

Prof. Jones Takes Exception to a Recent Publication by a Contemporary.

"It was almost midnight. The quiet citizen was wrapped in the arms of Morpheus but a crowd of nearly 200 young men stood under the electric light at the corner of Main and Centre streets. The lights shone brilliantly and the stars in the sky tried vainly to pierce the thick blue smoke that filled the April atmosphere. Most of the members of the Courty and Fox company that had produced 'Hot Tamales' at the theatre had de-nominated their 'night caps' and were preparing to retire. One of their number, however, was absent. He was in the crowd on the corner. With him was a leading member of Jones' orchestra, of Mahanoy City. Their voices did what the stars failed to do. They bored holes in that lazy, blue atmosphere and they were heard two squares away. There was a woman in the case, but she wasn't in the crowd. She was a good looking Shamokin brunette who became fascinated with the actor and followed him here. The musician tried to 'make a mash' but was repulsed. Then he called the girl a vile name. The showman called him to an account for it and threatened to punch his head. He invited the Mahanoy City man into a convenient club which is supplied with the paraphernalia for the settlement of disputes according to prize ring rules, but the fellow from over the hill declined the invitation. The crowd urged the showman to take a fall out of him right there but he was afraid of the police, even when the odds on him was two to one and there wasn't a police man in sight. The showman left town with his company in the morning, and the girl bade him an affectionate farewell at the depot and took a train in the opposite direction for her home in Shamokin."

The foregoing article appeared in the Sunday News of the 28th ult. Prof. John Jones, of Mahanoy City, and leader of the well known orchestra of that place, says the story is a fabrication from beginning to end. He also states that he requested the editor of the News to make a retraction, but they have neglected to do so. Mr. Jones says that there were but three members of the orchestra, including himself, in Shenandoah on the night in question and that one of them returned to Mahanoy City immediately after the performance, the Professor and the other member going direct to the hotel, where they remained until time for their departure for home. Prof. Jones says that during their stay here not a word was spoken by any of the men of his orchestra to any lady, that there was no attempt at fighting, and that he would not have allowed any of the members of his orchestra to become a party to such an affair.

A Piece of Her Mind.

A lady correspondent has this to say: "I want to give a piece of my mind to a certain class who object to advertising, when it costs them anything—this won't cost them a cent. "I suffered a living death for nearly two years with headaches, backache, in pain standing or walking, was being literally dragged out of existence, my misery increased by drugging. "At last, in despair, I committed the sin of trying an advertised medicine, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and it restored me to the blessedness of sound health. I honor the physician who, when he knows he can cure, has the moral courage to advertise the fact." "The medicine mentioned cures all the delicate diseases peculiar to females, as 'Female Weakness,' periodical pains, irregularities, nervous prostration, spasms, cholera or St. Vitus's dance, sleeplessness, threatened insanity.

To permanently cure constipation, biliousness, indigestion or dyspepsia, use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Mr. D. P. Davis, a prominent liverman and merchant of Graham, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him." For sale by Grubler Bros. Druggists.

Our Souvenir.

The Herald has gone to considerable expense and labor to issue a souvenir edition of the paper on the 28th inst. It is intended to reflect the past history of Shenandoah, with its present status in the commercial and manufacturing world, and a full account of the progress made by the enterprising citizens. So far the paper has received but little encouragement from the representative citizens, or industries. Without them, the edition cannot be what it was originally intended and a lack of support to an industrial edition of a newspaper cannot fail to make a poor impression upon the minds of those who are on the watch for enterprising towns. We have two banking institutions, half a dozen or more manufacturing concerns, and scores of business men and to go to press without having them represented in the souvenir will almost be like producing the play of "Hamlet" without the title role. Should such be the result the Herald will not be at fault. It cannot afford to insert fulsome praise of any establishment when it is not deserving, nor can it go to heavy expense for the benefit of manufacturers and business men when they stand idle and indifferent to their own interests. The outside public will measure Shenandoah enterprises by the appearance of this industrial edition. The Herald will do its share with excellent book paper, the highest priced ink, excellent half-tone cuts and first-class workmanship in every particular. This is all that can be expected of it. The business people must do the rest.

Nicaragua Will Pay Promptly.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, May 9.—There is no longer any doubt that Great Britain will receive her smart money on time. The £15,000 sterling to be paid by Nicaragua to Great Britain has been raised here by popular donation. The raising of the money, however, has only increased popular feeling in Nicaragua against Great Britain, and the general opinion seems to be that the Central American republics will form a combination, possibly secret, against Great Britain, and that everything possible will be done to exclude British goods from Central America.

Tracey Knocks Out Cavanaugh.

GALVESTON, Tex., May 9.—Tom Tracey put Tom Cavanaugh to sleep in the eighth round before a large audience in the Tremont Opera house last night. The men weighed in at 145 pounds each. John Duffy, of New Orleans, acted as referee. The first round was tame, but the following rounds were hot enough to satisfy the most enthusiastic pugilist. Cavanaugh came up groggy for the eighth round, and finally Tracey landed a terrific blow on Cavanaugh's breast, which settled him, and he was counted out.

Two Workmen Killed by a Falling Wall.

