WILL CHANGE HANDS.

New Blood to be Infused Into the Shenandoah Base Ball Club.

MANAGER HARRY BRADIGAN

ALL THE PENNANT WINNING BACKERS OF 1893 WILL BE AT THE HELM.

Alex Donahoe, Who Understands His Business Will, in all Probability, be the Captain of the Team. Looking for Players.

The Shenandoah State League base ball club fell as another victim to the Harrisburg team at the Trotting Park on Saturday in a very uninteresting game. The home team started out as a winner and looked to top to the sixth inning, when Smith commenced to weaken. In the eighth inning the pitcher went to pieces and was taken out of the box. Nevins went in and was pounded for two singles, a two bagger, a three bagger and a home run. In addition to this three bases on balls. There were also fielding errors in this inning by Merriman and Clark.

Yesterday the home team played an exhibition game at the Trotting Park with the Lancaster before a small attendance. It was more of a burlesque game than anything else and several players appeared as if they had touched the "rosy" pretty freely the night before. The visitors had the best of the game for the first three innings, but Callahan weakened and became indifferent in the fourth and the tables were turned in the sixth inning to the tune of 11 to 9, when the game was called on account of bad weather.

It is more than probable that the management of the home team will be changed tonight. The State League met at Carbondale yesterday and authorized the change. President Haulon arrived at noon today and said he had no doubt that the change would be made before the close of this afternoon.

If the change takes place the club will pass into the hands of the same management that won the Central League pennant for Shenandoah in 1893. This will be sufficient assurance that the town will have a good pennant chaser, Harry Bradigan will have the management of the team. He says several new players will be signed. Lines are already out for them. It is quite likely that Alex. Donahoe, who was formerly manager of the Altoona and Lancaster clubs, will captain the team. He is in town. Donahoe will be a capital man for the position.

EVANGELICAL CONGREGATION.

Place of Worship Opened in Dougherty's Hall Yesterday.

The old church of the local Evangelical congregation, at the corner of Cherry and West streets, was vacant and closed yesterday on account of the injunction issued by the court last week, restraining the congregation from occupying the edifice. The congregation assembled in Dougherty's hall yesterday and services were held at 10 a. m. There was a full attendance of members at both services and they accepted the situation with resignation and much confidence of early re-establishment in comfortable quarters. They have ordered seats, hymn books and other equipments for their new place of worship and will be in full harness again next Sunday. Sunday school was also held in the hall yesterday and the attendance was very large. The children assembled outside the old church in the afternoon and marched in a body to the new quarters, which are excellently adapted for the purposes of the congregation. The hall is a large one. The ventilation is excellent, there being several windows on three sides, and the place is fitted with steam heat for the winter months. There will not be much difficulty in the way of getting the congregation in good shape again. The members are a unit and have already pledged themselves to liberal financial support. After each of the services yesterday many of them instructed the pastor, Rev. R. M. Lichtenwaller, to order hymn books for them at their own expense.

IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

THE INCOME TAX SO DECLARED BY THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT.

The Decision is Like Knock Out Drops to the Democratic Administration and Will Cripple Its Calculations for Resources.

Special to EVENING HERALD.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Supreme Court of the United States this morning handed down a decision declaring the entire income tax law unconstitutional.

This decision, while not wholly unexpected, staggered the friends of the Administration, but was received by the public with expressions of joy. It is death to an infamous measure adopted by the Democratic party to make up for losses in revenue sustained by a blind and foolish tariff policy.

The treasury department feels the decision more than any other department, as the resources expected from the income tax were figured at from $50,000,000 to $60,000,000. Under the previous decision of the United States Court the estimate was cut down $15,000,000. Now it is wiped out completely. The question arises—How will the expenses of the government be met? A. THE NEWS GLEANINGS.

The Compulsory Educational Bill Will Make More Local Schools Necessary.

LARGE INCREASE OF PUPILS

THE POLICE WERE BUSY MAKING ARRESTS SATURDAY NIGHT AND LAST NIGHT.

Richard Malone Fell Into a Heap of Trouble by Chasing a Pole He Wished to Chastise—Afterwards Arrested.

The Farr compulsory educational bill, which was approved by Governor Hastings last week, will increase the enrollment in the local public schools to nearly four thousand pupils and will give urgent need for more school buildings.

The law provides that every child between the ages of 8 and 13 years shall be obliged to attend the public schools for at least sixteen weeks each year, providing that the child resides within two miles of a place of instruction. It also provides a penalty for a guardian or parent who does not compel those under his or her direction to comply with its condition. Several gentlemen prominently identified with the public school interests of the borough, and others who have been identified with them, say that the law will compel from six hundred to a thousand boys and girls who now stay at home, or roam the streets, to be educated whether their parents desire to have them learned, or not.

Most of these will attend the night schools, as many boys between the ages named work at the collieries. This will necessitate the formation of more schools of this class and the employment of a number of additional teachers.

Malone Fared Badly.

Saturday night Richard Malone, with ricks in hand, chased a Pole up Main street and Policeman James Kirwin gave chase to Malone. Chief of Police Tosh happened to come down Main street and Malone, finding himself between two fires, ran to the middle of the street to escape the latter officer. In changing his course Malone fell and fractured one of his arms at the elbow. He was placed under arrest and, after receiving surgical attendance, was placed in the lockup. He was subsequently released upon paying the borough fine.

EXCITING RUNAWAY.

Trees and Awning Posts Wrecked by a Team of Horses.
A team of horses owned by J. W. Johnson ran away at noon today and caused considerable excitement and damage. They took a course down Main street and, turning into Lloyd street, partly on the pavement, tore down two of the large iron awning posts in front of the Merchants' Bank and two trees on the Lloyd street pavement. A third tree stopped the team. The awning posts, which were of hollow and fancy make, and a letter box were smashed to fragments and the two trees were ruined. Singularly enough both horses escaped injury.

Obituary.

George W. Holland died at his residence, 227 North Bowers street, from pneumonia. Mr. Holland was 49 years of age and is survived by his wife and five children, Edward J., an employe of the HERALD; Sallie, Maud, John and Earl. He was a veteran of the Civil War and a member of Watkin Waters Post No. 149, G. A. R. The funeral will take place on Wednesday, 22nd inst., at 2 p. m. Constable's Sale.

By virtue of a tax levy to me directed by M. J. Scanlan there will be sold by public vendue on Wednesday, the 22nd day of May, 1895, at the house of William Schamansky, in the borough of Shenandoah, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, the following articles, viz: 1 butcher's chopping block, 3 knives and steel, 1 large knife, 3 cleavers, 1 rack for wagon, two butcher's saws, 1 small block, 1 pair of scales, 1 lamp, and a lot of iron fixtures, 2 meat racks, 1 tub, 1 horn, 1 screw driver, 1 counter and a lot of writing paper, seized and taken as the property of William Schamansky and to be sold by T. M. BOLIN, Constable.

No need to fear the approach of croup if you have Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in the house. Never was a case that it wouldn't cure if used at the outset.

"Shore Acres."

The greatest of American plays, "Shore Acres" with entire new scenery and a fine company of players will be the attraction at Ferguson's theatre on Wednesday evening, next, May 22nd. This play, which was written by James A. Hurne, the author of "Hearts of Oak," had an entire season's run at Daly's theatre, New York, and a six months' run in Boston. All who have seen "Shore Acres" admit that no better or purer play has ever been written. Arrangements are now under way to give "Shore Acres" a London production. Manager Ferguson guarantees a perfect production of Mr. Hurne's play, which deserves drawing a crowded house.
