

THE KENTUCKY CONTEST.

Avy Struggle Between Friends and Opponents of Senator Blackburn.

LOUISVILLE, June 24.—Generals Hardin and Clay, leading candidates for the gubernatorial nomination at the Democratic state convention tomorrow, and all the other candidates who have been here some days, were joined yesterday by many of the delegates, among the latter being Senator Jas. Blackburn, who is working for the chairmanship of the committee on resolutions. Congressman McCreary aspires to the same chairmanship.

The all-absorbing topic is the resolution on the silver question. The committee on resolutions will consist of one member from each of the eleven congressional districts and two members-at-large appointed by the chairman of the convention. For this reason there is more contest than ever for the temporary organization. Congressman W. J. Stone and Albert S. Berry are most prominently mentioned for chairman, but neither the Clay nor the Hardin men will name their favorites for chairman.

Although Clay is called the gold candidate and Hardin the silver candidate, yet those lines are not strictly drawn on them, as are the lines of those who are against the administration. Mr. Van Zandt, Captain's private secretary, and Scott Nesbit, the new appointment clerk, are here, and they were followed from Washington by ex-Congressman Phil B. Thompson, who is enthusiastic for Senator Blackburn as chairman of the committee on resolutions.

AFFAIRS IN THE ORIENT.

Japan Tiring of the Effort to Civilize the Koreans.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The steamer Coptic arrived last night bringing the following advices from Yokohama, June 7: Although no international complications are apprehended on Formosa's account the latest Korean developments are justly regarded with grave anxiety. Count Inony, the Japanese representative at Seoul, has been recalled ostensibly to take part in consultations as to the future policy of Japan, but really, it is believed, to discuss the question of abandoning entirely the attempts to introduce social and political reforms into the corrupt monarchy.

Unless Count Inony is permitted to employ forcible means, his chances of gaining ascendancy are small. From the beginning Japan has declared her determination to act only as a friendly advisor to Korea, and any attempt to impose her authority by violence would be inconsistent with her professions and her true purpose. She hoped that the feeble country could be made capable of self government on civilized principles. She now finds that it wishes for nothing but to be left to its old misrule, and the outlook is full of difficulties. If the Japanese government gives up its task it leaves Korea at the mercy of Russia.

Tai Won Kun's grandson, recently banished for treason and complicity in murder, is reported to have died at his place of exile. Public opinion credits the queen of Corea with having caused him to be assassinated.

Sunday Riot in a Penitentiary.

LINCOLN, Neb., June 21.—A riot occurred yesterday among the convicts of the state penitentiary. The guards had thrown upon a tier of cells to let a squad out, when immediately an Italian convict named Scalessi dashed out, armed with a stiletto, which he had made of scrap iron, and savagely attacked a fellow convict named Sullivan. Scalessi fought like a demon, but he was worsted by Sullivan, who is a powerful man. The Italian then turned on a negro named Howard, who adroitly escaped the knife. Scalessi lunged at Costello, a guard, and cut him across the stomach, though not seriously. At this juncture all the liberated convicts and the guards joined in the melee. Every man who harbored a grudge against another took advantage of the opportunity to "get even." These convicts attacked the Italian, who extricated himself and fled. He soon ran afoul of Guard Dan Athen, who struck him on the head with a loaded cane, cutting a deep gash. The Italian was removed to the hospital.

The St. Louis Disabled.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The new American liner St. Louis met with an accident last Tuesday, June 18, when in about latitude 46.58, longitude 15.58. Some part of the steering apparatus cracked and it was necessary to use it with the utmost caution and discretion. Consequently the vessel was steered with her twin screws as far as practicable, until the lights were reached, when the rudder was again called into play. The total distance traversed was 3,123 miles, and the time of passage 7 days, 7 hours and 11 minutes.

Murdered on the Highway.

RALEIGH, N. C., June 24.—In Madison county Henry Holcombe, riding horseback with a woman behind him, met his nephew, Tom Chandler, who was in a wagon with two women. Holcombe playfully struck with his hat at Chandler, who caught Holcombe by the leg in the same spirit. Holcombe without a word drew his revolver and shot Chandler, the ball passing through his mouth and lodging in the back of his head. Chandler is dead. Holcombe escaped.

