Evening Herald.

TUESDAY, JUNE 18, 1895.

THE waste paper nuisance still continues and it can only be abated by the arrest of the parties who continue to defy the borough ordinance.

THE two Polish military companies make a very creditable appearance when on street parade. Our jealousy will be pardoned when we say that 'tis a pity we haven't got a company in the National Guard to share the glory.

PARENTS should exercise the greatest diligence in preventing their children from handling matches. An urchin of town almost set a half-completed house on fire the other day with a match and some shavings.

IT now looks as if our patriotic citizens intend to outdo their efforts of past years in the celebration of Independence Day, and it is only right that they should. Of all the holidays on our calendar the Fourth of July should be the one on which the people should give their patriotic pride and spirit full play. Let all get down to work and make the day one to be long remembered.

THE unlimited use of our public thoroughfares by cattle and swine naturally affords much room for comment on the part of visitors to the town. They frequently ask if it is not prohibited and the only reply that can be made is that it is prohibited by ordinances, but the officials would enforce them, and there is no pound for the animals should the ordinances be enforced.

THE majority of the trips the local fire department has been obliged to make during the past two years have been due to fires caused by fools smoking while lying in bed. The evil practice does not seem to diminish, in spite of the fact that a man lost his life a few weeks ago through a fire arising from the same cause. It may be fun for the smokers who escape injury, but it is not such for the firemen. Some day they will catch one of the fools in the act and throw him out of a window and under the nozzle of a hose.

OUR WARSHIPS AT KIEL.

THEY will be elaborately decorated with incandescent electric lights.

HAMBURG, June 18.—There has been an enormous influx of visitors here to view the ceremonies and spectacles incident upon the opening of the Baltic North Sea canal at Kiel.

The American men-of-war at Kiel will be illuminated by electricity every night during their stay at that port. It is intended that the cruiser New York shall be provided with incandescent lights and each of the remaining three ships of Admiral Kirkland's fleet will have about 1,500, besides the usual powerful search lights.

The incandescent lights will be arranged in brilliant designs, each vessel carrying around the pilot house an immense shield representing the American coat-of-arms, the red and white bars and the stars on a blue background being produced by electric bulbs. This shield will be 16 feet high and will extend back on each side of the pilot house 24 feet. Around the stern of each ship will be displayed its name in large electric letters.

In addition incandescent lights will be strung along each vessel's stem and stern from the water to the deck, and along the deck rail from end to end on both sides. The hull of each ship will thus be completely outlined, another row of lights being run along the water line, and other lines being run up the masts and down the sidestays and up and down around the smoke stacks. The United States men-of-war will also make elaborate displays of fireworks during the progress of the fete.

THE COLLEGE ATHLETES

The Challenge of Oxford and Cambridge Arrives by Cable.

THE MEN OF HARVARD DISPLEASED

They Will Probably Refuse to Participate in a Series of College Contests Which Excludes the University of Pennsylvania and Other Colleges.

LONDON, June 18.—The challenges sent by the athletic clubs of Oxford and Cambridge universities to the athletic clubs of Yale and Harvard universities were posted on Monday last week, and left for New York on June 13 by the White Star line steamer Germania, due to reach that port on June 20. Although two challenges were sent, they are identical in wording. One copy was sent to the captain of the Yale Athletic club and another one to Harvard.

The challenges suggest the following events: One hundred yards dash; quarter mile run; half mile run; three mile run and mile run; hurdle races, 130 yards, one according to English rules and one according to American rules; high jump; long jump; hammer throw, and weight putting.

HARVARD MAY DECLINE.

Objects to Other American Colleges Being Excluded from the Contests.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 18.—A representative of the Associated Press delivered to Professor Ames, chairman of the athletic committee of Harvard college, a copy of the challenge sent by the Oxford and Cambridge universities of England to Yale and Harvard as representatives of America. Professor Ames read the challenge fully and then said:

"I cannot give you my opinion as to what the outcome of this challenge will be, in view of the fact that I will be called upon to pass upon it officially, and it would not be just the thing for me to make a statement for publication until the matter has been considered and disposed of by the athletic committee with the decision in question rests. A special meeting of the committee will be called at once to pass upon this challenge, and I think the matter should be decided within a day or two."

