PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE Apportionment Bills Reconsidered - Saloons to be Open Tomorrow.

HARRISBURG, May 29.- The Mackrell bill, prohibiting the sale of liquor by wholesale dealers in loss quantites than a gallon, had a narrow escape from defeat to the house yesterday. The opposition to the bill would have killed it had not its friends postponed it, after its passage on third reading, by a vote of 88 to 69. The bill prohibing the sale of intoxicants on Memorial Day was defeated. The house has backed down on the ap portionment question. The three bills defeated last Tuesday were reconsidered yesterday, after one of the most exciting debates of the session. The bills were then postponed for the present. The order of business at the night ses-sion of the house was the consideration of ppropriation bills on first reading. The bill to regulate the manner of changing county seats was defeated. The purpose this bill was to remove the county seat of Bradford county from Towanda to Athens.

After dispatching a little unimportant business the senate unanimously concurred in the amended resolution designating Sasurday. June 8, as the time for the final sajournment of the legislature.

After the passage of a number of bills so second reading the senate took up on special order the religious garb bill, intro-duced in the house by Mr. Smith, of Philadelphia. After discussing the measure in two sessions it was passed by a vote of 31 to 11. The measure now goes to the house for concurrence in senate amendments.

The judges' retirement bill passed first reading in the senat-The governor sent two veto messages to the senate. The first expresses his disap-proval of senate hill No. 298, which authorzes counties and municipal corporations to bring suits in cortain cases after giving notice to the attorney general. The other veto applies to senate bill No. 131, which gave to common pleas courts the power to extinguish the right to mine coal and other minerals, etc., where the same had not been exercised for a period of twenty

The Interstate Bridge.

WASHINGTON, May 20.-Just thirteen days before the expiration of the year allowed by law for the submission of a satisfactory so of plans for the great bridge across the Hudson river, the New York and New Jersey Bridge company yesterday submitted to the secretary of war the rough draft of plans for the bridge. One set of plans were submitted last full, and were rejected by the war department on the ground that they did not provide for a clear span bridge, but had piers obstructing the river. Whether the set now put in comply strictly with the department's demands remains for the engineer officers to decide.

> The West Chester School Board is an ranging for an excursion to the battle field at Gettysburg for the teachers and scholars of the public schools of that town. The idea is a good one and will give both teachers and scholars an object lesson that will be impre-sed upon their minds all their lifetime, for there are lessons to be learned there that text books cannot begin to teach. Besides the trip and the sights will amply repay the cost of the excursion. A trip to Gettysburg is always a source of pleasure and profit to the visitor. No one ever regretted a visit to this, the greatest battle field in the United States. An excursion from this county ought to be arranged and made a success by getting the teachers interested.

There will soon be a great reduction in the number of lawyers in France. By a recent law each one must take out a yearly license, for which he pays an amount equal to about twelve per cent. of his house rent. Many persons admitted to the bar, who are in active practice, have asked to have their names taken off the roll, among them M. Fallieres, formerly prime minister of justice, and to all, from 9 a. m. tomorrow (Memorial Senator Berenger, author of the law remitting the penalty for first offences, and also noted for his efforts to improve French morality. How would such a law which will be served as a free lunch at affect the lawyers of the United States in the Scheifly House. Come one, come general and those of this county in particular?

> Farmers have taken to the bicycle in all parts of the country, and they go to towns or the wheel instead of driving. They make long trips in the same fashion to cities that hitherto they have seldom visited. One livery stable keeper in western town has bought some blcycles to rent. He says that everybody rides the wheel, while few persons ride or drive horses, so he is gradually changing the character of his business.

The new compulsory education law requires that every child in the Commonwealth between the ages of 8 and 13 years shall attend for at least 16 weeks in each year aschool in which the common Euglish branches are taught. Only such children shall be exempted from these provisions as are certified by parents or guardians to be mentally or physically ncapacitated, or who live two miles from a public school, or who are being otherwise instructed in the common branches and are so certified by the principal of a school. A fine of 82 is provided for the first offense of anyone against the law, and $5 for each succeeding offense. An appeal to the court of quarter sessions is allowed to the negligent parents or guardians. Boards of school directors or controllers are authorized to appoint truant officers to better enforce attendance at school.

A census of the school children in every voting district must be taken by the district assessor at the same time that the annual assessment is made, and certified to the secretary of the district school board. Each teacher is required to report to the school board secretary monthly the names of all children who have been absent without satisfactory reason for five successive days. The school board secretary must then proceed against the parents or guardians of the child. A plea of poverty, made by the parents or guardian, if sustained sufficient excuse for non-compliance with the act, and in such a case the cost of prosecutions is to be paid by the school board. The failure of any school board secretary to comply with the provisions of the law is declared a misdemeanor, and he is liable to a fine not exceeding $25.
