CONGRATULATIONS.

Complimentary Remarks on the "Herald" Souvenir by Our Exchanges.

The EVENING HERALD, of Shenandoah, celebrated its 25th anniversary last Tuesday by issuing a souvenir edition of sixteen pages profusely illustrated with beautiful half-tone engravings. Its contents, which are very select, contain a complete history of Shenandeah and Schuylkill county, together with all the biographies of its leading business men and officials. The EVENING HERALD made its first appearance on May 28, 1870, as a weekly under the co-partnership of T. J. Foster and H. C. Boyer. Mr. Boyer has been sole proprictor since 1885, ably and faithfully assisted by his sou, J. M. Boyer, who have brought the HERALD to its present prosperous stage. We hope the HERALD will celebrate many more happy anniversaries and accept our hearty congratulations .-Jefferson Democrat, Pottsville.

The Shenandoah HERALD celebrated its silver anniversary on Tuesday last by Issuing a sixteen page paper, printed upon good book paper and well illustrated with good half tone cuts of members of the staff and mechanical departments; prominent citizens of Schuylkill county and the leading industries of that vicinity. The issue speaks for itself and Publisher Beyer is deserving of all the congratulations he is now receiving. We have seen several so-called industrial editions, but none of them are so marked with the stamp of industry as the edition of the HERALD, The people of Shenandoah have many reasons to be proud of the HERALD,-Mt. Carmel Item.

MERE MENTION.

Store rooms are getting scarce now.

Improve your properties. It will pay. There are lots of houses in town that could be made more valuable and convenient at the expense of a few hundred dollars.

The theatre will be put in good shape before the amusement season opens.

Our local plumbers will have plenty of work when property holders make connections with the new water main,

Wonder if the man discovered in the yard at the rear of the Hyde store is the arms one that the Bamberger family claims the HERALD just before the fire?

The only baby medicine-Luke' Syrup. The Herald's Souvenir.

A few copies of the HERALD's silver anniversary souvenir edition remain in the hands of the publishers. They were saved from the fire and are in excellent condition. In addition to their intrinsic worth they will be valuable as relies of the fire. First come, first served.

EVENING HERALD THE QUAY COUNTY BILL

It Passes in the House and the Wrong is Achieved.

OUR HOSPITAL TO GET $10,000

The Children's Home is Voted $1,500. The Judges' Retirement Bill A Special Order for To-Day.

HARRISBURG, June 6.—The House has passed the bill creating the new County of passed the bill creating the new County of Quay. The opponents of the bill, led by Mr. Meredith, of the Lehigh Valley Railroad; Losch and Whitehouse, of Schuylkill, and others, last night declared they had a decided majority pledged against the bill. The Quay 'orders' in favor of the measure were again sent out this morning, when it was determined by the friends of when it was determined by the friends of the bill to take the "bull" by the horns and bring it up. A close poll of the House made this morning disclosed the fact that the vote would be sensationally

The bill was called up by Mr. Jeffrey, of Luzerne, the only member from that county, which it is proposed to divide, who favored the passage. There was no dis-cussion; the vote was immediately proceeded with. The Democratic side split, the majority, however, voting no. Mr. Magee divided his Allegheny delegation, but the vote shows seven votes for and five against in the Allegheny delegation of those who voted. All but five of the Philadelphia members were pledged to vote in favor of

It required one hundred and three votes to pass it finally, and when the total was footed it was seen that it was one bundred and two votes, lacking one of a constitutional majority. The House was thrown into a stat- of excitement. The Schuylkill and Luzerae members, who had been working day and night to kill the measure, were on their feet objecting to any member attempting to have his vote recorded or who desired to change his vote.

Mr. Smith, of Bedford, threw the oppo-nents of the bill into convulsions by chang-ing his vote from no to yes, declaring that he had voted under a misapprehension.
This gave the bill the necessary 103 votes and made Quay county a fixed fact.
Strennous objections were made to Mr.
Smith's change; but Speaker Walton decided that the member had a constitutional right to so change, and suppressed the ob-jecting Schuyikill members who were franically objecting. The bill now goes to the Governor.

REGULAR PROCEEDINGS.

HARRISBURG, June 6 .- The Senate met and at once began the work of passing House appropriation bills. These passed finally as amended, and were returned to the House for concurrence; Home for the training in spe ch of deaf children before they are of school age, $20,000; Pennsylvania Memorial Home of the Women's Relief Corps at Brookville, $7,000; House of Refuge in the Eastern Unstrict, $155,000. District, $155,000.

