THE DIAMOND DOINGS.

Manager Brennan and His Club Returned Home From Their First Trip.

LONG SERIES OPENS TODAY.

WHAT MANAGER BRENNAN SAYS OF THE PROSPECTS ABOUT THE PURCHASE OF THE TEAM.

He Says His Money Alone is in the Enterprise and He Must Get It Out Before He Will Relinquish the Present Franchise.

The price of beef may be high up and mighty hard to raise. And the silver question worry us in many ways. And an overdose of Tribby may near drive us to despair. But the better days are here and we'll do away with our old bleachers and yell and whoop and shout as the pioneer for the home team strikes Three Men Out.

Manager Brennan, of the Shenandoah base ball club, returned from Carbondale last night and his club returned today after concluding its first trip. Although the club has no scalps dangling from its belt, the management is not discouraged. Mr. Brennan says that the players are doing their work faithfully and that the defeats are due more to hard luck than anything else. The team's work at Carbondale, he says, was handicapped by trees in the field. A lack of catchers was a serious drawback, but the engagement of King and the arrival of Ford will do away with that difficulty for a while.

Manager Brennan says the talk about a town syndicate being able to add anxious to take hold of the team is all bosh. He went around several weeks ago begging for a chance to sell, but no one would respond. If there is a syndicate it can secure the franchise, but not for nothing. Mr. Brennan says he is the only man having money in the club and if a sale is made he wants to get his own out. One thousand dollars will not cover what has been deposited with the league and spent thus far for railway fares and other expenses.

Today the home team opens a series of ten straight games at the Trotting park. This is something unprecedented in the history of local base ball and the management will require good patronage to pull through with the guarantees for such a stretch. It is necessary that the games shall be played, however, as each club in the league is to receive a similar dose once during the season. It requires some courage to face such an engagement, but Manager Brennan seems equal to the occasion and expresses the belief that he will be able to pull through.

Manager Brennan went to Pottsville this morning to appear as prosecutor against one Thomas Watson, of town, on a charge of malicious mischief. Watson is one of the people who do not believe in respecting rights of property. One day during the beginning of the present season Watson deliberately tore three boards from the base ball fence, and in spite of warnings given by the watchman, an example is to be made in this case and later on the management will begin making examples of the rail birds by arresting a few at each game until the offenders realize that it is cheaper to either pay for admission, or remain away from the grounds.

The game at Carbondale yesterday resulted in an easy victory for the home team, Matten being pounded. In the ninth inning the Shenandoahs did considerable hitting and ran up eight runs to their score, making the result look more creditable than it did up to the close of the eighth inning. Little and Carey played well in the game. Score:

NOTES.

The base ball editor of the Carbondale Anthracite dipped his pen in poetic fluid yesterday and told the story of the game between the club of that place and the Shenandoahs on Wednesday in the following language:

Of all the punky hitters that come from Punny town, The nine from Shenandoah are brownest of the brow. With Old M. N. Nevins pitching and all his rocky crew, They should scratch out a winning in a century or two.

That third was hard upon us, the black art, mystic hits Were almost our undoing. It caused most awful fits To chase around the players who S. and M. doth wear, They thought they saw the game won and with joy they tore their hair.

East Side, West Side; all around the lot, The little TV-as leaguers came and they were far from hot. But Mac is great at kidding and surely 'twas a shame For when they thought they had it cinched, Our boys won out the game.

Ladies' Shirt Waists done up better than new at Fay's Steam Laundry, at 10 and 15 cents.

For Pure Blood use Fowler's Sarsaparilla.

The Patee Company

The Clair Patee Company opened a return engagement at Ferguson's theatre last night and gave an excellent production of a very interesting play based on incidents of southern life and entitled, "In Old Louisiana." The company is the same as on the previous visit, all artists in their respective spheres, headed by William Nichols and Miss Virginia Bray. Tonight "East Lynne" will be the program and tomorrow night there will be a great double bill, "Arabian Nights" and "Our Boys," two rollicking comedies that met with great favor upon the company's previous visit.

