

RESCUED.

On Lake Erie's Shores.—The Captain's Wife Tells the Story.—It Will Interest Many People.

(From the Buffalo Evening News.)
If you were to call at 27 Front Avenue you would find a pleasant elderly lady, Mrs. Captain Hensy by name. Her kindly smile and joyous manner are to no small extent due to the escape she has had. Her own words can better describe her rescue and one can easily understand her present happy condition when they realize what she has gone through. She says: "About five months ago I had an attack of sickness which lasted for a week and since that time I have been subject at intervals to similar attacks, some of which were longer in duration. It is hard for me to describe how I suffered. The pain would commence in my head, after which it would seem to pass down my body and settle in my back, my sides ached, my back ached, and I had a feeling of great distress in the bowels. The increased pain which seemed to come from lying down, would be almost unbearable, my face and stomach would blot up and I could hardly stand on my feet, dizziness made it almost impossible; this feeling was always with me even after the violence of the attack passed over. The last attack I had was the worst, and so bad I would not have been able to tell this story but for Doan's Kidney Pills. As soon as I commenced their use I found immediate relief. The pain in my back and sides left me and the dizziness went with it; the bloating in my face and body disappeared and all distress in my bowels was gone. I have great faith in Doan's Kidney Pills; in a short time they did a great deal more for me than all the plasters and medicines which I had resorted to in seeking relief and cure. I hope always to be able to procure them."

THE RUSH FOR HOMES.

Exciting Scenes at the Settlement of the Kickapoo Country.

THE SPEEDY GROWTH OF A TOWN.

How McLeod, O. T., Sprang Into Existence in a Few Minutes—From Ten to a Dozen Claimants on Each Farm in the New Country.

OKLAHOMA CITY, O. T., May 24.—Sharp at noon yesterday at least 15,000 men, with a large number of women, made the grand rush from all sides of the Kickapoo reservation for the 450 odd claims open to white settlement. In less than an hour afterward there were scores of contestants on each of these claims, in addition to the "sooners," who had already taken possession of the lands long coveted by them. The scenes at the opening were precisely similar to those at previous openings. There were the mad rush, the wild yells and the mishaps more or less serious. So far as is known, no lives were lost in the race, but it is too early yet to hear from the interior of the new country.

Sweeney's Ridge, on the north ford of the Canadian river, in township 12, was one of the principal points of entrance to the new land. Here there were 300 men gathered, and just before noon there was suppressed excitement as the minutes ticked nearer and nearer the hour. Watches were held in one hand and the lines tightly grasped in the other. The scene that followed the shout "go" was intensely exciting. The first man to dash across the bridge was in a little buggy drawn by a pair of bays. The horses were tense with excitement. The driver brought his whip down, shouting at them, and the horses bounded across the bridge and up the roadway with a good start, running away.

Following him came eight horsemen jostling one another in the narrow bridge, trying to pass each other. They whipped their horses and struck at them and at each other, and at last got across and scattered, racing like mad. The recklessness of the drivers in whipping their horses down the bank and across has seldom been equaled. Horses would fall, only to be dragged to their feet again. Men were hatless and their faces and foreheads wrinkled and strained. Wagons and horsemen came rushing pell-mell, and in five minutes the last wagon had passed over. The air was full of dust, and the sound of the shouting men and rumbling wheels grew fainter and fainter up the road.

About half a mile northeast from Sweeney's the road crosses through a narrow lane of trees. Here an awful jam occurred, lasting ten minutes. Men behind sought their chances for a claim pass away right there, and cursed like mad. The jam was finally straightened out, however, and they were off again.

Wednesday night it was made evident to many of the boomers that all could not get claims, so it was resolved to organize towns. About midnight a big crowd left Sweeney's, and as the procession went along large additions were made to its ranks. Two towns had already been projected—Olney and Aurora. A council was held between the projectors of both towns, and it resulted in a consolidation of interests, the new town to be called McLeod, in honor of the general solicitor of the Choctaw road.

The procession, 5,000 strong, then took up the march to Douglas' Mills, at the section on which McLeod was to be situated. At the head of the enterprise is Dr. J. W. Gillett, of Perry, who was chosen mayor. Green B. Raum, Jr., of Washington, son of the ex-commissioner of pensions, is a leading member of the town organization. The site is a bank covered with cactus and underbrush.

A noon the crowd passed over the ford in a very quiet way and drew lots for positions on the town plat. A corps of surveyors was on hand, and at once laid out the town. Wagons with liquors, groceries and cots came in, tents were erected, and soon stores, restaurants and a hotel were opened and a new town had been born. The Kickapoo opening was much in the nature of a huge farce. At 12:10 nearly all claims had from ten to twenty claimants on them, and those further from the line were reached from the boomer in twenty minutes.

In one section a hundred claimants who had run in from both borders and those who were "sooners" were congregated. The honest runners combined to drive the "sooners" off. Several fights occurred and a number of shots were fired. A colored man named Blackford, from Oklahoma county, is reported badly wounded. At Sawnee, when the noon hour approached the crowd became restless. At three minutes to 12 by some watches and precisely noon by others there was a break here and there in the line, a waving, and then all broke into a run. The race across the level plateau was a very pretty sight.

Looking for Zuffall's Murderer.

HARRISBURG, May 24.—Governor Hastings has been notified by Governor Brown of Maryland that measures will be taken to apprehend the murderer of Grant Zuffall, whose parents live at Myersdale, Somerset county. Zuffall was murdered last Christmas eve in a disreputable resort in Cumberland, Md. His body was cast on ice in the cellar of the place for several weeks, and then thrown into the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, where it was found early in February. Governor Brown's attention was called to the matter by Governor Hastings.

