A PRETTY GOOD GAME

The Shenandoah Base Ball Club Continues Playing in an Improved Form.

MADE CARBONDALE HUSTLE

THE SHENANDOAHS HAD THE CONTEST WELL IN HAND UNTIL THE FIFTH INNING.

Nevins Weakened and the Carbondales Won the Victory by Good Stick Work Before Rain Stopped the Game.

The Shenandoah base ball team played at Carbondale yesterday and continued the good work that it started at Hazleton the day before, but again met defeat. The game only lasted five innings, on account of rain and the Shenandoahs had a good lead in the first half of that inning. When the Carbondales went to the plate they made a rally that gave them the lead by one run.

Although the Shenandoahs have failed to win a game thus far, the work they have done during the past two games has turned sentiment here more in their favor and if they continue showing a disposition to play ball they will undoubtedly receive support. They play here tomorrow and Saturday with the Hazletons and upon their work in those games will depend in a great measure the patronage for next week. The importance of earnestness on their part can readily be understood.

Manager Brennan has made two additions to the team while on his trip. One of them is King, a catcher, who has thus far done very satisfactory work. The other player is Carey, who is known as "The California Kid." He traveled from California to join the Hazletons this season and received $125 advance money, but was subsequently released. He is now playing left field with the Shenandoahs.

William Ford arrived in town this morning from Atlanta, Ga. He has been signed as catcher for the home team and great work is expected of him. He will probably go into the game tomorrow. He has not met Manager Brennan, as the latter is still absent from town.

True Home Enterprise. Every citizen of Shenandoah is peculiarly interested in the success of home enterprise. The Columbia Brewing Company have their wagons and harness made here and buy everything they use and is produced in the town, of home dealers. They employ in their brewery people that live in the borough and keep their money at home. Not only that; they turn out the finest beer, porter and Weiss beer that can be produced.

Strouse for musical instruments. On Special Duty. Martin Casey, Martin O'Hara, Matt. Blazes, William Flaherty and Harry Reeves did special police duty last night in place of the regular members of the force, who were in attendance at the Councilmanic supper.

COUNCILMEN DINE.

The Guests of the Council Appointees at McElhenney's Last Night.

The annual supper of the Borough Council was held at McElhenney's last night. It has been the custom for several years for the appointees of the Council to tender a supper to its members and, in accordance with that custom, there was quite a gathering last night, and they were given an excellent repast. Seats at the three tables spread in the parlors on the second floor of Mine Host McElhenney's home were occupied by Councilmen James Kane, John P. Boehm, James McElhenney, F. E. Magargle, Thomas J. James, C. T. Straughn, David R. James, Patrick Gaffigan, Patrick Kerns, A. D. Gable, Michael Dougherty, Patrick Hand, Richard Reese, ex-Councilman A. B. Lamb, E. F. Gallagher and William Niswenter, ex-Borough Treasurer M. H. Kehler, Borough Treasurer T. J. Davies, Secretary W. J. Watkins, Tax Collector M. J. Scanlan, Chief Burgess Burns, Borough Auditor John Medalls, Ward Assessor B. F. Parrott, Chief of Police Thomas Tash, Lieutenants Thomas Lee and George Walatis, Patrolmen James Kirwin and Thomas Hand, and H. H. Zelick.

The tables were elaborately spread and the menu was a first class one, embracing oysters, chicken, all the vegetables in season, ice cream, a large assortment of various superior brands, lager, temperance drinks of various kinds and an excellent brand of cigars. The parlors were handsomely decorated with the national colors and on the whole Mr. McElhenney acquitted himself with much credit in the arrangements for the affair and added to the excellent reputation of his hostelry.

Towards the close of the repast ex-Councilman Lamb was made toastmaster and for several hours there was a constant stream of jollity. Speeches were made by Messrs. McElhenney, Hand, T. J. James, Richard Reese, Patrick Gaffigan, Patrick Kerns, Michael Dougherty, D. R. James, H. H. Zelick, E. F. Gallagher, John P. Boehm and M. J. Scanlan, and Messrs. Burns, Magargle, Medalls and Kehler contributed vocal selections of both sentimental and comic character. Mr. McElhenney was dubbed the Matt. Quay of the Second ward and responded to the toast of "Politics." Mr. Hand gave a very interesting talk on Henry George's single tax theory. T. J. James spoke on "Slate Making and Breaking" and D. R. James spoke briefly on "Coal." Mr. Gaffigan made his maiden effort as an after dinner speaker with excellent success, telling what he knew of "Pump and Politics." The assemblage dispersed at about two o'clock this morning.

At the Theatre.

"In Old Louisiana," the play which the Clair Patee Company will present at Ferguson's theatre this (Thursday) evening, May 9th, will be one of the best performances of the season. It is a story of Southern home life, and is filled with excellent specialties, medleys, songs and dances. Besides the two leading characters by Miss Virginia Bray and William Nichols, Miss Florence Hadley will attract a great deal of attention as the Pickaninny with songs and Miss Eva Taylor and Mr. Livingston will also introduce a new and attractive specialty entitled, "Past and Future." No one should fail to see this new production of the Clair Patee Company. The prices will be the same as during a week's engagement, 10, 20 and 30 cents.

Among the most popular of free lunches is clam chowder. At the Scheffy House tomorrow night.

Grant Band Concert.

