GOOD NEWS. GOOD TIMES.

The good times are coming. "Wait a little longer." Wages are going up all over the country except among the coal miners of this region; but their time will come soon enough. Dollar wheat is in sight. That means high wages for the farmers. They are the greatest number of working people in the country. When times are good for them times are good for everybody. Old factories are being reopened; new ones are building. The steam and electricity of new enterprises fill the land.

Don't sit down and speculate on what caused the hard times—the tariff or too much silver or too little gold. Everybody had the same trouble everywhere, but they have not come through it as we have in this free country—with patience, with hope, with our backs to despair and our faces to a future of prosperity.

Good times here, but they are not everywhere. The Marquis of Salisbury, ex-Premier of England, speaking in the manufacturing town of Bradford the other night, said that there are in England sullen ranks of half-starved laborers who, if the unemployed capital be invested, would enjoy an unrestricted industry and a happy home, but between the overflowing coffers and the suffering laborers there flows a black, impassable stream of distrust.

There is no "black, impassable stream" here. This is the land of the golden sands, or of the silver sands, if you would rather have them of that kind. This is no time for politics or prating. This is the time for work. The sun is shining.
Make hay.

QUEENSBERRY'S ungrateful son, who tried to "do" his father in a London street, the other day, is now convinced that the old man is still in the ring. His memory of the little encounter will last long after his eyes get well.

CALIFORNIA'S fruit crop in ten years has increased sevenfold, and its value last year was $50,000,000, or $10,000,000 more than that of the gold mined in the state.
The experience of California shows that the demand for fine fruit is practically unlimited.

SEVERAL recent legal decisions indicate that when a man is a low down, common thief he will get punished if he is caught, but if he occupies a high official place he may safely count on being whitewashed. Moral: don't steal till you get into a very high office.

THE new "Company Store Bill," means, if it means anything, that if you employ any help and want to pay the men in store orders, checks, "dividers," coupons or anything but actual cash you must make a report to the state and pay a tax of 25 per cent. on the amount. Upon failure to make this report a fine can be imposed. The farmer who pays his men in board and produce must make a report or be fined. The merchant who pays his clerks partly in goods must pay a tax on the part he pays in goods or be liable to arrest.

WHERE is the Tribly fad going to end?
It is nothing but Tribly all the time and wherever you go. All sorts of things are being called Tribly. A Tribly canal boat was launched the other day, and a Tribly summer hotel is advertised. At the blowing in of a new furnace in the western part of the state it was christened Tribly.
There are Tribly shoes and hats and hair pins; Tribly candy and ice cream and soda water; Tribly parasols and chewing gum; Tribly cake and pie and Tribly pretty much everything, and we shouldn't be surprised, when autumn comes, to hear of Tribly pork and sausage and Tribly sauer kraut.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE

It Will Now be Impossible to Adjourn Before June 13.

HARRISBURG, May 27.—The legislature will hardly get away before June 13. This is now conceded by those who have all along contended for a short session. The time of final adjournment will be fixed at this evening's session of the house. Mr.
Stewart, of Philadelphia, has served notice that he will call up at that time the senate resolution to adjourn June 6. Many of the members are anxious to get away and will vote to concur in the senate's action. Those who have not yet gotten through all their pet schemes are opposed to the time fixed by the senators, and it is believed they can control enough votes to prolong the session until June 13.

If the senate resolution prevails no bills can be passed to either body after Friday. Chairman Marshall, of the appropriations committee, whose opinion at this time is entitled to more consideration than that of any other member of the house, says it is absolutely impossible to adjourn at the time fixed by the senate unless the appropriations bills are side-tracked. The general appropriation bill will require three days' consideration in the senate and house. It will be reported Thursday, and rushed through so that it may reach the senate by the following Monday.

The program is to hold the general appropriation bill until all other appropriation measures are out of the way. The committee may be forced to change its plans, and bring the bill out earlier than expected. There will be a fierce fight by the rural members of the house to amend the bill so as to give the schools $11,000,000 for the next two years, instead of $10,000,000, as proposed by the committee. The fight over this proposition will delay the consideration of other important business.

Run Down by an Electric Car.
CHICAGO, May 27.—A South Chicago electric car, drawing a trailer, crashed into a wagon containing five persons at Seventy-ninth street and Yates avenue last night. The wagon was demolished, one woman was killed, another woman probably fatally injured and a third slightly injured, and two young men slightly hurt. The killed and injured are: Franceska Ruzewicki, aged 38, widow, instantly killed; Mariana Wisla, aged 51, widow, hurt internally, may die; Agnes Ruzewicki, aged 35, bruised, not serious; Thomas Ruzewicki, bruised about the body.

