

The Beer Tax and Company Store Bills Pass the House Finally.

HARRISBURG, May 28.—The Cochran bill taxing malt liquors twenty-four cents a barrel of thirty-one gallons, brewed or manufactured in the state, passed finally in the House yesterday amid much excitement. The vote in favor of the measure was 104, or only one more than a constitutional majority. The yeas were 88. The opponents of the bill are confident the proposition will be killed in the Senate.

The Orme company store bill passed finally by a vote of 122 to 12. The measure imposes a tax of 10 per cent. upon the face value of all orders, checks, dividends, pass books or other paper representing in part or whole the earnings or wages of any employee given him in payment of labor, and not redeemed in lawful money within thirty days by any person, firm, partnership, copartnership, corporation or association engaged in any kind of manufacturing, mining, transporting or transmitting business. A penalty of 25 per cent. is also imposed upon all such persons or corporations neglecting or refusing to make return to the auditor general of the amount of all such orders, checks, etc., issued and not redeemed in cash in thirty days.

The principal subject under discussion in the senate was the bill introduced by Mr. Smith, of Philadelphia, to prevent teachers in the public schools of the state from wearing any dress, insignia, marks or emblems to indicate their connection with any religious order, sect or denomination. The measure passed second reading.

Among the bills passed finally by the senate were: To assist in the erection of a hospital in Phoenixville borough, $30,000; to assist in the erection and furnishing of a hospital in Allentown, $5,000; Sharon and Sharpville hospital, $17,000; to purchase William Penn's charter of liberties, $15,000; to give each of the six wards in Carbonate representation in the poor board.

The senate confirmed the nomination of Isaac S. Wistar as a manager of the Eastern penitentiary in place of Richard Vanx, deceased.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Callouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep store or house without it. Get a free trial bottle at A. Wasley's drug store."

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Pertinent Paragraphs From the Reporters' Pens and Pencils.

People love to talk about the weather. They like it almost as well as to gossip about their neighbors. Well, let 'em.

A gentleman of Massachusetts has written to a number of towns stating that his company was anxious for a new location for their machine tool works and closes his letter with "Is there any chance for local machine work in your locality?" He failed to write to Shenandoah for information, evidently having heard of our Council "going back" on their promises.

The school year has closed already in some places and will soon close in others. Then the youngsters will be free to get outdoors and in work and occupation learn the object lessons which constitute much of the best of their education. But it is wearisome to think of the re-examinations, in some places, for certificates that so many of the poor teachers will have to undergo in order to get schools again. It will take away the pleasure of vacation. There is no sense in these repeated re-examinations that school teachers in constant practice must undergo. Why does not the law require doctors, lawyers and preachers to be re-examined and get new diplomas every year or two?

The sailor hat seems to be the choice of the girls this season. It is natty and always becoming. In straw hats as in matting there have been mighty strides made of late, and no fellow can correctly guess where this branch of evolution will stop. The deal in matting this year has been bigger than ever before, because of more and better goods for fewer dollars. But it was of the sailor hat we started out to speak. It is a graceful topping out of the female form—unless the wearer has a badly turned up nose. Then it (the hat) is out of its class. Thanks to kind nature Shenandoah has no girls with noses pointing skyward—and so it goes that the sailor hat has a big field for itself right here.

Pretty flowers are blooming and they'll be wanted for Memorial Day purpose. Loving hands are leading them up to that point when with sad hearts and tearful eyes friends will place them upon soft-made hallowed by the inanimate forms of those who have gone before—over the dark river to the great beyond. Flowers, tears, heartaches and hopes, all blended into one. What a bouquet and what a story it tells!

THE COAL-OUTPUT FROM THE SHENANDOAH REGION, IT IS NOW PREDICTED, WILL ENSURE ANOTHER 30 YEARS LEASE OF LIFE FOR THE TOWN. Get a move on you, business men and property holders.

Superintendent Schaeffer has appointed a woman as superintendent of the public schools of Forest county.

Miss Hendrick, a school teacher in Bethlehem, aged 30 years, is likely to die from the effects of blood poisoning caused by the picking of a pimple on her lip. Miss Hendrick's finger-nails probably deposited the deadly poison in her blood.

An ex-clergyman was discovered "Tuesday night in the House distributing pamphlets reflecting upon the Roman Catholic church, entitled "Open the Convents." Representative Fow arose to a question of privilege and, pointing to the ex-cleric, said that he was distributing scurrilous circulars, and asked that the Sergeant-at-Arms be directed to remove him. Representative McClain, of Lancaster, said he had read one of the circulars, and anyone who would give publicity to the lies contained in it was a coward and a cur. While these denunciations were taking place the object of them walked toward the door and disappeared into the rotunda.

Bogus Wild West Shows.

There are a number of mis-called "Wild West" shows traveling through the country and one of them showed in Mauch Chunk several days last week. The Mauch Chunk Times speaks as follows of it: "This aggregation pulled up stakes and left at midnight, much to the joy of the greater number of our citizens. Several, however, were sorry to see them leave, for they took with them many hard earned dollars which the victims hoped to regain possession of by invoking the strong arm of the law. Sums ranging all the way from $5 to $35 were taken from individuals who foolishly essayed to beat the gambling fakirs at their own game. An attempt was made to gain entrance to one or two East Mauch Chunk residences, but the culprits were frightened away in each instance. Policemen on both sides of the river were on duty from the time the crowd arrived till their departure, and this doubtless accounts for the general quiet and good order which prevailed during their stay. The officers, both regular and special, did their duty well, and merit the thanks of the community."

Considerable complaint is being made by the citizens of that part of the town near the Shenandoah City colliery. The stench arising from the sewer there is unbearable. The Board of Health should take some action in this matter and compel the sewerage companies to extend their lines beyond the borough limits or serious sickness will occur from this nuisance.

THERE IS A BRIGHT FUTURE IN STORE FOR SHENANDOAH. Will business men and property owners awake to the necessity of helping to make a Greater Shenandoah?

Getting Suspicious.

"Dick" Morgan in Mahany Record. When, oh, when is that water going to be turned on? Does it not look a little suspicious to see the representatives of the old water company hobnobbing almost daily with certain water committee-men, and that they frequent visits to the reservoirs of that borough?

Style!

Is a different thing from fashion. The two ought to go together, but sometimes they don't. There's mighty little style about some fashions. Real style improves any one's appearance, but some fashions would make an angel look silly. All our goods are right in this season's latest fashions, and, better still, they are in true "style." Every pattern in our stock has been selected for that genuine artistic quality which causes friends to exclaim, "So becoming to you!" Morning goods a specialty. Prices lower than any other millinery in town.