The Grant Band will give another one of their open-air concerts at the corner of Main and Centre streets, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The program will be as follows, under John M. Schoppe, director:

1. Overture, Lustspiel.....Keler Bela
2. Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep, for trombone, Mr. Charles Schoppe.....Rollinson
3. Russian Carriage Song.....Thornton
4. March, Keystone Volunteer.....Althou e
5. Medley, Creme de la Creme.....Laurenden
6. Waltz, from Spenser's Prisoners.....Bonnie
7. The forge in the forest, lory.....Michaels
8. Friendship march.....Althou e

Delicious clam chowder will be served tomorrow night at the Scheffy House, free to all patrons.

Up to Date.

The Chronicle states in its last evening's issue that the new county bill will pass, as Senator Quay has asked his friends to vote for it. The Commissioners will please now close the bar!

Pottsville papers would like to see Shenandoah attached to the new county. Our people have no objection, but where will the four Judges find work enough to do if such should happen?

Don't fail to partake of the Scheffy House clam chowder free lunch tomorrow night.

A Widow's Good Fortune. Mrs. Cosgrove, widow of James Cosgrove, a veteran of the civil war, has received through Justice Shoemaker accumulated pension money amounting to $700.

Clam chowder will be served as a free lunch at the Scheffy House tomorrow night.

BIG TIMBER LAND SALE.

Charles E. Titman Makes a Transfer to a Local Syndicate of Capitalists.

TO RETIRE FROM BUSINESS.

THE SALE INCLUDES TWENTY THOUSAND ACRES OF EXCELLENT TIMBER LAND IN LYCOMING COUNTY.

Dr. J. S. Kistler, John Robbins and H. W. Titman Are the Purchasers—Mr. Titman Will Remain Active for a Few Weeks.

One of the biggest lumber land sales that have taken place in Central Pennsylvania for years was consummated in town yesterday by a transfer made by Charles E. Titman, the lumber king of this place, who has sold a three-quarter interest in his business and lumber lands to John Robbins, Dr. J. S. Kistler and H. W. Titman, also of town. The purchase price has not been made public.

The sale includes about 20,000 acres of valuable timber land located at Camel, near Jersey Shore, Lycoming county, and about thirty-eight miles north of Williamsport. It is said by experts to be the best timber land in Lycoming county. The sale also includes the Oregon & Texas Railroad, which extends from Camel into the timber lands, and all engines, cars and equipments. The mules, horses, wagons, etc., connected with the local branch of the business go with the transfer.

Mr. Titman retains a fourth interest in the business and will remain actively connected with it until such time as the new owners become acquainted with the details, when he will retire from active business life and on July 1st he will sail for Europe for an extended trip. He expects to be absent about two months and during that time will visit all the principal cities of the British Isles.

The purchasers of the business and land have formed a company. They have not decided upon a name, but it is believed it will be The Shenandoah Lumber & Timber Company. C. E. Titman is the president, H. W. Titman, vice president, Dr. J. S. Kistler, treasurer, and G. G. Clauser, secretary and business manager. Mr. Clauser, who has been Mr. Titman's private secretary for five years, will manage the business for the new company.

Mr. Titman started the business he has just transferred twelve years ago and conducted it most successfully. He sold all the timber cut on his lands to mine operators and his annual sales in this region have been very large. When he first started he bought in the neighborhood of 40,000 acres of land in Lycoming county and has cleared about half of it. There is enough timber remaining on the tract for twenty years.

Mr. Titman retires from business life with a fortune upon which he can rest easy. In addition to the price he received on this sale he has real estate in this town of great value and he holds a majority of stock in the Shenandoah Water and Gas Company. It is also said he has a nest egg of several thousand dollars laid away. He is the largest real estate holder and richest man in the town, and there is no danger of the wolf of hunger paying a visit to his home. His career is a sample of what a man can accomplish by industry, thrift and enterprise.

All watches repaired by Strouse guaranteed for one year.

Increased Help.

On account of the rapidly increasing trade and the excellent work that is executed at Fay's Steam Laundry, the proprietor has added more help to accommodate his patrons, which he is receiving daily by the score. Thus it can be easily seen that the work turned out by him ranks among the best laundry work done in this section of the state.

Merc Mention.

Fourth of July this year will no doubt be fittingly celebrated in town. Every society should take a hand in making it a grand success.

Yes, our dear friends, it costs money to fight the new county project. Like geese, did you think the patriots were working for nothing and finding themselves?

When the local base ball association was organized and the eminent array of names was made we expected big results. But you cannot always judge from appearances.

Buffalo William gave Shenandoah the go by this trip. We are consoled with the promise of Farnes William visiting us some time in the fall with his big aggregation.

Say, you, Mr. Merchant, stop growling and go to work. Ask the people to visit your store and inspect the bargains you offer. Do this through the HERALD and you will be happy.

Don't expect too much from our Councilmen. They work hard enough without pay. The majority of our borough lawmakers allow themselves to be elected just for the fun of the thing.

We again rise to remark, that the HERALD is one of the best advertising mediums in the county. We give full measure for the money—by running the advertisements through all editions of the paper.

No wonder the Philadelphia & Reading Coal and Iron Company is nearly bankrupt, if not already so, if we are to believe the rumors of corruption among its trusted officials. During the reign of the late Franklin B. Gowen, over the Philadelphia & Reading Company's interests, he was denounced unmercifully by many of the employees. These same people would gladly welcome Gowen times again in preference to the present.

Strouse's watch charms are elegant and reasonable in price.

Special Rates to Williamsport.

The Lehigh Valley Railroad Company offers a special rate of $3.00 from Shenandoah to Williamsport, Pa., and return on account of the annual meeting of the Knights of Golden Eagle. Tickets will be sold May 11th to 17th, good to return May 18th, 1895, on card orders. This is an extremely low rate and our local lodges will do well to see the agent of the Lehigh Valley before arranging elsewhere. m12 17-3c
