Only Seven Horses Entered for the Great Event.

GOSSIP ANENT THE STARTERS.

Consensus of Opinion Among Turfmen Is That the Race Will be Between Sir Walter, Domino and Lazzarone—The Purse Smaller Than Ever Before.

NEW YORK, June 15.—This will be "get-away" day of the Coney Island Jockey club's spring meeting, and the attraction on the program will be the historic Suburban, the greatest equine contest of the racing year. The Suburban of this year is of less value than ever before. This was made necessary by the uncertainty that surrounded racing when the stake was offered. However, the horse owner does not value the Suburban for its money worth. It is the glory and honor of winning this great handicap that is coveted. In the Suburban there generally comes together the flower of the land, so far as racing stock goes. Much of that interest is wanting this year. The knowledge that probably the weakest and smallest field in the history of the race will face the starter may keep the attendance from reaching the average.

Following are the entries: Sir Walter, Domino, Rubicon, Lazzarone, Sister Mary, Declare and Song and Dance.

The withdrawal of Ramapo has been a great factor in the decrease of interest in the race. Gideon and Daly express disappointment at their inability to send their horse to the post because of a split hoof, got his last trial, as they thought he would win in spite of his big penalty. Of the seven remaining entries three are confessedly out for second or third money.

Song and Dance is the lightweight of the party, having to take up but nine-and-a-half pounds, although with Griffin in his saddle he will have to carry several pounds over weight. This colt will carry the Belmont colors, but few think he has any chance on his last two races. He ran and won on Monday last, but there was a poor lot against him, and on Thursday he was beaten by Our Jack in a hard race. It was thought that he would have a much better chance if he had not had to run so hard Thursday, but now few will care to throw their money away by betting on him to be even third.

Declare, too, was only decided upon as a starter after Ramapo had been scratched. Mr. Dwyer thinking that he had a good chance to be third at least, and if the track should happen to be wet there was no telling where he might land. Rubicon has not shown his ability to go a distance thus far, and McDonald hopes for one of the places after the winner. Sister Mary, a most erratic performer, has not shown that she belongs in the class with the others. Third money, however, is worth winning in these days of small purses.

This leaves Sir Walter, Domino and Lazzarone as the most likely contenders. Sir Walter is the top weight, but he has time and time again shown his ability to carry weight and win in fast company over a distance of ground. He was third in the Brooklyn handicap and should have been further up in the race, if trials are of any account. It was his first race of the year, however, and he needs considerable work to make him fit to run. He has been raced now and is fully fit to run for his life. This means a good deal with a horse of the quality of Sir Walter, and with Dwyer, who will be ridden by the boy who has been on his back in all of his races, a good point in his favor. He is one of the gamest horses that ever looked through a bridle and can be depended on to exert every ounce of strength before he gives it up.

Lazzarone was the second horse in the Brooklyn handicap, and takes up 115 pounds. This is two more pounds than he carried then, and it should not make any difference to him. He was, however, a disappointment to his owner after that race, for he ran twice and was nowhere.

Domino is the other odds-on favorite. He has to take up 125 pounds, with Taral on his back. According to his work he looks like a sure winner, and few of the trainers at the track are willing to concede his defeat. The few who have pinned their faith to Sir Walter or Lazzarone declare that Domino is nothing but a sprinter and never will be.

Domino has raced but three times in his life at over a mile, and did not cover himself with glory either time. Once at Chillicothe he tried a mile and a half, but was last. That race, however, was not a test of his ability, for the horses were an hour and a half at the post. Then he ran against Henry of Navarre at a mile and an eighth a dead heat, although Navarre should have won, for he was badly ridden. The other time was at a mile and an eighth, when he was badly beaten by Henry of Navarre and Clifford, and he was the favorite each of the three times.

Serious Charges Against Railroad Officials.

BOSTON, June 15.—Before the railroad commission Director Charles A. Sinclair, of the Worcester, Nashua and Rochester railroad, created a sensation by stating that the road has issued $71,500 in bonds since June 30 of last year without the approval of the railroad commissioners, and that his predecessors in office had indulged in systematic stealings, amounting to 3 per cent a year on the stock of the company. "I do not think you are in any position," Mr. Sinclair, to charge others with stealing." Chairman Sanford said, "and I think you had better withdraw that statement." Mr. Sinclair withdrew his charge under advice from President Stoddard.

Collins' Officers Declared Incompetent.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 15.—George D. Ross, formerly a seaman in the United States navy, was the principal witness at yesterday's Collins investigation. He thought Captain Taylor and the other officers incompetent, adding that no effort had been made to save the passengers or even warn them of danger, and no effort had been made to set sail aft to steady the vessel. He characterized the statement of Third Officer Hansen that the boats were in proper condition for lowering as a tissue of lies.

