Make Shenandoah the Attractive Point For the Fourth.

THE COMMITTEE WORKING.

Business Men Should See the Advantage of a Grand Celebration--It Will Draw Thousands of People to Town.

The finance committee of the joint committee will start out at once to collect contributions to the Fourth of July fund. The committee expect citizens to contribute liberally as quite a sum will be required to carry out the plans they have in view to make the Fourth the greatest and grandest ever seen in Shenandoah.

This town has an opportunity to present attractions which other towns proposing to celebrate have not thought of, and if our citizens will provide the means, the committees promise to do the rest. Every dollar contributed will be devoted to the objects and purposes of the celebration. Every dollar given will be a good investment and every resident of Shenandoah who desires to have the town stand at the head in its attractions, to induce the residents of the town to spend the glorious Fourth here, should not be niggardly in his contributions. He should not make the old worn-out excuse of hard times, but give freely and liberally. The coming celebration is in the hands of reputable citizens who have no object in view other than to make it a grand and glorious success.

Upon the amount contributed depends altogether whether or not certain features, which will eclipse all other attractions in the neighboring towns, will be accomplished. If the committee can carry out their proposed plans, there is not another town in the region which proposes to celebrate this year, which will have anything like the attractions Shenandoah will present, either in originality, beauty or magnificence.

The committee does not believe it wise or prudent to "give away" the many and varied attractions they have in hand, but with the necessary means provided a program will be presented in due time which will astonish and delight every man, woman and child in Shenandoah. When the finance committee calls on you, give twice as much as you intended to and you will not regret it.

It is not at all unlikely that some of our neighboring towns may after all decide to join with Shenandoah and participate in making the day especially glorious. There are already hints given out that a big celebration--on a grand scale--is 100 per cent. more gratifying in every way than a miserable, miserly affair which is forgotten as soon as over.

Steps are being taken to crystallize these rumors into reality, and it would not be altogether surprising if, in our parade, there were entire divisions entirely devoted to towns which had concluded to join in with us to celebrate the great national holiday of the year. Perhaps the coming celebration will be one of constant surprises.

The various committees are actively at work. All are imbued with great enthusiasm and zeal. Everything is working harmoniously to a general, grand and good result, and it would seem that for once a public enterprise was going ahead smoothly and without any bickering or backbiting.

Injured in the West.

A letter received from Des Moines, Ia., states that Isaac Connick was dangerously injured in the mines at that place. Mr. Connick was a resident of this town until a short time ago and his wife conducted the W. C. T. U. coffee house on North Main street. He became interested in one of the soft coal mines of Des Moines and went out there to operate the place. Full particulars of the accident are not given, but it is gleaned from the letter that Mr. Connick fell from the bucket when descending the shaft and sustained a fracture of an ankle and internal injuries. The distance he fell is not stated. The shaft is 140 feet deep.

TERRORED BY A DOG.

Four Men and Two Horses Bitten in Mahanoy City.

A rabid dog had the people of Mahanoy City terrorized yesterday afternoon and before it was shot and killed bit four men and two horses. The dog ran through the streets pursued by men and boys on foot, horseback, in wagons, carriages and on bicycles, who kept up a running fire with guns and pistols. W. A. Bensing and William Patterson put shots into the animal, but it did not give up until it reached a part of the town known as Pleasant Hill, when it was shot and killed by John Eichenman. The dog first took a piece out of the calf of John Shock's left leg and then attacked Garfield Shaffer, tearing his right leg in a frightful manner. Shaffer was riding a bicycle. A horse belonging to the Citizens' Fire Company was the third victim. It was bitten on a hind leg. Jos. Becker was bitten on the right ankle and the dog made a spring for his throat. Charles Fisher, coal inspector at the Jig House, was bitten on the right leg and left arm. A horse belonging to Charles Dieter was bitten on a front leg. It was also reported that three Polish men who could not be located had also been bitten by the dog.

The Sewer Contract.

