BIG RACE POSTPONED.

Everything Favorable for a Great Aquatic Event

WHEN AN ACCIDENT PREVENTED IT

The Shell of the Pennsylvania Crew Throws Against Their Boat House Floot and Broken, Necessitating a Postponement Until Monday Evening Next.

POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 22.—The wash of a passing tug yesterday afternoon smashed the shell of Pennsylvania's crew against their boat house floot, as the men were getting away for the start of their four mile race with the eight of Cornell and Columbia. One of the aquatic trio being thus disabled, the two others determined to defer the contest until next Monday evening, so that Pennsylvania might mend her wounded shell and take part in the struggle for which each has been for weeks in preparation. Thousands of spectators went away disappointed. None, however, of all who came to see, are so bitterly chagrined as are the local committeemen, who had brought all preparations to the point that left nothing more to be done save the racing.

Steam craft must, and would ply the river before the race and the racing craft in the hands of their crews must obviously be at their own risk until the start. The wash that crushed Pennsylvania's shell is said to have come from the large tug in which Governor Morton came down the river from his Rhinebeck home to view the great race. The tug, however, be it the governor's or not, was on the far side of the river from the Pennsylvania boat house, and her crew were at least unfortunate in not having secured their shell from the oncoming roller.

Great as the story of the day might have been had there been a race, it is in view of the unfortunate termination easily told. The water conditions during the entire day were good for racing. Save for a brief season in the afternoon, when the wind made a lumpy sea, the surface of the river could not have been more suited to the oar blades. A still, muggy morning, while trying to humanity, left the water in oily smoothness. A haze hung on the hills and on the water until late in the afternoon, when rain freshened and cleared the air. In short, everything was propitious for a great race when the unfortunate accident happened which necessitated the postponement.

Purvis to be Hanged Again.

JACKSON, Miss., June 22.—Will Purvis, the Marion county whitecapper, has been resented to hang. Purvis was convicted of killing a young man who had given evidence against whitecaps, and sentenced to death. The day for the execution came and thousands assembled to witness the hanging. But the sheriff for some reason or other was not equal to the emergency. The rope was tied so that when the drop fell the noose slipped, and Purvis went to the ground like a chunk of lead instead of dangling in mid-air. The sheriff made as if he would try it again, but the crowd surged around him prevented his movements, so that the condemned man was taken back to jail, where he has since remained. His lawyers claimed that the law had been vindicated; but Judge Terrell ruled otherwise, and sentenced him to be hanged again on July 31.

A Fugitive Bank Cashier's Confession.

BALTIMORE, June 22.—W. J. Zlorich, the decamping cashier of the Milligan State bank, at Milligan, Neb., arrested here, has made a confession to a news paper representative. He said: "There is a law in Nebraska that prohibits an officer or stockholder in a bank from borrowing or loaning over 30 per cent. of a bank's capital. I had borrowed more than the 30 per cent. I borrowed about $17,000, and did so largely by means of fictitious or accommodation notes. I owe the Milligan bank less than $1,000. I will go back without any fuss."

Fatal Floods in Hungary.

LONDON, June 22.—A dispatch to the Daily News says that severe thunder storms have occurred in Austria-Hungary, accompanied by floods, in which many persons were drowned. The crops were severely injured. Prince Ratibor's villa, at Buda Pesth, was burned to the ground, the fire having been caused by lightning.

Dynamite Exploded by Lightning.

KINGWOOD, W. Va., June 22.—Near Tunnelton, about 9 o'clock last night, lightning struck a dynamite magazine. An awful explosion followed. Several persons were killed and much property destroyed.

If it required an annual outlay of $100,000 to insure a family against any serious consequences from an attack of bowel complaint during the year there are many who would feel it their duty to pay it; that they could not afford to risk their lives, and those of their family for such an amount. Any one can get this insurance for 25 cents, that being the price of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.
