah, Pa., the object and intent whereof is to accumulate a fund by the periodic contribution of its members, and to invest the same to and with its members, and for their benefit, and to have hold and exercise such other franchises and privileges as now are or hereafter may be granted by Building and Loan Associations, and for those purposes, to have possession and enjoy all the rights, benefits and privileges of the said Act of Assembly and its supplements.