Captain Bingham, of the Harvard track athletic team, and President Crompton, of the Athletic association, are not in Cambridge. Neither could any of the other members of the athletic committee be found who would be quoted. The Associated Press can state, however, that there is but very little chance that Harvard will accept the challenge as it stands, and participate in an international meeting with Yale as the only other representative of the American colleges. This is not because of the present strained relations between Yale and Harvard in football, but because Harvard's athletic advisers believe that she cannot justly accept the challenge and ignore other colleges which Harvard men believe are entitled to consideration.

Harvard is very anxious to have some of her men meet the English athletes in an international meeting, but as she now holds third place in the Intercollegiate association, Yale being in first place and the University of Pennsylvania second, the athletic authorities believe that it would be very bad policy to ignore the University of Pennsylvania and the other major colleges, and accept the present challenge.

Harvard men believe that an international meeting of college athletes should only be arranged according to one of three propositions. First, that the winner of a meeting between Oxford and Cambridge should meet the two leading colleges in America. Second, that the two leading colleges of England would meet the two leading colleges of America. Third, that if the Englishmen wish Harvard to be represented in an international meeting Oxford and Cambridge would meet the three leading colleges of America, Harvard being thus included, or if the challengers so desire, the third college in England might also be represented in the team from the other side.

This feeling is all due to the fact that Oxford and Cambridge ignored the challenge of the Intercollegiate association. The University of Pennsylvania men suggested this challenge and feel hurt because it has been refused. Other colleges in the association are now much agitated because of the counter challenge which has come from the other side and which ignores them entirely. Harvard is friendly with the University of Pennsylvania and with other colleges in the association and believes that it would be bad policy and an injustice to accept this challenge. Harvard's answer to the proposition will undoubtedly be transmitted to the Yale authorities within a few days, and if the latter have no suggestion to make it will then be forwarded to England.

THE YALE MEN EAGER.

Evidently Anxious for a Contest with English College Athletes.

NEW HAVEN, June 18.—The full text of the challenge from Oxford and Cambridge to Yale and Harvard was deputed to Sherman Day, the newly elected president of the Yale Athletic association, by the Associated Press, Oxford and Cambridge having availed themselves of that means of rapid communication. President Day said:

"While it is impossible for me to state definitely at this time what will be done, I can see no reason why it should not be accepted. When the challenge has been received the matter will then come up before our association for official consideration. We shall then inform our alumni, and will be largely governed by their advice. I presume that our association will advise with the Harvard Athletic association, but all this depends on circumstances. It is likely that the whole matter of dealing with the challenge will be referred to the Union Track Athletic Club association, and in that case it will be taken out of the hands of the undergraduates. I do not wish to say anything at this time that will prejudice Yale's position in the future, but I can say this much: That Yale is perfectly willing to take part in the proposed games."

The track arrangements for the Yale contingent will probably be under the direction of Mr. Day and S. K. R. Wade, president of the '05 association. As to how the Harvard-Yale team will be selected, President Day said that any statement at this time would be mere speculation.

The Distinguished Invalids.

WASHINGTON, June 18.—Representative Hitt and Miss Mary A. Dodge (Gail Hamilton) are reported by their physicians as doing very well. The former set up for a time during yesterday afternoon.

Narcoti-Cure

Cures the Tobacco Habit

IN 4 TO 10 DAYS

OR MONEY REFUNDED.

Use All The Tobacco You Want Till Your "Craving" is Gone.

NARCOTI-CURE is the only remedy in the world that acts directly on the nerves and drives the nicotine from the system in from four to ten days. It leaves the patient in better health than before taking, and is warranted free from any injurious ingredients.

NARCOTI-CURE is popular because it allows the patient to use all the tobacco he wants while under treatment, or until the "craving" and "hankering" are gone. It is then no sacrifice to throw away tobacco forever.

NARCOTI-CURE is sold at the uniform price of $5.00 a bottle, and one bottle cures.

Money refunded if a cure is not effected when taken according to directions.

Gentlemen—Replying to yours of the 1st, would say that I have used tobacco for 46 years, and of late have consumed a pound a day, besides smoking considerably. I commenced to use tobacco when I was only 11 years old, and have never been able to give up the habit, and I feel smoking became unpleasant. I have tried other so-called remedies without effect. After using your remedy four days, all "hankering" for chewing disappeared, and in four days after smoking became unpleasant. I have no further desire for the weed, and experienced no bad effects, what ever. I am gaining in flesh, and feel better than I have for a long time. To all who wish to be free from the tobacco habit, I would say, USE NARCOTI-CURE.

Yours truly,
W. N. WAITE.