Cure for Headache.
As a remedy for all forms of headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle and give this remedy a fair trial. In cases of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of this medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only fifty cents at A. Wasley's drugstore.

tween France and Venezuela in the matter and merchant of Goshen, Va., has this to say on the subject of rheumatism: "I take pleasure in recommending Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism, as I know from personal experience that it will do all that is claimed for it. A year ago this spring my brother was laid up in bed with inflammatory rheumatism and suffered intensely. The first application of Chamberlain's Pain Balm eased the pain and the use of one bottle completely cured him. For sale by Gruhier Bros.

Deaths from Eating Impure Meat.

GREENSBURG, Pa., May 27.—An Italian miner, living at Bagdad, this county, purchased a large quantity of pork at a price considerably below the market value for the fresh article. He invited eleven of his friends to eat with him upon his return to the Italian settlement. An hour after partaking of the meat two of them died in great agony. The ten others are in a critical condition.

Three Drowned While Fishing.

DETROIT, May 27.—A special from Onsted, Lehigh county, says: William Doollittle, a married man, and Bert Salisbury and Mina Patterson, both single, while fishing on Lake Erie, fell overboard and were drowned. No one else was present to tell how the accident occurred.
The bodies were found in twenty feet of How to Treat a Wife.

(From Pacific Health Journal.)
First get a wife; second, be patient.
You may have great trials and perplexities in your business, but do not, therefore, carry to your home a cloudy or contracted brow. Your wife may have trials, which, though of less magnitude, may be hard for her to bear. A kind word, a tender look, will do wonders in chasing from her brow all clouds of gloom. To us we would always keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. It is the best and is sure to be needed sooner or later. Your wife will then know that you really care for her and wish to protect her health. For sale

Spring Medicine

Is a necessity because the tonic of winter air is gone, and milder weather, increased moisture, accumulated impurities in the blood, open the way for that tired feeling, nervous troubles, and other ills. The skin, mucous membrane and the various organs strive in vain to relieve the impure current of life. They all welcome

Hood's Sarsaparilla to assist Nature at this time when she most needs help, to purify the blood, tone and strengthen the laboring organs and build up the nerves.

"I was in a run down condition. I was weak and nervous and could not eat anything. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla and before I had finished the first bottle I could see a change for the better.
I kept on taking it and I am now so that I can eat heartily and can do my work."

Battle with Hungry Rats.

WOMELSDORF, Pa., May 27.—A hard battle with rats was fought here by Frank Manderback. Hearing a commotion in his cellar he went down with a lamp to investigate. As soon as he reached the foot of the stairs he was attacked by a large number of rats. They were big hungry fellows, and they fought furiously.
Manderback seized a cleaver and battle with all his might, killing twenty-two of the rodents. The struggle was desperate and the rats ran all over his body, biting him in a number of places before he conquered them.

The Italian Elections.

ROME, May 27.—The elections throughout the country yesterday were regarded with a certain amount of apathy by the public. From such reports as have yet come to hand, however, the polling has been fairly heavy. The government had no difficulty in finding candidates, and hopes to secure 350 seats out of the 508 of which the chamber is composed. Despite the popular intellect, which forbade Catholic citizens of Italy to take part in the political elections, many Catholics went to the polls.

France, informing him that he had fallen heir to $100,000. He is a poor miner with news he almost became crazed with joy.

The money he inherited was amassed by his mother, who operated boats across a neutral island during the Franco-Russian war.

For every quarter in a man's pocket there are a dozen uses; and to use each one in such a way as to derive the greatest benefit is a question every one must solve for himself. We believe, however, that no better use could be made of one of these quarters than to exchange it for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, a medicine that every family should be provided with.

A Trolley Victim in Reading. year-old boy, son of William Haas, was instantly killed by a trolley car near Third and Penn streets at 2 o'clock in the horse with some other boys and ran upon the track without seeing the approaching car.

Fatally Shot by His Brother.

BALTIMORE, May 27.—John T. Rieman, probably fatally shot his brother, Frederick C. Rieman, last night. The cause of shooting was that Frederick awakened John at what the latter regarded an entirely uncalled for hour.

The Jail Unit for Human Occupation.

CHICAGO, May 27.—Judge Tuley in the superior court ordered a man who was sentenced to the Chicago jail released on the ground that it was unhealthy, overcrowded and generally unfit for occupation.

McKINLEY'S PRESIDENTIAL BOOM

It Will be Formally Launched at the Ohio Republican Convention.

ZANESVILLE, O., May 27.—Of the Republican state convention which meets here tomorrow and Wednesday the candidates and their workers are here today.
Ex-Secretary Charles Foster is among the hustlers, and Senator Sherman will be here before night. There are a dozen candidates for governor, the favorites being General Asa S. Bushnell, Judge Nash and James H. Hoyt. The delegations from Cincinnati have Bushnell for governor and the one from Cleveland favors Hoyt for governor. All are alike in holding McKinley's banner for president and Foraker for senator.