Enlarging the Atlanta Exposition.

ATLANTA, June 15.—The management of the Cotton States and International exposition announces that it has been found necessary to build an annex of 25,000 square feet to the Transportation building in order to accommodate the exhibits of locomotives and trains.

SPEEDY TENNESSEE JUSTICE.

A Double Murder Quickly Followed by the Death of the Murderer.

NATCHEZ, Miss., June 15.—As the result of the infatuation of R. W. Dawson, a white man, for Virgie Brooks, a coal black negro wench, three persons are dead and a negro boy is at the hospital, mortally wounded.

Dawson was a shanty boat fisherman, well and unfavorably known in this vicinity on account of his connection with the woman and his general hard character. The woman had been living with him, but left him some time since and took up quarters on the Natchez Island plantation, owned by James Conley, and managed by his son-in-law, Frank Macklin. Dawson followed the woman and made himself so obnoxious that on Thursday he was ordered off the plantation and forbidden to return. He came to Natchez, secured a Winchester rifle and yesterday reappeared at the home of his negro paramour on the island. Macklin learned of his presence, went to the woman's house and again ordered Dawson from the premises.

Dawson started away as though to obey, but on reaching the gate turned suddenly and fired at Macklin with the Winchester, the ball passing through the latter's thigh. Macklin, who was unarmed, turned to run behind the house, but Dawson fired again just as his back was turned, the ball entering Macklin's left shoulder and passing through the heart. Dawson then reentered the house and shot the woman through the breast, killing her instantly. The same bullet passed through the body of the boy, Robert Carter, probably fatally injuring him. Dawson then made towards Louisiana.

A posse from Vidalia, headed by Magistrate Brady, soon overtook the murderer and filled him with bullets. Magistrate Brady empaneled a jury, held an inquest on the spot, rendered a verdict exonerating those engaged in the killing of Dawson, and the body was then buried where it fell and as it lay.

Fourteen Killed in a Death Chamber.

VIENNA, June 15.—Seventy people gathered yesterday in the death chamber of a young man at Rovigno, a seaport town of Austria, on the west coast of Istria, in the vicinity of the Adriatic sea. The flooring of the chamber collapsed, and all fell to the ground floor and thence into a deep cellar, the walls of the house falling on top of the unfortunate victims. All the inhabitants of the town hurried to the spot, the fire brigade was called out and the soldiers in the town also rushed to the scene. All united in efforts to remove the debris. This being done revealed the fact that fourteen of the mourners had been killed and thirty injured. The unhappy young woman who had been the fiancée of the deceased man was found dead in the ruins close to the coffin.

The National Bimetallist League.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 15.—The movement inaugurated by prominent Democrats for the formation of a silver organization within the lines of the Democratic party is believed to be a step of the greatest importance in the campaign on the currency question. There were present at the meeting the Democratic senators and others who were here attending the silver convention. Senators Harris, Jones and Turpie were named as a committee to select members of a national executive committee, consisting of one man from each state. Senator Harris emphasizes the fact that the National Bimetallist league is to be a Democratic organization.

Marti's Probable Successor.

TAMPA, Fla., June 15.—Colonel Figueroa, responding to an inquiry about Jose Marti, said: "I have been seriously considering the unfortunate news for the past two weeks. The persistence of the Spanish alarmed me at first, and now, in the absence of news from him, I feel convinced that Marti has died for the cause he loved so well. The revolution, however, will go on just the same. While we may have lost a good man, the cause still exists, and the flag will be pushed vigorously. Tomas Estrada Palma, of New York, will undoubtedly be chosen to fill Marti's place, and will do it ably."

An Infernal Machine in the Mail.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 15.—An attempt was made to murder the postmaster at Fishers, a suburb north of this city, by sending him a dynamite infernal machine through the mails. The machine contained enough dynamite to have blown up a steamboat, but fortunately the postmaster failed to observe the caution on the box to open at a given end, and opening it at the other end the fuse was not ignited. The post-office authorities think they know the person who mailed the machine. It was sent from Cincinnati.

Eight Prisoners Escape.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 15.—Eight prisoners, one of them George Stefanke, an alleged murderer, escaped from the Midland county jail at 3 o'clock in the morning. The men charged with incendiaries, Frank Williams, Joseph Kelly and Louis Fisher, procured knives, with which they cut their way through the roof, liberating themselves, Stefanke, John Clark, Thomas Kinsey, John Murphy and John Costello. With bed sheets made into ropes they lowered themselves to the ground and escaped.

