WAS AN ANNIHILATION

The Carbondales Defeated the Home Team Yesterday With Little Opposition.

MANG. BRENNAN'S INNINGS.

HE PUT HIS MEN ON THE DIAMOND TO CAUSE MANAGER SWIFT INCONVENIENCE.

The Carbondales Took Advantage of the Opportunity to Practice With Their Bats and Run Around the Bases.

There were less than a dozen paid admissions at the Trotting park yesterday and it was fortunate that such was the case as the game played was the worst exhibition of base ball given by a professional club for many a day. It was not even what might be called a one-sided game. The home team made no effort. It practically did no work, but allowed the Carbondales to bat and run at will. The score shows that there was practically only one team on the field. All the home team did was to make errors when its players made any move.

In the first inning four Shenandoah men went to the plate. Little was the only one who hit the ball. He made a three bagger and died on third. Twelve of the Carbondales went to the plate in the last half of the first and eight runs were scored on five singles, two doubles, two three baggers, and two errors by Clark.

In the second inning Carey struck out, King got his base on balls, but was thrown out at second by Westlake, and McGarvey was retired on Sales throw to Massey. The retirement of the side was made with ease, without delay and, apparently, without objection on the part of the retiring players.

Twelve of the Carbondale men also went to the plate in the second inning. McQuade went out on a fly to Carey and no more men were retired until nine men batted. Wetzel made a hit and Sales got around to third base on a basty and bad throw by Ford. Moran made a hit, Fee got his base on balls, Staltz got to first on an error by Clark and to third on Carey's error, Westlake got to first on Carey's error and stole to second, and at this point Clark complained of being ill and was allowed to retire, McGarvey taking his place and Mattern going to left field. Hess got his base on balls, Massey made a hit and got to third on an error by McGarvey, McQuade made a two-bagger, and Wetzel followed with another hit, a total of eight more runs being scored before the side was retired.

In the third inning it looked as if the home team would break the goose egg after two men were out, but it failed to do so notwithstanding two errors by the Carbondales. Mattern was the first batter and went out on Fee's throw to first. Severs struck out. McCoach got his base on balls and Ford and Little got to first on errors by Westlake and Wetzel, but none of the men scored before Merri man went out on a fly to McQuade. Moran made a hit, Fee struck out and Staltz brought Moran home on a hit. Westlake went out on Carey's throw to first and Hess went out on a fly to Mattern.

Carey started the fourth inning with a hit, but was thrown out while trying to steal third after being advanced to second on a hit by McGarvey; King was thrown out at first by Sales and Mattern went out on a fly to McQuade. The Carbondales scored the two runs in this inning on two errors in succession by Mattern after two men had been retired.

In the fifth Severs went out on a fly to Westlake, Ford, the third batter, made a hit and McCoach and Little went out on flies to McQuade. Fee started the inning for the Carbondales with a hit, Staltz went out on a foul to Ford, Westlake brought Fee home on a hit and scored himself on a hit by Hess, who was left at first on Massey and McQuade going out on flies to Carey and McGarvey, and the game ended. There was not a feature in the entire contest and the home players left the field in a manner indicating that the result was a matter of course.

After the game Manager Brennan stated that the weather was not fit for any club to play in, but he had insisted upon five innings to get square with Manager Swift. He said that when the Shenandoahs were at Carbondale Manager Swift made them play in a thunder shower and got soaked, while his players remained in shelter and came out in turns to bat. The weather was so disagreeable yesterday that Swift proposed that he be given half the guarantee ($25) to which he was entitled in case of no game on account of bad weather, and be allowed to start for Carbondale early in the afternoon, so as to reach there last night. Brennan saw an opportunity to retaliate and insisted upon a game. It cost him $25 more to have it, but he said it cost Swift more than that to have his team lay over en route to Carbondale last night, and they did not reach that point until this afternoon, with barely time to dress and go upon the grounds to play the Allentowns. This, Brennan said, was his object in insisting that the clubs play yesterday in spite of the disagreeable weather. He would have to pay $25 anyway and he made it the $50 to put $25 to consider able inconvenience. The home team, Brennan says, did not play ball, and he did not hold it accountable. Beginning with today he will expect every man to work and a new battery consisting of Mattern and a catcher named Lee, from Rochester, N. Y., was picked to go in the first game against the Lancaster. Brennan said he felt confident of winning four out of the five next games. Mattern and Nevins doing the pitching for the balance of the week, alternately. Severs' arm has not been good for several days.