A Baptist Deacon Stages Robber.

UTAH, Cal., June 24.—David Oldham, a deacon in the Baptist church, has been arrested for robbing the Mendocino stage a week ago. He had as an accomplice a man named Hilton, who has confessed, implicating Oldham. The robbers secured $1,000, and the officers have recovered Hilton's share. Oldham stood well in the community, and the plan was for him to swear to an alibi for Hilton in case the latter was suspected.

HASTINGS' VETO POWER

May be Used on the Religious Gorb and Quay County Bills.

HARRISBURG, June 24.—The religious gorb bill will be taken up this week by Governor Hastings for final consideration. This measure has excited more interest than any other passed by the recent legislature. It is advocated by the patriotic societies, and strong pressure is being brought to bear upon the governor by these organizations to have the bill become a law. The governor was at first inclined to favor the proposition, but the opposition to it from the Mennonites and Dunkards is so pronounced that it is practically settled that he will veto it. These people claim that if the bill should become a law it would force their children out of the public schools because of the sturdiness which they wear. It is believed that the governor will take the broad ground that the bill is unconstitutional because it discriminates against certain religious sects.

The Quay county bill is also in danger of being vetoed. The general objection is that within the next twenty years the coal lands in the territory in Schuylkill and Luzerne counties, out of which it is proposed to create the new county, will be worked, and that the large population will be materially decreased. The governor's friends also say that the population in the proposed county is made up principally of foreigners, of whom not more than 10 per cent. pay taxes. When the mines are abandoned those people will drift to other localities, and the burdens of the county government will fall upon the agricultural classes.

Defiant Bishop Bonacum.

OMAHA, June 24.—The dispatch of Wednesday announcing the revocation by Mgr. Sattoli of the order of Bishop Bonacum, dispensing with the services of Father Fitzgerald, of South Anburn, and Father Murphy, of Tecumseh, is confirmed by the bishop. In a letter to these clergymen dated June 15 Bishop Bonacum recalls the order, but supplements it with another invalidating the priestly functions at noon July 15 unless they comply with certain conditions of a financial nature. Should they refuse compliance with the conditions imposed, the bishop says that he will take proper steps to remove them. The priests replied to the letter by demanding a retraction within five days, otherwise they will institute action against Bishop Bonacum in the papal court at Washington. An important point in the letter of the bishop is a reference to the propaganda, which indicates his purpose of ignoring the apostolic court.

Two Drowned in Harvey's Lake.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., June 24.—Louis McCarthy, aged 18 years, and Bow Harding, his cousin, aged 20, were drowned in Harvey's Lake yesterday morning under peculiar circumstances. They had been horseback riding, and drove their horses into the lake to water them. McCarthy's horse became frightened when in the water and threw its rider. McCarthy could not swim, and Harding, hearing his cries for help, dismounted and went to his rescue. McCarthy was the heavier man of the two and held on to his cousin with a death grip, from which Harding was unable to release himself. Before assistance could arrive both men sank in ten feet of water. Their bodies were recovered.

New York's Organized Firebugs.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Mr. Vernon M. Davis, the assistant district attorney, was seen at his house last night in reference to the firebugs who, it is alleged, have been firing buildings and securing the insurance money. Mr. Davis said there were no new developments in the case. He scouted the statement published in one of the papers that a member of the gang was employed in the district attorneys' office. He was equally emphatic in denying the story published in one of the Sunday papers which quotes Fire Marshal Mitchell as saying that several members of the firebug gang were employed in his office.

Walking Delegates Ordered Out of Town.

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J., June 24.—Two walking delegates from New York, members of a hat and cap workers' union, were ordered out of this city by Chief of Police Harding. A. Simonson had trouble with his workmen, which was due to the interference of the walking delegates. Simonson came to this city about a month ago to establish a branch. The delegates followed him. The local board of trade has agreed to stand by Simonson, and the outcome of the trouble will be awaited with interest.

Bank Robbers Still at Large.

