The Carbondalers Were Obligated to Play Ball in Earnest Yesterday.

MATTERN WAS IN GOOD TRIM

THE VISITORS BUNCHED HITS AND TOOK A DECIDED LEAD IN THIRD INNING.

Brennan's Men Recovered Themselves and Prolonged the Contest for Eleven Spirited Innings. When Carbondale Scored the Deciding Run.

O. Tommy Flannigan
You'll be a man again.

Swift's dressed bees narrowly escaped defeat at the Trotting park yesterday afternoon at the hands of the home team. It was the hottest contest the Carbondale men experienced this season and they drew a long breath of relief when the winning run was scored.

Fee essayed to pitch the game for the visitors, but withdrew after the close of the first inning and was succeeded by "Tommy" Flannigan, who pitched a good game, but became badly rattled at times and kicked like a Texas steer against decisions by the umpire, hits by the batsmen and put outs by the fielders. Flannigan was not in good humor and the gyring of the crowd did not make him feel any better.

With the exception of the work in the third and fourth innings the game was an admirable one and upon its conclusion the spectators cheered both teams. It was one of those games in which the vanquished deserved as much credit as the victor. One side had to be beaten and to lose by a scant run after fighting hard for eleven innings was no disgrace. It was the perfect work by their out-fielders that saved the visitors from defeat.

Neither side scored in the first two innings, but in the third the Swift product took a big lead. It was started by McCooch miffing Sales' fly. This miff seemed to disgust Mattorn. Moran, Flannigan, Westlake, Massey, McQuade, Wetzel and Sales batted around and hit him for six singles and a two-bagger and made a total of six runs before the side was retired. Flannigan was the twelfth man at the bat, but struck out. Staltz had gone out on a throw by Mattorn to first and Hess went out on a throw to first by Carey. When the side was retired Moran was on third and Sales on second. Moran reached his first by being hit by a pitched ball and got to third on McGarvey's error.

The home team tied the score in the fourth. Ford started out with a hit and McGarvey made a hit and Sales on balls. Ford scored on a passed ball and McGarvey made a hit, but was thrown out by Flannigan at third when Clark ran down to first after hitting the ball. McCooch went out on a fly to Westlake and King got his base on balls. A two-bagger by Little was a timely one and before Little was thrown out at second and the side retired the Shenandoahs had six runs to their credit.

Once more hope filled the hearts of the stayers for the home team players and when they succeeded in retiring the visitors in the fourth inning notwithstanding two hits and Hess had reached third the crowd cheered lustily.

In the fifth Merriman and Carey were retired at first on throws by Sales and Hess. McGarvey made a hit and was advanced to third on a hit by Clark, but the side was retired on Mattern going out on a fly to Staltz. In the last half Wetzel went out on a grounder to Little and Sales threw down his bat when King bugged his foul. Moran got to first on an error by Clark and stole second, but the side was retired on Mattern's throw to first.

The Shenandoahs took the lead in the sixth by scoring a run on hits by King, Ford and Merriman. In the last half it looked as if the home team was going to pieces. After Staltz went out on a fly to McGarvey the latter gave Westlake his base on an error. Two errors by Carey gave Hess and Massey their first base and Westlake scored. Hess stole to second, but died there, as McQuade went out on a fly to Merriman and Wetzel was thrown out by Clark to first. Once more the crowd cheered for the home team. It had crawled out of a small hole.

Both sides were unable to score in the next four innings, notwithstanding they exerted themselves to do so. Meanwhile Mattern was doing excellent work. He gave the visitors only three hits after the fourth inning.

With the score tied the Shenandoahs went to the plate in the ninth inning, but did not remain there long. Carey, McGarvey and Clark went out at first on throws by Flannigan, Sales and Wetzel. Massey was the first batter for the Swifts and went out at first on Carey's throw. McGarvey captured McQuade's fly and Wetzel got his base on balls, but was thrown out at second by Clark while Sales was running to first.

