Plot to Wreck a Train.

A cowardly attempt was made yesterday afternoon to wreck the Lehigh Valley passenger train at Excelsior. A large number of coupling pins and bolts were piled upon the rails at a curve, and the engineer saw the obstruction in time to stop the train and avert what might have been a disastrous wreck.

KILLED ON THE RAIL.

A Young Man Horribly Mutilated on the Mine Hill Road.

A young man named Ruch or Hoff, living at Glenwood, met a horrible death on the Mine Hill division of the P. & R. last evening. The unfortunate man who was about 21 years old, was struck by the passenger train running between Cresson and Minesville, at about 7:30 o'clock. He alighted from a coal train as the passenger train rounded a curve, and before he could get out of the way the engine struck him, cutting his body into pieces. The accident happened a short distance from the man's home. He lived with his parents, and was an only child.

Monster Petroleum Fire in Germany.

HAMBURG, June 1.—A monster conflagration, which raged for hours, started in the Bremen Trading company's petroleum tanks at Harburg last evening. The fire covered an enormous extent of ground. Thousands of barrels of petroleum, in addition to five tanks of the Bremen Trading company were destroyed. All the available fire engines and the whole of the Pioneer battalion were only able to protect the laborers' cottages. The Gaiser factory and the American company's petroleum depot are safe. The town is on the south bank of the Elbe, about six miles south of Hamburg, and has a population of about 18,000 largely given up to industrial pursuits.

The President's Return to Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The special Baltimore and Ohio train conveying the president and cabinet party from Secretary Gresham's funeral arrived here at 5:04 last evening, exactly on time. All the members of the cabinet save Secretaries Carlisle and Morton, together with Senators Mondaca and Bonero, representing the diplomatic corps, returned on the train. None of the cabinet will express any opinion as to who will be the late secretary's successor. Indeed, Postmaster General Wilson declared the subject had not been mentioned. The president went direct to Woodley, without stopping at the White House.

Greenhut Must Testify.

CHICAGO, June 1.—J. B. Greenhut, ex-president of the whisky trust, walked into the hands of the onmy and the jurisdiction of the United States court yesterday when he arrived from New York and went to the Great Northern hotel. For ten days detectives have been on Mr. Greenhut's trail, in order that when he came to Chicago he might be served with notice to appear before Master in Chancery Booth and tell all he knows about the untold doings of the old management. He arrived at the hotel in the morning, but escaped service until afternoon, when he was identified and the notice served.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Very Encouraging Reports from the Industrial World.

NEW YORK, June 1.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: More far reaching than any other change during the past week, if really warranted by facts, is the continued rise in prices of wheat and cotton. Real scarcity of either would affect all business. Happily, there is still room to hope that accounts of injury are greatly exaggerated, although there has been some evidence during the week that both the great crops have suffered more than at first appeared. Other changes are almost all favorable and some highly encouraging. Labor troubles are clearly less threatening. Monetary conditions are satisfactory, and the substantial increase in the commercial demand is a good sign.

The failures during the past week have been 215 in the United States, against 183 for the same week last year, and 34 in Canada against 27 last year. Bradstreet's review says: Reports from manufacturing industries at seventy-five cities east of the Rocky mountains show that more than 227 important manufacturing concerns started up between April 1 and a week ago, by reason of which 33,000 employes have secured work. But the additional and significant fact is found in the report that wages of no fewer than 178,000 industrial employes have been advanced within this period an average of 10 per cent., of whom six-sevenths received the advance without striking.

CLASH IN THE AMALGAMATED.

Advocate of a $4.50 Rate Prevents an Agreement with Employers.

CLEVELAND, June 1.—The session of the Amalgamated Association yesterday was decidedly stormy. Although the recommendation of the scale committee that the puddling scale be fixed at $4 was adopted early in the convention, a number of men who had been active in the agitation for a higher rate, and who were placed on the committee to confer with the manufacturers, broke over the traces and demanded a rate of $4.50.

This was flatly refused by the manufacturers, who asserted that the business improvement is yet incipient, and not such as to warrant the advance demanded. They intimated that if the association would decide on a $4 rate they would agree to sign a yearly scale, thus doing away with the time clause, by which it has been possible to terminate the scale at sixty days' notice, and which has always been very distasteful to the men.

It is a foregone conclusion that another conference will be held in Youngstown as soon as the convention adjourns. The finishers, who were also unable to accomplish anything because of the action of the puddlers, are very angry at the action taken by the faction which fought for a higher rate, and some lively times are expected before the close of the convention.