Veterans Too Old to Parade.

GREEN BAY, Wis., May 24.—Ex-Governor W. D. Hoard was yesterday elected department commander of the Wisconsin G. A. R. The parade of veterans had 2,000 in line. It was the last parade of the Wisconsin members, as the encampment voted to abolish the parade thereafter, owing to the age of the members of the order.

Fifty Killed by Earthquakes.

LONDON, May 24.—The Standard publishes a dispatch from Athens, stating that the recent earthquake in the district of Margariti and Paramythia, in southern Greece, were most disastrous. Seven villages were destroyed, and fifty persons were killed. More than 150 were injured.

The Testimonial to Dr. Smith.

BOSTON, May 24.—The committee in charge of the recent testimonial to Dr. S. F. Smith, the author of "America," has forwarded to him a check for $1,000, the receipts of the testimonial, and received in acknowledgment a grateful letter of thanks to the public and the committee.

ONE DISEASE AND ONE REMEDY.

"The art of painting," said Millais, "consists in selecting the right colors and putting them in the right place."—"The way to win a battle," said Napoleon, "is to mass your troops at the critical moment against the weakest spot in the enemy's line."—"The way to cure many ailments," said the great Dr. Abercrombie, "is to purify the poisoned spring in which they arise, generally the torpid and inflamed digestive system."

This wisdom and experience simplify and condense. Thus the Shakers of Mount Lebanon reasoned when they sought, and finally found, a remedy for indigestion and dyspepsia. Where one person has something else, they argued, a thousand have this. To cure this alone will almost rid the world of sickness. Why should we vex ourselves with confusing definitions? A good digestion is life and health; a bad one disease and death. Hence, from the healing and stimulating mountain herbs, they extracted the principles which make the Shaker Digestive Cordial the rarest and most effective of medicines for one disease, and one only—indigestion and dyspepsia.

Do you suffer from any of these miserable feelings—depression of spirits, heaviness and pain in the stomach after meals, bad taste in the mouth, wind in the bowels, irritable disposition, nervous weakness and alarm, worry and weariness, costiveness or irregularity of the bowels, nausea, palpitation, sick headache, heartburn, loss of appetite and sleep, dry skin, etc.?

Don't indulge in fifty foolish fancies. You have indigestion and dyspepsia and nothing else. Set the disordered stomach right with the one medicine which will surely do it, Shaker Digestive Cordial, and these symptoms will vanish with their cause. A good effect will follow the first doses. Even chronic cases soon yield.

Test the cordial, at practically no cost, by taking a ten cent trial bottle. For sale by nearly all druggists.

TO DISCOURAGE UNION.

Presbyterian Assembly Renews the Assault on That College.

TO DISCOURAGE HER STUDENTS.

Young Men Who Are Studying in That Institution Will Not Receive the Indorsement of the New York Presbytery, So Necessary to Ultimate Success.

PITTSBURG, May 24.—The Presbyterian General Assembly demonstrated yesterday that its action in continuing directors of Union seminary as members of church boards, which was taken on Tuesday and Wednesday, would seem to have been dictated by fear of the result which might follow the policy of exclusion. The policy adopted yesterday is the beginning of an active warfare against the New York seminary. It is said that other measures even more drastic are in contemplation, but as to their exact nature nothing could be learned.

The question of the relation of the students of Union seminary to the presbytery of New York came up on an overture from that body. A long opinion was delivered, and it was recommended that the presbytery of New York be instructed and enjoined not to receive under its care for licensure students who are pursuing or purpose to pursue their studies in theological seminaries respecting whose teachings the General Assembly disavows responsibility.

This motion was carried by a large vote, and in announcing the result Moderator Booth and the New York presbytery probably would note the instructions given by its superior authority and would obey its orders.

The opposition to this action was decided, but it was insufficient to affect the vote of the assembly.

The policy adopted yesterday is the beginning of an active warfare against the New York seminary, which is avowedly intended to bring it to its knees or drive it entirely out of all relations with the church. Unless other measures even more drastic are in contemplation, but as to their exact nature nothing could be learned.

Some of the matters passed upon were of general interest to the denomination, but the bulk of the work affected the boards of the church and their missionary or benevolent work. The evening session was devoted to the quarter centennial celebration of the reunion of the old and new school branches of the church, which occurred in the Third Presbyterian church, Pittsburg, in 1870.

Urging Presbyterian Union.
PITTSBURG, May 24.—Yesterday's afternoon session of the United Presbyterian Assembly was taken up with the reception of a committee from the Presbyterian General Assembly. General James A. Beaver made a speech advocating the union of the two denominations. His remarks were greeted with great applause, and Moderator McMichael answered him in the same strain.

Another Outbreak in Ecuador.
WASHINGTON, May 24.—Cablegrams received by the state department from Ecuador announce that the revolution has broken out afresh in that country. While no particulars are obtainable, the movement has been regarded as serious enough to warrant the sending of a warship there to protect American interests. Accordingly the Ranger, now at Panama, has been ordered to proceed at once to Guayaquil, Ecuador.

Deserted Italians Going Back to New York.
NOBLE, Va., May 24.—One hundred and seven Italians, who were induced to go from New York and Philadelphia to the Pocahontas coal mines on a promise of so much per diem, which was reduced on their arrival here, left last night via the Old Dominion line for New York.

Stock and Produce Markets.
Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.