The Foraker men are concentrating on General Bushnell, for governor, and the McKinley men are on Judge Nash's ticket.
If there should be any formidable opposition to endorsing McKinley for president there would then also be opposition to the endorsement of Foraker for senator, and the old factional feeling in the party in this state would break loose in all its fury.
The leaders in both factions are exercising all possible discipline to prevent any outbreak, but it is not improbable that the contest will get beyond their control.

Murdered by Brazilian Freebooters.

PARIS, May 27.—The governor of French Guiana cables to the French government that as a consequence of Brazilian freebooters capturing a French settler named Trajane and robbing other Frenchmen on the frontier territory between French Guiana and Brazil, the governor sent a dispatch boat with marines to restore order. M. Lunier, captain of the marines, with only two men, took a flag of truce to demander of Trajane. Cabral, the leader of the freebooters, treacherously fired upon M. Lunier. A fierce conflict ensued, the marines coming to the assistance of the Frenchmen. In two hours' fighting Cabral lost over sixty killed, including himself, and the French five killed, including Lunier, and twenty wounded. It is feared that this encounter will lead to trouble with Brazil, the scene of the conflict being in debatable territory between the two countries.

Postoffice Thief Confesses.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 27.—Samuel F.
Holiday, one of the trusted letter clerks in the St. Joseph postoffice, was taken from his bed shortly before daylight and charged with robbing the mails. When taken before Postmaster Atkinson he confessed. Holiday's plan was to steal promising looking letters from the Grand Island mail, take out a part of the money whenever he found any, and then mail the letters. He confessed that he had been stealing since January, and had taken a large amount. The postoffice department has had men at work on the case for four months, and has spent $8,000 running Holiday down.

Reinforcements for General Campos.

HAVANA, May 27.—Two regiments of infantry were landed on Saturday near Cienfuegos to reinforce the forces of Captain General de Campos. The business men and the farmers of Sancti Spiritus have made a request that the government allow them to form a regiment of cavalry. Four hundred persons make an offer of horses and saddlery, and they require from the government an equipment of arms and ammunition as the condition of going into service. Marcos Garcia, chief of the last revolution, with others, offer their services as officers of the regiment.

Secretary Gresham Has a Bad Turn.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—A decidedly unfavorable change in Secretary Gresham's condition occurred Saturday night, and it is said that for some time he was in a very serious condition. This change, it is stated, was the result of a recurrence of the stomach troubles from which he suffered so acutely early in his illness. Although somewhat better today he still feels the effect of the attack of Saturday night. It is understood that his son Otto and Mr. Landis, his private secretary, have been telegraphed to come to Washington.

Killed by Colliding with a Bicycle.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—Eddie Thompson, 18 years old, was struck by a bicycle and almost instantly killed while playing ball on the street here. John Cole, an employee of Gulick's bakery, was riding on Washington avenue with a little boy perched on the handle bar of his wheel when young Thompson, in pursuit of a ball, ran violently against the approaching bicycle. An examination showed that his death was caused by the bursting of a blood vessel in his right lung.

Ex-Secretary McCulloch's Funeral.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The funeral of the late ex-Secretary McCulloch was private and the services as simple as it was possible to make them. There were no honorary pallbearers, and the bodybearers were the immediate employees of the dead man. The services were held at 11 o'clock this forenoon in the Rock Creek church, a small Episcopal house of worship about two miles beyond the city and opposite the Soldiers' Home. The interment will be in Rock Creek cemetery.

ARMING FOR REVENGE.

Another Outbreak of Armenians Expected Next Month.

THE OPPRESSED PEOPLE STARVING.

The Reports of the Terrible Atrocities by Turks and Kurds Further Confirmed by a British Official and an American Missionary.

LONDON, May 27.—The special correspondent of the Associated Press in Armenia writes as follows from Kars, Russia, under date of April 20:

During the past three weeks I have had unusual opportunity for obtaining additional confirmation of the facts contained in my announcement of the impending uprising of the Armenians in Turkey next month. I have traveled many miles up and down and across the border in search of certain facts, and as a result I have had the satisfaction of actually seeing and handling some of the rifles now being mugged across the Turkish frontier by the revolutionary party. Moreover, the plans of the party have been more fully explained to me by some of the most active and intelligent of the leaders of the eastern wing of the movement, and I am now entirely satisfied that unless unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstances arise, the uprising will take place.

The exact date for the uprising has not yet been fixed, for the most part to the fact that the extreme eastern section of the revolutionary party is not ready for active operations. Whether or not the central section will wait for the eastern wing longer than the month of May I do not know, nor has the matter actually been decided. I am led to believe that the eastern wing cannot be ready for hostilities in May, and possibly not before July 1.
The eastern wing has been and is having a hard time of it, owing to two circumstances over which the leaders have no control.