SUPERIOR COURT BILL PASSED. At 12 o'clock the Superior Court bill was taken up on third reading and final passage. Senator Green said the Democrats must refuse to support the bill unless the minority was given fair representation in the new court. He declared that even on the basis of a Republican majority in the State of 230,000 the minority was entitled to two judges, and he asked unanimous consent to amend the bill. Consent was refused. Mr. Green then moved to go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of amendment. This was voted down. The roll-call showed 38 Senstors for the bill and only 6 against. Of the latter five were Democrats and General the minority was given fair representation latter five were Democrats, and General Gobin made the sixth.

OUR HOSPITAL GETS $10,000. These House Appropriation bills passed finally unamended and were sent to the Go ernor for his consideration: Chester County Hospital, $3,000; Pottstown Hospital, $17,500; Pottsville Hospital, $10,000.

These House bills also passed finally unamended and were sent to the Governor:

Incorporating companies for dealing in all kinds of goods at wholesale; for the removal of the Eastern Peniteutiary; relating to the indigent insane of poor districts. The bill to pay A. Merrill $150 for attendance upon Representative Tewkesbury during his illness in 1893 was defeated—yeas 20, nays 8—less than a constitutional majority woting for it.

The Governor has approved the bill creating the office of Deputy Auditor-General. The Governor sent to the Senate these nominations of Notaries: Philadel-phia, E. J. Lindsay, W. S. L. Rhondes; Chester County, Charles C. Hadley, Adjourned 1.15 until this afternoon at 3

THE JUDGES' RETIREMENT BILL.

When the Scoate re-convened at 3 o'clock the Jadges' Retirement bill was reported from committee and read a second time. A special order was fixed for the third reading and final passage of the bill tomorrow marning at 11 o'clock.

Among the House appropriation bills passed finally unamended and sent to the Governor for consideration was the Home for Children, Pottsville, $1,500.

After transacting other unimportant business the Scoate at 4 50 P. M. adjourned until this evening at 8 o'clock. When the Scoate re-convened at 3 o'clock until this evening at 8 o'clock.

At the evening session of the Senate the Revenue bill was reported from the committee by Sonator Grady, read a second time and then recommitted for further hearing to-morrow morning.

The Conference Committee report on the Conference Committee report on the Judicial Apportionment bill was agreed to. The report of the committee to investigate the Norristown Asylum was made a special order for to-merrow morning at 10 30 and the Senate then at 8 40 adjourned until to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

In the House, The House met at 9 o'clock this morn ing and began consideration of a mixed calendar of S-nate bills. Senate bill regulating the issue and transfer of certificates of stock by companies incorporated under the laws of the Commonwealth, which was defeated and reconsidered, passed finally as amended. Sen-ate bill to prevent the issue of policies of insurance by persons, partnerships or other associations not incorporated was indefinitely postponed.

Mr. Jeffrey (Luzerne) called up the Quay
County bill, to erect a new county of portions of Schuylkill and Luzerne counties. After brief discussion the roll was called, and to the surprise of its friends the bill passed finally.
At 1 10 P. M. the House adjourned until

THE APPELLATE COURT BILL. The House met at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The Senate returned to the House Appellate Court bill with amendment, changing the name of the court to superior and increasing the number of judges from five to seven. On concurring in the Senate amendment the year were 119 and the

The House concurred in the Senate amendment to the bill removing the East-ern Penitentiary. The amendment merely changes the phraseology of the bill. The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment to the bill making an appropriation to the deaf and dumb institution at Philadelphia, which increased the amount $6,000. The House at 6 o'clock adjourned till 7.30.

The House meet at 7.30 o'clock. No business of any great importance was transacted. Twenty Senat- bills to grant pensions to members of the National Guard who contracted disease at Homestead and Gettysburg, which came up for final passage, were voted down by the House, which adjourned at 11.15 to meet at 9 A. Style is a different thing from fash ion. The two ought to go together, but sometimes they do not. There's mighty little style about some fashions. Real style improves any one's appearance, but some fashions would make appearance, but some fashions would make an angel look silly. All our goods are right in this season's latest fashions, and, better still, they are "in true style." Every pattern in our stock has been selected for that genuine artistic quality which causes our friends to exclaim, "So becoming to you." Mourning goods a specialty.
