Evening Herald.

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 1893.

THE signs of good times are plentiful. A few months ago there were about a dozen empty store rooms on Main street.

THE origin of the big fire in town is still a mooted question. The busybodies and know-alls still keep up the agitation.

THE last big fire was a blessing in disguise. After much display of patience (perhaps impatience would be the better term) and many disappointments, the fire companies are to receive a new supply of hose and improved connections.

THERE should be no rookeries on the main streets of the town. The owners of those that remain can well afford to tear them down and put on their sites buildings more in accord with modern ideas of comfort, safety and convenience.

YOU can cut the green, stagnant water along the Lehigh Valley railroad in the vicinity of the 'rocks' with a knife. Passengers on the trains say the odor that pervades the cars when they pass that point is sickening.

COMING EVENTS. July 4.—Ice cream and fruit festival for benefit of the Primitive Methodist church.

July 4.—Grand reunion picnic of the people of Schuylkill, Quay, Carbon and Columbia counties at Lakeside.

July 17.—Ice cream festival in Robbins' Opera House under the auspices of the 'Y'.

READY FOR ALL WORK. The Herald has made ample arrangements for a continuance of its extensive business in the job printing line.

Bicycle riders, foot ball players and athletes, generally, find a sovereign remedy for the sprains and bruises, and cuts to which they are constantly liable, in Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

TERRORIZED BY A MAD DOG. A Newfoundland dog believed to have been mad was killed at Mahanoy City, yesterday afternoon, after he had bitten a number of people.

THE CIRCUS. Phenomenal male and female bareback riders, marvelous gymnasts and athletes, sensational chariot and jockey races, rare zoological wonders and extraordinary and remarkable curios are among the attractions of the Sands & Astley shows.

NO HOPE FOR GOVERNOR ATKINSON. ATLANTA, June 20.—At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the physicians in attendance upon Governor Atkinson announced that he was rapidly sinking, but about 7 o'clock a slight change for the better occurred in the patient's condition.

A Noble Charity. WINSTON, N. C., June 20.—Mr. Turff, a philanthropist of Boston, has purchased 4,000 acres of land near Southern Pines, on which he will erect 500 cottages for the benefit of persons suffering with consumption.

THE FIGHT FOR SILVER.

The White Metallists Active at the Cleveland Convention.

BOTH SIDES SHOW THEIR COLORS.

Yellow Badges Predominate, but Those Who Wear White Badges Are Still Undiminished—Friends of Presidential Aspirants Actively at Work.

CLEVELAND, June 20.—The opening session of the eighth national convention of Republican clubs adjourned at 1 p. m. yesterday until 10 a. m. today, after disposing of all preliminaries and routine matters.

The committee on credentials had considerable argument over the South Carolina contest. The committee on league rules, rules and order of business had nothing unusual. The committee on time and place selected Milwaukee as the place for the next national convention.

There was a movement to conclude the work with the banquet tonight, but the agitation before the committee on resolutions during the afternoon and evening developed such differences that it is not likely the convention will close before tomorrow.

As it is known that Governor McKinley cannot get here until tomorrow morning, there is a general desire to wait for him till that time, and some charge that his friends are seeking to prolong the proceedings so as to have a big McKinley day tomorrow.

The presidential booms are being looked after as carefully as ever. The Iowa delegates keep open house for Allison, and the Hoosiers are quietly keeping Harrison in mind, while the New England delegates use the Blaine tactics for Reed.

It was conceded yesterday that the two leading offices would be divided between the gold and silver men by making General McAlpin, of New York, president, and John Byrnes, of Denver, secretary, but today it is proposed to refer the selection of a secretary to the executive board.

The feature of yesterday was the silver fight before the committee on resolutions. The committee organized, with Congressman J. B. Robinson, of Pennsylvania, as chairman, and H. G. Knowles, of Delaware, as secretary. The organization was against the silverites, but the latter were not discouraged and opened up the fight from the start.

The silver men were offered, also other silver resolutions. The opponents of free silver offered the financial plank of 1892; also the recent Ohio plank adopted at Zanesville last month.

The compromise resolution attracting most attention was presented by Senator J. M. Thurston, of Nebraska, as follows: "We approve the declaration of the last Republican convention that the American people from tradition and interest favor bimetalism, and the Republican party demands the use of both gold and silver as a standard money, with such restrictions and under such provisions to be determined as will secure the maintenance of the parity of values of the two metals, so that the purchasing and debt paying power of the dollar, whether of silver, gold or paper, shall be at all times equal, and refer the action for a more specific declaration to the next Republican convention, which alone has the power to bind the party or make platforms and declare principles."

There was no discussion of the tariff or any other issues in the committee of forty members except that of the silver plank, and no differences of opinion except on the silver question. Nearly all the members of the committee were instructed on the silver question by their respective state delegations, so that it will not be difficult to adopt a report. Still it is conceded that these instructions make it almost certain that both majority and minority reports will be presented to the convention. The silver men still have confidence in their strength among the delegates, although a majority of the committee is against them.

WINSTON, N. C., June 20.—Mr. Turff, a philanthropist of Boston, has purchased 4,000 acres of land near Southern Pines, on which he will erect 500 cottages for the benefit of persons suffering with consumption.