HAZLETON, Pa., May 9.—Two men were killed and a third severely injured by a falling wall on Broad street yesterday. The killed are Christian Stillwagon and Emanuel Altenbach, and the injured Samuel Griffiths. The men were working for Contractor Rube as masons, and were building a foundation between two houses. A wall fifteen feet high stood on one side, supporting the adjoining house. The support of this wall was dug away, and so weakened it that it toppled over on the workmen.

Massacre of Christians Prevented.

LONDON, May 9.—A dispatch from Erzinghan, Asiatic Turkey, says that a massacre of Christians at that place was prevented by the arrest of the chief conspirators in the plot. The dispatch adds that the evidence taken at Moush by the Turkish minister of inquiry tends to fix the responsibility for the recent massacre on Tahsin Pasha, late governor of Bitlis, who stated in official dispatches that the Armenians had raised the standard of rebellion.

Libeler Chase Denied a Pardon.

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The president denied the petition for the pardon of William C. Chase, who was recently convicted of publishing a libel against C. H. J. Taylor, recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia. Both Chase and Taylor are colored, and the conviction and sentence of Chase to ninety days' imprisonment was the outcome of a bitter factional controversy which was started here on the appointment of Taylor (a non-resident) nearly two years ago.

Pennsylvania American Mechanics.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 9.—The state council of the Order of United American Mechanics, now in session here, decided to hold the next session in Chambersburg. For the better government of the order the state was divided into three districts. These officers were elected: State councillor, Howard H. Holstein of Harrisburg; state vice councillor, John M. Hornbaker of Madisonville; state secretary, Walter Graham of Philadelphia.

Rossa in the House of Commons.

LONDON, May 9.—O'Donovan Rossa, the well known Irish agitator of New York, created a scene in the house of commons yesterday by rising in his seat in the speaker's gallery and endeavoring to address the house. He was promptly ejected. Rossa says he simply wanted to deny an alleged assertion of Henry Labouchere that he (Rossa) had received money from the British government.

Stage Coach Held Up and Robbed.

CALISTOGA, Cal., May 9.—A stage coach running between this place and Clear Lake was held up and robbed by two masked men, who secured about $1,000 in cash, and looted the Wells Fargo treasure box. It is not known how much they got from the box. The highwaymen also secured considerable valuable jewelry. A reward of $1,250 is offered for their capture.

A Minister Pleads Guilty of Bigamy.

LIVERPOOL, May 9.—William Browne, a Baptist minister, pleaded guilty to the charge of bigamy in court here. Elizabeth Marchant is the name of the woman whom Browne married while he still had a lawful wife, and whom he afterwards deserted in New York city, where it is alleged she now is, penniless and insane. The court deferred sentence.

An Embarrassed Miller Attempts Suicide.

FAIRBURY, Ill., May 9.—John B. Taylor, member of the Quincy milling firm, which assigned yesterday, attempted suicide last evening. He was found hanging in the park at his residence in time to save his life. It is believed he was temporarily deranged, and that there was no need whatever for the appointment of a receiver for the firm.

A Noted English Artist Dying.

LONDON, May 9.—A dispatch from Algiers announces that Sir Frederick Leigh, president of the Royal academy, who has been ill for some time, is now in such a serious condition that hope of his recovery has been abandoned. Sir Frederick, who is now in his 67th year, is admittedly the greatest of English artists.

Stricken Statesmen Recovering.

WASHINGTON, May 8.—Secretary Gresham is reported to be constantly gaining ground, and it is now said that all danger in his case has passed. It is hoped that he will be able to leave the city for some health resort in about ten days. The report from the patient is much better, and hopes are now entertained that he may recover. General Cogswell is reported to be resting comfortably.

Crushed Under a Falling Ledge.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., May 8.—A party of workmen were drilling in the rock at the foot of a thirty foot precipice here when a ledge became loosened and fell, burying three of them. Michael Joy was crushed to death. Patrick Ryan was fatally injured and an Italian was seriously hurt. It required two hours to dig them from the mass of stone and earth.

Governor Turney Again Sworn Into Office.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., May 8.—The Republicans and Populists in the legislature decided to have no hand in the inauguration of Governor Turney today, on the ground that to participate would be to endorse what they conceive to be a wrong. Accordingly only Democratic members were present when Governor Turney was sworn in.

Severe Earthquake in Argentina.

BUENOS AYRES, May 8.—There was a severe earthquake yesterday in Mendoza, capital of the province of that name. The inhabitants were terror stricken and fled from the town. Mendoza is situated about fifty-five miles southeast from the volcano of Aconcagua. The place was destroyed by an earthquake in 1869.

Italy's Chamber of Deputies Dissolved.

ROME, May 8.—King Humbert has signed a decree dissolving the chamber of deputies, and fixing May 26 as the date for the election of deputies. The second ballot will be taken on June 2.

It's Good to be a Maid.

GUTHRIE, O. T., May 9.—Two armed bandits made a wholesale raid through the country thirty miles east of here. At John McClellan's, near Tyrone, they robbed McClellan and his son of a large sum of money, and then went to a neighboring stable and stole two fresh horses. A number of other houses were visited and the occupants held up. They reached George Ross' place, near Dale, whom they robbed of $500, a watch and a gun, but threw the two latter articles away after going a short distance.
