The Assassin's Bullet Proves Fatal.
SCRANTON, Pa., June 20.—William Girb, who was shot here Tuesday night, died in the Lackawanna hospital yesterday. He told the police that the shooting occurred in an open field in the northern part of the city, and that after passing an unknown man and woman, who were sitting in the field, the man followed and shot him. The police doubt this story, and are working on the theory that Girb, who was a married man, was in the field with a woman, and that the shooting arose out of that fact.

A FREE FIGHT IN THE CHAMBERS.

Socialists Precipitate a Hand to Hand Conflict and Compel the Adjournment of the Chamber in Disorder—A Duel Being Arranged Between Deputies.

ROME, June 20.—The Italian deputies had an excited debate yesterday over a Socialist motion to extend general amnesty to those persons condemned by court martial. Premier Crispi, amid interruptions, said that the right of pardon was a royal prerogative, and the chamber could not grant it. The Socialists he said: "When the time comes to recommend prisoners to the king's clemency the government will think not only of the leaders, in whom alone you are interested, but will think of all those who really suffer."

A quarrel then broke out in the chamber, which Socialists finally led in a fluster and a general tumult, amid which the sitting was suspended. When it was resumed the president ordered an inquiry into the incident, with a view to inflicting punishment. A duel is being arranged between Deputies Deandris and Casale.

At a meeting of the majority in the chamber last night, 299 deputies being present, Premier Crispi declared that the incident proved the necessity of new regulations for the chamber. A resolution was adopted that Deputy Cibrario should present a motion to the chamber that this was the sense of the majority, and should demand that it be voted upon forthwith.

The Rome correspondent of the London Times telegraphs that paper as follows: "Today's scene in the chamber was disgraceful. An actual combat, in which the entire extreme left and most of the adjoining section of the chamber soon participated, occurred and the staircase leading to the upper benches was soon densely packed with a fighting crowd. There seems a consensus of opinion that the president of the chamber is incompetent to direct its proceedings."

France and Venezuela.

CARACAS, Venezuela, June 20.—The government has given out that there is every prospect of an early settlement of the difficulties pending between this country and France, and from reliable sources, assert just the contrary, and intimate that if England and France do not make common cause against this country it is more than likely that France will help England claim, and recognize them as just. A semi-official telegram received last evening from Washington announced that the secretary of state would follow up the policy of the late Secretary Gresham and will finish a new interpretation of the Monroe doctrine which the late secretary had in study.

Inspector McLaughlin's Sentence.

NEW YORK, June 20.—Judge Barrett, in the court of oyer and terminer, sentenced Police Inspector William W. McLaughlin, convicted of extortion, to two years and six months in state's prison. Subsequently an order to show cause why a stay should not be granted pending an appeal was made by Justice Gaynor in this city. The order was made returnable on Saturday in Brooklyn.

Hayward Gets a Stay.

MINNEAPOLIS, June 20.—The Hayward case was presented to the judges yesterday in Chambers, and a stay of thirty days was granted upon condition that the case be argued this term, which ends July 3. He has already expressed himself as being opposed to any unnecessary delay if he is to be tried.

THREW AWAY THE BELT

Mr. Wm. Thornton of 127 W. Market Street Explains How and Why He Did It.

(From the Elmira Gazette.)

Old age has many infirmities, none of which are more prevalent than kidney disorders. Have you ever noticed how the old people complain of backache, lame back, and general listlessness? And here are many other symptoms of which they do not speak, such as bloating of the limbs, painful and infrequent urination or excessiveness of urinary discharge. Most people think they are too old to find relief and cure, but this is not so. No better evidence than the following, which comes from an Elmira citizen, who has been cured of a very severe case at 77 years of age. Mr. Wm. Thornton of 127 West Market Street, speaks of his case in this way: "I am 77 years old. I have been afflicted with that dreaded complaint (kidney disease) for over ten years, making my old age a burden. I was bad as to be forced to carry a belt at all times, and when my suffering became beyond endurance, I would put on the belt drawing it tightly around me and buckle it, thus bringing an extreme pressure over the kidneys; this, undoubtedly, forced the urine out, a function which the kidneys themselves had become too diseased to perform. My condition I put down to a strain I received. I began taking Doan's Kidney Pills. After two or three days I noticed their effect. I was much surprised, as the ailment was so severe and so long standing, while I had tried many remedies without any relief whatever. The pain I have experienced at times from straining in my efforts to discharge the urine was simply awful. I have done away with the use of my leather belt, and the pain has all gone, and I recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all afflicted with kidney and urinary disorders."

She doesn't care how much they fuss, or how she knows she's all right. And, even as they grumble they find. Must own she's out of sight. So here's to the sweet little girl, in bloomers or in skirts. She's worth a dozen of the girls that lounge around and flirt; And here's a wish for Bishop Cox, a-ralling on the fence. That he may live and grow in grace. THE KIEL CELEBRATION.