Strouse for clocks.

The Rescue's Improvements.

Members of the Rescue Hook and Ladder Company are at work laying a sewer line from the company's building at the corner of Main and Line streets to the Niswenter drain on Coal street. It is to be used by the company's main building and the one to be erected at the rear end of the lot for Marshall Hughes, the driver. Both buildings are to be fitted with modern improvements that will make sewerage connections necessary.

Clam Chowder

lunch tonight at the Scheffy House. Pepper pot tomorrow night.

Up to Date.

Delaware did and did not elect a United States Senator yesterday. Another case for court to decide.

It begins to look as if the Reading Railroad has gone into the hands of New York and London parties.

The Miners' Hospital at Fountain Springs will receive only $85,749.46 for the next two years, a reduction of $43,000 of what was asked.

No Favors.

First come first served. No favors at the Scheffy House free lunch.

A New Novelty.

It is not necessary for the ladies of Shenandoah and vicinity to use mirrors any more, as the high polish put on the shirt fronts of their husbands and sweethearts shirts at Fay's Steam Laundry will substitute equally as well for this purpose.

18 karat solid gold wedding rings at Strouse's.

They Will Wed.

Marriage licenses were granted yesterday to Antonie Kujalowiec and Pelagia Cizuka, of town; John Downorwick, of Girardville, and Wanda Grobowka, of town.

Buy your wall paper and room mouldings at John L. Hassler's. 4-11-2m

Special Sale.

A special sale of wash boilers, No. 9, regular price 75 cents, will be sold at 42 cents tomorrow, at the Pittsburg Novelty store, 35 West Centre street.

Babies made happy with Luks' Syrup.

A Serenade.

The Grant Band last night serenaded Andrew Elliott and his bride at their residence on North White street. The band played a number of selections and Mr. Elliott did the usual "grand."

Watson House Free Lunch.

A cold lunch will be served at the Watson House every morning and evening during this week. All visitors will receive a cordial welcome and an ample supply will be on hand for all.

AT THE COUNTY COURT.

Cases in Which Shenandoah People Are Interested Disposed of.

CONVICTED ON RAPE CHARGE

THEODORE SCHEHINSKY GETS TWO AND A HALF YEARS FOR HIS FLENDISH CRIME.

William Snyder Comes Out Victorious in His Litigation With Tax Collector Scanlan on a Technical Point.

Theodore Schellinski, a Polish resident of this place, was convicted at the Pottsville court yesterday on charges of rape and statutory rape. The prosecution was instituted upon oath of the mother of 14-year-old Mary A. Kritulski, also of town. The accused man was a boarder at the house of the prosecutor. The crime was not discovered until some time after it was committed and the accused succeeded in smothering matters over for a time by promising to marry the child. About two weeks ago he made arrangements to leave the town without fulfilling his promise and was arrested on the charges stated. Although Schellinski had money with which to employ counsel he refused to apply to it; that end and the court appointed H. O. Bechtel and A. D. Knittle, Esqs., to represent him.

The case was tried before Judge Bechtel. The trial was a short one. The girl swore that she was enticed into the man's room and that the crime was accompanied with violence. Schellinski, who is 28 years of age, was promptly convicted and immediately after the verdict was rendered Judge Bechtel sentenced him to imprisonment for two and a half years and to pay a fine of $15 and the costs.

A Hint.

A word to the wise is sufficient. Clam chowder lunch tonight and pepper pot Saturday night at the Scheffy House.

SNYDER WON THE CASE.

The Charge Made by Tax Collector Scanlan Dismissed on a Technicality.