Mattern was the first batter in the tenth and went out at first on Flannigan's throw and McCooch and King went out on flys to Westlake and McQuade. Moran opened the second half with a hit, Flannigan struck out and Staltz and Westlake went out on flys to McGarvey and Merriman. At this point the spectators were in high feather and shouted encouragement to both teams. Great cheers belched forth when Little got to first in the eleventh on Flannigan's error. Nevins batted in place of Ford, but knocked a ball to Sales and was thrown out at first. Merriman took his base by being hit by a pitched ball. Little had previously been thrown out at second by Wetzel and Merriman went out at the same point on a throw by Hess while trying to steal. Hess was the first of the Carbondalers to go to the plate and made a hit. He stole second. Massey, who was expected to bring him home, went out on a fly to McGarvey and it was "all over" when McQuade made a hit.

Easton at Pottsville, Carbondale at Shenandoah, Lancaster at Allentown, Harrisburg at Reading.

NOTES.

- Carey is a favorite, but his place is not at this base.
- Carbondale has a jewel in Wetzel. His work is short yesterday was great.
- Lancaster plays here tomorrow and Thursday.
- Morrison more than cancelled the errors made yesterday. He has made an excellent left fielder.
- McCooch still maintains an indifference to the diamond that causes the spectators to make very unpleasant remarks about him.
- White Little gets on a base he should stay there until he must leave.
- The bunching of hits in the fifth saved the day for the Carbondalers.
- A man named Lee, of Rochester, N. Y., is here looking for a job as catcher on the home team.
- The all birds lined the fence so such an extent yesterday that some parts threatened to give way under the weight.
- Mattern did work during the last seven innings of yesterday's game that would give to Pottsville management a pain.
- Man respectfully dressed dead beats were peched on the fence yesterday.
- Kings not as lively behind the bat as Ford, it he is a steady man.
- "If hazleton was as easy to down in the ne county fight as she is in the battle r base ball honors, we'd be a deaf bauple"—Pottsville Chronicle.
- Before the last rose of summer has faded ray we'll do the same thing with the Pottsville base ball club as we have done with the new county fight.—Hazleton Plh Speaker.
- Who Carbondale gets through with them, Pottsville or Hazleton will not think they ever had a base ball game.—"Forsey're easy, dead easy."—Carbondale Athraote.
- The hazletons are no hard to beat. The Pottsvilles have a weakness for trying to make the people believe that they do more an they really accomplish. Before the season is half over Shenandoah will make the Pottsvilles, Hazletons and Carbondales bite the dust, and don't you forget.
- Bats made happy with Luks' Syrup.
- Curbing and Flagging.
- M. Master has just received several car lots of curbing and flagging which he will sell cheap, and put down stone pavement.
- Removal.
- Dr. W. Straup will remove his office to 24 uth White street on May 15th.
- Thenly baby medicine—Luks' Syrup.

CASES BEFORE JUSTICES I

TWO BOYS ARRESTED FOR BREAKING OPEN BOXES AT THE READING FREIGHT DEPOT.

A Test of the Water Pipes Made Yesterday by Contractor McAdam Proves Very Satisfactory—It Was Not Official.

Harvey Hilner and Samuel Beck, two boys about fifteen years of age with a stronger desire to satisfy the sense of taste than to respect the commandment that prohibits stealing were arrested yesterday by C. & I. Policemen Bedea and taken before Justice Williams on a charge of breaking open boxes at the Philadelphia and Reading freight depot and taking baking powder and highly flavored chewing gum from them. The evidence against the boys was of a very positive character and they did not attempt to "face out" the charge, but pleaded guilty. Hilner furnished $300 bail for trial at court and Beck was committed in default.

Who Was He?