Corbett and Fitz May Fight in Canada.

MONTREAL, June 1.—There is a possibility of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight taking place in the immediate vicinity of Montreal. A syndicate, the names of the members of which are as yet a secret, has been formed for the purpose of offering a purse of $25,000 if the fight be pulled off here. They will guarantee that no one will interfere with it. Of course this means that the syndicate intend to buy out some municipal government of some small town near Montreal, but the interesting question may then arise whether the provincial government can interfere with municipal resolutions. An emissary of the syndicate left for the states yesterday.

The Collima is a complete loss unless some of its cargo can be recovered by divers, which will probably be attempted.

ORGANIZED FOR ARSON.

Confessions of Men Who Made Incendiarism a Profession.

WORKED ON SCIENTIFIC PLANS.

How the Firebugs Destroyed the Evidence of Their Crime—Insurance Adjusters Interested in the Work of the Gang Will be Arrested.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Morris Schoenholz, who was arrested recently on the charge of arson, has made a statement to the police which will probably result in the arrest of a dozen or more insurance adjusters. It is alleged that Schoenholz confessed to firing at least half a dozen houses in this city and Brooklyn by prearrangements for the insurance. One "fire" in Yonkers was all prepared and ready, when it was prevented by accident. The fires that "banned out" were all set with benzine on the bladder plan. This plan is as simple as it is effective. The doomed store or flat is sprinkled with alcohol and a bladder filled with the inflammable stuff is suspended from the ceiling. Then it is set on fire, and when the flames reach the bladder there is an explosion which destroys the property and every vestige of the manner in which the fire was set.

A similar result is obtained by turning on all the gas and letting one jet burn. The explosive point is reached in due time. These are flash fires that so long puzzled police and firemen. Morris Schoenholz was the expert who did the business, but he was himself simply the tool of a gang of fire adjusters.

Another member of the gang, named Hirschkopf, has also made a confession. The firebugs, according to Hirschkopf, are oath bound and have regular headquarters. The conspiracy is known as the "dark secret," and each member was duly initiated. Schoenholz is said to have been the head, or "chief mechanic," of the gang which fired the west side apartment houses, the headquarters of which was in a saloon in Suffolk street.

According to Hirschkopf, who fled to San Francisco at the time of his indictment several months ago, Schoenholz tried to burn to death Simon Rosenbaum, who was suspected of betraying the conspiracy, in a fire which he started at Lynn, Mass.

Rosenbaum, who was formerly the "chief mechanic" of the Isaacs gang, was frightfully burned, and upon his recovery the principal witness against Adjutant Grauer on his trial last February. Rosenbaum then testified that he knew one member of the gang who was driven insane by torture, because his fellow conspirators suspected he was a traitor.

Crisis in the Olneyville Strike.

PROVIDENCE, June 1.—The strike committee spent the day in discussing the situation, chiefly considering the approaching crisis when the mills reopen on Monday morning. The committee claim to have been greatly helped just at this time by the increase in wages at the Washington mills at Lawrence, Mass., which manufactures the same class of goods as the Riverside mills at Olneyville. The strikers' committee state that the manufacturers have sent agents to Quebec to procure non-union French workers to insure the running of the mills on Monday. The committee has engaged a lawyer, and if any foreign labor is imported, the manufacturers will be prosecuted under the alien contract labor law.

Ohio Will Send a Solid Delegation.

CLEVELAND, June 1.—No man stands closer to Governor McKinley or is more interested in his candidacy for the presidency than Hon. M. A. Hanna, of this city. Speaking to an Associated Press representative concerning the speculation as to the effect of the Foraker victory in the Republican state convention upon McKinley's prospects he said: "They will not be affected in the least. Governor McKinley has more friends in Ohio now than he ever had before, and he has more in all the other states of the Union. This talk about a divided Ohio delegation in the national Republican convention is all bosh. Ohio will send a solid and loyal McKinley delegation to the national convention."

Venezuela in Mourning for Gresham.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In addition to other expressions of regret from nearly every nation, Sir Julian Pauncefote has notified Mr. Uhl that he has received a telegram from Earl Kimberly, desiring him to express to the president and the United States government the deep regret with which the British government has heard of Secretary Gresham's death. Mr. Bartleman, United States charge at Caracas, cables from that city that Venezuela renders special homage to the memory of Gresham, and has decreed three days public mourning.