DULUTH, Minn., June 24.—A party of officers came up with the Rainy Lake bank robbers near Crane Lake, not far from the Canadian boundary. After a lively exchange of shots the robbers escaped, and the chase was then abandoned. The officials of Canada have been notified to look out for the men. Cashier Butler, who was held up by the two men, arrived in Duluth to consult with the authorities in regard to the robbery.

No Protest Against Sattoli.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—An eminent Catholic ecclesiastic says of the recent Rome cable to the London Standard that Cardinal Gibbons had presented to the pope a protest of the American bishops against the continuance of Mgr. Sattoli's mission in the United States: "The American bishops have made no such protest, and the statement that Cardinal Gibbons or any one else is its bearer is an unqualified falsehood."

A Severe Sentence Awards Him.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—Alonzo J. Whitman, ex-mayor of Duluth, convicted of forgery in the superior court, will be sentenced next Friday. His sentence will undoubtedly be severe, as Judge Wallace, before whom Whitman was tried, is noted for severity to those convicted of felony. Whitman is confined in the county jail. Several other charges of forgery are pending against him.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

The Japanese flag was rehoisted at Pekin yesterday in honor of the Japanese minister's arrival. At Chicago yesterday the members of the home team were arrested for Sunday ball playing. They gave bail. For refusing to testify in the boodle investigation City Assessor Fred E. Farnsworth, of Omaha, was sent to jail for thirty days. Sheriff R. R. Grove, of Brownsville, Tenn., accidentally shot and killed his daughter, Susan, 24 years old, while carefully handling a revolver. Unusual skill as an artist led to the identification of C. H. Smith, a Wichita (Kan.) jailbird, as the murderer of Ed. Ott, near Wheaton, Ill., in December.

A SWARM OF THIEVES.

They Travel with the Sands and Astley Circus.

Beware of the army of snakes, bunco men and fakirs who belong to the Sands & Astley circus. The whole circus is a gambling institution says the Pottsville Journal warning the public of the danger that besets the man with a dollar in his pocket who goes to see the show. The manager and press agent are not to be trusted as both were arrested in Pottsville and if the public can not depend upon the chief officers for honest dealing, what must they think of the low cut-throats who operate under the canvas, yea, under the very eyes of the men who transact the business of the concern? But while the gullibles are being fleeced inside the canvas, another gang works the crowd on the outside and so numerous are the tricks and devices that one must be exceedingly wide awake not to fall into their clutches. The show is now at Shenandoah and we sincerely hope that the unwary to whom these lines are particularly addressed, will heed this warning and steer clear of the swarm of fakirs who are using the circus to give them a fruitful field for their operations. It is estimated that over three thousand dollars were filched from the pockets of the people through various gambling devices. Men who pretend to be shrewd and know all about the tricks of the professional gambler, were just as easily caught as those who never read the papers. The flim-flam game was worked on bank cashiers and new paper men. Of course the game did not work in all cases but the man who detected the trick, had been here before or encountered a banisher in the business.

The show arrived here from Tremont Saturday and gave two exhibitions at Yorkville. There were two rings in the main pavilion and a collection of animals in the tent as you enter. The side show is the headquarters for the fakirs. As soon as the doors opened in the afternoon the sharks ranged on either side of the canvas and snapped at everything in sight. The flim-flam man wanted change, or desired big money for small change, and everybody who accommodated him lost by the transaction. The vendors of red lemonade, candy, peanuts and cigars flummoxed the people on the seats. Out in the side show press agent J. N. Wisner, operated or assisted in operating a game called the "bee-hive." Fred. Schaal, the butcher, tried the list a game and lost $25 in a few minutes. That was all the money he had and represented the collections on a bill for meat supplied the circus. Then one of the bunco steers bluffed Schaal and told him he would give him $200 if he could show $100. Schaal left the tent and borrowed $100 from a friend near Seventh and Market streets. He hastened back greatly excited and the man who had made the offer was waiting for him. The fakir placed $200 in bills before Schaal and just then Clerk of the Courts Shortall appeared on the scene. The fakir then called upon Schaal to place his roll outside of the $200 pile which he did, not understanding that his friend Shortall, warned him not to do so. Then a confederate of the fakir suddenly grabbed the money and ran off with it. Wisner is the man accused of getting away with the money. Mr. Shortall several minutes later saw him seated in a trolley car and got a constable to arrest him just as the car started for Pottsville. Wisner was taken before Squire Beneman and held in $500 bail to answer the charge of gambling and cheating and defrauding.