The two gay and festive gents, one hailing from Shenandoah and the other from Ashland, who were having a high old time while walking on Ninth street, and up Spruce street, yesterday, no doubt thought they were painting the town red. Today they will reveal about the good time they had, and what a glorious town Ashland is for fun. No miserable police force to interfere with a fellow's liberty. Why it is, that these two men were allowed to yell at the tops of their voices and at the same time using vile and profane language we cannot understand.—Ashland Daily Loyalist.

Last Chance.

The HERALD has begun to print the advance sheets of its silver anniversary—ouvent edition, which is to be issued on the 28th inst. People desiring to be represented in the edition should make application at once, as the forms must close several days before the date of issue. The cuts to be used in the edition are the finest ever placed before the public by any publishing house in this county.

Testing the Pipes.

Contractor McAdam yesterday ran water through the public water pipe for the first time and said the test was very satisfactory. The test was not made under the supervision of Council. It was a preliminary one made in preparation for the tests to be made when the borough officials are present. The pressure shown by the test yesterday was immense.

New Jr. O. U. A. M. Council.

Thomas Sanger, of Mt. Carmel, organized a new council of the Jr. O. U. A. M. at Shamokin last night. There are thirty names on the application. Congressman "Farmer" Kulp is among the number and will represent the council at the next State Council. The list also includes a number of Shamokin's leading men. The Council will be instituted in about two weeks.

Big Fire Sale.

Mr. Reese, the commission merchant, has rented the Beddall building, corner Main and Centre streets, for the sale of a large stock consisting of dry goods, clothing, &c., consigned to him by the underwriters of several insurance companies. Watch the HERALD tomorrow for full particulars.

Bicyclist Injured.

George Frost lost control of his wheel while riding down West Centre street last night and ran into a fence. He cut one of his knees badly and ruined a pair of pantaloons.

Good mothers use Luks' Syrup.

Watson House Free Lunch. Tonight bean soup will be served free at the above place and tomorrow morning an elegant cold lunch will be served.

School Board Meeting.

A special meeting of the School Board will be held in the directors' room tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Boarders Wanted.

A few respectable boarders taken at M. E. Garner's, No. 18 South Jardin street.

Mere Mention.

We are waiting for that water test. Turn on the water.

The Borough Council is the laughing stock of the county. We are sorry for the innocent members. Resign! Resign!

The people who pack away all their warm clothing upon the first day of the season have just had a little experience they would do well to remember for many summers to come. Colds are more abundant than the flies just now.
There is a great wealth of cherry and pear bloom on the trees just now, giving the promise of bountiful crops of these excellent fruits. Apple blossoms are not so abundant, but perhaps it is a trifle early for their appearance. The scare Sunday night in regard to frost proved nothing but a scare.
The Pension Board at Pottsville has received notice from the authorities at Washington that in the future the various examining boards would do the rating. This is a good move and it will be a great benefit to the old soldiers to be rated at home by some one who knows them and not by the authorities at Washington as heretofore done.

B. B. B.
Tomorrow night's lunch at the Scheiffy House. Do not forget, for there will be enough Boston baked beans for all callers.

"Shore Acres."

The attraction at Ferguson's theatre on May 2nd will be "Shore Acres." This piece has made such a hit in New York city that it is almost unnecessary to say that as a closing attraction it will be the very best. Many old time theatre goers will remember Hearne's "Hearts of Oak," which was considered one of the best traveling thoroughout the country, and when they understand that "Shore Acres" is Mr. Hearne's latest and best effort in this line they will no doubt be satisfied that the attraction is all in every respect.

For Pure Blood use Fowler's Sarsaparilla.

Columbia Leads.

The Nordberg Manufacturing Company, of Milwaukee, who made the big engine for the Columbia Brewing Company, sent an expert engineer to make some repairs. While here he wrote the Milwaukee firm that the Columbia beer beat Milwaukee beer "all to pieces." As Milwaukee has a world wide reputation for fine beer, it was a pretty good card for Shenandoah beer.

Thanks to the Police.