Columbia's Claim for Damages.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—General Rengifo, the representative here of the republic of Columbia, expects to present a claim against the United States for damages sustained by Colombia by reason of President Harrison's proclamation of tariff retaliation. General Rengifo is not able to estimate the amount of the claim, as he has not yet received instruction from his government, but he says there is no doubt of the fact that the claim will be presented.

Advances in the Price of Coke.

PITTSBURGH, June 1.—It is generally understood here that furnace coke for July delivery has been advanced to $1.50 a ton, and it is rumored that another advance will be made in July. The present price is $1.35 a ton. The advance will cause a similar advance in all the iron and steel products, and is regarded as an indication that further advances will be made in the price of labor.

Baby Butchered by a Boy.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—The 9-months-old baby of George Simpson, who resides near Marion station, Somerset county, was horribly butchered by a colored boy. The parents of the child had engaged a colored girl to nurse it, and while they were absent the colored girl took it to her home, where a knife cut it nearly to pieces with a knife.

Mafioso Murder in Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—Harry Parker, a 16-year-old colored boy, known as "Diamond Kid," was standing on one of the principal streets here when an unknown white man walked up and stabbed him to the heart. The boy fell dead. His murderer walked calmly away.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The House Sounds the Death Knell of Apportionment Bills.

HARRISBURG, June 1.—There will be no apportionment by this legislature. This was settled yesterday afternoon by the defeat in the house of the congressional, senatorial and legislative bills. The entire afternoon session was consumed in the consideration of these three measures. The test vote was on the question, Shall the house proceed to consideration of the legislative bill? The motion was carried by a vote of 53 to 33, nineteen Democrats voting with the opponents of the bill. The measure was then voted down by 78 yeas to 88 nays. The senatorial and congressional apportionment bills were called up in turn and defeated by practically the same vote. The defeat of these measures is regarded as a victory of the friends of Senator Quay.

The bill appropriating $10,000 for the removal of the Eastern penitentiary provoked much discussion, but it passed finally with only four dissenting votes. The first bill taken up at the morning was the general appropriation measure. It carries a total expenditure of $15,500,000, the same as appropriated two years ago. The schools are given $11,000,000. The bill was read the second time and then sent back to committee for amendment. A number of appropriation bills passed finally.

The appellate court bill passed finally in the house last night by a vote of 143 to 23. Mr. Merrick, the legal oracle of the farmers, made a strong fight against the measure, but was beaten at every turn.

McCook, Abner McKinley, Cornelius Vanderbilt and Charles C. Beaman. Ex-President Harrison was invited, but sent word that he could not attend.

Seriously Injured by a Horse.

STOCKTON, N. J., June 1.—While a little daughter of Mr. William Mann, of South Rosedale, was chasing chickens from the stable of her father's residence, a horse became frightened and in its plunge knocked the little one down. The child's mother rushed from the house, and in attempting to rescue her daughter she, too, was knocked down. Neighbors rescued her, but not until her leg had been so badly broken and crushed that Dr. Martinale, who was called to attend the case, fears that amputation may be necessary. The child escaped injury.

More Chicago Heat Prostrations.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Thursday was the hot test day Chicago has ever known in the month of May, but yesterday surpassed it. The mercury at 2 o'clock stood at 95 in the shade, and this temperature was maintained until after the sun had gone down. A large number of prostrations were reported, among them being: Alfred Kailon, John Walsh, laborer; Charles Storeh, laborer; Thomas Keran, laborer; D. Wirnenski, laborer; W. E. Chitty and Bennett Jones; Mrs. Mary Arndt, aged 49, died within an hour. The condition of the first five is serious.

Jockey Killed in a Race.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—Several accidents occurred in the last race at the St. Asaph track yesterday. Dick Corbly, a white jockey who was riding Kirkover, was killed. The horse fell and two horses immediately behind fell over Corbly's horse. The boy probably struck one of the fence rails, as an ugly gash had been cut in his head and his neck was broken. Charlie R. was one of the horses that fell on Kirkover, and Jockey McLaughlin had his collar bone broken. The horse Punch fell and was afterward destroyed.

DENVER, June 1.—The storms in Colorado on Thursday were the worst known for years. The entire country has been soaked with a heavy rain. There is four feet of snow at Dillon, a mining camp in the mountains. Water is so deep in the streets of Holyoke that a rowboat had made trips up and down the streets. Small lakes have been formed near Akron, and the streams are swollen. The storm means millions to the farmers, coming at a most opportune time.