Manager Clay tried to get the man out of the charge and called in several newspaper men to identify him at the present of the circus. But that little trick did not work. Wisner and Clay said it was an outrage, but sooner than be held on the charge they would reimburse Schaal at the ticket wagon. Constable Letzheiser took Wisner to the ticket wagon but came back without the prisoner or money. The officer said that Clay and several others took the prisoner from him and helped him to escape. Squire Beneman then issued a warrant for Clay's arrest, on the charge of conspiracy and aiding a prisoner to escape. After a long parley Clay gave the Squire $112.50 paid the costs and was allowed to go. The cost amounted to $3.24. Mr. Schaal thus recovered $112.50 and is just out 12.50.

Many of the victims did not squeal and rather than admit of their gullibility they bore their losses without telling anybody. Squire Dann, of Bruchdale, took his best girl to Tremont to see the show. He lost $25.00 on the bee-hive game and had to borrow money to get home. He swore out a warrant at Tremont for the arrest of the gambler but the constable let the prisoner escape. Squire Beneman and manager Clay settled by giving the Bruchdale justice $25 and paying costs of suit. William Brophy lost $7 in a shell game. George Jones the shell man who has visited Pottsville before settled by giving Brophy $4 and paying costs amounting to $3.24. Harry Chance was beaten out of $2 in a shell game and Jones said he was the man who did it. Chance got back $1.50. Jones paid the costs and a fine of $5 in each case Squire Beneman heard both cases.

CORNER STONES LAID.

Two Towns of the County Will Each Have a Handsome New Church.

A great crowd saw the corner stone of the Grace Evangelical Church, of Schuylkill Haven laid yesterday afternoon. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock and it was a happy day for the Evangelicals of that town. Rev. C. S. Haman, presiding elder of the district had charge of the services. Rev. Mr. Snyder, pastor of the church, Revs. H. W. Behn-y, of Pottsville, and J. Sterner, of Cresona, assisted in the laying of the stones. People from Cresona, Orwisburg, Pottsville and other places attended.

The new church will be an imposing and handsome structure, and United Evangelicals have worked very hard for their new building. St. John's German Lutheran Church, at Tamaqua, had its corner-stones laid during a specially prepared program yesterday. The services were started at 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon by Rev. Emil E. Hahnemann, pastor of the church. Rev. Prof. F. L. Sep, D. D., who is president of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania, and who is President of Mublenberg College, Allentown, preached a sermon in English, and Rev. Mr. Blain, of Summit Hill, and Rev. Mr. Strauss, of Lehighport, delivered sermons in German. A great many people from towns in the vicinity assembled to see the corner-stone laying. The new church will be a brick structure and will be modern in every detail.

Grand Jury Report.

The Grand Jury made its report Saturday. Following is the report: The Grand Jurors of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, inquiring for the County of Schuylkill, for June sessions, 1885, would respectfully report as follows: We have acted upon 120 bills of indictment which have been presented to us, of which number we have returned 45, as not true bills. Eight of the bills ignored charged felonies and 27 misdemeanors. In the bills ignored, charging misdemeanors, we have placed the costs in 35 cases on the prosecutor or prosecutrix and in two cases on the county. We have approved the report of viewers recommending the erection of a county bridge in the Township of Rush, Schuylkill county. We have visited the county prison and found everything at that institution, under the efficient management of Wardeu Brower, in good condition. We would respectfully call attention to the many accidents occurring throughout the county by electric railways. We think this a very serious matter, and some steps should be taken to prevent so many accidents, and perhaps loss of life. In conclusion we return thanks to the court and its officials, for courtesies shown and assistance rendered. All of which is respectfully submitted.
JACOB SEAMER, Foreman.
M. J. RYAN, Secretary.
