THURSTON'S SUCCESSOR.

William R. Castle to Represent the Hawaiian Republic.

A STRONG FRIEND OF ANNEXATION.

It Is Believed the Selection of the New Republic's Foreign Minister Is to Emphasize the Desire for Annexation to Uncle Sam's Domain.

San Francisco, June 10.—The steamer Monowi has arrived from Honolulu with Hawaiian advices to June 1. The most important is the announcement that William R. Castle has been appointed Ha-walian minister to Washington in place of L. A. Thurston. He will not leave for Washington until Aug. 1. Mr. Castle was one of the commissioners sent to Washington to arrange for annexation as soon as the monarchy was overthrown.

There had been suggestions advanced that the Hawalian minister of foreign affairs would be sent here to represent the young republic, the appointment of so important a personage being considered possible on account of the efforts to kindle a sentiment in favor of annexation.

Mr. Castle is well remembered here as ne of the commissioners who started for Washington as soon as the monarchy had been overthrown in the fruitless attempt to secure annexation. He has a wide acquaintance in congressional circles made on that visit. He is a native of the islands, born of missionary stock, a lawyer by pro-fession, and a large owner of real estate.

The designation of Mr. Castle came as a surprise to the diplomatic corps. It had been rather generally presumed in Washington that Mr. Frank P. Hastings, who came to Washington as secretary of legation, and has acted charge d' affairs since the return of Mr. Thurston to Hawall, would be promoted to the position practically made vacant by Secretary of State Gresham's letter asking for Thurston's re-call. Mr. Hastings is adapted for the diplomatic career by his training which began as an attache of the United States state department in Washington, and is an American by sympathy and education

Evicting the Striking Miners. Welch, W. Va., June 10.—Striking miners in the Pocahontas region of Virginia are being evicted from the houses they occupy in large numbers, and the excitement there has been intense. The of-floers chop their way through the barricaded doors and remove the furniture to the street. One woman, a Hungarian, who fought to prevent her furniture being removed, was struck with a hatchet by a constable and seriously injured. Five men acting as agents for W. G. Baldwin, the Norfolk and Western rallway detective, were arrested for trying to compel by force some of the strikers to go to work. It is feared that serious re-sults may be the outcome.

Tarred, Feathered and Evicted.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 10 .- Fifty masked men, heavily armed, took Joseph Fosatti and Robie Allen, a colored woman who runs a house of ill repute, and applied to them a coat of tar and feathers early yesterday morning. Their clothing was torn off and a heavy coat of tar and feathers applied, and the two ordered to leave the city. Although Fosatti is the son of a very respectable family, and has had more than the average advantage in life, he was persistent in living with this woman and on Friday they went to Dayton, where they were married. Mrs. D. Fosatti, the mother of young Fosatti, is prostrated with grief and is in a precarious condi-

HAZLETON, Pa., June 10 .- A Pennsylvania railroad train at Idlewild ran down an Italian, cutting his leg off. The man at once drew a penknife and out his throat. This act was performed before the scores of passengers on the train. The superin-Ex-Postmaster Bide Wilde, of Hazleton, told the officials that they were committing an inhuman act by passing the unfortunate man. The train was not stopped, however, until Halifax was reached, and a physician was sent down from there.

A MONSTROUS PROPOSAL

How the Sultan of Turkey Will Demand Payment of Taxes.

TO BE STARVED INTO SUBMISSION.

Nestorian Christians Who Are a Race of Mendicants Will be Deprived of Food by Soldiers, Who Will Prevent Supplies from Entering Their Territory.

tunnel, where all the men were quickly LONDON, June 10.—The special correspondent of the Associated Press, under date of Djelfa, Prussia, May 7, writes as follows concerning affairs in Armenia: The Turkish government, it is said, has iust taken the preliminary steps in what may result in a massacre of Nestorian Christians in the mountains of Kurdistan. It is asserted that the government has given orders to starve the independent tribes of Nestorians in the mountain region immediately west of Gawar, which may be described as lying about midway between Mosul and Lake Van, about fifty miles west of the Persian frontier.

The order, it is stated, are that no food supplies of any kind shall be allowed to enter the territory of the independent tribes, and measures are said to have been taken to enforce these orders to the letter. This action is apparently taken as a means of compelling the independent tribes to submit to Turkish authority and to pay the taxes demanded by the Turkish govern-ment, and is regarded as the first serious attempt that the Turks have made to extort taxes from the independent tribes.

From the earliest times in the history of the Ottoman empire these tribes have been independent of Turkish rule. have paid no taxes and they have acknowledged no allegiance to the Turkish government. All Turkish officials have been ex-cluded from the territory of the tribes, and tax gatherers having regard for their own lives have let the independent people alone in their mountain fastnesses. The presence of these independents has, according to report, always been a thorn in the side of the Turkish government, but as it was practically impossible to subdue the half savage mountaineers by force of arms, no attempt has been made to discipline them.

The present course of the government is The present course of the government is taken, in some quarters as an indication that the sultan has set on foot a systematic persecution of Christians in all parts of the empire. The fact that the independents pay no taxes is looked upon by the opponents of the porte as merely a plausible excuse for the government's ac-

But why the sultan should come upon these half wild people for taxes now, after an independence since the Babylonian era is not easily explained. The sultan has plenty of opportunity for knowing that the independent Nestorians are too poor to pay taxes, and that many of them make a living by going down into the villages of their less wretchedly poor fellow countrymen and begging. There is one large village inhabited entirely by beggars. These poor creatures, according to the story, are to be starved because they will not shore with the sulface. not share with the sultan of Turkey the scraps of bread, the refuse bits of meat and the odds and ends which they obtain by

The Rupture With Turkey.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 10.-Additional reports received indicate that the Moosh commission closed on Friday, so far as the work of the European delegates is con-cerned. They were compelled to tell the Turkish delegates that they could have nothing more to do with them. The rupture between the Turkish and European commissioners was caused by the refusal of the Turks, on purely farcical grounds, to hear important witnesses upon matters pertaining to the questions at issue. It was syident that the Turks were afraid that the tissue of falsehoods that they have thrown around the situation in Armenia would be broken down.