The mountain passes leading to Van have been blocked with snow for months, so that it was impossible to forward guns and ammunition from Russia and Persia.
Besides, the Armenians in the eastern end of Turkey are in a condition bordering on starvation. It is obvious that people in this condition cannot fight. On this point, a leading executive officer of the revolutionary party said to me three days ago:

"If men have nothing in their stomachs what can they do? We must first feed them before we can expect them to fight.
When we can get food enough on hand to last them two months then we shall show the world how Armenians can fight." It is this question of food that the revolutionary leaders will find most difficult of solution. It is a fact that in the eastern part of Armenia food is so scarce that well-to-do and rich people have no more than they actually need. As for the poor Armenians, their condition is distressing in the extreme, and added to the robberies, outrages and massacres which Turks and Kurds have brought upon them, they are now harassed by a famine so terrible that many of them are actually dying of starvation.

Few crops were grown last summer, owing to the fact that many of the farmers and cultivators were thrown into prison by the Turks under charges of revolutionary conspiracy. Then the cattle were stolen by the Kurds, and what the poor people had left in the way of provisions or property was seized by the government officials for taxes. Even the commonest household utensils were taken by the tax gatherers, so that the people were left destitute.

There will be no crops planted in eastern Armenia this spring for the country everywhere is suffering from a reign of terror.
The presence of the commission of inquiry at Moosh and the indignation of the Christian powers of Europe have had absolutely no effect on the conduct of either the Turks or the Kurds in eastern Turkey.
I am just in receipt of trustworthy advices from a non-Armenian source at Van to the effect that a massacre is looked for at any moment. My correspondent writes that they are living "within an inch of a massacre" all the time.

When the new grass of spring enables the Kurdish horsemen to move about the country the work of exterminating the Armenians, which was interrupted by the fall of snow after the Sassoon and Moosh massacres last autumn, will be begun anew. With no crops and no cattle of their own, the Armenians will either die of starvation or flee to Persia and Russia.
The famine will seriously affect both Kurds and Turks, as they live mainly upon the industry of the Armenians—the former by open handed robbery and the latter named by extortion and outrageous taxation.

It is a fact, which the British government can verify by consulting the report of Mr. Paton, an official of the British consulate at Tebriz, Persia, that in several cases the Turkish officials in the desolated district of Armenia there could hardly save the Armenians from death and the property from destruction; but, when they protested against the murderous raids of the troops, the officers led to them the orders of the sultan, and so nothing could be done. In many cases the officials of the villages warned the Armenians days before the soldiers appeared in order that the poor people might have a chance to escape.

The investigation of Mr. Paton along the Persian border has been confirmed, in a general way, the facts which I have incidentally obtained during the past eight weeks. He has collected many heartrending stories of persecution, robbery, outrage and murder, with names, dates and places, and as reasonable proof that the refugees who gave testimony to him told the truth it may be said that. In a general way, the facts obtained in different places were practically the same. The events of the massacre were so horrible that even the chronic exaggeration of the Armenian mind fails to add anything to them.

Mr. Paton was accompanied on this tour of investigation by Dr. Wright, an American missionary stationed at Salmas.
These gentlemen took the testimony from several witnesses to the effect that when the Turkish soldiers and Kurds appeared at a certain village they killed some of the villagers who dared to protest against their outrages, and that one of the dead men was cut up and boiled in a kettle like so much beef. The boiled pieces were then given to the villagers as food. The wretched creatures were compelled to eat their dead friend to the last mouthful.
In another village a party of Kurds found a child asleep in a cradle. They overturned the cradle and smothered the child. Then they dissected the body and roasted pieces of it before the fire. As a grimace they compelled the members of the family, including the child's mother, to eat the roasted pieces.

HELD IN BONDAGE

All Her Life—Happy Release at Last of Miss Alice Young, who Resides at 393 Alexander Street, Rochester, N. Y.

(From Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.)

Our representative was received very pleasantly at 393 Alexander Street, by Miss Alice Young, who told how since childhood she had been held in the bondage of pain from her back, never remembering the time that she had not suffered pain or aches in the region of the kidneys. Many were the means she used to find relief, but there seemed no remedy for her case and she still remained a captive; then along comes these little enemies to backache, Doan's Kidney Pills, and a half box releases the bonds, as one by one the aches and pains disappear, she finds herself a slave to pain no more, by their continued use. She says: "I was entirely relieved of all my suffering and now I am perfectly strong, healthy and well."

"How did you take this remedy?" Miss Young was asked by our representative, she replied that she followed directions explicitly. Miss Young then told how the mildly affected her, saying her symptoms were: "Stooping, bending over, walking or standing any length of time always