A Statue to Oliver Cromwell.

LONDON, June 15.—The proposal of the government to erect a statue to Oliver Cromwell was adopted in the house of commons by a vote of 152 to 137. The Right Hon. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader in the house of commons, the bulk of the Conservatives and all the Irish Nationalists voted against the adoption of the proposition, and the passage of the motion was only secured by the support of the Orangemen.

Trolley Accident at Cumberhead, Md.

CUMBERHEAD, Md., June 14.—A motor car last evening jumped the track in the Narrows. Lewis Isaacs was probably fatally injured, a son of Chief Judge A. Hunter Boyd had a leg broken and hip dislocated, Motorman Green, Miss Juty and several others were painfully hurt.

Cuban Insurgent Leaders Surrender.

HAVANA, June 15.—A dispatch from Matanzas says that eight insurgents, including the leaders Ricardo, Vilalta and Pedro Gabrer, and three Havana students, surrendered to the authorities at that place yesterday.

The Weather.

CORNELL THE VICTOR.

Pennsylvania Freshmen Defeated by the Ithaca Boys.

FINISHED NINE LENGTHS AHEAD.

The Winning Oarsmen Not Compelled to Exert Themselves to a Great Extent. Took a Further Spin Down the Lake After Their Victory.

ITHACA, N. Y., June 15.—The first annual race between the freshmen oarsmen of Cornell university and the University of Pennsylvania was rowed last evening at Cayuga lake over the two-mile course on the western side of the lake, and Cornell won by nine lengths in 11 min., 18 3-5 sec.

At 6:17:10 the signal was given and the crews started, Pennsylvania taking the water first. Cornell, after a half dozen strokes, shot a length ahead. Both crews did considerable splashing. Cornell rowed forty-four strokes and Pennsylvania thirty-eight. At the first half mile Pennsylvania lost her stroke, but caught it again. Cornell was then a length ahead, with Pennsylvania rowing thirty-nine strokes. The Pennsylvanians did a great deal more splashing than Cornell. Cornell's machinery like motion soon commenced to fall.

The rowing of Pennsylvania was very maddened during the second half mile, the men being all doubled up. Cornell passed the mile point a full two lengths ahead. Pennsylvania now commenced to row steeper, but Cornell held the stroke at forty-two to Pennsylvania's thirty-six. Pennsylvania finally stopped her splashing, while Cornell did some splashing, keeping her stroke up, however. At the mile and a half point Cornell had increased her advantage to five lengths ahead, while her stroke had been increased to forty-six. At the close Pennsylvania spurred a little after Cornell, and made a slight gain.

Cornell finished in magnificent style, each man working with accuracy and with a stroke of forty-six, full nine lengths or more ahead of the Quakers. Pennsylvania crossed the line exactly thirty-two seconds later, and as soon as she reached the other side No. 2 in the Pennsylvania boat caught a crab, and his oar was out of the race for a dozen strokes, thereby losing three additional lengths. He was apparently suffering from exhaustion.

After passing between the flags Cornell stopped for a moment, but, picking her stroke again, took a further spin down the lake as though the race had not given them enough daily practice.

Wisconsin Collegians Win.

MADISON, Wis., June 15.—The University of Wisconsin eight won a brilliant victory over the Delaware crew of Chicago on Lake Monka last evening. The course was two miles straight away. The Delaware led for the first mile, but the Wisconsin collegians then passed them and came in more than a length ahead. The winners used the Australian stroke, while the Delawares employed the quick American movement. The time was 12:25.

Forger Moore's Confession.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Albert S. Moore, whose forgeries started some of the best banks in this city, has made confession of his wrongdoing. "I first forged three years ago," he told a reporter. "I had been speculating in the market and was long on cotton. Late one evening my broker came to be and told me that I would have to put up more margin at once. My failure to keep the contract I had with him would have necessitated his failure. In an unfortunate moment I decided that I could raise the money on a bad paper. From that time on things went bad with me. I had to keep on selling bad paper to raise money to keep myself up. The report that the aggregate is over $100,000 is not correct. I am positive that there was not over $75,000.

The Manitoba School Controversy.

WINNIPEG, June 15.—Archbishop Langevin, when asked for his opinion on Manitoba's reply to the remedial order, said: "I am sorry for the local government's bad will. It is rather strange that after five years of public discussion their memorial should blantly charge the Ottawa government with ignorance, and claim for themselves the monopoly of knowledge. I trust that the government and parliament of Canada will sustain the judgment of the privy council of England, and stand by the constitution of the country." A caucus of the opposition members will be held Monday, when a plan of action will be decided upon in reference to the debate on the motion pertaining to the schools.