William Snyder has won the suit brought against him by Tax Collector Scanlan for interfering with an officer. Several weeks ago Snyder and his driver had charge of a wagon which was loaded with furniture belonging to a man who was moving from town to Mahanoy City. Scanlan stopped the wagon, but Snyder instructed his driver to proceed to Mahanoy City, which the latter did. Scanlan then caused Snyder's arrest. The case came up in Pottsville yesterday. W. J. Whitehouse, Esq., raised objection to the indictment on the ground that Snyder was not guilty of larceny because he did not take the goods from the collector and appropriate them to his own use, but that the proper charge was the taking of goods from the tax collector after they had been levied upon. The District Attorney concurred in the view and a nol. pros. was entered, the costs being put on the county.

On the charge of interfering with an officer in connection with the same matter Snyder was acquitted and the costs were put on the county. The result of the case is that Scanlan gets no taxes.

Pepper Pot

Tomorrow (Saturday) night at the Scheffy House.

Shenandoah's Share.

The Auditor General's annual report for 1894 shows the amount paid into the state treasury from Shenandoah: Citizens' Electric Light Co., $333.33; Columbia Brewing Co., $42.78; Citizens' Water Co., $500.00; Electric Illuminating Co., $150.00; Gas Co., $112.50; Heat and Power Co., $237.78; Manufacturing Co., $22.50; Electric Ill. Co., $98.00; First National Bank, $800.00; Merchants' National Bank, $400.00; Manufacturing Co., $31.25.

Strouse, the reliable jeweler.

Burdock Blood Bitters is nature's true remedy for constipation and kindred ills. It acts directly on the bowels, the liver, the skin, and while cleansing the blood imparts strength to the digestive organs.

Odd Financing.

The Borough Treasurer makes his deposits in the Merchants' National Bank of town and the borough does not receive one cent of interest, and this week, when the borough had about $14,000 on deposit in the bank, a note for $7,980 was given to the Jeanesville Iron Works and the borough was obliged to pay over $135 as discount. In other words the borough pays $125 bonus for the use of its own money; This is certainly queer financing.

Tonight

Clam chowder lunch at the Scheffy House.

The neglect of a cold is often fatal. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine syrup contains all the soothing virtues of the pine. Never fails to cure.

Removal.

Dr. D. W. Straup will remove his office to 24 South White street on May 15th.

Mr. Shields and Mayor Collihan.

Yesterday afternoon James Shields, proprietor of the Mansion House in the First ward, and who is also the owner of a livery stable in town and branch stables in Mahanoy City, accompanied by Mayor Collihan, of Gilberton, and ex-Councilman and Agriculturist Moakler, of town, went to Mahanoy City behind a spanking blooded team of grays and in a handsome new two-seated surrey, purchased in New York for his livery business. The party returned by way of Gilberton and upon arrival here took seats in Mr. Shields' hotel at a table spread for ten people and the proprietor wore fame for the lamb fries and other delicacies served, together with several excellent breads of wue. Farmer Moakler's appetite for mince was in alarming shape, but was met with an ample supply and everybody was satisfied. The dinner was given in honor of Mayor Collihan.

The ONLY baby medicine—Luks' Syrup.

McElhenney's

The public is invited to visit McElhenney's this evening and enjoy a dish of his inimitable clam chowder. Free to every caller, and he will have on sale hard shell, steamed and deviled crabs, frogs, lobster salad, little neck clams, oysters, and every delicacy the market affords. Snapper soup free tomorrow night.

For baby's colicky pains use Luks' Syrup.

Must Serve Time, or Pay.

At the Pottsville court yesterday Judge Albright stated that he wished it distinctly understood that neither the court nor the Commissioners can discharge any convict sentenced to pay the costs and a fine exceeding $15, until after such convict has served three months in jail in pursuance of such sentence. This he said was in accordance with the act of 1885, which also provides that where a fine is less than $15, convicts can not be discharged before they have served 30 days.

Genuine snapper free tomorrow night at McElhenney's.

Merc Mention.

The Pottsville cadets will encamp at Lakeside in August.

George F. Leitzel, of town, has purchased of Mr. Weithalf his hotel and several lots of ground at Grier City, near Lakeside. Consideration $2700.