GRIM REAPER'S WORK

Two Very Prominent and Popular Residents Removed by Death.

BENJ. HASKEY SUCCEUMBS.

HE MADE A HARD FIGHT AGAINST INFLAMMATION OF THE BRAIN AND RALLIED TEMPORARILY.

The Estimable Wife of Ex-Senator M. C. Watson Died This Morning From Cancer of the Breast After Suffering For Months.

Benjamin Haskey, the well known hotelkeeper, died at his home on East Centre street at eight o'clock last night, after suffering for about ten weeks from inflammation of the brain. Mr. Haskey was first taken ill on the 15th of last March and was in a critical condition for about six weeks. Several times during that period it was feared the end would come, but he eventually rallied and recovered to such an extent that two weeks ago he was allowed to leave his bed chamber. Suddenly a relapse set in and from that time he grew worse until his condition got beyond medical treatment.

In the death of Mr. Haskey the town loses one of its best known and most popular citizens. He was of an exceedingly genial and wholesome nature and was always active in all movements for the benefit of the town and its people. He was born in Birmingham, England, and was 44 years of age last Christmas day. He came to the United States twenty-two years ago and located at Malvern, Ohio. He lived there about a year and came to Shenandoah. He embarked in the hotel business about twelve years ago and became very popular and prosperous in it. Eighteen years ago, on the 15th of March, Mr. Haskey married Mary A., daughter of William Kendrick, the hotelkeeper of town. He is survived by his wife and five children, Annie, Benjamin, Albert, Emily and Carrie, the youngest being six years old. The deceased was very active in local secret society circles, being a member of Shenandoah Tribe No. 155, Improved Order of Red Men; Plank Ridge Lodge No. 880, I. O. O. F.; Shenandoah Lodge No. 60, Sons of St. George; Lydia Lodge No. 112, Daughters of Rebekah, and Junata Council No. 31, Daughters of Pochontas. At the time of his death he was the District Deputy Great Sachem of this district for the I. O. O. F. Last February Mr. Haskey, in conjunction with Thomas Bells, of town, instituted Powhatan Tribe No. 151, I. O. O. F., at Mahanoy City. This was the last official work he did in connection with the Order. The deceased was also an active member of All Saints' Protestant Episcopal church. The funeral will take place on Friday, 17th inst., and interment will be made in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

For a good drink of New Jersey Apple Jack Whiskey, call at M. P. Conroy's, 31 South Main street. 4-14-1w

MRS. WATSON DIES.

The Estimable Wife of Ex-Senator Watson Passed Away This Morning.

It is with deep regret that the death of Mrs. Ann Watson, wife of Hon. M. C. Watson, is announced. She died at half past two o'clock this morning after suffering for eight months from cancer of the breast. She suffered greatly during that period and during the past two months was confined to her room. Mrs. Watson was a most estimable lady and her death will bring profound sorrow to many families. She was one of the oldest residents of this town, having come here with her parents, Bernard and Margaret Monaghan, from Ashland in 1856. She was a sister of John B. Monaghan, of town, and Peter Monaghan, of Turkey Run. Mrs. Watson was married on September 30, 1867, and in addition to her husband, ex-Senator Watson, is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Thomas M. Scanlan and Miss Annie C. Watson. The funeral will take place on Friday, 17th inst., at 9:30 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated in the Annunciation church and interment will be made in the Annunciation cemetery.