New Jersey Officials Indicted.

TRENTON, June 15.—The Mercer county grand jury presented Justice Gummere with a batch of indictments, which include sixteen in connection with the state house frauds. Prosecutor Stockton refused to give the names of those indicted. The charges will be presented next Tuesday. Prosecutor Stockton admitted that Secretary of State Kelsey was not indicted. John Collins was indicted for murder in the first degree for the shooting of Frederick Ohl, the Princeton student. The grand jury made a long presentment on the state house frauds.

A Noted Stallion Dead.

LACON, Ill., June 14.—Knowles' Light of the West, an imported shire stallion, valued at $10,000, died yesterday. The horse took first premium at the World's Columbian exposition. It was one of the best known stallions in America, having been exhibited in every horse show since 1890. Breeders considered Light of the West the best draft stallion in America.

Fatal Storms in Austria-Hungary.

VIENNA, June 15.—Thunder storms and lightning continue with fatal results in different parts of Austria-Hungary. Two peasants were killed on Thursday near Funkirchen, and two girls were killed, ten persons injured and 135 cattle destroyed between Bokes and Casaba, in Hungary.

The Decrease in Immigration.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—A report from the bureau of statistics shows that the number of immigrants who arrived during May was 49,144, an increase over May, 1894, of about 16,000. During the eleven months ending with May there was a falling off of about 45,500.

Hazing Students Suspended.

ALBION, Mich., June 15.—Six students of Albion college have been suspended for participation in the ducking of two students who persisted in "roasting" the athletic teams of the college.

Judge Pershing Should Not Resign.

The Pottsville Republican denies that the United Press sent out the dispatch that Judge Pershing would resign his seat upon the bench in consequence of ill health and the failure of the Judiciary Retiring bill, and declares that the dispatch was written in Philadelphia. At the same time the Republican calls upon Judge Pershing to resign, because Judge Weidman is sick and Judge Bechtel is in danger of breaking down. We fail to perceive that the demand is a legitimate one.

There will be some difficulty in showing that a great and wealthy Commonwealth like Pennsylvania, rich enough to create a Superior Court with seven judges at an estimated expense of $100,000 annually, can, with good grace, demand that one of the judges shall sacrifice himself for the good of the State when the State is perfectly competent to care for himself and has refused to do so. The demand is the refinement of selfishness. It asks that one individual shall assume the duty of five millions. If the representatives of five millions knowing the situation and able to provide the remedy insist on taking the narrowest views of the Judiciary Retiring bill, Judge Pershing, of Schuylkill, will be justified in the minds of thousands of people in refusing to immolate himself upon the altar so selfishly and shortsightedly prepared for him.

It is to be hoped that Judge Pershing will not resign. The situation in Schuylkill county is the direct result of the refusal of the rural members of the Legislature to pass the Judiciary Retiring bill. It would be better that the condition should be endured for two years longer, when a different Legislature, with, it is to be hoped, better ideas of sound public policy, may repair the indifference and neglect of the one which has just adjourned.

Those who never read the advertisements in their newspapers miss more than they presume. Jonathan Kenison of Bolin, Worth county, Iowa, who had been troubled with rheumatism in his back, arms and shoulders, read an item in his paper and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and how it had cured me. He got a bottle and it cured them up in a week. 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

AGAINST QUAY COUNTY.

Final Movement in the Contest to Secure a Veto.

A meeting will be held on Monday, in the office of Hon. C. N. Brumm, to organize a movement to assist the Commissioners in their efforts to induce the Governor to veto the new county. Burt W. Payne, chairman of the Republican County Committee, has addressed a letter to each of the Senators and Representatives of this county requesting their presence at the meeting. The letter is as follows:

"It has been suggested that the Senators and Representatives meet at Pottsville next Monday, 10 o'clock A. M. at the office of Hon. C. N. Brumm, for the purpose of agreeing upon the final movement to be undertaken by them in order to assist the Commissioners in their effort to have the New County bill vetoed. I think the suggestion a good one, and have sent a note to each one requesting his attendance, and shall be pleased to have you make it convenient to be on hand. I think there are some things that may be suggested at such a meeting that may be of assistance in this matter, and we should get together and talk them over."

I have two little grand children who are teething this hot weather and are troubled with bowel complaint. I give them Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and it acts like a charm. I earnestly recommend it for children with bowel troubles. I was myself taken with a severe attack of blood flux, with cramps and pains in my stomach, one-third of a bottle of this remedy cured me. Within twenty-four hours I was out of bed and doing my house work. Mrs. W. I. Dunagan, Bonanza, Hickman County, Tenn. For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.