The roads and highways committee of the Borough Council received four responses to its advertisement for proposals for the extension of the Emerick street sewer. The bids were as follows: Philip Miller, $205; Evan J. Davies, $200; Michael Heffron, $164; Owen Brennan, $135. The bids were opened on Tuesday night and the contract was awarded to Brennan, but yesterday he threw it up, stating that he found the work could not be done at the figure he stated in his bid, and the committee then awarded the contract to Heffron, the next lowest bidder. The sewer is to be eighty feet long and three feet wide and high. It is to have a flag stone bottom and the side walls are to be four feet high, one foot to be under ground and serve as a foundation. The Council will cover the sewer with planks. This covering is deemed sufficient, as there is but little traffic in the locality.

An Excellent Show.

Pawnee Bill's Wild West show pitched its tents on the Eastside flats, Thursday, and all day the grounds were swarmed with eager spectators. Both afternoon and evening performances were largely attended, and all were thoroughly pleased with the exhibition. All the different phases of frontier life were portrayed in a realistic and thrilling manner, and for an exhibition of its kind it is the best that ever visited Warren. The daring riding and feats of horsemanship exhibited by Indians, cowboys and Mexicans, was of a high order, and filled the hearts of all with admiration. The boomerang throwing by the Australian bushmen was a novel feature and deserving of special commendation. In short the entire performance from start to finish was excellent, and held the closest attention of the large audiences. --Warren, Pa., Mirror. At Shenandoah, July 4th.

THE NEWS GLEANINGS.

Michael Kane Wins His Suit at Pottsville.

CUTTING DOWN THE STS

Chief Burgess Burns Shoots a Big Dog That Bit a Boy--Isaac Connick Dangerously Injured in a Western Mine.

Among the Shenandoah cases tried at the Pottsville court yesterday was one in which Mrs. D. J. Doyle appeared as prosecutrix and Michael Kane was defendant. The charge was that Kane had assaulted Mrs. Doyle's son, Thomas. The boy alleges that Kane hit him and knocked him down. Several witnesses were called for the prosecution.

Kane, in his own behalf swore, that he had been employed to watch the ruins of the recent big fire and prevent people from stealing remnants from the ruins. He ordered young Doyle from the place several times and finally took hold of his arm to walk him away. Doyle broke the hold and, in running, tripped over some obstruction and fell. The boy then arose and fired a stone at Kane, at the same time using foul language.

Kane produced witnesses to substantiate his version of the affair, but before M. M. Burke, Esq., counsel for the defendant, concluded his case Judge Savidge directed the jury to render a verdict of not guilty, which was done. The court left the question of costs to the jury and they were put on the county, but before finally disposing of the case Judge Savidge called for the bill of costs and struck off the fees and mileage of all the witnesses for the prosecution except those of Mr. G. W. Hyde, thus reducing the amount to be sustained by the county to a minimum.

Shot the Dog.

A large Newfoundland dog owned by Charles Dunderka, of West Coal street, yesterday bit the seven-year-old son of Patrick Purcell in the leg, inflicting an ugly wound. Chief Burgess Burns was appealed to and he and Mr. Purcell took the animal on the mountain and shot it. The animal was a monster, weighing about 150 pounds.

Set Fire to His Whiskers.

A man, loaded to the neck and wearing a feather bed about his face, was badly frightened last evening while dozing at the Reading station. A young man put a lighted match to his whiskers and with "Bendish glue" watched the fun. It came, and it reminded one that the glorious Fourth is soon at hand. It would have taken several boxes of fire crackers to have caused as much racket as that match.--Shamokin Dispatch.

NERE MENTION.

Jennie, the three year old daughter of James F. Hill, of Mahanoy City, was almost choked to death by a large button. The child had been playing around the house and picking up the button put it in her mouth. The neighbors were called in by the mother and, fortunately, they succeeded in dislodging the button.

Mrs. John Mullery, of Mahanoy City, while walking around her home in her stocking feet, tramped on a large needle which penetrated her left foot to a distance of one-half an inch and broke off. The foot immediately began to swell and the lady is now unable to walk.