The Town Crowded with Visitors from All Parts of Germany.

EMPEROR WILLIAM FOR PEACE

The German Ruler's Significant Description at a Banquet in Hamburg—Description of the Great Canal Which Cost the German Government $38,500,000.

KIEL, June 20.—All day long yesterday there was a ceaseless incoming of trains hither on the railroads, each one filled to the last inch of available space with eager humanity. Visitors have flocked in thousands in the streets of the town and in the harbor, and every place is overflowing with people. The main streets are almost impassable with the streams of men, women and children.

The crews of the American, French, Austrian, Roumanian and Spanish warships were allowed shore leave. The Austrians, as the representatives of one of the chief objects of the triple alliance, were the powers in interest to the spectators. Pleasure steamers, loaded to their utmost capacity with crowds of sightseers, made numberless trips all day in the harbor, each one going the rounds of all the warships, which are the central feature in the great spectacle. Each pleasure steamer as they came abreast a man-of-war exchanged cheers with the jolly tars on board, and none of them ever seemed to grow weary.

The Empress Augusta of Germany arrived here at 8 o'clock last evening, and was received at the station with great ceremony and driven to the Schloss amid salvos of artillery and the cheering of the multitude which lined all the streets. The great event at Hamburg yesterday was the arrival of Emperor William, who reached the city at 4:15, accompanied by a staff brilliant in uniforms. A company of the Hamburg regiment, with band and banner, rendered military honors at the station, where also the entire senate and burgomasters of the republic and Hanse City of Hamburg were in attendance. After the reception at the station the company was driven in open state carriages through the principal streets of Hamburg. In the evening there was a banquet at the Rathaus, with the emperor as the principal figure. Burgomaster Lehman welcomed the emperor to Hamburg in a patriotic address, and the emperor responded in a brief speech, in concluding which he said:

"We have cast a glance upon the eternal sea. Let us now direct our looks to the sea of the people's hearts. All nations uplift themselves to us here today with a questioning look. They need and desire peace. In peace alone can the world's commerce expand. In peace alone can it thrive, and peace we shall uphold."

At the banquet the number of guests at his majesty's table was sixty-four; the total number of guests, including the members of the diplomatic corps, who dined in a separate room, was 600. The varied uniforms of the guests, the contrasting colors, the profusion of military and other decorations, and the general aspect of stately magnificence and power presented a splendid spectacle. The great canal which joins Baltic sea to the German ocean was eight years in building, and cost $38,500,000. It intersects the peninsula of Schleswig-Holstein from Brunsbuttel, near the mouth of the Elbe, to Holtmau, on the Koll bay and opposite that city, a distance of about fifty-nine miles. The entrances at both terminals have been provided with dock gates for the passage of vessels both entering or leaving the canal. At the Kiel end the gates will be generally open. At the Brunsbuttel end they will be opened in normal weather during flood tide for a period of three or four hours each day. Each of the gates is 27 1/2 yards wide, and the space enclosed by its walls is 164 yards in length. The lowest possible depth of water at Brunsbuttel end is almost five fathoms and at Holtmau a trifle more. The whole canal is lighted by electricity, and the light furnished is powerful enough to enable navigators to plainly discern the route by night. At all those points where the canal runs through small lakes and ponds, of which quite a number lie along the route, the buoys are lighted by gas. Steam tugs are stationed at each main gate to the canal to assist the passage of vessels, and inside the gates are harbors for the accommodation of vessels which have to wait for passage. At the lowest possible water the canal has a depth of four and a half fathoms. The breadth at the bottom of the canal is twenty-four and one-tenth yards. At several points the canal is crossed by movable bridges, which, when opened, leave a free space of fifty-four and one-fourth yards. There are also a number of ferries. The men of the German ironclads Heimdall and Hagen regaled the American and Danish sailors at the Waldweiz restaurant on Tuesday. Yesterday the crews of the German ironclads Sachsen and Wurtemberg desired to similarly compliment the crews of the French men-of-war Hoche and Dupuy Delonay, but the French admiral declined to allow the Frenchmen to go on shore, explaining that the French crews are not permitted to land during their presence in Kiel harbor.

Missouri's Coming Silver Convention.

If State Chairman Maffitt refuses to do so, Chairman Ferris announces that he will issue the call, backed by a majority of the county chairmen.

To Assail Rosebery's Government.

LONDON, June 20.—The Standard this morning states that it bears that the Unionists meditate moving a vote of no confidence in the government. The Times in an editorial suggests the same thing, and says that the government is almost certain to be defeated on a well chosen issue. "If the Unionists are to grasp the opportunity presented to them," says The Times, "a heavy responsibility will rest upon both the leaders and followers."
